HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

In my letter dated August 2, 1963, information was set forth regarding a United Press International release issued on July 29, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, reporting that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., had agreed to submit to Attorney General Eugene Cook of Georgia an affidavit explaining the employment in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) of a man linked by Congressional committees with the Communist Party. The release stated that King sent an attorney to Cook's office to determine what the Attorney General wanted in connection with his inquiry into the relationship with the SCLC of Jack O'Dell. The release concluded with the statement "King said last week O'Dell had worked for SCLC on two occasions but his connections with the integration organization were severed for good last June 26." It is noted that the subject is also known as Jack O'Dell.

On August 16, 1963, a confidential source of the Bureau advised that King had been alerted by his assistant, Wyatt Tee Walker, to an article appearing in the Atlanta "Constitution" on August 16, 1963, regarding King's association with O'Dell. Walker told King that the article referred to a letter written by Georgia Attorney General Cook in which Cook stated that O'Dell is a known communist and in which Cook demanded an explanation from King as to why O'Dell was placed on King's staff.

COMM-FBI

King instructed Walker to reply to Cook's letter by stating that O'Dell, as of June 26, 1963, was no longer on King's staff. Cook was to be further advised that O'Dell came to him, King, through the Democratic Party of the Bronx, New York, and that King "has nothing to hide."

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Reference is made to my letter dated July 31, 1963, concerning an article in the July 25, 1963, issue of the Atlanta, Georgia, "Constitution" regarding Hunter Pitts O'Dell and entitled "Onetime Communist Organizer Heads Rev. King's Office in N.Y." My letter concluded that a telephone call to the office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in New York City on July 30, 1963, resulted in a statement by an unidentified female employee that Hunter Pitts O'Dell was no longer employed by the SCLC.

A United Press International release issued on July 29, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, reported that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., had agreed to submit to Georgia Attorney General Eugene Cook an affidavit explaining the employment in the SCLC of a man linked by Congressional committees with the Communist Party. The release states that King sent an attorney to Cook's office to determine what the Attorney General wanted in connection with his inquiry into the relationship with the SCLC of Jack O'Dell. The release further states that "King said last week O'Dell had worked for SCLC on two occasions but his connections with the integration organization were severed for good last June 26."

For your additional information in this regard, investigation by this Bureau's New York Office has developed information that, on July 2, 1963, and July 19, 1963, one "J. H. O'Dell" was the payee of checks in the amounts of $333.62 and $2,372.96, respectively, drawn by the SCLC. These checks were deposited to the account of Hunter Pitts O'Dell in a New York City bank.

On July 19, 1963, Charles Finnerty, Supervisor of the E. J. Creeden Company, 118 East 25th Street, New York City, the company which provides mailing service

Finnerty asked O'Dell to submit written instructions but O'Dell replied that he would get together with Finnerty when Finnerty returned from vacation on August 5, 1963. Finnerty had previously on July 17, 1963, telephoned and spoken to O'Dell at the New York Office of the SCLC.

On July 22, 1963, O'Dell visited the offices of the Creeden Company and turned over to Mrs. Dorothy Creeden, the company's secretary, a check for $200 to be credited to the account of the SCLC at the Creeden Company.

On July 31, 1963, a pretext telephone call to the New York Office of the SCLC was answered by a person identifying herself as Ruth Bailey. When asked if Hunter Pitts O'Dell was still employed by the SCLC, Ruth Bailey stated that she was not in a position to say. It is known that Ruth Bailey has been employed in the New York Office of the SCLC for some time; nevertheless, she commented to the person making the telephone call that she had not been employed by the SCLC very long.

Also on July 31, 1963, O'Dell was observed by Special Agents of this Bureau's New York Office entering the premises at 312 West 125th Street, New York City, which houses the New York Office of the SCLC. O'Dell remained for several minutes and then returned to his residence.

REQUEST FROM SENATOR MONRONEY

#mORI6
DECLASSIFIED BY SP JALM/JJG
ON 11-8-00

For your information, there is enclosed a copy of a letter dated July 12, 1963, received from Senator A. S. Mike Monroney which is self-explanatory. I have advised Senator Monroney by letter of this date that, in line with Departmental policy, I am referring his letter to you.

In substance, the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) is not able to assume a role of leadership in the racial unrest at this time. However, the Party is attempting to exploit the current racial situation through propaganda and participation in demonstrations and other activities wherever possible. Through these tactics, the Party hopes ultimately to progress from its current supporting role to a position of decisive leadership.

Much of the CPUSA's hope to play a more decisive role is linked with Stanley Levison's role as an advisor to Martin Luther King. Party officials regard Levison, a secret member of the CPUSA, as being engaged in the most important work in the Party today because of his association with King. Levison has reportedly stated that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly." Levison is reputed to have written the speech which King delivered at the convention of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) in Florida in December, 1961.

When King indicated in June, 1962, that he wanted another administrative assistant, Levison recommended Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who had been elected to the National Committee of the CPUSA in December, 1959, under the pseudonym Cornelius James. King accepted Levison's suggestion and employed O'Dell in his organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). [illegible] identified O'Dell as a communist in [illegible], 1962, King announced that O'Dell had resigned from the SCLC. However, O'Dell continues to associate with King to this

Recently, information received indicates that, while Levison still retains his strong communist convictions and still acts as an effective Party advisor to King, he is becoming critical of the Party's role in the relationship. He believes the Party has lost prestige among Negroes lately because it has not been sufficiently aggressive and effective in promoting civil rights for the Negro and otherwise actively immersing itself in Negro causes.

King reportedly attended a Labor Day weekend seminar in 1957 at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee. According to a publication circulated concerning this meeting by the Georgia Commission of Education, which allegedly had an undercover agent in attendance, the meeting was held to discuss methods and tactics for precipitating racial strife and disturbances. While CPUSA members were on the school staff and the school followed the policy of welcoming communist students, the CPUSA was not in control of the school.

In June, 1960, the SCLC was reported to have ~~[illegible]~~ solicited funds from the Soviet and Czechoslovakian Embassies and the Rumanian Legation in Washington, D. C.

See memo Blond to Sullivan 7-1-63 Same caption

In recent years, King has signed a petition urging abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and petitions requesting the release of two imprisoned Communist Party leaders.

NAACP officials are aware that the NAACP is a communist target. As a result, the NAACP has taken a firm stand against communism and has warned its branches to be constantly alert against communist efforts to infiltrate them. The constitution of the NAACP contains an anticommunist clause which prohibits membership in the organization by known Communist Party members.

There is no indication that any of the key figures of the NAACP are or have been members of the Communist Party. Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, has been strongly anticommunist and has endeavored to keep the NAACP free of communists.

The following national officers of the NAACP had communist front affiliations--in no instance extensive--a number of years ago, but none is known to have been a Communist Party member: Arthur Spingarn, President; Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, Chairman of the Board of Directors; and Robert L. Carter, General Counsel.

The Attorney General

There is no evidence that any of the following top leaders of CORE are or have been Communist Party members: James L. Farmer, National Director; James T. McCain, ~~Field~~ Director; and Gordon R. Carey, Director, Program and Training Department. Carey was one of the founders of the Conference of Young Socialists (CYS) in 1957 and was a member at large of the Executive Committee of CYS. The CYS was controlled by the Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party, which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Full details of the activities related herein previously have been furnished for the Department's files in individual reports and related communications.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division has asked that we give him a statement concerning the Communist Party affiliation of Hunter Pitts O'Dell. We have called to his attention current reports which have been furnished to the Security Division, Attention Mr. Walter Yeagley, concerning O'Dell's activities.

Marshall was interested in O'Dell's association with Rev. Martin Luther King and he was given a copy of a report of Special Agent James F. O'Connell dated 12/20/62 at New York, which was classified "Confidential", which had been disseminated to Walter Yeagley of the Security Division. This report reflected the current association of O'Dell and the organization of Rev. King, namely, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). In addition to the above we also furnished him a copy of a memorandum from the Director to the Attorney General dated 12/6/62 and another dated 1/23/63, pertaining to O'Dell.

Marshall stated that upon review of the above information which was furnished to him, he would like to have a statement from the FBI concerning the present Communist affiliation of O'Dell, particularly, whether O'Dell actually is a member of the Communist Party at this time.

I advised Marshall that an appropriate memorandum would be prepared and furnished to him concerning his request. There is attached hereto a memorandum which has been prepared by the Security Division indicating that we have developed evidence through our coverage of the activities of the Communist Party, USA, which indicates that as of July, 1962, Party leaders considered O'Dell to be a member of the Party. It is being pointed out that this information is highly sensitive and confidential.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Hunter Pitts O'Dell

By way of background, Marshall indicated that the basis for his request stems from the necessity of having to talk with Rev. Martin Luther King with reference to O'Dell. He stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to adequately handle this inquiry.

ACTION:

If approved, attached memorandum to Burke Marshall will be handed to him. It is brief and specifically points out the need to treat this information as highly sensitive and confidential.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

On December 6, 1962, you were furnished information indicating that despite the Reverend Martin Luther King's statement of October 31, 1962, that Hunter Pitts O'Dell had resigned his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), O'Dell had continued to represent himself as being affiliated with the New York Office of the SCLC and, during late November and early December, 1962, was actively engaged in the work of this organization. Reverend King's public statement of October 31, 1962, was occasioned by an editorial in the October 25, 1962, edition of the "Augusta Chronicle," Augusta, Georgia, which identified O'Dell as a concealed member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, who was employed by the SCLC under the alias Jack H. O'Dell.

I thought you would be interested in the fact that on three occasions during early January, 1963, O'Dell registered at an apartment in Atlanta, Georgia, as J. H. O'Dell. On each occasion, O'Dell represented himself as being with the New York Office of the SCLC. When checking out on January 7, 1963, O'Dell requested that the bill be charged to the SCLC. An inquiry by the manager resulted in telephonic confirmation from the Atlanta Office of the SCLC that that organization would pay O'Dell's bill. Also, on January 10, 1963, O'Dell, Reverend Martin Luther King and eight other officials of the SCLC traveled together via Delta Airlines from Atlanta to Savannah, Georgia.

In addition, a source who has requested that his identity be concealed has reported that at an SCLC conference at Nashville, Tennessee, during the latter part of December, 1962, a representative of the SCLC admitted that O'Dell continues to be involved with the SCLC in New York City in a fund-raising capacity although he is not currently on the SCLC payroll.

REC'D-READING ROOM

On November 2, 1962, I forwarded to you a copy of an editorial that appeared in the October 25, 1962, edition of the "Augusta Chronicle," Augusta, Georgia. This editorial identified Hunter Pitts O'Dell, a concealed member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, as employed under the alias Jack H. O'Dell in the capacity of "Acting Executive Director" for the Reverend Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Subsequently, various newspapers contained accounts of a statement issued by the Reverend Martin Luther King on or about October 31, 1962, wherein it was stated O'Dell had resigned from his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Reverend Martin Luther King is quoted in this statement as denying knowledge of the communist affiliations of O'Dell and further describing allegations that O'Dell was the Southeastern Director of his organization as false in that O'Dell functioned "purely as a technician with 90 per cent of his work taking place in the North..." King further stated that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has a policy "that no person of known communist affiliation can serve on the staff, executive board or its membership at large."

I thought you would be interested in the fact that our New York Office has developed information that on November 23, 1962, O'Dell identified himself as affiliated with the New York office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and during late November and early December, 1962, he was actively engaged in New York City in the work of this organization.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall telephoned and advised that on instructions of the Attorney General he wanted to clear with us the rough draft of a memorandum which he was going to send to the Bureau. As a matter of fact, the Attorney General has approved the rough draft contingent upon our approval.

The proposed memorandum, a copy of which is attached, relates to Hunter Pitts O'Dell and Stanley Levison and action taken to advise Dr. Martin Luther King and his immediate associates of the communist activities on the part of O'Dell and Levison. Marshall states that some time ago it was not felt wise, in view of the position of the FBI informant, for Marshall to say that he knew O'Dell to be under communist control. Instead, he informed Dr. King and two of his immediate associates that O'Dell was believed by many people to have had communist connections and his association with Dr. King's organization was not in its best interest.

Subsequently, on June 22, 1963, according to Marshall's proposed memorandum, he brought this matter very explicitly to Dr. King's attention. Later that same date, both the Attorney General and the President, separately, strongly urged Dr. King that there should be no further connection between O'Dell and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Thereafter, the Attorney General and Marshall received copies of a letter dated July 3, 1963, from Dr. King to O'Dell. In this letter King makes reference to a resignation which O'Dell submitted some months ago which was accepted because of the SCLC's firm policy that no communist or communist sympathizer would be on the staff. Dr. King's letter continues by noting an investigation had been conducted but they were unable to discover any present connections with the Communist Party by O'Dell.

King further tells O'Dell that the situation is such that the organization cannot even afford the risk of impressions about communist inspiration and therefore O'Dell's temporary resignation is being made permanent.

Mr. Marshall's proposed memorandum also advises that he informed Dr. King on June 22, 1963, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party. This action was taken on direction of the Attorney General and the President. Marshall had previously warned Dr. King about any association with Levison. This was the first indication given him of firm information Levison was under communist control.

Sensitive foreign intelligence operation

As a matter of background, our early information concerning the communist connections involved here came from ~~one of our two most highly placed communist informants (NY694-S*)~~. To protect ~~this most valuable informant~~ we insisted Levison and O'Dell not be informed by King we had positive information of their communist connections.

Subsequently, with the passage of time so that the risk to the informant was not jeopardized, the Director in a personal conversation with the Attorney General on June 17, 1963, agreed Dr. Martin Luther King could be informed that he should get rid of Levison and O'Dell because they are members of the Communist Party. It was on the basis of this advice from the Director that action was taken by the Attorney General and the President.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN:

While Mr. Marshall's proposed memorandum does not spell out the sequence of events here in detail, his summary is nevertheless accurate and it is therefore believed we should inform Mr. Marshall that he should feel free, of course, to submit the memorandum as he drafted it. If approved, Mr. Marshall will be so advised telephonically.

This relates to your letterhead memorandum of September 5 to the Attorney General, relating to Hunter Pitts O'Dell and the related prior memorandum. I appreciate your having sent copies of these to me.

This matter had been brought to the attention of Dr. King some time ago by me, but in accordance with conversations which the Attorney General had with Courtney Evans, it was not felt to be wise in view of the sources of the Bureau's information to state that I knew O'Dell to be under Communist control at any time. I did inform Dr. King and two members of his organization -- Reverend Andrew Young and Reverend Wyatt Walker -- some time ago -- that since O'Dell was believed by many people to have had Communist connections, his association with their organization was not in the best interests of the organization.

At that time, inconclusive steps were taken to remove O'Dell, and his job with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference was changed. In response to direct questions whether I had hard evidence of O'Dell's Communist connections, however, I replied that I was not in a position to give any.

Following further conversations with Mr. Evans in June, however, I brought the matter to the attention of Dr. King very explicitly in my office on the morning of June 22 prior to a scheduled meeting which Dr. King had with the President. This was done at the direction of the Attorney General. Later that morning both the Attorney General and the President separately strongly urged Dr. King thatthere should be no further connection between O'Dell and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Dr. King stated that the connection would be ended. Thereafter, theAttorney General and I both received copies of the attached letter, dated July 3, 1963, from Dr. King to O'Dell.

On the same occasion, I also informed Dr.King that our information was that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party. This was also done after conversations with Mr. Evans prior to the meeting with Dr. King, and was done at the direction of the Attorney General and the President. Prior to that time, again based upon talks between the Attorney General and Mr. Evans at which I was present, it had been decided that it was not in the best interest of the United States to inform Dr.King that we had any firm information that Levison was under Communist control. I had, however, on a previous occasion, warned Dr. King about any association with Levison, basing the warning upon doubts about Levison's loyalty to the United States.

Mr. Jack H. O'Dell
488 St. Nicholas Avenue
Apartment 5-S
New York, New York

Dear Jack:

Several months ago you submitted your resignation pending an investigation of your alleged affiliation with the Communist party, as was suggested by an article to this effect in the Birmingham and New Orleans newspapers. We accepted this temporary resignation because of SCLC's firm policy that no Communist nor Communist sympathizer can be on our staff or in our membership. We felt that it was imperative to conduct an immediate investigation. As you know, we conducted what we felt to be a thorough inquiry into these charges and were unable to discover any present connections with the Communist party on your part.

The situation in our country is such, however, that any allusion to the left brings forth an emotional response which would seem to indicate that SCLC and the Southern Freedom Movement are Communist inspired. In these critical times we cannot afford to risk any such impressions. We, therefore, have decided in our Administrative Committee, that we should request you to make your temporary resignation permanent.

We certainly appreciate the years of unselfish service which you have put into our New York Office, and regret the necessity of your departure. Certainly, yours is a significant sacrifice commensurate with the sufferings in jail and through loss of jobs under racist intimidation. We all pray for the day when our nation may be truly the land of the free.

SUBJECT: RACIAL SITUATION

In talking with the Attorney General and Assistant AG Marshall, of the Civil Rights Division, reference was made to our earlier conversation concerning Congressional requests which had been received by the Director, relating to alleged communist influence in the racial demonstrations. The Department's original position was that there was no immediate urgency in recontacting Senator Monroney, in view of recent contacts had with him by Departmental representatives. Today, I pointed out that these requests should not be allowed to remain unresolved too long.

Assistant AG Marshall advised that he had drafted a proposed letter to be used in replying to these Congressional requests, since he had ascertained that a written reply is desired, particularly by Senator Monroney. In his letter Marshall proposes to paraphrase the President's statement at his press conference on 7/17/63. Marshall's letter will, of course, make no reference to the President's statement, but merely indicate that this is the conclusion, predicated upon reports and other information supplied to the Department.

In those instances where the Department is dealing with a Member of Congress believed to be trustworthy, Marshall plans to deliver his letters personally and to explain that the classified nature of the reports precludes the furnishing of specific information in writing or in testimony. Marshall feels that he can talk confidentially in this way to Senator Magnuson and thus forestall any requests for further information. It was noted that, as a result of the Director's conversation with the Attorney General, Marshall had spoken with Martin Luther King about the dangers of his associating with Stanley Levison and accepting assistance from him. It was, therefore, believed that since this may get back to Members of Congress, Marshall should talk with the individual Senators, where this can be done on a confidential basis.

Marshall said he would, of course, keep us advised of the results of his contacts in this regard.

The Attorney General called and advised he would like to have Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall talk to Martin Luther King and tell King he has to get rid of Levison and O'Dell, that he should not have any contact with them directly or indirectly. The Attorney General inquired if King could be told these persons are communists without exposing the informant.

I advised the Attorney General I thought he could make the statement that they are members of the Communist Party without exposing the informant. I pointed out that, if King continues this association, he is going to hurt his own cause as there are more and more communists trying to take advantage of the hate movement and bigots down South who are against integration are beginning to charge King is tied in with communists. I stated I thought Marshall could very definitely say this association is rather widely known and, with things crystalizing for them now, nothing could be worse than for King to be associated with it.

SA Don Roney of the New York Office advised that NY 3810-S* on 5/30/63 furnished information concerning a conversation on that date between Martin Luther King and Stanley Levison, who has been a secret Communist Party member and has contributed funds to the Communist Party on a regular basis. King stated that he had requested a conference with the President and the Attorney General because King thought that now was a good time for such a conference. Levison agreed. Levison stated that there has never been an Administration in this country that has been as worried about the Negro problem as the present one. Levison continued that this is brought about by the Administration's concern with the common market problem in Europe. It was Levison's opinion that United States prestige is very important at this time and the inability to control the racial situation was making it more difficult. It was Levison's opinion that the needs of the President are so great that he is all ready for a different policy if it can bring about the kind of controlled situation that he feels he needs.

King and Levison agreed that the situation has to be kept moving so that the President will have to look for an alternative. The President can then be presented with certain alternatives. This will benefit the President, for then his problem, fear of violence, will be done away with. It was Levison's thought that the President is all ready to make a change. A conference now would be fruitful, but if a conference cannot be worked out, then the movement must be enlarged. King stated that he would like to put so much pressure on the President that he would have to sign an Executive Order making segregation unconstitutional.

Levison said that the method of negotiating used in Birmingham will set the pattern for a whole series of southern cities. That is, you come in with a package, come up with demands, discuss them and come out with a victory. You ask for more than you expect to get. The goals of the movement, according to Levison, are desegregation, jobs and the right to vote. The

My dear Mr. O'Donnell:

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that on May 30, 1963, Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley Levison held a discussion concerning a conference which Reverend Mr. King reportedly has requested with the President and the Attorney General.

Levison and Reverend Mr. King agreed that this is a good time for such a conference and Levison stated that no Administration has ever been as worried about the Negro problem as is the present Administration. Levison added that this is based upon the Administration's concern with the problems arising from the Common Market in Europe. Levison expressed the opinion that the prestige of the United States is very important at this time and that inability to control the racial situation makes the Administration's task more difficult. He also said that the President is ready for a different policy if it can bring about the kind of controlled situation that he feels he needs.

Reverend Mr. King and Levison agreed that it was necessary to keep the situation moving so that the President will be forced to look for an alternative. It was stated that the President can then be presented with certain alternatives which will benefit the Administration as the President's fear of violence will be done away with. Levison expressed the thought that the President is ready to make a change and that a conference at this time would be fruitful. He added that if a conference cannot be worked out, then the movement must be enlarged. Reverend Mr. King said he would like to put so much pressure on the President that he will have to sign an Executive Order making segregation unconstitutional.

Levison stated that the method of negotiation used in Birmingham, Alabama, will set the pattern for a series of Southern cities. He explained this method by stating that you come in with a package, come up with demands, discuss them and come out with a victory, and that in doing so you ask for more than you expect to get. He described the goals of the movement as desegregation, jobs and the right to vote. He described the methods of obtaining these goals as being direct action, nonviolence and negotiation.

As previously mentioned to you, another source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in March, 1963, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America, who contributes to the Communist Party on a regular basis.

I advised the Attorney General of the above information and he suggested that the President should see this letter.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division has asked that we give him a statement concerning the Communist Party affiliation of Hunter Pitts O'Dell. We have called to his attention current reports which have been furnished to the Security Division, Attention Mr. Walter Yeagley, concerning O'Dell's activities.

Marshall was interested in O'Dell's association with Rev. Martin Luther King and he was given a copy of a report of Special Agent James F. O'Connell dated 12/20/62 at New York, which was classified "Confidential", which had been disseminated to Walter Yeagley of the Security Division. This report reflected the current association of O'Dell and the organization of Rev. King, namely, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). In addition to the above we also furnished him a copy of a memorandum from the Director to the Attorney General dated 12/6/62 and another dated 1/23/63, pertaining to O'Dell.

Marshall stated that upon review of the above information which was furnished to him, he would like to have a statement from the FBI concerning the present Communist affiliation of O'Dell, particularly, whether O'Dell actually is a member of the Communist Party at this time.

I advised Marshall that an appropriate memorandum would be prepared and furnished to him concerning his request. There is attached hereto a memorandum which has been prepared by the Security Division indicating that we have developed evidence through our coverage of the activities of the Communist Party, USA, which indicates that as of July, 1962, Party leaders considered O'Dell to be a member of the Party. It is being pointed out that this information is highly sensitive and confidential.

He stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to adequately handle this inquiry.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division called to state that he will have to talk with Rev. Martin Luther King with reference to Jack Hunter O'Dell.

By way of background, he stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to talk to King about O'Dell.

Before Marshall can do this he states he would like to have whatever background information we have on O'Dell. In this regard, it is noted that O'Dell is supposed to be a member of the Communist Party and has in the past been associated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. This is King's organization. We have in the past furnished information to the Department concerning O'Dell and his association with Rev. King.

Marshall should be furnished with memoranda which have heretofore been given to the Security Division. It is understood that a report of O'Dell's activities is also available and has been furnished to the Security Division but has not been given to the Civil Rights Division. It would appear that Marshall is entitled to this information if he is to properly evaluate O'Dell's background.

Marshall has asked for a summary on O'Dell. If such is not readily available, copies of material previously furnished to the Department would seem to suffice. He stated he has been in touch with the Attorney General on this matter and is anxious to have it handled as soon as possible.

SECURITY MATTER - C

In response to your inquiry of Assistant Director Courtney A. Evans on January 30, 1963, you are advised that Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., accompanied by Hunter Pitts O'Dell and eight other officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), arrived in Savannah, Georgia, aboard Delta Airlines Flight Number 427 in the early morning of January 10, 1963. This group was met at the Savannah air terminal by Stanley Levison and the entire group departed Savannah in two automobiles.

Levison departed Savannah by train en route to New York City on the evening of January 11, 1963, while King, O'Dell and three other officials of the SCLC held reservations with the Delta Airlines for the morning of January 12, 1963. King, in a party of five, departed Savannah en route to Atlanta on Delta Airlines Flight Number 422 on the morning of January 12, 1963.

The racial unrest in the United States is currently the target for a determined concentration of communist effort. Long-range communist strategy includes the establishment of a Negro-labor coalition which the communists hope to be able to manipulate, as a powerful political-action weapon. They aim, thus, to provoke class struggle and promote legislation which can serve as a step toward a communist system of government. This constitutes a serious national security problem, since the individual playing a most dominant role as a leading spokesman for the estimated 20 million Negroes in this country today is knowingly, willingly, and regularly cooperating with and taking guidance from communists. An in-depth view of this individual, Martin Luther King, Jr., will serve to illustrate how he functions as a channel through which communist efforts are being directed against the Negroes and, therefore, against this country. It depicts, too, a Moral degenerate [redacted] of such magnitude as to blaspheme the title of "Reverend" which he carries.

He has been closely aligned with communists for several years and has shown not only a willingness, but at times even an eagerness, to associate and confer with communist leaders and to work closely with and rely upon the advice and guidance of dedicated communists -- this despite the fact that they have been reliably identified to him as such. In February, 1962, Stanley David Levison, a secret Communist Party (CP) member, passed the word to the Party's General Secretary, Gus Hall, that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly."

Levison -- Key Communist Directing King

Levison, one of the individuals exerting the most influence upon King and who has greatly facilitated King's rise to prominence, is a shrewd, dedicated communist and is known as such by King. Since the late 1940's Levison has played a highly clandestine role in which he was entrusted by the Party to raise and handle secret funds used to finance some of the Party's activities. In 1961 Levison was Assistant Treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), which is headed by King.

Since 195[illegible] Levison has expended m[illegible]h effort in King's behalf in such activities as: actively involving himself in fund-raising drives for King; serving as King's legal counsel in selected matters; preparing speech material for King; assisting in the mechanics of some demonstrations in which King was involved; guiding King as to acceptance or rejection of public appearances and speaking commitments; and helping King with matters related to the latter's writings.

King's Reliance on O'Dell, A National Party Functionary

Another key communist through whom the Party exerts influence on King is Hunter Pitts O'Dell who, at the Party's last National Convention in 1959, was elected a member of its second highest governing body, the National Committee. His election was under a pseudonym. In 1960, while working as an assistant to the Party's National Secretary for the South, James Jackson, O'Dell also began to work actively in support of King's movement. In June, 1962, King sought Levison's counsel concerning the addition of an administrative assistant to King's staff. As a result of Levison's recommendation of O'Dell, the latter associated himself with the SCLC in Atlanta, Georgia, under the name J. H. O'Dell and also served the SCLC in its New York office. In October, 1962, several newspaper articles exposed O'Dell's connection with the SCLC and his communist affiliations, as a result of which King announced O'Dell's temporary resignation pending an inquiry.

Rustin himself is an interesting link in the King "combine." He has long been inclined toward homosexual activities and in 1953 was sentenced to serve 60 days for offering to engage in an act of sex perversion of a homosexual nature, which he admitted. Rustin has also publicly admitted affiliations with the communist movement in the late 1930's and was one of a select group of observers permitted to attend the Party's 16th National Convention in 1957. He also has maintained contact with the Party's National Secretary, Benjamin J. Davis, [redacted]

Dear Mike:

Enclosed is a document request for materials pertaining to the King matter.

I would like to set October 6, 1975 as a deadline for delivery of all outstanding previously-requested documents pertaining to the King matter and October 13, 1975 for delivery of all documents requested on the attached list.

I would also appreciate your arranging a briefing for Mike Epstein for sometime this week by knowledgable FBI personnel concerning:

A. The present location and organization of any files and materials which were found to be in William C. Sullivan's Bureau office when he was denied further access thereto in or about September 1971; and

B. A description of the contents of such files and materials.

Finally, we would like to have access to the Department of Justice files pertaining to Martin Luther King, Jr. and/or the Southern Christian Leadership Conference for the year 1962. The materials in these "DJ" files will be reviewed pursuant to the terms of the procedural agreement between the Committee and the Department, i.e., subsequent to review of such files certain items will be orally designated to be screened for delivery.

INDEX

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

A. INVESTIGATIONS OF KLAN-TYPE ORGANIZATIONS, HATE ORGANIZATIONS, AND ASSOCIATED INDIVIDUALS

1. While these are considered criminal investigations, they are considered delicate in nature and require the application of the restrictions necessary in conducting security-type investigations. Therefore, the investigations and reports are to be handled in accordance with the general rules applying to security-type investigations.
2. Caution
   Extreme care must be exercised to insure that in every instance there is a proper basis for investigation. Sound judgment must be used to avoid investigation of organizations or individuals that merely sponsor unpopular causes or propaganda but do not meet the standards outlined under item 3a below. The Bureau must insure that there will be no justifiable basis for any charge that these investigations infringe upon constitutional freedoms of speech, press, or assemblage.
3. Investigations
   a. Investigation is confined to those organizations or associated individuals that either:
      (1) Have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450
      (2) Have not been designated under Executive Order 10450 but there is an actual or alleged affiliation or subsidiary relation with a designated organization
      (3) Have adopted a policy or have allegedly adopted a policy of advocating, condoning, or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution
      (4) Have allegedly committed acts of violence
      (5) Have actually or allegedly committed violations of laws within the Bureau's jurisdiction
   b. During the investigation of Klan-type organizations and hate organizations, the following information should be obtained:
      (1) Organization structure
         (a) Headquarters
         (b) Officers
         (c) Location of klaverns or local chapters
      (2) Objectives
      (3) Publications and propaganda
      (4) Finances
      (5) Activity of klaverns or local chapters
         (a) Name and address
         (b) Officers
         (c) Estimated membership and recruiting activities
         (d) Meetings
            I. Date
            II. Type (open or closed)
            III. Place
            IV. Estimated attendance
   c. Follow through public source material and established sources activities of organizations which do not qualify for investigation under above standards. Initiate investigation upon receipt of information which brings organization within investigative criteria and at the same time advise Bureau this action taken and basis therefor.
   d. Conduct no investigation regarding individual acts of violence allegedly or actually committed by an organization in absence of information indicating violation within Bureau's jurisdiction. However, concerning each such incident, the following information should be obtained through informants and sources in connection with investigations of such organizations:

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

(1) Which group involved
(2) Whether action taken was on initiative of individual members or with knowledge or approval of leadership

In initial communication reporting violent act, advise if there is or is not indication of organization participation.

If act of violence is a criminal violation over which Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation; if the act of violence is a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

e. Agents are not to attend functions or rallies of any Klan or hate group although open to the public.

f. These investigations must be both vigorous and incisive. The fundamental objective is to identify those who may be engaged or responsible for acts of violence, and care must be taken to avoid becoming involved in widespread, nebulous investigation which does not go to the heart of the problem at hand. When a case is opened, it should receive immediate continuous attention until the initial allegation is resolved. The case should be promptly closed if it is definitely determined that it does not fall within the criteria set out in item 3a above.

g. Individual cases should be opened on officers, leaders, and active workers in these organizations to determine whether they have been involved in acts of violence or have a definite potential for future acts of violence. Good judgment and discretion must be exercised in the case of prominent individuals who may be dupes of such organizations and who may hold nominal office. Immediately advise the Bureau when investigation of a prominent person is contemplated; and if there is any question as to whether there is sufficient probable cause to fully justify investigation, no investigation should be conducted without Bureau approval.

h. Names of members in attendance at meetings should not be set out in investigative reports but should be indexed from informant reports. Names of new members should be furnished the Bureau by letter for indexing purposes.

4. Informants and interviews

a. In order that the Bureau may discharge its responsibilities, it is mandatory that information be obtained regarding all pertinent Klan or hate organization activities. In this regard it is necessary that informants be developed in all such organizations which meet the criteria set forth in 3a above. Efforts in this regard must be discreet.

b. Preliminary interviews with rank-and-file members of an organization and other individuals not connected with such organizations conducted solely for the purpose of determining the attitude of the individual may be authorized by the SAC. To obtain authority from the SAC, credit, arrest, informant, and indices checks should be made and a memorandum prepared for the SAC setting forth this information so that he may make a decision regarding the propriety of the interview. Officials of local groups or national officers are not to be interviewed without prior Bureau authority. Likewise where a greater than usual risk is involved, such as individuals employed in the newspaper field, educational field, radio and television industry, and the like,

[specific Bureau authority must be obtained. Two Agents should be [present when an organization official is interviewed and, if possible,
[two Agents should be present at interviews with organization members.
[During such an interview, no attempt should be made to develop the [individual as an informant; but if he is cooperative and has a [potential for development as an informant, complete background infor[mation should be obtained and specific Bureau authority requested [to develop him as an informant.

[c. Bureau authority not necessary prior to interview with organization [members in criminal- or applicant-type cases; however, interview [should be confined to subject matter of inquiry, unless data [concerning organization volunteered by interviewee.

[d. Submit by September 15 and March 15 each year letter captioned ["Semiannual listing of Klan and hate organizations and informant [coverage," Bureau file #157-1, containing:
[(1) Names of Klan and hate organizations active in your territory
[(2) Coverage of each Klan broken down by klaverns and each hate [organization broken down into local chapters showing identities
[of informants and sources reporting on each
[(3) Estimated membership by klaverns or chapters and basis for [estimate

      (3) Have adopted a policy or have allegedly adopted a policy of advocating, condoning, or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution
      (4) Have allegedly committed acts of violence
      (5) Have actually or allegedly committed violations of laws within the Bureau's jurisdiction
   b. During the investigation of Klan-type organizations and hate organizations, the following information should be obtained:
      (1) Organization structure
         (a) Headquarters
         (b) Officers
         (c) Location of klaverns or local chapters
      (2) Objectives
      (3) Publications and propaganda
      (4) Finances
      (5) Activity of klaverns or local chapters
         (a) Name and address
         (b) Officers
         (c) Estimated membership and recruiting activities
         (d) Meetings
            I. Date
            II. Type (open or closed)
            III. Place
            IV. Estimated attendance
   c. Follow through public source material and established sources activities of organizations which do not qualify for investigation under above standards. Initiate investigation upon receipt of information which brings organization within investigative criteria and at the same time advise Bureau this action taken and basis therefor.
   d. Conduct no investigation regarding individual acts of violence allegedly or actually committed by an organization in absence of information indicating violation within Bureau's jurisdiction. However, concerning each such incident, the following information should be obtained through informants and sources in connection with investigations of such organizations:

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

(1) Which group involved
(2) Whether action taken was on initiative of individual members or with knowledge or approval of leadership

In initial communication reporting violent act, advise if there is or is not indication of organization participation.

If act of violence is a criminal violation over which Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation; if the act of violence is a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

e. Agents are not to attend functions or rallies of any Klan or hate group although open to the public.

f. These investigations must be both vigorous and incisive. The fundamental objective is to identify those who may be engaged or responsible for acts of violence, and care must be taken to avoid becoming involved in widespread, nebulous investigation which does not go to the heart of the problem at hand. When a case is opened, it should receive immediate continuous attention until the initial allegation is resolved. The case should be promptly closed if it is definitely determined that it does not fall within the criteria set out in item 3a above.

g. Individual cases should be opened on officers, leaders, and active workers in these organizations to determine whether they have been involved in acts of violence or have a definite potential for future acts of violence. [Wholesale investigations of individuals of these organizations should not be conducted and investigations of individual members should be initiated only on a most selective basis. Individuals investigated should be those who are key personnel who actually formulate and carry out the organization's policy and not those individuals who merely attend meetings on a regular basis. If there is any question as to whether such an investigation should be initiated, the facts should be presented to the Bureau for its consideration.]

Immediately advise the Bureau when investigation of a prominent person is contemplated; and if there is any question as to whether there is sufficient probable cause to fully justify investigation, no investigation should be conducted without Bureau approval.

[The Bureau should be advised by letter of the information obtained, together with a statement as to whether the individual warrants inclusion on the potential bombing suspects list of your office. If investigation indicates that the individual should not be included, the case may then be closed administratively. If the subject is included on the list, the matter should be handled in accordance with instructions set forth in section 23, volume II, of this manual concerning bombing matters.]

h. Names of members in attendance at meetings should not be set out in investigative reports but should be indexed from informant's [statements.] Names of new members should be furnished the Bureau by letter for indexing purposes.

4. Informants and interviews

a. In order that the Bureau may discharge its responsibilities, it is mandatory that information be obtained regarding all pertinent Klan or hate organization activities. In this regard it is necessary that informants be developed in all such organizations which meet the criteria set forth in 3a above. Efforts in this regard must be discreet.

b. Preliminary interviews with rank-and-file members of an organization and other individuals not connected with such organizations conducted solely for the purpose of determining the attitude of the individual may be authorized by the SAC. To obtain authority from the SAC, credit, arrest, informant, and indices checks should be made and a memorandum prepared for the SAC setting forth this information so that he may make a decision regarding the propriety of the interview. Officials of local groups or national officers are not to be interviewed without prior Bureau authority. Likewise where a greater than usual risk is involved, such as individuals employed in the newspaper field, educational field, radio and television industry, and the like, specific Bureau authority must be obtained. Two Agents should be present when an organization official is interviewed and, if possible, two Agents should be present at interviews with organization members. During such an interview, no attempt should be made to develop the individual as an informant; but if he is cooperative and has a potential for development as an informant, complete background information should be obtained and specific Bureau authority requested to develop him as an informant.

c. Bureau authority not necessary prior to interview with organization members in criminal- or applicant-type cases; however, interview should be confined to subject matter of inquiry, unless data concerning organization volunteered by interviewee.

[d. Original and one copy of semiannual letter captioned "Klan Organizations, Hate Organizations and Racial Informants, Racial Matters, Bombing Matters," to be submitted according to schedule set out below. Where there is no pertinent activity or information, a negative statement should be made.

[B. GENERAL RACIAL MATTERS
[1. Jurisdiction
[The Bureau does not have investigative jurisdiction over such general [racial matters, as race riots, civil demonstrations, and similar [developments except in instances in which the action is a violation of [statute over which the Bureau has jurisdiction or some subversive [influence is at work. Insofar as Federal jurisdiction in general racial [matters is concerned, U. S. Army regulations place responsibility upon
[the Army to keep advised of any developments of a civil disturbance [nature which may require the rendering of assistance to civil authorities [or the intervention of Federal troops. OSI and ONI have collateral [responsibility under Army in such matters and copies of pertinent [documents disseminated to Army concerning such matter should be furnished [to OSI and ONI.
[2. Policy
[a. As an intelligence function the Bureau does have the responsibility [of advising appropriate Government agencies and officials on both
[a national and local level of all pertinent information obtained [concerning such incidents. In this connection it is the personal [responsibility of each SAC to make the necessary arrangements to insure that all developments of this type occurring within his territory are promptly reported to his office and upon receipt thereof furnished to the Bureau by whatever form of communication is warranted under the circumstances.

b. Since the Bureau does not have investigative jurisdiction in general racial matters, no open investigation is to be conducted concerning general racial matters as such.

c. In instances in which civil rights may be involved or in which a racial incident may involve an act which constitutes a criminal violation over which the Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation. Likewise, if the incident involves a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

d. In instances in which some subversive influence is determined to be at work, be guided by instructions pertaining to investigation of the specific subversive influence involved.

e. CAUTION. By their very nature racial matters are extremely delicate and great care must be exercised in the approach to such matters.

3. Procedures

a. Information dealing with general racial matters, such as proposed or actual activities of individuals, officials, committees, legislatures, organizations, etc., in the racial field, must be furnished to the Bureau expeditiously by whatever means of communication is warranted by the specific nature of the information and the circumstances involved.

b. Pertinent information bearing on general racial matters which would not otherwise be available to interested Government agencies, such as that obtained through sources and informants, and which is of such a nature that it would normally be furnished to the Bureau by letter or airtel must be transmitted to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. In general, pertinent information bearing on general racial matters appearing in newspapers or publications need not be furnished to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. In such instances merely submit copies of pertinent newspaper articles and publications to the Bureau. Of course, if such data is clearly of a nature as to require contacts with appropriate sources, such as information of unusual local or national importance, submit same expeditiously in form suitable for dissemination. Concisely summarize the pertinent article and include therein the results of contacts with appropriate sources.

c. Maintain contact with pertinent informants and sources and keep Bureau and local intelligence agencies advised of any additional pertinent developments. Unless circumstances clearly indicate necessity for more expeditious handling, furnish such additional data to the Bureau promptly in form suitable for dissemination.

d. In many instances situations involving members of the Negro and Caucasian races result in violations of criminal statutes over which the Bureau has investigative jurisdiction. While such matters are to be handled in accordance with instructions pertaining to the substantive violation involved, the Bureau has the additional responsibility of disseminating pertinent information concerning any racial aspects of such situations to appropriate Government officials and agencies that do not ordinarily receive reports in criminal matters. Therefore, the submission of a report concerning the criminal violation involved alone is insufficient. In general, pertinent data concerning the racial situation involved must be submitted immediately to Bureau in form suitable for dissemination in order that it may reach interested agencies as soon as possible.

[e. Where information is received in connection with racial matters indicating that individuals or organizations have resorted to or contemplate resorting to violence, you must

(1) Immediately advise the Bureau of full facts by expeditious means depending upon urgency of circumstances

(2) Immediately advise appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the matter unless it is already cognizant. If a compelling reason exists for not so advising the pertinent law enforcement agency, such as the possibility of exposing the informant furnishing the information, immediately furnish the Bureau with full facts. Include therein recommendations as to what other trustworthy local or state law enforcement agencies or officials may be used as intermediaries through whom the information in question may be furnished to the law enforcement agency actually having jurisdiction in such a manner as to fully protect the specific informant and the Bureau as the source thereof.

(3) Immediately advise the local office of military intelligence

(4) Contact all appropriate informants and sources to determine if they possess any additional pertinent data concerning the matter and instruct them to be alert for and to promptly furnish to you any such pertinent data obtained.

(5) Prepare and submit pertinent data to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. Include in the communication the results of contacts with appropriate sources and informants; the time and date that local agencies were advised; and the identities of the individuals so advised. (Where information is furnished to an intermediary official or law enforcement agency and not to the agency actually having jurisdiction, set forth in the cover page the reasons for such procedure.) Submit communication same day original information received except where original information is received after normal working hours, when communication is to be submitted beginning of next workday.

(6) Maintain contact with pertinent informants and sources and keep Bureau, pertinent local law enforcement agency, and local intelligence agencies advised of any additional pertinent developments as they occur. Unless circumstances clearly indicate necessity for more expeditious handling, furnish such additional data to Bureau and intelligence agencies in form suitable for dissemination.

SUBJECT: THE LONG COMMITTEE

~~ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE BY~~

The Attorney General called on the morning of February 27, 1965, to advise he wanted to consult with the Bureau on certain problems raised by the Long Committee, which is exploring the use of mail covers, et cetera. He noted there was a possible problem concerning Chief Inspector Montague's testimony and whether it was necessary for Montague to change his testimony. Also, he felt that Internal Revenue Service had been using investigative techniques which they should not use and this could pose a problem. He said that the President had asked him to coordinate with all executive agencies concerning the problems raised by the Long Committee.

Inspector Moore and I met with the Attorney General in his office this afternoon. Mr. Courtney Evans was present. I told the Attorney General that in Montague's testimony he was told by Attorney Fensterwald that if any of the questions had national security implications Montague should not answer them. Consequently, Montague was estopped from doing other than answer in the negative when asked questions touching on national security. With this interpretation, it was questionable whether an attempt should be made to change or explain Montague's testimony, particularly in view of the obvious lack of judgment on the part of Fensterwald and the desire of Long for publicity. I made it clear to the Attorney General that from our dealings with Montague, he was a man of integrity and sacrificed his personal desires for the welfare of the country and had cooperate fully with us. The Attorney General said he had no intention of changing one word of Montague's testimony, but he was considering advising Long and Fensterwald that there were extreme delicate national security matters touching on the areas being covered by the committee and there could be exceptions to the answers given in the testimony when they touched on such sensitive security matters. He said further that he contemplates seeing Senator Long and impressing on him that the committee would not want to stumble by mistake into an area of extreme interest to the national security as they nearly did in a matter affecting CIA. (Apparently CIA got wind of some inquiries by the committee relative to their secret operation and went to the committee and warned them off.) Katzenbach contemplates asking for a list of the witnesses who will appear before the committee together with a brief summary of the expected testimony. On the basis of this, he will be able to advise Senator Long when he should steer clear of a sensitive area.

I told Mr. Katzenbach that I certainly agree that this matter should be controlled at the committee level but that I felt pressure would have to be applied so that the personal interest of Senator Long became involved rather than on any ideological basis. Mr. Katzenbach said that he had already talked to Vice President Humphrey about Fensterwald, who he considered a wild man, and that Humphrey had promised to talk to Long concerning Fensterwald. Katzenbach said that in addition to the Vice President he might have to resort to pressure from the President himself, although he would prefer to work it out without resorting to the President. He indicated there was no one on the committee itself who could be helpful and that he did not expect any help from Senator Eastland.

Mr. Katzenbach said that he expected troublefrom the possible activities of IRS and the military in the investigative field; that if some of these matters are uncovered before the committee they will tend to undermine the restricted and tightly controlled operations of the Bureau. I told him that our operations are tightly controlled and particularly in the delicate areas of concern, we restrict ourselves to important security matters.

Mr. Katzenbach said he was going to see Senator Long on Monday and wanted to know if the Bureau would like someone to go along with him. I told him no.

ACTION:

Mr. Katzenbach said he would advise us of the results of his conversation with Long. He also asked that I advise the Director of our discussion and I told him I would.

I called Mr. DeLoach and briefed him on this problem in order that he might contact Senator Eastland in an effort to warn the Long Committee away from those areas which would be injurious to the national defense. Edward V.

I called the Attorney General and told him I wanted to let him know that I had talked to Senator James Eastland today, in regard to the hearings before the Long Committee concerning mail covers, et cetera. I stated Senator Eastland is in Mississippi today but he is going to see Senator Long not later than Wednesday morning to caution him that this fellow Fensterwald must not go into the kind of questioning he made of Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department. The Attorney General stated he was going to see Senator Long himself and asked if I thought he ought to wait until after Senator Eastland talks to Senator Long. I stated the timing might be well if he did wait as Eastland assured me he will see Long not later than Wednesday and then if he, the Attorney General, could see Long sometime Wednesday, it would probably tie it down once and for all as there are no hearings until Wednesday anyway. The Attorney General stated he thought they were having a hearing tomorrow, but he would check. I stated if there is a hearing tomorrow, then I would be inclined for the Attorney General to see Senator Long now and if it is not before Wednesday, then I think he should let Senator Eastland see what he can do. I stated Senator Eastland thoroughly understands the matter and said he does not intend to have that gone into and that obviously Fensterwald is getting in over his head and that has to be stopped. The Attorney General called and advised that he had talked to Senator Long last night. Senator Long's committee is looking into mail covers et cetera. The Attorney General stated he thought somebody had already spoken to Senator Long as he said he did not want to get into any national security area and was willing to take steps not to do this. The Attorney General stated that Mr. Fensterwald was present for part of the meeting and Fensterwald had said that he had some possible witnesses who are former Bureau Agents and if they were asked if mail was opened, they would take the Fifth Amendment. The Attorney General stated that before they are called, he would like to know who they are and whether they were ever involved in any program touching on national security and if not, it is their own business, but if they were, we would want to know. The Attorney General stated the Senator promised that he would have a chance to look at the names if he wanted to, personally and confidentially, and the list would have any names involving national security deleted and he would tell the Senator how many but no more.

The Attorney General stated that the Postmaster General is going down there this morning himself which he, the Attorney General, thought would be helpful to Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department.

The Attorney General stated that Senator Long also said he is not going to propose legislation to abolish mail covers as he thought they served a useful purpose but he did think that control should be tightened. I stated I thought there was great laxity in the matter of mail covers and the matter of tapping telephones.

I stated I have always been of the view and recommended back when Tom Clark was Attorney General that no agency of the Government should tap a telephone except with the written approval of the Attorney General. I stated there would then be in one place a list of all phone taps and the purpose and reason for them. I stated that it is a fact, insofar as I am concerned, that I am the only head of an agency who does not have authority to tap telephones. I stated that I know that subordinates down the line in some agencies will tap phones without the knowledge of the chief of the agency and there is grave suspicion in Washington by some newspapermen that their phones have been tapped by agencies of the Government trying to find out where they are getting their information. I stated I have always been opposed to the law whereby it is necessary to get the authority of a court to tap phones because of the composition of some of our courts and the employees thereof, but I have always felt that the President should issue an Executive Order confidentially to all agencies that all phone tapping be discontinued except when specifically approved by the Attorney General so there would be in one place a list and then if any committee in Congress got on the warpath, the Attorney General would have a list he could vouch for as being the only phones tapped by the Government. The Attorney General stated that made sense. I stated many agencies are opposed because they realize there would be a marked restriction. I stated we only have 45 phone taps, which is a low number for a country the size of ours and the area we have to cover. The Attorney General stated no one has any idea how many phone taps the whole Government has.

I stated there is also a school being conducted in California by a private organization which instructs the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service in the matter of phone tapping and they have sent their own personnel there to be trained. I stated Internal Revenue has also from time to time hired private outside phone tappers to do their tapping. I stated it is that type of thing if there were a real investigation which would come out. The Attorney General commented that he would not guarantee some of it won't come out. I stated I was amazed when I learned of the school in California as I saw a reference to it in the newspaper and wanted to know what it was and what officers attended. I stated we have our own instructors and do it ourselves.

I stated I thought the Attorney General had made good headway with Senator Long. The Attorney General stated he thought it would be helpful, but his problem is that he thinks the Senator is fine but he does not think that Fensterwald is as straightforward, or to put it another way that Fensterwald is smart and devious and the Senator is straightforward and not very bright and that is the problem. I stated I thought that Fensterwald is trying to get publicity for the Senator. The Attorney General stated the Senator said he did not want to get into this and he would give him, the Attorney General, the names and a summary of the testimony and told Fensterwald to do so, but he, the Attorney General, can't say Fensterwald is going to do it; that he will on some but he did not know that he would on all. I stated I had no faith or confidence in Fensterwald and neither did Senator Eastland. The Attorney General stated that Senator Eastland may have already talked to Senator Long or else the Vice President, but somebody had waked him up. I stated Senator Eastland said he would do it Wednesday, but he may have called him.

The Attorney General stated that is where it stands now and we shall see what happens.

Very truly yours,

J. E. H.

John Edgar Hoover

Knowledge of the Hunter Mail watch list was limited within the Bureau to Supervisors at FBI Headquarters. When a Supervisor desired to place a name on the watch list, he would prepare a 3 x 5 card which included:

a) the name and address of the individual or organization,
b) the duration of the request, and
c) the treatment to be given to any mail located.

No date was placed on the card, however, the cards were numbered consecutively. The request was then forwarded through liaison representatives to the Central Intelligence Agency. No other documents were prepared concerning the consideration, recommendation and proposal of these requests.

On October 1, 1975, representatives of the FBI met with John T. Elliff of the SSC concerning a similar request. As a result, Elliff requested the following information concerning each of these requests:

a) a copy of the request and any other document in the Hunter Mail file in which the FBI mentions or shows results obtained from the specific request,

b) the approximate date of the request, and

c) the apparent basis for the request, or in the case of an investigation instituted after the effective date of the Hunter Mail project, the basis for the investigation.

The following summaries and enclosures constitute the Bureau's response to this request.

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

1) "National Guardian"

a) documents - The "National Guardian" was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 117 (Exhibit A-1). On April 20, 1962, a list of names to remain on the watch list was prepared and the "National Guardian" was included (Exhibit A-2). On October 25, 1966, a similar list was prepared (Exhibit A-3). The "National Guardian" was mentioned in a memorandum dated August 21, 1964, concerning data obtained from the Hunter Mail project during the past year (Exhibit A-4).

b) date - Request number 117 was made between August 18, 1961, and April 20, 1962. As indicated above, the "National Guardian" was included on a list of names to remain on the watch list on April 20, 1962. It was not on a similar list of names as of August 18, 1961.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file on the "National Guardian" is dated August 13, 1948, and reports the publication on August 1, 1948, of the "National Gazette Weekly," forerunner of the "National Guardian." During 1961 and 1962, the "National Guardian" sponsored tours of Eastern Europe, including Russia (Exhibits A-5 and 6).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

2) Derk Bodde

a) documents - No Hunter Mail request was located for Bodde. He was, however, included in a list of names to remain on the watch list which was prepared on April 20, 1962 (Exhibit A-2).

b) date - Bodde was most likely placed on the watch list in 1960. As indicated above, Bodde was included on a list of names to remain on the watch list on April 20, 1962; however, there are no documents in the file dated in 1961 and 1962. He did travel to Russia during 1960.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file on Bodde is dated February 5, 1952. A review of the documents for the period after the Hunter program was instituted failed to locate any document recommending him for inclusion on the watch list. The investigation had been placed in a closed status until information was received that Bodde was scheduled to attend the International Orientalist Congress in Moscow during August, 1960 (Exhibits B-1 and 2).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

3) Leonard Bernstein

a) documents - No Hunter Mail request was located for Bernstein. He was, however, included in a list of names to be removed from the watch list which was prepared on April 20, 1962 (Exhibit A-2).

b) date - Bernstein was most likely placed on the watch list in 1959, since he went to Russia during that year. On April 20, 1962, he was included on a list of names to be removed from the watch list.

c) basis - Since no Hunter Mail request was located, there is no background information available concerning the Leonard Bernstein who was placed on the watch list. A review of Bureau files for individuals named Leonard Bernstein does indicate, however, that the only Leonard Bernstein who travelled to Russia or had any Soviet contacts was Leonard Bernstein, born August 25, 1918 (the prominent conductor and composer). The first item in the Bureau file concerning Bernstein is dated March 2, 1949. A review of documents in this file from the beginning of the Hunter program in 1958 until April 20, 1962, the date on which his name was removed from the watch list, failed to locate a request that he be included in the Hunter program. However, information concerning him, compiled in response to a request from another government agency in December, 1958, did indicate that Bernstein planned to visit Russia during March, 1959 (Exhibits C-1 and 2).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

4) National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC)

a) documents - The NMC was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 193 (Exhibit D-1). The NMC was mentioned in a memorandum dated August 28, 1969, concerning data obtained from the Hunter Mail project during the past year (Exhibit D-2).

b) date - This request was most likely made between January 16, 1969, and August 28, 1969. No investigation was conducted concerning the NMC until September, 1966 (Exhibit D-3). The request, however, was probably not made until after January 15, 1969, the date that a CIA representative suggested the Bureau use the Hunter project for development of leads in the New Left field (Exhibit D-4). Request number 233 was mentioned in a memorandum concerning results from the Hunter Mail program which was dated August 28, 1969.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file concerning the NMC is a communication dated September 14, 1966, which indicates that a group known as the November 8th Ad Hoc Committee had been formed at Cleveland, Ohio. By communication dated September 20, 1966, FBI Headquarters instructed the New York and Cleveland Division to keep abreast of the plans of this Committee to sponsor demonstrations during November,1966 (Exhibit D-3). By communication dated July 28, 1967, FBI Headquarters instructed the New York Division to prepare a report concerning the same organization which had become known as the NMC (Exhibit D-5). The name NMC was used until approximately August, 1969, when an allegedly new organization known as the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam was formed.

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

5) "Ramparts"

a) documents - "Ramparts" was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 105 (Exhibit E-1).

b) date - This request was also most likely made between January 16, 1969, and August 28, 1969.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file concerning "Ramparts" is dated October 22, 1964; however, no active investigation was authorized at that time. Investigation was authorized in May, 1967, based on a request received from the Department of Justice (Exhibits E-2 and 3). No request to include "Ramparts" on the Hunter Mail watch list was located; however, a document dated October 17, 1968, does indicate that "Ramparts" furnished a list of names, probably their mailing list, to the Soviets (Exhibit E-4).

In order to insure that Project Hunter will continue to operate under maximum economy and efficiency, we have advised CIA at a recent conference we would review Bureau Informant 200 material received and advise CIA whether or not we desired to continue to receive material on persons whose names appear on the attached list.

The interested Supervisor should, accordingly, indicate by writing "yes" or "no" to the right of his subject's name whether or not he desires Bureau Informant 200 to discontinue furnishing data on each of his respective subjects.

The attached lists were compiled from a review of the Project Hunter card box indices maintained by Supervisor W. D. Stewart as an administrative aid for routing purposes. The names of subjects on whom we have received no material for the past year do not appear on the attached lists. They have been weeded out separately along with other subjects who have been relatively inactive.

The results of this survey will be forwarded via Liaison to CIA for appropriate action.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memo and its attachment be routed to the interested Supervisor for a determination as to the continuation of receiving Bureau Informant 200 material on his respective subject.

Names on this list were referred to the Special Agent Supervisor interested in the matter and numbers were assigned to unnumbered stops we desire to retain on the Watch List.

On October 21, 1966, a complete list of stops was referred to the Liaison Section for delivery to Mr. Worth of CIA. A copy of this list is attached.

You are referred to information previously furnished to your agency on January 28 and November 10, 1955, concerning Leonard Bernstein. For your additional information, there is enclosed a copy of a memorandum dated May 27, 1958, concerning the captioned individual. (100-360261-41,49,55)

In August, 1958, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Leonard Bernstein had been in contact with Tamara Yurevna Mamedova. The August, 1958, "Diplomatic List" reflects Tamara Y. Mamedova to be a second secretary at the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, (USSR). In June, 1958, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Tamara Mamedova was employed in the Cultural Division of the Soviet Embassy. As part of her duties the informant stated that Mamedova handled inquiries from the public concerning the Cultural Exchange Program between the USSR and the United States and assisted in arrangements for appearances of groups from both countries under the auspices of that program.

In his contact with Mamedova, the confidential informant stated that Leonard Bernstein indicated that he would accept an invitation to visit the USSR and stated that he would be able to go during the first two weeks of March, 1959. He expressed a desire to conduct some orchestras while in the USSR. (105-53022-328)

Re: Leonard Bernstein, with aliases

On June 30, 1950, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in 1945 when the committee to aid Ben Davis was being considered, both Ben Davis and Jack Stachel described Leonard Bernstein to the source as an adherent of the Communist Party. This source stated that other Communist Party functionaries had also described Leonard Bernstein as a Communist. The source advised that in 1945 Jack Stachel informed him that Bernstein had agreed to submit to Communist discipline. This source advised on December 9, 1954 that he has no direct personal knowledge of Bernstein's willingness to submit to Communist discipline.

Ben Davis and Jack Stachel were members of the National Board of the Communist Party who were tried and convicted in 1949 for violation of the Smith Act of 1940.

Leonard Bernstein, by notarized affidavit dated August 3, 1953, submitted in connection with his application for passport, stated "...although I have never, to my knowledge, been accused of being a member of the Communist Party, I wish to take advantage of this opportunity to affirm under oath that I am not now or at any time ever been a member of the Communist Party or the Communist Political Association. I have never knowingly engaged in activities which supported the Communist movement under circumstances which would warrant the conclusion that I engaged in such activities as a result of direction, domination or control exercised over me by the Communist movement..."

In February, 1958, a source of unknown reliability, but who is acquainted with the subject, advised that he believed Leonard Bernstein to be a Communist. This source based this belief on the way Bernstein talks, that is, that he has continually made anti-American and pro-Russian statements. Source was unable to furnish any specific details pertaining thereto.

The "New York Times", issue of March 3, 1945, contained an advertisment by the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade entitled "For America's Sake-Break With Franco Spain" wherein Bernstein was listed as a sponsor.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during 1946 that Leonard Bernstein was identified on a letterhead of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom dated January 21, 1946, as being one of the sponsors of this organization.

The "Daily Worker" issue of May 16, 1946, page four column three, lists Leonard Bernstein as a conductor and composer and one of the endorsers of the Three Day Tag Drive of the American Committee for Yugoslav Relief.

INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM BUREAU INFORMANT 200

Items are received on repatriates, deportees, defectors, U.S. citizens who went to USSR for permanent residence because of marriage or family and individuals born in U.S. who were taken there when children. Most of this material is of limited value but all individuals are included on CIA's "defector list." However, items are of value when they pertain to individuals known to have been espionage agents or to have subversive relatives in U.S. For example, items on Harry Eisman, deported from U.S. over 30 years ago, have contained little information of interest until recently. Friends asked Eisman to see the Glass family when they visited the USSR. When he entertained the family, the daughter was greatly influenced by his colorful description of his radical activities in New York schools. (Identifies confidential source)

Prudence Glass has been maintaining contact with Eisman since her return and recently informed him of her plans to marry Bob (evidently Robert Steven Greenblatt, key activist), leader and organizer of one of the largest marches sponsored by National Mobilization Committee to End War in Vietnam. She informed him of their plans to move to Georgia where she hoped to work "in the underground." We had no previous information indicating that she had any connection whatsoever with any organization or Greenblatt or of Greenblatt's plans to leave New York. Additional information has revealed that Eisman, who had reportedly fallen from graces of Soviets, appears to have regained their confidence, sees numerous U.S. travelers and communists and lectures at an unidentified special school on youth activities in U.S.,

On January 15, 1969, Richard Ober, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), suggested to the Liaison Agent that the Bureau should not overlook the utilization of the Agency's Hunter project for the development of leads in the New Left and Black Nationalist fields. Ober admitted the traffic involving individuals in these areas might be light but that the Bureau might wish to give consideration to placing stops on certain key personalities.

The Hunter project for which we have given the designation of Bureau Informant 200 essentially consists of specialized coverage of mail between the United States and Russia. If we have some reason to believe that one of our subject's is communicating with anybody in the Soviet Union, it might be worthwhile to place a stop.

We should bear in mind that this coverage is extremely sensitive and the handling of any matters involving Bureau Informant 200 should conform with the ground rules which have been established. (See Mary Triplett, extension 631, Soviet Section.)

U. S. SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Reference is made to memorandum from Mr. Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Department of Justice, to Mr. John A. Mintz, Assistant Director, Legal Counsel Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, dated October 17, 1975, and captioned "Senate Select Committee Request." This communication enclosed a letter to the Attorney General from Senator Frank Church, Chairman, SSC, dated October 15, 1975.

In Senator Church's letter he advised of the intention of the SSC Staff to interview some nine FBI sources who had cooperated with this Bureau in the course of certain COINTELPRO operations. The Senator stated that he hoped there would be no objection to conducting these interviews but that, if such objections were raised, he be contacted by Tuesday, October 21, 1975.

It is noted that the issue raised in Senator Church's letter is not new. During August, 1975, SSC Staff Member John T. Elliff proposed interviews of this type and, at that time, this Bureau objected on the principle of the FBI's obligation to protect the confidentiality of relationship with our sources. As a result of this objection, a conference was held between yourself and Senator Church on the evening of August 14, 1975. It is our understanding that an agreement was reached whereby the Committee would attempt a limited number of interviews of individuals whose identities and/or relationship with the FBI has been protected. However, as a condition precedent to such interviews, the FBI was to be allowed to contact such individuals to inform them of the proposed interview and to determine whether they would be receptive to such an interview. Senator Church concurred in this arrangement; however, subsequently on August 18, 1975, Mr. Elliff advised that Senator Church had reconsidered his agreement to the aforementioned procedures as a result of persuasion by the SSC Staff. Elliff, at that time, indicated a letter recording Senator Church's change of attitude had been drafted. To date, no such formal acknowledgement has been received by this Bureau and no interviews have been attempted in the interim.

In his October 15, 1975, communication, Senator Church again raises this issue. Although he does note that the matter was originally discussed with you "some weeks ago," he makes no mention of the agreement reached at that time. Apparently, as some sort of precedent, he does cite the fact that the FBI did make available for use and interview the names of Internal Revenue Service (IRS) personnel who cooperated with the FBI in certain COINTELPRO activities. We do not consider release of these identities on our part to be a concession with respect to confidentiality of sources in general since we specifically stipulated that we considered IRS personnel to be U. S. Government officials acting in their capacity as such.

It is clear that the merits of this issue have not changed since the agreement reached between yourself and Senator Church on August 14, 1975. I feel very strongly that the issue of confidentiality of sources is vital to the continuing effectiveness and integrity of the FBI in its investigative operations. I, therefore, strongly urge that should you concur in the need on the part of the Committee to conduct the interviews which they propose, that the agreement of prior contact by the FBI with those individuals be insisted upon as a condition to such interviews to insure their amenability and uphold the obligation of confidentiality which the FBI has assumed.

The Honorable Edward H. Levi
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

The Select Committee is presently investigating the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation carried on as part of the COINTELPRO program. We appreciate the cooperation of the FBI and the Justice Department in making materials available to us in this area. However, one problem remains to be resolved. The Committee believes its staff must contact and interview certain persons who received information from the FBI in the course of COINTELPRO operations. The FBI has withheld the names of such persons from the Committee's use on the grounds that they were FBI "sources".

The Committee wishes to stress that it is not interested in questioning these persons about any role as a "source", but rather as a recipient of information from the FBI. Indeed, in many instances we would not have been aware that the individual was a "source" had not the FBI excised the name from the materials delivered to us. Nevertheless, to minimize any incidental deleterious effects on legitimate FBI operations, the Committee has selected a very limited number of persons whom we desire to contact and interview. (See attached list and materials.)

As you will recall, we originally discussed this matter with you some weeks ago. Since then the Committee has had an opportunity to consider the issue more fully in the light of our experience with other investigations. For example, our inquiry into the relationships between the FBI and the Internal Revenue Service clearly showed the need to use the names of IRS personnel who cooperated with the FBI in certain COINTELPRO activities. Those names were made available to us for our use.

As I am sure you can appreciate, what is at stake here is the investigation of serious breaches of the security and confidentiality of information obtained by the FBI. Such information was apparently disclosed or "leaked" for the purpose of disruption. The full extent of such disclosures in many of the cases, such as the efforts to discredit Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is still unknown. Surely, it would be incongruous for an inquiry into these matters to be impaired on the grounds of the FBI's interest in preserving confidentiality.

The Committee has a clear mandate and a firm commitment to investigate allegations that the FBI attempted to harass and discredit individuals. The integrity of this investigation depends upon our ability to conduct interviews without the appearance of outside interference. Therefore, we hope you have no objection to our conducting the interviews of the persons on the attached list, but if you do, please contact me by Tuesday, October 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Church

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 8, 1968, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California, have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Fellowship for Social Justice, formerly known as the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, Page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities".

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

LOS ANGELES STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

A source advised in July, 1968, that the Los Angeles Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (LA-SNCC), headquartered at 7406 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California, is not a membership organization but a loose-knit agency composed of young militant, black nationalists from South Los Angeles who have eliminated all Caucasians from their ranks and have initiated a program against the draft, the war in Vietnam and discrimination and have proposed a revolutionary program utilizing armed force, political and economic action to obtain their goals. LA-SNCC is an arm of the National Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee organization headquartered at Atlanta, Georgia, and with the naming of LA-SNCC Director RONALD LEROY WILKINS as Deputy Director of SNCC for the West Coast, the affinity between the National and Local organization will be more harmonious.

The above source advised that at a meeting of LA-SNCC leaders on March 22, 1968, the group indicated it was necessary for all SNCC personnel to be armed in order to shoot "pig cops" when they are stopped in South Los Angeles.

A source, in May, 1968, indicated that LA-SNCC leadership has encouraged all associates of LA-SNCC to obtain arms and to be armed at all times.

On April 5, 1968, four LA-SNCC officers were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department at LA-SNCC headquarters in possession of two fully loaded .30 caliber M-1 carbines and one .12 gauge shotgun, pump action, with four rounds of 00 gauge buckshot. On May 4, 1968, five LA-SNCC officers were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department for possession of loaded firearms.

On May 14, 1968, then Director JOHN FLOYD and three Security Officers, LA-SNCC, were arrested by the New Orleans Police Department for possession of stolen property. New Orleans Police Department found four automatic weapons in attache cases carried by the above persons. They also obtained material concerning instructions in the making of Molotov cocktails, bombs and booby traps for sabotage in guerilla-type warfare. This literature was published in Communist China.

II. ACTIVITIES OF SUBJECT

Unless indicated otherwise activities referred to took place in Atlanta, Georgia.

Characterizations of individuals and organizations where available are set forth in the appendix section of this report.

On July 6, 1965, Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President, SCLC, conferred with ANDREW J. YOUNG, Executive Vice-President, SCLC; RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, Program Director, SCLC; HARRY WACHTEL and ABERNATHY regarding the recent arrest in Selma, Alabama, of a Rev. REESE affiliated with SCLC, who had been accused of embezzling funds of the Dallas County, Alabama Voter's League.

AT-T-1, 7/65

Rev. KING called a conference on February 12, 1966 of SCLC officers and other individuals for the purpose of examining the immediate financial condition of SCLC and endeavoring to determine methods of increasing the organization's income. ABERNATHY attended this conference as did RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, HOSEA WILLIAMS, Director of Voter Registration and Political Education, SCLC, JUNIUS GRIFFIN, Director of Public Relations, SCLC, CLARENCE JONES and STANLEY LEVISON. LEVISON took an active part throughout this meeting.

AT-T-1, 2/66

On March 16, 1966, JAMES HARRISON, Comptroller, SCLC explained to STANLEY LEVISON various problems experienced by the SCLC Finance Office and the fact that ABERNATHY as Treasurer of SCLC appeared reluctant to act on suggestions to solve some of these problems. LEVISON told HARRISON he appreciated the problems experienced by the Finance Office and assured him he would discuss the matter with ABERNATHY in order that ABERNATHY would take necessary action.

AT-T-1, 3/66

On June 13, 1966, Rev. KING conducted a conference of SCLC officers and other individuals for the purpose of examining the current financial status of SCLC and ascertaining methods of reducing the expenses of the organization. ABERNATHY attended this conference at which CLARENCE JONES, STANLEY LEVISON, and HARRY WACHTEL were also present and took an active part. RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL and HOSEA WILLIAMS each attended portions of this conference.

AT-T-1, 6/66

ABERNATHY on July 7, 1966, reviewed financial contributions recently received by SCLC from the general public and noted that these contributions averaged approximately $1200 per day. He explained to several employees of the SCLC Finance . Office he thought these contributions were the result of a spontaneous reaction by the public to the recent shooting of JAMES H. MEREDITH in Mississippi rather than the solicitation efforts on the part of STANLEY LEVISON.

AT-T-1, 7/66

Rev. KING on July 25, 1966, reminded ABERNATHY they were to attend a meeting of the Executive Board of the American Foundation on Non-Violence (AFN) to be held July 26-27, . 1966 in New York City. KING said HARRY WACHTEL would also attend this meeting.

AT-T-1, 7/66

AFN is a tax arm of SCLC located in New York City of which HARRY WACHTEL serves as Executive Director.

AT-T-1, 7/66

On August 9, 1966, ABERNATHY attended a meeting of the SCLC Executive Board held as part of the tenth annual SCLC Convention August 8-11/1966, in Jackson, Mississippi. During this meeting a discussion ensued concerning the desirability of SCLC's retaining the services of HOSEA WILLIAMS, because of current publicity suggesting involvement of WILLIAMS with one HAROLD BELTON ANDREWS, who was convicted in July, 1966 in the United States District Court, Northern District of Georgia, on a charge of Interstate Transportation of a Stolen Motor Vehicle. In response to this discussion, ABERNATHY said he and Rev. KING were of the opinion that SCLC was sorely in need of the continued services of an individual possessing the energy and resourcefulness of WILLIAMS, and therefore felt SCLC should retain WILLIAMS.

AT-T-1, 8/66

At the aforementioned meeting of the SCLC Executive Board, ABERNATHY explained that in the early part of 1967, SCLC would engage in a fund raising activity which would involve Rev. KING's making a "pilgrimage to the Holy Land". He said this activity had been proposed by a travel agency (not identified) and STANLEY LEVISON and HARRY WACHTEL had previously been requested by SCLC to ascertain the feasibility of this proposal and recommended SCLC proceed therewith.

AT-T-1, 8/66

ABERNATHY was present November 22, 1966 at a meeting of the SCLC Executive Staff which Rev. KING called for the purpose of considering methods of raising funds for SCLC. JUNIUS GRIFFIN and HOSEA WILLIAMS attended part of this meeting. STANLEY LEVISON attended the entire meeting and actively participated.

AT-T-1, 11/66.

During the latter part of January, 1967, officers of SCLC met in Chicago, Illinois, to discuss lack of progress in SCLC's voter registration drive in that city. On October 28, 1958, a confidential source advised that according to JEAN SMITH, Secretary at Communist Party Headquarters, New York, HARRY BELAFONTE had been a member of the Young Communist League (YCL) before coming into prominence as an entertainer.

The YCL has been designated by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

JAMES BEVEL

BEVEL, in early March, 1966 was observed to be present at the offices of the West Side W.E.B. DuBois Club in Chicago (DCC). Discussion took place at this time centering around reaction to a recent notification that the Attorney General of the United States intended to label the DuBois Clubs as a Communist front. BEVEL, in conversation, stated that he would have ignored this notification, and kept about the work in which he was engaged. He felt that if the DuBois Clubs have a real program of help for the people, then people would answer for the clubs despite any labels applied to them.

Most present agreed that the attack on the DuBois Clubs was a part of the plan by the "establishment" to undermine the civil rights movement. They felt that the recent hearings into Klan activities in this country was only a beginning which would lead to a full attack on the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the real target. One of those present stated during the course of this discussion that he was not a Communist, and to this BEVEL was overheard to reply that every thinking American should be. He stated that Negroes have not begun to read yet, but when they do, they will all be socialists.

RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL

The Courier - Journal, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 3, 1959, reported that CARL BRADEN had been sentenced to one year in prison on a charge of contempt of Congress on February 2, 1959, in Atlanta, Georgia. The story noted that he had been convicted under this charge on January 21, 1959, and that the charge arose from his refusal to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Louisville Times, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 27, 1961, reported that the United States Supreme Court had, on that date, affirmed the contempt of Congress conviction of BRADEN.

The Courier - Journal on May 2, 1961, reported that CARL BRADEN had surrendered to the United States Marshal at Atlanta, Georgia, on May 1, 1961, to begin serving a one-year prison sentence for contempt of Congress.

The Courier - Journal, on February 2, 1962, reported that CARL BRADEN had been released from the Federal Prison Camp at Allenwood, Pennsylvania, on February 1, 1962. BRADEN indicated that he would return to his home, Louisville, Kentucky.

Scheduled to participate in a symposium at this affair was one JULIUS GRIFFIN, author of "New York Times Series on Harlem Hate Gangs." This symposium was described as relating to "What's Behind Harlem Hate Gang Scare?"

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position in civil rights. LEVISON's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL

In July, 1962, HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, also known as JACK H. O'DELL, was considered by the Communist Party, USA, as a member of its National Committee.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL told EDWINA SMITH December 27, 1963, he would not go back to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference on the same basis because he is now a "left person" and if they cannot accept him the way he is then they will have to forget about him.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist newspaper, which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

The George Washington Carver School has been designated by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On February 5 and 11, 1954, LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Atlanta, Georgia. He, at that time, stated that he was not, and had never been, a member of, or a sympathizer with, the Communist Party.

On January 21, 1964, a confidential source advised that on January 18, 1964, Dr. LAWRENCE REDDICK visited with BENJAMIN J. DAVIS at the home of JACOB [illegible], State Chairman of the CP in Maryland. During conversation between REDDICK and DAVIS, it was mentioned that they had attended school together in Georgia and REDDICK commented that if he had stayed with DAVIS, he would have also joined the CP.

BAYARD RUSTIN

In "The Saturday Evening Post," issue of July 11 - 18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

DAVIS on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, DAVIS told RUSTIN that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which RUSTIN was to speak.

BAILEY said WILLIAMS had mentioned to her (date not specified) that on a prior occasion (date not specified) HUNTER PITTS O'DELL had told him more about politics than he could read.

OF CHICAGO (DCC)

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

During the past year DCC activity has been almost nonexistent.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised in September, 1966, that MIKE ZAGARELL, CPUSA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA. This source also advised in September, 1966, that DANIEL RUBIN, CPUSA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working-class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, advised that GUS HALL, CPUSA General Secretary, indicated the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

A third source advised in September, 1967, that JARVIS TYNER was elected chairman of the DCA on September 10, 1967, at the Third National Convention of the DCA held in New York, New York, from September 8-10, 1967.

A fifth source advised on September 21, 1967, that the headquarters of the DCA is located at 34 West 17th Street, New York, New York.

GANDHI SOCIETY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

The Gandhi Society for Human Rights was formed for the purpose of developing a philosophy and technique of non-violent civil rights protests. It is a non-action organization and makes no attempt to influence legislation nor participate in demonstrations. The Society furnishes legal assistance in certain civil rights cases. The organization was incorporated June 14, 1962.

THE NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, to supersede Guide published on May 14, 1951, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following information concerning "The National Lawyers Guild:"

1. Cited as a Communist front.

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311, on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).

2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)

3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."

1 SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW dated April 26, 1946, changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals.

The SCEF is self-described as having deep roots in the South where it began as the educational wing of the SCHW, organized in 1938 to work for economic and political reform. When the SCHW disbanded in the late 1940's, SCEF continued as an independent organization, rallying support for integration and democracy and helping to stimulate and nurture new movements of the early 1960's. The SCEF maintained headquarters in Louisiana for twenty years, but in 1966 moved its headquarters to Louisville, Kentucky.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

On the late afternoon of October 11, 1975, Douglas Marvin, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, called me and requested that the Attorney General be furnished a brief statement concerning FBI relationships with the Senate Select Committee and the House Select Committee for inclusion in a statement being prepared for submission to the White House. Mr. Marvin said that the Attorney General's intention was to bring together anticipated problems concerning the two committees in the hope that a means for resolving these matters might be found.

I discussed this request with Mr. Jenkins in the absence of Mr. Callahan and I returned Mr. Marvin's call and dictated to the Attorney General's secretary. I requested her to furnish me with a copy of the dictation. Attached is the page furnished by the Attorney General's secretary which I received on October 15, 1975.

This matter was brought to the attention of the Executives Conference on October 14, 1975.

FBI Relationships with the Senate and House Select Committees

Senate Select Committee

FBI relationships with the Senate Select Committee generally have been harmonious with responses to the Committee requests delivered promptly. When difficulties have occurred they have been overcome by negotiation and tolerance on both sides. Future difficulties that may be confronted and require similar resolution include the scope of any public hearing regarding electronic surveillance of foreign nationals or their agents and establishments.

House Select Committee

In the past the FBI has experienced the following difficulties with the House Select Committee:

(1) It has held public hearings which were orchestrated to present adverse views without an opportunity for prepared rebuttal, such as occurred on October 9, 1975, regarding electronic surveillance matters;

(2) It has demanded delivery of documents on unreasonably short notice considering the time necessary to locate and prepare for delivery the enormous quantity of documents called for;

(3) It has interviewed employees, former employees and confidential sources of the FBI without first advising the FBI of the proposed interview and has demanded the appearance of agents below the policy-making level.

A large number of documents dealing with electronic surveillance conducted without a warrant between 1970 and July 30, 1975, were furnished to the Committee on Friday, October 10, 1975. Certain excisions in these documents were made and it remains to be seen whether the Committee will accept the determinations made as to what types of information, e.g., identities of subjects who were monitored, should have been excised.

The overriding concern for the future is the need to establish an understanding on both sides of the policies to be followed by each in responding to the Committee's mandate. General agreement to specified operating procedures would alleviate the suspicion on the part of the Committee and the fear of Committee ~~re~~esponsibility on the part of the FBI.

During the discussion on 10/20/75 concerning the forthcoming testimony of Assistant Director W. Raymond Wannall, Mr. Wannall mentioned to the Senate Select Committee Staff Members present (John T. Elliff, Domestic Task Force Director, Michael Epstein, and Mark Gitenstein) that in view of the fact these hearings would be open to the public the Committee would not be fully briefed concerning the background involved in the Bureau mail opening programs because of the sensitivity involved. Elliff indicated that he was in agreement and that he would contact F. A. O. Schwartz, Chief Counsel of the Committee, to see if executive session testimony could be arranged. Elliff subsequently telephonically contacted SA Paul V. Daly of this Division and advised him that Mr. Wannall could testify in executive session on mail openings in the late afternoon on 10/21/75 at approximately 4:30 p.m. subject to the approval of the Senators.

After consultation with Assistant Director Wannall, Elliff was advised that this would be acceptable and that Mr. Wannall would appear for executive session testimony concerning mail openings if the Senators agree to accept executive session testimony.*

Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination in the Department, was advised of the possible executive session testimony and interposed no objection to the Bureau giving such testimony.

Issues

The following issues are among those which are raised by the FBI mail opening programs and the FBI's cooperation in CIA's New York intercept project:

(1) Whether mail opening as an investigative technique should ever, under carefully circumscribed regulations and with proper authorization, be sanctioned in the counter-espionage field. The FBI mail opening programs raise this issue with more force than the CIA programs since, in general, the FBI programs were more circumscribed, more tightly controlled, and more focused than the CIA programs. The FBI programs were also very successful in achieving their counter-espionage goals. Mail opening does represent an extremely valuable ~~menas~~ means of intercepting the communications link in espionage communications. On the other hand, the sanctity of the mails is an established tradition in the United States, and it is doubtful that any selection criteria could be sufficiently precise to allow for the opening of only mail to or from illegal agents.

(2) Whether the mail openings that did occur were properly authorized. It is clear that FBI Director Hoover personally approved the majority of the mail opening programs. The one which was implemented without Headquarters approval was terminated shortly after it came to the attention of Headquarters. It does not appear, however, that any Attorney General ever authorized these programs or that the exact nature and full scope of the programs was even brought to the attention of any Attorney General, even though opportunities existed to do so. Similarly, despite frequent contacts with the Postal Inspection Service regarding the implementation of these programs, no Chief Postal Inspector was ever informed that the FBI contemplated the actual opening of mail.

(3) Whether the legal implications of the mail openings were adequately considered. There is no evidence that legal considerations were discussed after 1951, and there is evidence that Headquarters personnel who ran the programs either considered them illegal or ignored the legal implications entirely.

that these programs did generate such information apparently came as a surprise to the Headquarters officials who ran the programs and the obvious questions are whether this was permitted or encouraged, and, if neither, how it could have happened.

(5) Whether the selection of names for inclusion on the CIA's Watch List in the Hunter Project was sufficiently controlled and limited. Because the FBI requested the CIA for information on categories such as peace organizations and on specific individuals and groups involved in the peace and women's movement, a serious question is raised whether there was sufficient restraint on the use of this source.

NOTE: As discussed in the FBI MAIL OPENING PROGRAMS summary, several of the FBI mail opening programs utilized, as selection criteria, various "indicators" which, with some accuracy, identified letters sent by or addressed to foreign illegal agents. The fact of these indicators has been made public by FBI officials in recent weeks. But: these indicators are still felt to be valid and the FBI has no reason to believe that they are not still being used. It is recommended, therefore, that the Committee avoid questions which would require in response an elaboration of the nature of these indicators.

STAFF MEMORANDUM

EXECUTIVE SESSION ON FBI MAIL OPENING PROGRAMS

FBI Assistant Director W. Raymond Wannall and William Branigan, Chief of the Soviet Section of the FBI Counterintelligence Branch, have requested an opportunity to appear before the Select Committee in executive session to discuss classified aspects of the FBI mail opening programs. Both of them will be witnesses at the public hearing on FBI mail openings on Friday.

The Committee staff has agreed that the public hearing will not disclose the following aspects of FBI mail openings:

1. The identity of the foreign nations involved, including the Soviet Union, Communist China, Cuba, Mexico, Hong Kong, Japan, most Western European countries, and several Central and Latin American countries.

2. The fact the mail to and from the Soviet Embassy and the Soviet United Nations Mission, the Cuban United Nations Mission, other Soviet-bloc Embassies was selectively opened. (S)

3. The "indicators" used as criteria for selective opening of mail screened in several other programs designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States. (The fact that there were "indicators," but not their nature, may be disclosed publicly.)

4. The identities of specific individuals and groups whose mail was opened either by the FBI or by the CIA at the request of the FBI. (FBI officials will state publicly that some of these, especially in the category "peace and protest groups," were not adequately justified.) Some of these included:

   Leonard Bernstein
   Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam
   Jeremy Stone
   Cambridge Center for Study of Public Policy

DOWNGRADED TO
Per 60324 UCBAW/SBS
Date 8-7-11

The following are questions which cannot be discussed in public hearings because of this agreement. They should be raised at this executive session:

1. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail openings aimed at mail to and from the [Soviet and Soviet-bloc embassies?]
2. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail opening programs using "indicators" and designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States? [(Soviet and Cuban)]
3. What was the actual intelligence value of the material supplied to the FBI by the CIA from its mail opening operation?
4. How good are the "indicators" in selecting mail of foreign intelligence agents only and not mail of American citizens or others who are not foreign agents?
5. What standards were used for opening mail to and from Communist China, and what was the intelligence value of these programs?
6. Do FBI counterespionage officials desire to resume any mail opening programs, with proper authorization from Congress and the Attorney General?
7. How do the benefits of mail opening compare with the benefits of warrantless electronic surveillance currently used by the FBI for foreign intelligence and counterintelligence purposes?

NATHANIEL WALTER JUNIOR

Nathaniel Walter Junior has been identified as a member of the Black Panther Party (BPP).

> The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

Junior appeared in United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois, on January 18, 1971, and entered a plea of guilty on Federal Firearms charges against him, as well as on a bail jumping charge. On February 5, 1971, United States District Judge Sam J. Perry, Chicago, Illinois, sentenced Junior to three years probation on the above charges.

On September 28, 1971, Junior was interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Junior advised that he was no longer a member of the BPP, having resigned as a result of a dispute with Bobby Rush, Deputy Minister of Defense of the Illinois BPP, regarding the unauthorized use of Panther funds by Rush. He further alienated himself with the BPP when, in January, 1971, he refused to repay the BPP $1,500.00 that had been paid as bail to secure his release from jail on the aforementioned charges.

Junior furnished the following information concerning his activities with the BPP:

He originally joined the BPP at the invitation of Fred Hampton, in the Fall of 1968. Hampton at the time was the Chairman of the Illinois BPP and was subsequently slain by Cook County States Attorney Officers, December 4, 1969, who at the time were executing a search warrant in Chicago, Illinois.

While in the party, Junior held the title of Field Secretary and was privy to administrative matters relating to the BPP. On two occasions he traveled out of the state on party business, once to BPP National Headquarters for the purpose of meeting the National Staff, and to Washington, D. C., to attend the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention (RPCC).

The RPCC, held August 7, 1970, at Howard University, Washington, D. C., was organized by the BPP to structure "a constitution that will guarantee us the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; a constitution that serves the people instead of a constitution that serves the ruling class".

In early 1969, Junior negotiated to purchase a quantity of weapons from an undercover United States Treasury Agent, for the BPP and as a result was arrested on a Federal Firearms charge. While out of jail on this charge, Junior learned that he had been indicted and decided to jump bond and leave the country.

Junior left the country for Canada, through the aid of persons connected with the draft resistence movement, and who did not know of his pending criminal charges or his affiliation with the BPP. He declined to identify these persons who aided in his leaving the country or those who aided him in Canada.

The BPP in no way aided him in leaving the country, nor did they provide him any financial assistance while he was a fugitive and for this he is bitter.

Junior decided to leave Canada and return to Chicago for the purpose of surrendering to face trial on the Federal Firearms Act charge, because of his parents' poor health.

Upon his return, he learned the BPP was no longer functioning on a democratic basis but was now being dominated by Bobby Rush, Illinois Minister of Defense. Junior sought to bring the party back to its former state, by calling for reforms and reorganization, which was resisted by Rush and he was subsequently removed from the Central Staff and he resigned from the party in September, 1970.

He is in no way involved with the BPP, or other extremist activities, at this time nor does he have any plans to resume his association with the BPP, as he feels "The BPP and other organizations are being duped by white intellectual revolutionary hobbyists, who are taking advantage of the hopelessness and frustrations of the Black community to exercise their theories on political and social democracy."

Junior claims to have no knowledge of any BPP underground, now or in the past, but admits that preliminary discussion regarding an underground cell of the BPP was had in the early development of the Illinois BPP, but that plan like most others never got off the ground.

The BPP was, and is, a big disappointment to Junior in that they departed from their original concept of neighborhood protection against police brutality, to one of international identification with communism. He maintained his association with the BPP in spite of this change in philosophy because of his respect and confidence in Fred Hampton, who rationalized that in order to further the cause of neighborhood control they'd need the financing and good will of governments oppose to people oppression, no matter where these people were.

Junior feels that the BPP is dead in Illinois and blames its demise to its identification with communism and coalitions with white revolutionary groups.

He has three things to show for his membership in the BPP; (1) probation on the Federal Firearms charge, (2) three years probation on State narcotics case (which he claims was a frame by police, but to which he entered a plea, "as part of a deal", at the urgency of his BPP attorney); and (3) an outstanding indictment with the State of Illinois charging he and fourteen others with kidnaping and related crimes. Junior advised that this was another case of police harassment of the BPP, and another example of how the BPP has lost its attractiveness to people in Chicago. Of the sixteen people who were originally charged in the kidnapping case, including the deceased Hampton, only two of those, Yvonne King, and Billy Brooks, continue as members of the BPP.

Junior claims to have no contact with any members or former members of the BPP, except when the persons charged with the kidnaping report for trial every month. Junior cites the numerous continuances of the kidnaping case as an example of white hobbyists playing with young black revolutionary hopefuls. To him the continuances represent a conspiracy on the part of the BPP attorneys and the States Attorney's Office, as on alternate months they ask that the case be continued and neither ever objects. If he could afford it he would not avail himself of the BPP attorney's services.

Junior is required to report to his probation officer twice per month and is not allowed to travel outside the State of Illinois, without prior permission.

Logical sources, in positions to know, advise that Junior is not now active with the BPP, and has not been so in more than a year.

On October 29, 1971, the FBI recontacted Junior and learned that his pending kidnaping case was continued from October 26, 1971, until November 30, 1971.

NATHANIEL WALTER JUNIOR

Nathaniel Walter Junior has been identified as a former member of the Black Panther Party (BPP), who during the time he was a BPP member was indicted on state charges of kidnaping and related crimes, with other BPP members, on June 8, 1969, by the Illinois Cook County Grand Jury.

> The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

The case against Junior, and the other BPP members indicte with him, has never come to trial having been continued numerous times.

On May 10, 1972, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Junior as he appeared in State Court, and the case was continued until June 15, 1972.

Reliable confidential sources advise that Junior is not a BPP member, nor does he associate with the membership of this organization.

This is to identify two serials, copies of which were furnished to Barbara Banoff of the staff of the Senate Select Committee (SSC) for retention in the Committee's files.

Banoff on 10/10/75 requested copies of a memorandum from Mr. Baumgardner to Mr. Belmont dated 3/30/60 and a letter to the New York Office and 15 other offices dated 3/31/60, both captioned "Communist Party, USA, Counterintelligence Program," be furnished to the Committee. Banoff stated she believed these documents had previously been requested but she was unable to locate them in the Committee files. She said she desired to have these documents because they set forth a logical program by which the FBI made an effort to prevent the Communist Party from infiltrating legitimate mass organizations. As an aside, she stated she thought the FBI was successful in this effort, indicating she felt the technique was worthy and proper.

Copies of the above two documents were made available to a SSC representative on 10/22/75. Copies of the documents together with a cover page indicating their receipt are attached. No excisions were required in these documents.

This memorandum advises that the Senate Select Committee (SSC) intends to release to the press copies of eight FBI documents (attached). The release of these documents is scheduled for 10/24/75, following the appearance of Assistant Directors Wannall and Mintz and Section Chief Branigan before the SSC.

These documents were made available to the SSC responsive to specific requests. They have been excised and declassified where necessary. With regard to dissemination of FBI documents to the Select Committees of Congress, both the White House and the Department have held that, once a document has been excised, declassified and furnished to either Select Committee of Congress, it is that Committee's property to do with whatever that Committee deems appropriate. However, we do have an understanding with the Committee that allows for more extensive excisions once the Committee decides to make documents available to the press. Personnel in the Senstudy Project have reviewed the attached eight documents and have made additional excisions which are acceptable to the SSC. These excisions are designed to protect Bureau sources, targets and, where possible, the identity of Bureau personnel.

The contents of the documents that will be made available generally portray the Bureau in a favorable light. They highlight: (1) tight supervision and control of the mail intercept programs; (2) general objectives of the program; (3) accomplishments; and (4) Departmental officials' knowledge of the existence of some of these programs.

Of course, it would be desirable if no documents were released by the SSC; however, Mr. Elliff advises that the senators are desirous of furnishing some documents to the press. If, in fact, Bureau documents have to be released, it appears that the ones the SSC plans to use are favorable to the Bureau.

For the information of Bureau officials reviewing the attached documents, no excisions have been made; however, the brackets in red ink show what information will be obliterated from the documents prior to their release to the press.

SUBJECT: THE LONG COMMITTEE

The Attorney General called on the morning of February 27, 1965, to advise he wanted to consult with the Bureau on certain problems raised by the Long Committee, which is exploring the use of mail covers, et cetera. He noted there was a possible problem concerning Chief Inspector Montague's testimony and whether it was necessary for Montague to change his testimony. Also, he felt that Internal Revenue Service had been using investigative techniques which they should not use and this could pose a problem. He said that the President had asked him to coordinate with all executive agencies concerning the problems raised by the Long Committee.

Inspector Moore and I met with the Attorney General i his office this afternoon. Mr. Courtney Evans was present. I told the Attorney General that in Montague's testimony he was told by Attorney Fensterwald that if any of the questions had national security implications Montague should not answer them. Consequently, Montague was estopped from doing other than answe in the negative when asked questions touching on national security. With this interpretation, it was questionable whethe an attempt should be made to change or explain Montague's testimony, particularly in view of the obvious lack of judgment on the part of Fensterwald and the desire of Long for publicity I made it clear to the Attorney General that from our dealings with Montague, he was a man of integrity and sacrificed his personal desires for the welfare of the country and had coopera fully with us. The Attorney General said he had no intention of changing one word of Montague's testimony, but he was considering advising Long and Fensterwald that there were extreme delicate national security matters touching on the area being covered by the committee and there could be exceptions to the answers given in the testimony when they touched on such sensitive security matters. He said further that he contemplat seeing Senator Long and impressing on him that the committee would not want to stumble by mistake into an area of extreme interest to the national security as they nearly did in a matte affecting CIA. (Apparently CIA got wind of some inquiries by the committee relative to their secret operation and went to the committee and warned them off.) Katzenbach contemplates asking for a list of the witnesses who will appear before the committee together with a brief summary of the expected testimon On the basis of this, he will be able to advise Senator Long when he should steer clear of a sensitive area.

I told Mr. Katzenbach that I certainly agree that this matter should be controlled at the committee level but that I felt pressure would have to be applied so that the personal interest of Senator Long became involved rather than on any ideological basis. Mr. Katzenbach said that he had already talked to Vice President Humphrey about Fensterwald, who he considered a wild man, and that Humphrey had promised to talk to Long concerning Fensterwald. Katzenbach said that in addition to the Vice President he might have to resort to pressure from the President himself, although he would prefer to work it out without resorting to the President. He indicated there was no one on the committee itself who could be helpful and that he did not expect any help from Senator Eastland.

Mr. Katzenbach said that he expected troublefrom the possible activities of IRS and the military in the investigative field; that if some of these matters are uncovered before the committee they will tend to undermine the restricted and tightly controlled operations of the Bureau. I told him that our operations are tightly controlled and particularly in the delicate areas of concern, we restrict ourselves to important security matters.

Mr. Katzenbach said he was going to see Senator Long on Monday and wanted to know if the Bureau would like someone to go along with him. I told him no.

Mr. Katzenbach said he would advise us of the results of his conversation with Long. He also asked that I advise the Director of our discussion and I told him I would.

I called Mr. DeLoach and briefed him on this problem in order that he might contact Senator Eastland in an effort to warn the Long Committee away from those areas which would be injurious to the national defense. Sen. Committee on Judiciary

The Attorney General called and advised that he had talked to Senator Long last night. Senator Long's committee is looking into mail covers et cetera. The Attorney General stated he thought somebody had already spoken to Senator Long as he said he did not want to get into any national security area and was willing to take steps not to do this. The Attorney General stated that Mr. Fensterwald was present for part of the meeting and Fensterwald had said that he had some possible witnesses who are former Bureau Agents and if they were asked if mail was opened, they would take the Fifth Amendment. The Attorney General stated that before they are called, he would like to know who they are and whether they were ever involved in any program touching on national security and if not, it is their own business, but if they were, we would want to know. The Attorney General stated the Senator promised that he would have a chance to look at the names if he wanted to, personally and confidentially, and the list would have any names involving national security deleted and he would tell the Senator how many but no more.

The Attorney General stated that the Postmaster General is going down there this morning [illegible] which he, the Attorney General, thought would be helpful to Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department.

The Attorney General stated that Senator Long also said he is not going to propose legislation to abolish mail covers as he thought they served a useful purpose but he did think that control should be tightened. I stated I thought there was great laxity in the matter of mail covers and the matter of tapping telephones.

I stated I have always been of the view and recommended back when Tom Clark was Attorney General that no agency of the Government should tap a telephone except with the written approval of the Attorney General. I stated there would then be in one place a list of all phone taps and the purpose and reason for them. I stated that it is a fact, insofar as I am concerned, that I am the only head of an agency who does not have authority to tap telephones. I stated that I know that subordinates down the line in some agencies will tap phones without the knowledge of the chief of the agency and there is grave suspicion in Washington by some newspapermen that their phones have been tapped by agencies of the Government trying to find out where they are getting their information. I stated I have always been opposed to the law whereby it is necessary to get the authority of a court to tap phones because of the composition of some of our courts and the employees thereof, but I have always felt that the President should issue an Executive Order confidentially to all agencies that all phone tapping be discontinued except when specifically approved by the Attorney General so there would be in one place a list and then if any committee in Congress got on the warpath, the Attorney General would have a list he could vouch for as being the only phones tapped by the Government. The Attorney General stated that made sense. I stated many agencies are opposed because they realize there would be a marked restriction. I stated we only have 45 phone taps, which is a low number for a country the size of ours and the area we have to cover. The Attorney General stated no one has any idea how many phone taps the whole Government has.

I stated there is also a school being conducted in California by a private organization which instructs the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service in the matter of phone tapping and they have sent their own personnel there to be trained. I stated Internal Revenue has also from time to time hired private outside phone tappers to do their tapping. I stated it is that type of thing if there were a real investigation which would come out. The Attorney General commented that he would not guarantee some of it won't come out. I stated I was amazed when I learned of the school in California as I saw a reference to it in the newspaper and wanted to know what it was and what officers attended. I stated we have our own instructors and do it ourselves.

I stated I thought the Attorney General had made good headway with Senator Long. The Attorney General stated he thought it would be helpful, but his problem is that he thinks the Senator is fine but he does not think that Fensterwald is as straightforward, or to put it another way that Fensterwald is smart and devious and the Senator is straightforward and not very bright and that is the problem. I stated I thought that Fensterwald is trying to get publicity for the Senator. The Attorney General stated the Senator said he did not want to get into this and he would give him, the Attorney General, the names and a summary of the testimony and told Fensterwald to do so, but he, the Attorney General, can't say Fensterwald is going to do it; that he will on some but he did not know that he would on all. I stated I had no faith or confidence in Fensterwald and neither did Senator Eastland. The Attorney General stated that Senator Eastland may have already talked to Senator Long or else the Vice President, but somebody had waked him up. I stated Senator Eastland said he would do it Wednesday, but he may have called him.

The Attorney General stated that is where it stands now and we shall see what happens.

Very truly yours,

SUBJECT: [redacted] CODE WORD
ESPIONAGE - RUSSIA

Prior memoranda have advised of the starting of the trial of the Soviet illegal agents in this case, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Baltch, in the Eastern District of New York and motions by defense counsel regarding the nature of evidence to be submitted in this case.

The Judge originally denied the motions, but Assistant Attorney General Yeagley has advised that USA Hoey in answering questions by the Judge gave answers which were too broad and which the Government cannot support and therefore it is necessary for the Government to make additional statements to Judge Dooling who is sitting in this case in the Eastern District of New York. My memorandum of September 30, 1964, advised that while we were not aware of the contents of the conversations between USA Hoey and Judge Dooling, we had no objections to Yeagley's proposed amending statement as it was correct.

Subsequently on the afternoon of 10-1-64, Departmental Attorneys Thomas K. Hall and Kevin Maroney advised Supervisor Litrento and myself that USA Hoey's statement to Judge Dooling was unfortunate because it was too broad. They believe that the Judge's query pertained to any tainted source at the Baltch residence and was confined to eavesdropping devices, but that Hoey in his answer had not confined the answer to the residence or to eavesdropping, either of which would perhaps have prevented the current problem. (No information obtained from wiretaps or microphones is contemplated to be used in this case and the only tainted source is a mail intercept which did not take place anywhere near the residence).

Subsequently on the evening of 10-1-64, Mr. Hall advised that he had just learned that apparently Hoey in his discussions with the court had stated, or at least indicated, there was no microphone involved in this case and, of course, this was incorrect and the Department felt the record had to be corrected. asked if the Bureau had any objection and was advised in the negative. This morning Mr. Hall called to advise that USA Hoey had now requested advice as to what answer could be given the court should he be asked (1) if there was a wiretap involved in this case and (2) if there was a mail intercept in this case. After checking, I called Hall back and said that we would leave the answer to #1 up to the Department, but that if the Department saw necessary, the Bureau would not object. However, with regard to #2, under no circumstances is the Bureau willing to admit that a mail intercept was utilized and Hall said he would pass this information on to Hoey and Assistant Attorney General Yeagley who is in New York.

Hall advised that he had discussed this case with Acting Attorney General Katzenbach this morning and Katzenbach was of the opinion that the Department must be candid with the Judge. He said Katzenbach recognized the problems, but felt that in view of the value of the case, an effort should be made to go ahead with the trial even if it might be necessary drop the overt act where our tainted source is involved, and proceed on a general conspiracy basis with the recognition that the verdict might be against us, but we would have revealed the Soviet espionage activities to the people. Hall said he was passing on the Acting Attorney General's comments to Assistant Attorney General Yeagley. Hall said that the motions of defense counsel and the complications with regard to the answers may eventually forcethe Government to drop the prosecution. He said in view of the many facets involved, he did not feel there was any reason to agree to a pre-trial hearing on the issue of tainted source if this should be required by the court, and rather than do this, they are prepared to drop the espionage charges and attempt to proceed on lesser grounds.

ACTION

SAC Schmit, NYO, was advised of the above developments and requested to keep in close touch with Yeagley in New York and you will be kept advised of developments.

ROUTE IN ENVELOPE

The captioned code word covers our investigation of the unknown subject at San Diego, California who offered to sell information concerning Sonar to the Soviets for $60,000.

BACKGROUND:

Information concerning this first came to our attention on 7-17-64 when our highly confidential coverage detected a letter addressed to Soviet Ambassador Dobrynin, postmarked 7-16-64 at San Diego, California. We followed up on this by inserting a message in a San Diego newspaper indicating that we were interested in the offer. The unsub then telephonically contacted an Agent of the Washington Field Office at the telephone number furnished him in the message in the personal column of the San Diego newspaper. Thereafter, we intercepted a telephone call that the subject made to the Soviet Embassy during which he attempted to verify that he was dealing with Soviet citizens. Acting on the subject's instructions, a package containing a camera suitable for document photography and $500 was dispatched by United Airlines air freight from Washington to San Diego during the early morning of 8-13-64.

In the meantime, another resident of San Diego, one R. Tobin, advised our office there that he had been engaged by an unidentified individual to pick up a package at United Airlines Freight Terminal which he was to subsequently turn over and for which he would be paid $20.

CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS:

According to SAC C. Williams, an Agent of the San Diego Office posing as R. Tobin in the latter's automobile picked up the package at 8 p.m., PDT, and, thereafter, proceeded as he had been instructed to a drive-in in the San Diego area. SAC Williams advised that the coverage by San Diego Agents at the Air Freight Terminal uncovered a suspect who appeared to be closely observing Tobin's automobile and who, thereafter, surveilled the automobile to the area of the drive-in.

After waiting the agreed time, our Agent proceeded to a parking lot adjacent to a church about one mile further down the highway. Shortly after the Agent arrived, he was approached by the suspect who inquired "Are you Tobin?" Thereafter, the suspect claimed to be a messenger who had been engaged to pick up the package. He did deliver an envelope to our Agent which contained the $20 agreed to. At this point, the Agent, posing as Tobin, identified himself and requested that the suspect identify himself and voluntarily accompany him to the San Diego Office.

The suspect, who has now been identified as the subject, is Perry A. Chandelaine, 3231 Par Drive, La Mesa, California. He is a Grade 13 engineer at the Navy Electronics Laboratory, San Diego. This laboratory does all the training and electronics work and research, including Sonar, for the Navy in the San Diego area. In this connection, the subject claimed that he had access to information classified "Confidential." He has been a Government employee in excess of ten years and is the father of ten children.

In May, 1952, subject was an applicant for the position of Special Agent with this Bureau. Apparently during the interview it was determined the applicant's father was killed by the police in Chicago in 1932 when caught stealing butter from a boxcar. He had been arrested for selling whiskey prior to that in Wisconsin. Applicant was considered very nervous and had a vagotomy operation for a nervous disorder performed in 1947. Applicant had an ulcer which caused his discharge from the service and which still, at that time, gave him trouble. He was unfavorably recommended for employment.

According to SAC Williams, the subject readily acknowledged that he was in real deep trouble and claimed that his wife was also knowledgeable concerning his activities. Subject freely admitted contacting the Soviets and offering to sell information to them. However, the subject steadfastly maintained that he was a patriotic American, a Catholic and one who hated the Russians and that he was endeavoring to get all out of them that he could and he then intended to turn whatever he obtained over to ONI.

Subject's wife was invited to the office and she confirmed that earlier in the evening the subject had apprised her of his activities and gave her a letter which was addressed to ONI and which she was to mail upon receipt of a phone call from him. This letter was mailed by her when she was contacted by the subject who was at that time in the San Diego Office. Subject and his wife both furnished signed statements.

Thereafter, the facts in this case were presented to Mr. Thomas K. Hall of the Internal Security Division of the Department who advised that in view of the illegal source of the original information and all that flowed from it, he could not authorize the filing of a complaint charging the subject with an attempt to commit espionage. ONI was immediately advised both at San Diego and at Washington concerning the identity of the subject and the facts admitted by him. This was done in the event the Navy could institute some action. Upon completion of the signing of the statements, subject and his wife were permitted to return to their residence since no prosecutive action could be taken.

ACTION:

The investigation at San Diego is continuing, the completed results of which will be furnished to the Navy so it can institute administrative proceedings against him. The facts will, likewise, be furnished to the Internal Security Division of the Department which has requested them.

SUBJECT: SAM SURVEY
ESPIONAGE - RUSSIA

This is to consider recommendation of the New York Office that the Sam Survey Program be reinstituted.

BACKGROUND:

Sam Survey was a successful program operated between 1959 and 1966, which involved screening of air mail destined for selected European countries and cities by our Agent personnel in an effort to detect Soviet illegal agent mail. This program was made possible through the confidential cooperation of highly placed postal officials. In 1961 we identified, through this program, the [redacted] in New York City [redacted] In addition, [redacted], we uncovered [redacted] which had operated in the [redacted] for a certain period and then shifted its activities to the [redacted]. [redacted] In July, 1966, this program was discontinued.

Foreign Intelligence Project

RECOMMENDATION OF NEW YORK:

New York points out that although ample evidence indicate the presence of a substantial number of Soviet illegals, the Bureau has been unsuccessful in locating any in recent years; that various programs and projects put into operation have been unsuccessful. Further, it is its contention that the illegal's most vulnerable area is still his letter writing and that this is the area we have the best chance by far to locate and identify illegals. Therefore, New York wishes to submit for the Bureau's consideration the reinstitution of Sam Survey. If this is not possible, it recommends that the Bureau consider requesting CIA or postal authorities to take over this program.

OBSERVATIONS:

It is agreed that the problem to locate Soviet illegals has assumed serious proportions and that the resumption of this program could be of inestimable value to the Bureau in meeting its responsibilities in that regard. However, present Bureau policy precludes the use of this technique. For this reason, it is not believed that we consider reinstitution of this program directly or through CIA or postal authorities.

ACTION:

New York is being advised that the reinstitution of Sam Survey Program either directly or through CIA or postal authorities is not advisable at this time.

C. D. B

On January 15, 1969, Richard Ober, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), suggested to the Liaison Agent that the Bureau should not overlook the utilization of the Agency's Hunter project for the development of leads in the New Left and Black Nationalist fields. Ober admitted the traffic involving individuals in these areas might be light but that the Bureau might wish to give consideration to placing stops on certain key personalities.

The Hunter project for which we have given the designation of Bureau Informant 200 essentially consists of specialized coverage of mail between the United States and Russia. If we have some reason to believe that one of our subject's is communicating with anybody in the Soviet Union it might be worthwhile to place a stop.

We should bear in mind that this coverage is extremely sensitive and the handling of any matters involving Bureau Informant 200 should conform with the ground rules which have been established. (See Mary Triplett, extension 631, Soviet Section.)

As of 1/28/62, a total of about 1,764,440 letters has been surveyed in 46 days.

Fifty-one cases have been opened to determine whether recipient might be Soviet illegal agent. Thirty-two cases have been closed when subjects appeared to be legitimate residents.

SUBJECT: BUREAU INFORMANT 200 - POLICY

This is to advise you that on 10/31/62 representatives of this Bureau conferred with CIA representatives James Hunt, John Mertz and Thomas Chalmers at CIA concerning "Project Hunter." At this conference our observations concerning Hunter material furnished since our last conference on 2/13/62 were given CIA. In addition, we advised CIA specifically of certain Hunter items which were of no interest to us and of certain Hunter items which were of interest to us. These items were set forth in memorandum form and furnished to CIA; a copy of same is attached.

CIA advised that its "Hunter-Don" coverage was being operated seven days a week until November 15. This concentrated coverage is for the purpose of determining if there is any illegal agent traffic. After November 15 all Hunter coverage can be expected to be reduced until after the Christmas mail rush has subsided.

The CIA representatives were very pleased with our analysis of the Hunter material received and with the attention afforded it by us. They are very cooperative in that they are willing to focus their attention on any particular phase of coverage we suggest for our own benefit. For CIA's interest we furnished them a copy of the attached memorandum of our analysis of typical information furnished by Bureau Informant 200 of interest to us.

RE: PROJECT HUNTER

After an extensive review of 2500 Hunter Reports since our last memo captioned as above and dated 8/21/62, we have made the following observations in the interest of economy in regard to Project Hunter as it related to our Bureau and your Agency to insure time will not be unnecessarily expended by our Bureau processing unwanted material and to save your Agency the expense involved in the preparation of such material.

I Traffic Which Holds No Interest:

1. Soviet-bloc immigrants desiring to repatriate to USSR. These people are interviewed by INS and INS refers anything of interest to us.

2. Americans traveling to the USSR as such travel is permissible and several hundred people a year visit the USSR while on tour abroad as well as Soviets returning to visit relatives. We, of course, have an interest in such travel involving people on the CIA Watch List, known Communist Party members, and suspected intelligence agents.

3. U. S. professors in Academic Research corresponding with each other. It is not likely if U. S. professor is passing any data he would identify himself at the same time.

II Traffic of Specific Interest:

1. All data re Cuba. This serves to identify pro-Castro followers in the U. S.

2. All data re U. S. Cubans in contact with Cubans attending Friendship University in Moscow.

3. All material emanating from Puerto Rico of an Anti-U. S. nature and pro-Soviet.

4. Data re U. S. peace groups going to Russia and while in Russia.

5. Data indicating death of any U. S. Communist abroad.

6. Data re Maurice Hyman Halperin(now in Cuba); Helen Kagen Pozner; Miriam Zeitlin Seborer, Oscar and Stuart Seborer(All in Russia); Max, Celia and Rose Seborer(New York); Noah and Anna Sparer Seborer (Mexico).

8. Any traffic from or to U. S. Students in Moscow or to U. S. persons who were former students in Moscow.

9. Any traffic between U. S. persons who are with a current exposition or a previous exposition in the USSR.

1. As a part of the recent request by the Senate Select Committee, we reviewed our files to see if there were any responses to General Allen's letter of September 17, 1973 which requested recertification of "Watch Lists." At that time we did not find any responses. We recently checked with the FBI and Secret Service and discovered that there were in fact responses. The Secret Service, by letter dated 21 September 1973, did in fact recertify a "Watch List" containing U.S. names, however, NSA has not accepted the U.S. names.

2. Inclosed are copies of the FBI and Secret Service letters. Request you forward these to the Senate Select Committee with the above comments.

Dear General Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter of September 17, 1973, concerning the necessity for a mutual review of our policies with respect to the compilation and maintenance of the Watch List. I share your concern and fully agree that we should review our procedures to assure that our authorities, particularly in light of recent court decisions, are not exceeded.

As you are aware, however, the Department of Justice in filing affidavits with the United States District Court, Eastern District of Michigan, in the case of United States versus William Ayers, et al., which case involved the Students for a Democratic Society, an organization included on the Watch List, took the position that the intercepts obtained by your agency were lawful and not within the disclosure requirements of the court.

We are instituting a review of our procedures but feel that any decision reached respecting the Watch List should await the final ruling of the court.

On October 21, 1975, from approximately 2:15 p.m. to 3:35 p.m., Section Chief William A. Branigan, CI-1 Section, Intelligence Division; Assistant Director John A. Mintz, Legal Counsel Division; and myself appeared at an Executive Session of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities to discuss classified aspects of the Bureau's various mail intercept programs. Present were Senator Church, Chairman of the Select Committee; Senators Mondale, Goldwater, P. A. Hart, Huddleston, and Schweiker; as well as various members of the staff of the Select Committee.

Generally speaking, the reception by the Chairman and the various Senators, as well as members of the staff, was a friendly one. No antagonism was shown to the Bureau representatives, and the Senators by their questions indicated a desire to help the Bureau in our foreign counterintelligence operations.

At the request of the Chairman, the eight separate mail intercept surveys were explained to the Committee, including the length of time that these surveys were in operation and the value that was derived from them.

During the hearing we were supplied with a copy of a Staff Memorandum which outlined various aspects of our operations which would not be disclosed during a public hearing. The Staff Memorandum also outlined certain questions which could not be discussed at a public hearing and suggested that these questions be raised at the Executive Session. A copy of the Staff Memorandum is attached for your information.

Memorandum from Mr. W. R. Wannall to Mr. J. B. Adams
Re: Senstudy

At the conclusion of the hearing, considerable questions were asked concerning legislation or direction which would be necessary from The Congress to permit the Bureau to carry out mail opening programs which were productive in their results and which would not at the same time invade the privacy of innocent American citizens.

ACTION:

This is submitted for your information.

ADDENDUM BY LEGAL COUNSEL 10/23/75, JAM:mfd

I answered the Committee's questions described in the last paragraph of this memorandum by explaining to them that in a security case we would find it most difficult to meet the 4th Amendment standard of probable cause in order to obtain a search warrant. for mail. If we are to be required to obtain warrants prior to obtaining mail and if we are to be successful, a lower standard of probable cause such as is permissible in administrative searches such as those conducted by Health Inspectors would be necessary. In answer to a specific question I explained that the Supreme Court has ruled that mail is protected absolutely by the 4th Amendment.

EXECUTIVE SESSION ON FBI MAIL OPENING PROGRAMS

FBI Assistant Director W. Raymond Wannall and William Branigan, Chief of the Soviet Section of the FBI Counterintelligence Branch, have requested an opportunity to appear before the Select Committee in executive session to discuss classified aspects of the FBI mail opening programs. Both of them will be witnesses at the public hearing on FBI mail openings on Friday.

The Committee staff has agreed that the public hearing will not disclose the following aspects of FBI mail openings:

1. The identity of the foreign nations involved, including the Soviet Union, Communist China, Cuba, Mexico, Hong Kong, Japan, most Western European countries, and several Central and Latin American countries.

2. The fact the mail to and from the Soviet Embassy and the Soviet United Nations Mission, the Cuban United Nations Mission, other Soviet-bloc Embassies was selectively opened. (S)

3. The "indicators" used as criteria for selective opening of mail screened in several other programs designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States. (The fact that there were "indicators," but not their nature, may be disclosed publicly.)

4. The identities of specific individuals and groups whose mail was opened either by the FBI or by the CIA at the request of the FBI. (FBI officials will state publicly that some of these, especially in the category "peace and protest groups," were not adequately justified.) Some of these included:

    Leonard Bernstein
    Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam
    Jeremy Stone
    Cambridge Center for Study of Public Policy

62-116395-961

~~TOP SECRET~~

The following are questions which cannot be discussed in public hearings because of this agreement. They should be raised at this executive session:

1. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail openings aimed at mail to and from the [Soviet and Soviet-bloc embassies?] (X)

2. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail opening programs using "indicators" and designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States? [(Soviet and Cuban)] (X)

3. What was the actual intelligence value of the material supplied to the FBI by the CIA from its mail opening operation?

4. How good are the "indicators" in selecting mail of foreign intelligence agents only and not mail of American citizens or others who are not foreign agents?

5. What standards were used for opening mail to and from Communist China, and what was the intelligence value of these programs?

6. Do FBI counterespionage officials desire to resume any mail opening programs, with proper authorization from Congress and the Attorney General?

7. How do the benefits of mail opening compare with the benefits of warrantless electronic surveillance currently used by the FBI for foreign intelligence and counterintelligence purposes?

Re: Documents Pertaining to Requests for Mail
Covers Made by the Bureau from 1971

NOTE:

Materials furnished in response to this request were obtained by review of all abstracts regarding communications to the Postal Service requesting mail covers. Since 1971, all national security mail covers have been requested by means of a letter to the Chief Postal Inspector, Postal Service. The materials being furnished only encompass investigative matters involving domestic security cases wherein the mail cover has been terminated whether the investigation is pending or closed. The materials are comprised of copies of the letters to the Postal Service and supportive memoranda where used in lieu of notes. These materials were reviewed and, where necessary, excisions made. By memorandum 9/24/75, the SSC was furnished the bulk of such documents located at that time. The documents being furnished now are those which could not be immediately located. All domestic mail cover requests which were located by means of the abstract review have now been furnished to the SSC.

By oral agreement with the SSC staff, only domestic security mail covers were required to be furnished.

The Bureau is requested to consider securing copies of income tax returns for the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN; ROBERT MARVIN SHELTON, 1708 - 15th Street, East, Tuscaloosa, Ala., or the ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE, a name by which the UKA is sometimes known.

Inquiry at the banks in Tuscaloosa has failed to reveal any accounts in the name of the UKA or ROBERT M. SHELTON, except a small personal account of SHELTON at the First National Bank of Tuscaloosa. Informants have advised that SHELTON is paid probably $8,000 per year for his work as Imperial Wizard. This money is sent in monthly to UKA headquarters in Tuscaloosa by the individual Klaverns and presumably put in some bank.

An examination of pertinent income tax returns might furnish information concerning the financial standing of SHELTON and UKA which could be used in this program.

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM INTERNAL SECURITY
DISRUPTION OF HATE GROUPS
(ROBERT M. SHELTON)
(UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.)

Robert Marvin Shelton is a full-time paid employee of the United Klans of America, Incorporated (UKA), Knights of the Ku Klux Klan with the title Imperial Wizard. He is probably the most influential and well-known Klansman in the United States. We are endeavoring as a counterintelligence technique to develop information discrediting Shelton or embarrassing to the UKA.

Through analysis of the income tax returns we may be able to determine secret sources of Shelton's income or depository used by him for the Klan organization. There is a possibility that he is misappropriating funds. We also have information Shelton has been on the payroll of a Mobile, Alabama, engineering firm as a public relations man.

In the event we determine such information we will consider exposing Shelton within the Klan organization, publicly or by furnishing information to the Internal Revenue Service.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended the Liaison Section obtain from the Internal Revenue Service two uncertified copies each of the Federal tax returns filed by Shelton and the UKA for the past five years. Attached is a memorandum for the use of the Liaison Section.

ReBHlet 11/7/64.

Attached are Xerox copies of Federal income tax returns filed by Robert M. and Patty Lou Shelton for the years 1959-63 inclusive. Also attached are Xerox copies of United States corporation tax returns filed by Robert M. Shelton as a corporate officer of the United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), for the years 1961 (year ending 6/30/62) and 1963 (year ending 6/30/64) as well as a statement of no tax liability for the year ending 6/30/63. Information set forth in these tax returns is for lead purposes only and should not be set forth in the details of any investigative report.

The following comments and investigative instructions are noted in connection with these tax returns:

1. The individual returns filed jointly by Shelton and his wife during the period 1959 through 1963 indicate Shelton's occupation to be "salesman" and "manager" and in no instance do they indicate any employment or association with the Klan. This is in conflict with the corporate returns filed by Shelton for the UKA where he indicates his position as "Imperial Wizard" or "President."

2. Shelton's return for 1959 indicates it was prepared by Ed F. Allen, Jr., Certified Public Accountant, Post Office Box 311, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The form and typing on the other tax returns, both corporate and individual, indicate a strong likelihood these too were prepared by Allen. You should review your files and conduct necessary investigation to determine if Allen is active in connection with financial matters relating to the Klan.

RE: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM

3. In no instance in his individual tax returns does Shelton indicate the receipt of income for his position of Imperial Wizard or President of the UKA. However, his returns do indicate he has received some salary payments from such sources as "Tom Harris," "J.H. Mason," "Alabama Tire Company," "J & H Transport Co.," and "Tonn & Johnson Elec. Svc." Inasmuch as your informants have advised Shelton spends almost all his time on Klan business and is paid almost $10,000 annually by the Klan, it would appear these salary sources are covers for payments made to him to compensate for his Klan employment. Necessary investigation should be conducted to resolve the true source of Shelton's income.

4. Shelton's return for 1960 shows other income received from a wrestling enterprise in Nashville, Tennessee. This source of income should also be checked to determine its legitimacy. It is possible Shelton's relationship with this enterprise also represents a cover for Klan activity or that the payments made to him were for efforts in behalf of the Klan.

5. In no instance does Shelton indicate any interest or dividend income. It is known he has a bank account at the First National Bank of Tuscaloosa. An attempt should be made to determine if he has failed to report interest actually earned. It is also noted the corporate returns filed by the UKA do not in any instance indicate interest received.

6. Shelton's return for 1963 lists other income of $500 as received from "Commissions - Dixie Engineering Co." Your attention is directed to an editorial that appeared in the Tuscaloosa "News," edition of 9/12/64, wherein it is indicated Shelton had been listed on the payroll of a Mobile engineering firm as a public relations man. Investigation should be conducted to determine Shelton's relationship with the Dixie Engineering Co. and also whether this company had a contract involving the use of Federal and/or state funds.

7. The corporate returns of the UKA, as filed by Shelton, in no instance indicate salary payments although both Shelton and his wife have been reported by your informants as full-time employees.

9. The gross income of Shelton and his wife for the year 1963 totals $1,075. This amount does not appear to be sufficient to support a family of five. All possible efforts should be made to develop evidence indicating Shelton is withholding or concealing income.

This investigation should be afforded prompt and continuing attention and the Bureau must be advised of all pertinent developments.

When all possible leads have been developed a blind memorandum should be prepared setting forth Shelton's background and current position with the Klan and all data probative of a possible violation of Internal Revenue laws. The Bureau will make this information available to appropriate Internal Revenue Service officials at the Seat of Government.

ROBERT SHELTON
INTERNAL SECURITY - X

At the request of the Internal Security Section, Mr. William Parker, Internal Revenue Service (IRS), was contacted on 6/23/67 to determine the status of the IRS case on Robert Shelton, Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America.

Parker advised that IRS had initiated investigation of Shelton for possible tax evasion for the years 1963 through 1965. This case is still under investigation but indications are that Shelton owes no income taxes for 1963 and 1965 and owes $100 in taxes for the year 1964. According to Parker, it appears that the criminal tax investigation of Shelton will be closed and the case will be referred to the Audit Division of IRS for civil disposition.

This report relates to the alleged evasion of income taxes for the years 1963 and 1964 by ROBERT M. SHELTON and the alleged wilful failure to file 1961 and 1963 corporate returns by the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, K.K.K., INC. It was also alleged that SHELTON diverted KLAN funds to his personal use. SHELTON has been Imperial Wizard of the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, K.K.K., INC. since 1961. He maintains an office for himself and the KLAN in his residence at 18 Lake Sherwood, Northport, Alabama 35476. He received mail for himself, the KLAN, and ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE at P. O. Box 2369, Tuscaloosa, Alabama 35401. ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE is a cover name for the KLAN organization in Alabama. He filed his individual income tax returns involved with the District Director, Birmingham, Alabama.

Revenue Agent Wade Hutchinson, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, cooperated in the joint investigation. This case has been classified as sensitive.

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION:

The investigation originated as a referral from Audit Division. It was alleged that SHELTON received $4,000.00 from DIXIE ENGINEERING COMPANY of Mobile, Alabama, during the years 1963 and 1964 and reported only $2,000.00 from this source during the aforementioned years. It was further alleged that SHELTON travels in a late model Cadillac, dresses well and recently built a new house while reporting very nominal amounts of income on his tax returns.

In respect to the KLAN, it was alleged that no corporate returns were filed for the years 1961 and 1963 and that corporate funds were being diverted to the personal use of corporate officers.

KU KLUX KLAN organizations were the subject of an investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee during the years 1965 and 1966. SHELTON was tried and convicted on a Contemptof Congress charge for refusing to testify and produce KLAN records before this committee. He was given the maximum sentence, one year in prison and $1,000 fine, on October 14, 1966. SHELTON's conviction is presently on appeal.

Evidence was offered before the House Un-American Activities Committee alleging SHELTON signed checks on the KLAN bank account in Tuscaloosa, payable to cash, aggregating $5,600.00, which were cashed at grocery stores and service stations; and that he allegedly paid for automobiles and a diamond ring with KLAN funds. SHELTON refused to confirm or deny these allegations when testifying before the Congressional Committee.

EXTENT AND RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION:

1. I obtained photostats of INVISIBLE EMPIRE, UNITED KLANS, KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN OF AMERICA, INC., incorporation papers from IMPERIAL WIZARD ROBERT SHELTON. They disclose incorporation date of February 20, 1961, in Fulton County, Georgia. The general purpose of the corporation, according to these papers, is: "to teach patriotism, to support the Constitution and Laws of the United States, and to maintain the liberty bequeathed to us by our forefathers, and to preserve the American way of life."

2. I obtained SHELTON's tax returns from the files of the District Director, Birmingham, Alabama. They disclose adjusted gross income as follows:

Year	Adjusted Gross Income
1961	$ 5,600.00
1962	4,200.00
1963	1,875.00
1964	3,576.62
1965	4,663.23
1966	10,031.21

Shelton claimed a standard deduction on each of the returns and they were filed timely and the tax paid which was shown to be due thereon.

3. I obtained KLAN tax returns from the files of the District Director, Birmingham, Alabama. They disclose gross receipts and taxable income as follows:

FYE	Gross Receipts	Taxable Income
6/30/62	$ 2,980.05	$ -0-
6/30/64	7,415.63	-0-
6/30/65	13,487.60	741.09
6/30/66	75,168.12	7,135.01

SHELTON gives President JOHNSON credit for increasing gross receipts of the KLAN from $7,415.00 in 1964 to $75,168.12 in 1966. He stated that every time "LBJ" gets on television and condemns the KLAN, he gets a flood of membership applications. He also stated that the publicity he received during the House Un-American Activities Committee hearing in 1965 and 1966 got him many new members.

4. Revenue Agent HUTCHINSON and I interviewed SHELTON on seven different occasions between April 5, 1967 and May 17, 1967. He instructed his wife, BETTY LOU SHELTON, and KLAN BOOKKEEPER, MRS. MELVIN SEXTON, to cooperate with us and make available all records of financial transactions of the KLAN. SHELTON stated that:

a. He did not furnish books and records of the KLAN to the House Un-American Activities Committee because his attorney advised him he could not waive his immunity on part of his records or on part of his testimony. He either had to take the "Fifth Amendment" all the way or disclose confidential records of KLAN membership which he had taken an oath not to disclose.

b. The books and records of the KLAN are audited at least once a year by KLAN EXAMINERS. The results of this examination is reported on the annual corporate income tax return.

c. The KLAN is a tax exempt organization and should not be required to file tax returns. SHELTON exhibited a letter from the State of Alabama Revenue Department which stated that, "The UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., is exempt from Alabama income tax and as long as it is operated not for profit and not for the gain of any individual it will not be necessary that corporate income tax returns be filed."

SHELTON acknowledged he had never applied for exempt status for the KLAN for Federal tax purposes because he would have to disclose information regarding KLAN membership which he was not at liberty to disclose.

d. SHELTON stated that the KLAN is on a "Form System." Each Klavern (Unit) prepares a Monthly Financial Report in triplicate and sends one copy to the Imperial Office in Tuscaloosa, one copy to the State Klan Office and retains one copy for the local unit file. This form lists the following financial information from each unit, each month:

63-73-022-1-1

FINANCIAL RECORD OF UNIT

Balance as per bank statement for last month or cash on hand $_____

OTHER INCOME $_____	LIGHTS $_____

	GAS $_____
	OTHER EXPENDITURES (ITEMIZE)$_____

e. SHELTON stated that he was authorized by the KLAN to draw $15,000.00 per year salary but 1966 was the first year the KLAN was financially able to pay him the full $15,000.00. Prior to 1966, his salary was determined at the end of each year by aggregating his withdrawals from the KLAN, reduced by the amount of documentation for travel and other KLAN expenses he had turned in during the year.

f. SHELTON converted his carport into an office and moved the KLAN office from the Alston Building in Tuscaloosa into his space May 1, 1966. The KLAN pays SHELTON $35.00 per month rent and $15.00 per month on his utilities.

g. SHELTON maintains that four of the eight $500.00 checks he received from DIXIE ENGINEERING COMPANY bounced. The reason the four $500.00 items do not show on his bank statements as a debit to the account was the balances at the time the checks were returned were less than $500.00 and he picked up the checks with cash or with another check from DIXIE ENGINEERING.

h. KLAN checks were made payable to "Cash" because just any one would not cash a KLAN check. When he left Tuscaloosa on KLAN business he never knew where he would be able to cash a check so he would make the check payable to cash and cash the check at some grocery store or service station where he was known. The amounts were charged to him on the KLAN books and he brought back gas tickets, motel bills, invoices, etc., to account for the money spent. SHELTON stated that he travels 90,000 to 110,000 miles per year on KLAN business. He traveled 120,000 miles by automobile during the year 1966 on KLAN business.

5. Revenue Agent Hutchinson and I examined the KLAN's bank statements, cancelled checks, deposit tickets and cash receipts and disbursements books for FYE 6/30/62 through FYE 6/30/66. Receipts and expenses per books substantially reconciled with receipts and expenses per returns. For the four year period, net income was overstated on returns by $48.10. The 1963 corporate return filed by the KLAN was never located. We worked with a Profit and Loss Statement located in the KLAN file for that year which showed receipts of $3,879.44, disbursements of $3,634.89 and taxable income of $240.49. SHELTON claims he recalls mailing the 1963 return to the District Director in Birmingham. Mrs. CAROL LONG, KLAN BOOKKEEPER during this period, recalls preparing the return and giving it to SHELTON to sign and mail. Receipts during the period 2/20/61 to 6/30/61, the first four months of operation of the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, were negligible and were included in receipts for the FYE 6/30/62.

6. Revenue Agent Hutchinson analyzed all checks written to cash and examined the supporting documents. Checks to cash totaled:

Year	Total
1961	$ 156.18
1962	184.92
1963	1,033.75
1965	11,787.45	$18,266.99

Checks written to cash and not supported by documentation were reported by SHELTON as income on his individual income tax return. Numerous checks to cash were signed by SHELTON and cosigned by T.M. MONTGOMERY or JAMES HENDRIX. It was brought out during the House Un-American Activities Committee hearings that T.M. MONTGOMERY was signed by CAROL LONG, KLAN BOOKKEEPER, and JAMES HENDRIX was signed by SHELTON's wife, BETTY LOU. SHELTON acknowledged that the MONTGOMERY and HENDRIX names on the checks were KLAN code names for MRS. LONG and MRS. SHELTON and that the names and signatures were on file at the bank. This information was corroborated by FIRST NATIONAL BANK VICE PRESIDENT J. H. PERDUE.

7. Receipts per monthly reports of various KLAN UNITS were compared with total receipts per return for FYE 6/30/64 and 6/30/65. Total receipts per reports and total receipts per returns were as follows:

Year	Receipts per Reports	Receipts per Returns	Variance
6/30/64	$ 5,557.25	$ 7,415.63	$1,858.38
6/30/65	17,552.40	18,487.60	935.20
	$23,109.65	$25,903.23	$2,793.58

The variance between receipts per reports and receipts per return consisted mainly of monies which came in without a report and anonymous contributions.

8. Monthly reports of various KLAN UNITS were pulled at random from six different states. The reports were traced individually to Cash Receipts Journal, to deposit tickets and to bank statements, without discrepancy.

9. Photostats of several thousand checks from various KLAN UNITS, payable to SHELTON or ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE, were secured from the House Un-American Activities Committee file. I found only one of these checks which was not endorsed "For deposit only" to ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE account in Tuscaloosa. A check dated 3/28/64 payable to ROBERT M. SHELTON, in amount of $50.00, on the account of WHITE PATRIOTS, P. O. Box 7094, Montgomery, Alabama, was endorsed by SHELTON and THE AUTO-RITE STORE in Tuscaloosa. The amount was entered in receipts on the KLAN books as a donation from WHITE PATRIOTS of Montgomery. SHELTON stated that the $50.00 was for four recaps on his automobile which was used for KLAN business.

10. Transcript of the testimony of ERNEST N. MERRIWETHER, President, DIXIE ENGINEERING CORPORATION, Mobile, Alabama, was secured from the House Un-American Activities Committee file together with photostats of eight $500.00 checks payable to SHELTON during 1963 and 1964. MERRIWETHER was not contacted personally on advice of U. S. Attorney ROBERT JANSEN, Southern Judicial District of Alabama. MERRIWETHER has several tax suits pending in Mobile at present.

MERRIWETHER testified that he paid SHELTON the following checks:

Date	Amount
7/14/63	$500.00
9/24/63	500.00
11/6/63	500.00
11/13/63	500.00	$2,000.00
1/8/64	$500.00
2/13/64	500.00
3/13/64	500.00
4/22/64	500.00	$2,000.00

SHELTON reported $500.00 from this source on his 1963 return and $1,500.00 on his 1964 return. He contends four of the $500.00 checks "bounced." The ledger sheets on his personal account at the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TUSCALOOSA and the deposit tickets to this account disclosed eight $500.00 deposits to the account from DIXIE ENGINEERING and only one debit to the account for $500.00 for a returned DIXIE ENGINEERING check.

D. L. THOMAS, accountant for DIXIE ENGINEERING, stated that all eight checks to SHELTON were posted to their disbursements journal and postings to this journal were made from checks after they cleared the bank.

The eight checks in question were written on six different bank accounts. The banks were contacted and their records indicate all eight checks were eventually paid. However, SHELTON's five exemptions and a standard deduction for the year 1963 will offset his reported income plus the additional $1,500.00 on his 1963 return. The additional $500.00 in 1964 is more than offset by unclaimed depreciation on his automobile for that year. He will owe a small amount of self-employment tax on the unreported net amounts.

11. Revenue Agent Hutchinson and I examined SHELTON's account at LORCH's DIAMOND SHOP in Tuscaloosa from opening purchase on 6/11/62 to date. The diamond ring alleged to have been purchased with KLAN funds during the years 1964 and 1965 was purchased June 11, 1962 by MRS. SHELTON for $339.60, which amount includes carrying charges. She paid $30.00 per month on this account until November 8, 1963, at which time the account was paid in full. The checks drawn on the KLAN account to LORCH's DIAMOND SHOP during the years 1964 and 1965 were payments on an Invicta Tape Recorder purchased on 5/18/64 for $62.95 and a Webcor Recorder purchased on same date for $167.00. These items were purchased for the KLAN and charged to his account, according to SHELTON, because LORCH's would not extend credit to the KLAN.

12. Sales Invoice from STANSELL PONTIAC-CADILLAC COMPANY, 2115 15th Street, Tuscaloosa, shows the Cadillac purchased by SHELTON to be a used 1961 CADILLAC purchased on November 18, 1964, for $612.00 cash and a trade-in of a 1963 Pontiac Grand Prix. SHELTON said he traded the 1963 Pontiac on a 1961 Cadillac because the Pontiac had over 100,000 miles on it. The KLAN made three payments on the Pontiac for SHELTON but none on the Cadillac. A check was issued on the KLAN account on 6/15/63 to STANSELL PONTIAC-CADILLAC COMPANY for $277.66 and another check to the same company on 9/27/63 for $136.33. SHELTON failed to include these payments in income for the year 1963 and did not claim any depreciation on the Pontiac for that year.

13. SHELTON purchased his residence in Northport, Alabama, in April, 1966. The property was purchased from Lake Real Estate Company in Tuscaloosa for $20,876.47. He paid $11,000.00 down and assumed a $1,000.00 second mortgage held by Lake Real Estate Company. Balance of $8,876.47 was financed at FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

SHELTON acquired the $11,000.00 down payment by selling his residence at 1703 East 15th Street in Tuscaloosa for $5,000.00 and drew $6,000.00 accrued salary from the KLAN, which was included on his W-2 statement from the KLAN for the year 1966.

In June, 1966, SHELTON purchased the adjoining lot to his home for $1,500.00. This amount was raised by selling various books at KLAN rallys and through the mail. A separate record was kept by MRS. SHELTON of this income and was reported on SHELTON's 1966 income tax return.

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

The investigation disclosed that: (1) Substantially all checks received by the KLAN are deposited to the KLAN account in Tuscaloosa; (2) Currency received and cash donations are recorded on the KLAN books as receipts; (3) Checks drawn on the KLAN account payable to cash are substantiated by receipts and invoices; (4) there is no indication of income being received by the KLAN and not posted to their books; (5) controversial receipts by SHELTON from DIXIE ENGINEERING are offset by his exemptions and allowable depreciation on his automobile; (6) allegations that SHELTON purchased a diamond ring and a Cadillac automobile with KLAN funds are negated by available evidence, and (7) failure to file 1961 and 1963 returns by the KLAN resulted in no injury to the government.

I recommend that this case be closed in the Intelligence Division files because of lack of criminal prosecution potential and referred back to the Audit Division for such action as they deem appropriate. Audit Group Supervisor G. D. Grim advises he has no objection to this proposed withdrawal.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is our 1967 income tax return. Salary for which there is no W-2 forms comes from several short or part time jobs which did not withhold.

Just as last year we cannot, of course, voluntarily pay our tax so long as the war in Vietnam continues. Should the government run short of funds in the meantime we suggest repeal of the oil depletion allowance or any other of the tax breaks for the wealthy.

UNITED STATES SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE
TO STUDY GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH
RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Reference is made to the letter from the Director of the Domestic Intelligence Task Force, SSC, to the Deputy Attorney General's Office dated September 9, 1975, requesting delivery of FBI materials pertaining to Martin Luther King, Jr., and/or the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The purpose of this memorandum is to effect delivery to the SSC of information and materials relating to the September 8, 1975, SSC requests and specifically to the following Items in those requests: Items 8, 9, 11, 13 and 14.

Relative to Item 8, upon review of the file the only information located which is suggestive of being that to which Mr. Hoover referred in his written statement on the Baumgardner September 16, 1963, memorandum to Mr. Sullivan, is the prior memorandum from Mr. Baumgardner to Mr. Sullivan August 23, 1963. That document was previously furnished under Item 12 of this request.

Although there is no way of knowing just what Mr. Hoover was referring to with his statement, the August 23, 1963, memorandum summarizes a detailed memorandum which was attached to it and advises of Communist Party, USA, efforts being discontinued because of being "ineffective." Mr. Hoover wrote a comment on the August 23, 1963, memorandum to the effect that he could not ignore certain matters as having only "infinitestimal" effect on the efforts to exploit the American Negro by the communists.

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

ENCLOSURE 62-11[illegible] 964

Item 11 requested all materials reflecting or pertaining to conversations between Courtney Evans and Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall, and/or between Mr. Evans and the Attorney General, as described in Assistant Attorney General Marshall's September 20, 1963, memorandum to the Director captioned "Hunter Pitts O'Dell." An extensive review has been conducted of all logical files, abstracts and indices in an effort to find documents relating specifically to such conversations described in the request. The attached materials represent the only documents located that appear to be related in any manner to these conversations.

Item 13 requested the "detailed document prepared on Communist Party and the Negro in 1953," and the "analysis in this same field prepared by the Bureau in 1956," which are referred to in the penultimate paragraph of page two of Mr. Sullivan's September 25, 1963, memorandum to Mr. Belmont, subject "Communist Party, USA, Negro Question, Communist Influence in Racial Matters, Internal Security - C."

These two documents have been located. The 1953 document captioned "The Communist Party and the Negro" is a 103-page study of the interest and activities of the Communist Party, USA, in Negro-related causes and covers the years 1919-1952. The October, 1956, study is entitled "The Communist Party and the Negro, 1953--1956" and it supplements the 1953 study, and consists of 57 pages. SA Elmer W. Larson, Jr., discussed this matter with Mr. Michael Epstein of the SSC Staff on October 8, 1975. Mr. Epstein agreed that these documents need not be delivered at this time. It was agreed that the documents will be made available for access. If upon review copies are desired they will be provided. (66-04-1775; 100-3-75-1270)

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

In my letter dated August 2, 1963, information was set forth regarding a United Press International release issued on July 29, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, reporting that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., had agreed to submit to Attorney General Eugene Cook of Georgia an affidavit explaining the employment in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) of a man linked by Congressional committees with the Communist Party. The release stated that King sent an attorney to Cook's office to determine what the Attorney General wanted in connection with his inquiry into the relationship with the SCLC of Jack O'Dell. The release concluded with the statement "King said last week O'Dell had worked for SCLC on two occasions but his connections with the integration organization were severed for good last June 26." It is noted that the subject is also known as Jack O'Dell.

On August 16, 1963, a confidential source of the Bureau advised that King had been alerted by his assistant, Wyatt Tee Walker, to an article appearing in the Atlanta "Constitution" on August 16, 1963, regarding King's association with O'Dell. Walker told King that the article referred to a letter written by Georgia Attorney General Cook in which Cook stated that O'Dell is a known communist and in which Cook demanded an explanation from King as to why O'Dell was placed on King's staff.

King instructed Walker to reply to Cook's letter by stating that O'Dell, as of June 26, 1963, was no longer on King's staff. Cook was to be further advised that O'Dell came to him, King, through the Democratic Party of the Bronx, New York, and that King "has nothing to hide."

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Reference is made to my letter dated July 31, 1963, concerning an article in the July 25, 1963, issue of the Atlanta, Georgia, "Constitution" regarding Hunter Pitts O'Dell and entitled "Onetime Communist Organizer Heads Rev. King's Office in N.Y." My letter concluded that a telephone call to the office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in New York City on July 30, 1963, resulted in a statement by an unidentified female employee that Hunter Pitts O'Dell was no longer employed by the SCLC.

A United Press International release issued on July 29, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, reported that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., had agreed to submit to Georgia Attorney General Eugene Cook an affidavit explaining the employment in the SCLC of a man linked by Congressional committees with the Communist Party. The release states that King sent an attorney to Cook's office to determine what the Attorney General wanted in connection with his inquiry into the relationship with the SCLC of Jack O'Dell. The release further states that "King said last week O'Dell had worked for SCLC on two occasions but his connections with the integration organization were severed for good last June 26."

For your additional information in this regard, investigation by this Bureau's New York Office has developed information that, on July 2, 1963, and July 19, 1963, one "J. H. O'Dell" was the payee of checks in the amounts of $333.62 and $2,372.96, respectively, drawn by the SCLC. These checks were deposited to the account of Hunter Pitts O'Dell in a New York City bank.

On July 19, 1963, Charles Finnerty, Supervisor of the E. J. Creeden Company, 118 East 25th Street, New York City, the company which provides mailing service

Finnerty asked O'Dell to submit written instructions but O'Dell replied that he would get together with Finnerty when Finnerty returned from vacation on August 5, 1963. Finnerty had previously on July 17, 1963, telephoned and spoken to O'Dell at the New York Office of the SCLC.

On July 22, 1963, O'Dell visited the offices of the Creeden Company and turned over to Mrs. Dorothy Creeden, the company's secretary, a check for $200 to be credited to the account of the SCLC at the Creeden Company.

On July 31, 1963, a pretext telephone call to the New York Office of the SCLC was answered by a person identifying herself as Ruth Bailey. When asked if Hunter Pitts O'Dell was still employed by the SCLC, Ruth Bailey stated that she was not in a position to say. It is known that Ruth Bailey has been employed in the New York Office of the SCLC for some time; nevertheless, she commented to the person making the telephone call that she had not been employed by the SCLC very long.

Also on July 31, 1963, O'Dell was observed by Special Agents of this Bureau's New York Office entering the premises at 312 West 125th Street, New York City, which house the New York Office of the SCLC. O'Dell remained for several minutes and then returned to his residence.

REQUEST FROM SENATOR MONRONEY

#mori6
DECLASSIFIED BY SP I ALM/JJG
ON 11-8-00

For your information, there is enclosed a copy of a letter dated July 12, 1963, received from Senator A. S. Mike Monroney which is self-explanatory. I have advised Senator Monroney by letter of this date that, in line with Departmental policy, I am referring his letter to you.

In substance, the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) is not able to assume a role of leadership in the racial unrest at this time. However, the Party is attempting to exploit the current racial situation through propaganda and participation in demonstrations and other activities wherever possible. Through these tactics, the Party hopes ultimately to progress from its current supporting role to a position of decisive leadership.

Much of the CPUSA's hope to play a more decisive role is linked with Stanley Levison's role as an advisor to Martin Luther King. Party officials regard Levison, a secret member of the CPUSA, as being engaged in the most important work in the Party today because of his association with King. Levison has reportedly stated that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly." Levison is reputed to have written the speech which King delivered at the convention of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) in Florida in December, 1961.

When King indicated in June, 1962, that he wanted another administrative assistant, Levison recommended Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who had been elected to the National Committee of the CPUSA in December, 1959, under the pseudonym Cornelius James. King accepted Levison's suggestion and employed O'Dell in his organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). [illegible] identified O'Dell as a communist [illegible], 1963, King announced that O'Dell had resigned from the SCLC. However, O'Dell continues to associate with King to this

Recently, information received indicates that, while Levison still retains his strong communist convictions and still acts as an effective Party advisor to King, he is becoming critical of the Party's role in the relationship. He believes the Party has lost prestige among Negroes lately because it has not been sufficiently aggressive and effective in promoting civil rights for the Negro and otherwise actively immersing itself in Negro causes.

King reportedly attended a Labor Day weekend seminar in 1957 at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee. According to a publication circulated concerning this meeting by the Georgia Commission of Education, which allegedly has an undercover agent in attendance, the meeting was held to discuss methods and tactics for precipitating racial strife and disturbances. While CPUSA members were on the school staff and the school followed the policy of welcoming communist students, the CPUSA was not in control of the school.

See memo Bland to Sullivan 7-11-63

In June, 1960, the SCLC was reported to have solicited ~~[illegible]~~ funds from the Soviet and Czechoslovakian Embassies and the Rumanian Legation in Washington, D. C. Same caption

In recent years, King has signed a petition urging abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and petitions requesting the release of two imprisoned Communist Party leaders.

NAACP officials are aware that the NAACP is a communist target. As a result, the NAACP has taken a firm stand against communism and has warned its branches to be constantly alert against communist efforts to infiltrate them. The constitution of the NAACP contains an anticommunist clause which prohibits membership in the organization by known Communist Party members.

There is no indication that any of the key figures of the NAACP are or have been members of the Communist Party. Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, has been strongly anticommunist and has endeavored to keep the NAACP free of communists.

The following national officers of the NAACP had communist front affiliations--in no instance extensive--a number of years ago, but none is known to have been a Communist Party member: Arthur Spingarn, President; Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, Chairman of the Board of Directors; and Robert L. Carter, General Counsel.

Carey, Director, Program and Training Department. Carey was one of the founders of the Conference of Young Socialists (CYS) in 1957 and was a member at large of the Executive Committee of CYS. The CYS was controlled by the Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party, which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Full details of the activities related herein previously have been furnished for the Department's files in individual reports and related communications.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division has asked that we give him a statement concerning the Communist Party affiliation of Hunter Pitts O'Dell. We have called to his attention current reports which have been furnished to the Security Division, Attention Mr. Walter Yeagley, concerning O'Dell's activities.

Marshall was interested in O'Dell's association with Rev. Martin Luther King and he was given a copy of a report of Special Agent James F. O'Connell dated 12/20/62 at New York, which was classified "Confidential", which had been disseminated to Walter Yeagley of the Security Division. This report reflected the current association of O'Dell and the organization of Rev. King, namely, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). In addition to the above we also furnished him a copy of a memorandum from the Director to the Attorney General dated 12/6/62 and another dated 1/23/63, pertaining to O'Dell.

Marshall stated that upon review of the above information which was furnished to him, he would like to have a statement from the FBI concerning the present Communist affiliation of O'Dell, particularly, whether O'Dell actually is a member of the Communist Party at this time.

I advised Marshall that an appropriate memorandum would be prepared and furnished to him concerning his request. There is attached hereto a memorandum which has been prepared by the Security Division indicating that we have developed evidence through our coverage of the activities of the Communist Party, USA, which indicates that as of July, 1962, Party leaders considered O'Dell to be a member of the Party. It is being pointed out that this information is highly sensitive and confidential.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Hunter Pitts O'Dell

By way of background, Marshall indicated that the basis for his request stems from the necessity of having to talk with Rev. Martin Luther King with reference to O'Dell. He stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to adequately handle this inquiry.

ACTION:

If approved, attached memorandum to Burke Marshall will be handed to him. It is brief and specifically points out the need to treat this information as highly sensitive and confidential.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

On December 6, 1962, you were furnished information indicating that despite the Reverend Martin Luther King's statement of October 31, 1962, that Hunter Pitts O'Dell had resigned his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), O'Dell had continued to represent himself as being affiliated with the New York Office of the SCLC and, during late November and early December, 1962, was actively engaged in the work of this organization. Reverend King's public statement of October 31, 1962, was occasioned by an editorial in the October 25, 1962, edition of the "Augusta Chronicle," Augusta, Georgia, which identified O'Dell as a concealed member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, who was employed by the SCLC under the alias Jack H. O'Dell.

I thought you would be interested in the fact that on three occasions during early January, 1963, O'Dell registered at an apartment in Atlanta, Georgia, as J. H. O'Dell. On each occasion, O'Dell represented himself as being with the New York Office of the SCLC. When checking out on January 7, 1963, O'Dell requested that the bill be charged to the SCLC. An inquiry by the manager resulted in telephonic confirmation from the Atlanta Office of the SCLC that that organization would pay O'Dell's bill. Also, on January 10, 1963, O'Dell, Reverend Martin Luther King and eight other officials of the SCLC traveled together via Delta Airlines from Atlanta to Savannah, Georgia.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

On November 2, 1962, I forwarded to you a copy of an editorial that appeared in the October 25, 1962, edition of the "Augusta Chronicle," Augusta, Georgia. This editorial identified Hunter Pitts O'Dell, a concealed member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, as employed under the alias Jack H. O'Dell in the capacity of "Acting Executive Director" for the Reverend Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Subsequently, various newspapers contained accounts of a statement issued by the Reverend Martin Luther King on or about October 31, 1962, wherein it was stated O'Dell had resigned from his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Reverend Martin Luther King is quoted in this statement as denying knowledge of the communist affiliations of O'Dell and further describing allegations that O'Dell was the Southeastern Director of his organization as false in that O'Dell functioned "purely as a technician with 90 per cent of his work taking place in the North..." King further stated that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has a policy "that no person of known communist affiliation can serve on the staff, executive board or its membership at large."

I thought you would be interested in the fact that our New York Office has developed information that on November 23, 1962, O'Dell identified himself as affiliated with the New York office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and during late November and early December, 1962, he was actively engaged in New York City in the work of this organization.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall telephoned and advised that on instructions of the Attorney General he wanted to clear with us the rough draft of a memorandum which he was going to send to the Bureau. As a matter of fact, the Attorney General has approved the rough draft contingent upon our approval.

The proposed memorandum, a copy of which is attached, relates to Hunter Pitts O'Dell and Stanley Levison and action taken to advise Dr. Martin Luther King and his immediate associates of the communist activities on the part of O'Dell and Levison. Marshall states that some time ago it was not felt wise, in view of the position of the FBI informant, for Marshall to say that he knew O'Dell to be under communist control. Instead, he informed Dr. King and two of his immediate associates that O'Dell was believed by many people to have had communist connections and his association with Dr. King's organization was not in its best interest.

Subsequently, on June 22, 1963, according to Marshall's proposed memorandum, he brought this matter very explicitly to Dr. King's attention. Later that same date, both the Attorney General and the President, separately, strongly urged Dr. King that there should be no further connection between O'Dell and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Thereafter, the Attorney General and Marshall received copies of a letter dated July 3, 1963, from Dr. King to O'Dell. In this letter King makes reference to a resignation which O'Dell submitted some months ago which was accepted because of the SCLC's firm policy that no communist or communist sympathizer would be on the staff. Dr. King's letter continues by noting an investigation had been conducted but they were unable to discover any present connections with the Communist Party by O'Dell.

King further tells O'Dell that the situation is such that the organization cannot even afford the risk of impressions about communist inspiration and therefore O'Dell's temporary resignation is being made permanent.

Mr. Marshall's proposed memorandum also advises that he informed Dr. King on June 22, 1963, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party. This action was taken on direction of the Attorney General and the President. Marshall had previously warned Dr. King about any association with Levison. This was the first indication given him of firm information Levison was under communist control.

Sensitive foreign intelligence operation

As a matter of background, our early information concerning the communist connections involved here came from ~~one of our two most highly placed communist informants (NY694-S*)~~. To protect ~~this most valuable informant~~ we insisted Levison and O'Dell not be informed by King we had positive information of their communist connections.

Subsequently, with the passage of time so that the risk to the informant was not jeopardized, the Director in a personal conversation with the Attorney General on June 17, 1963, agreed Dr. Martin Luther King could be informed that he should get rid of Levison and O'Dell because they are members of the Communist Party. It was on the basis of this advice from the Director that action was taken by the Attorney General and the President.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN:

While Mr. Marshall's proposed memorandum does not spell out the sequence of events here in detail, his summary is nevertheless accurate and it is therefore believed we should inform Mr. Marshall that he should feel free, of course, to submit the memorandum as he drafted it. If approved, Mr. Marshall will be so advised telephonically.

This relates to your letterhead memorandum of September 5 to the Attorney General, relating to Hunter Pitts O'Dell and therelated prior memorandum. I appreciate yourhaving sent copies of these to me.

This matter had been brought to the attention of Dr. King some time ago by me, but in accordance with conversations which the Attorney General had with Courtney Evans, it was not felt to be wise in view of the sources of the Bureau's information to state that I knew O'Dell to be under Communist control at any time. I did inform Dr. King and two members of his organization -- Reverend Andrew Young and Reverend Wyatt Walker -- some time ago -- that since O'Dell was believed by many people to have had Communist connections, his association with their organization was not in the best interests of the organization.

At that time, inconclusive steps were taken to remove O'Dell, and his job with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference was changed. In response to direct questions whether I had hard evidence of O'Dell's Communist connections, however, I replied that I was not in a position to give any.

Following further conversations with Mr. Evans in June, however, I brought the matter to the attention of Dr. King very explicitly in my office on the morning of June 22 prior to a scheduled meeting which Dr. King had with the President. This was done at the direction of the Attorney General. Later that morning both the Attorney General and the President separately strongly urged Dr. King thatthere should be no further connection between O'Dell and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Dr. King stated that the connection would be ended. Thereafter, theAttorney General and I both received copies of the attached letter, dated July 3, 1963, from Dr. King to O'Dell.

On the same occasion, I also informed Dr.King that our information was that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party. This was also done after conversations with Mr. Evans prior to the meeting with Dr. King, and was done at the direction of the Attorney General and the President. Prior to that time, again based upon talks between the Attorney General and Mr. Evans at which I was present, it had been decided that it was not in the best interest of the United States to inform Dr.King that we had any firm information that Levison was under Communist control. I had, however, on a previous occasion, warned Dr. King about any association with Levison, basing the warning upon doubts about Levison's loyalty to the United States.

I thought you should have this additional information for your file.

Dear Jack:

Several months ago you submitted your resignation pending an investigation of your alleged affiliation with the Communist party, as was suggested by an article to this effect in the Birmingham and New Orleans newspapers. We accepted this temporary resignation because of SCLC's firm policy that no Communist nor Communist sympathizer can be on our staff or in our membership. We felt that it was imperative to conduct an immediate investigation. As you know, we conducted what we felt to be a thorough inquiry into these charges and were unable to discover any present connections with the Communist party on your part.

The situation in our country is such, however, that any allusion to the left brings forth an emotional response which would seem to indicate that SCLC and the Southern Freedom Movement are Communist inspired. In these critical times we cannot afford to risk any such impressions. We, therefore, have decided in our Administrative Committee, that we should request you to make your temporary resignation permanent.

We certainly appreciate the years of unselfish service which you have put into our New York Office, and regret the necessity of your departure. Certainly, yours is a significant sacrifice commensurate with the sufferings in jail and through loss of jobs under racist intimidation. We all pray for the day when our nation may be truly the land of the free.

SUBJECT: RACIAL SITUATION

In talking with the Attorney General and Assistant AG Marshall, of the Civil Rights Division, reference was made to our earlier conversation concerning Congressional requests which had been received by the Director, relating to alleged communist influence in the racial demonstrations. The Department's original position was that there was no immediate urgency in recontacting Senator Monroney, in view of recent contacts had with him by Departmental representatives. Today, I pointed out that these requests should not be allowed to remain unresolved too long.

Assistant AG Marshall advised that he had drafted a proposed letter to be used in replying to these Congressional requests, since he had ascertained that a written reply is desired, particularly by Senator Monroney. In his letter Marshall proposes to paraphrase the President's statement at his press conference on 7/17/63. Marshall's letter will, of course, make no reference to the President's statement, but merely indicate that this is the conclusion, predicated upon reports and other information supplied to the Department.

In those instances where the Department is dealing with a Member of Congress believed to be trustworthy, Marshall plans to deliver his letters personally and to explain that the classified nature of the reports precludes the furnishing of specific information in writing or in testimony. Marshall feels that he can talk confidentially in this way to Senator Magnuson and thus forestall any requests for further information. It was noted that, as a result of the Director's conversation with the Attorney General, Marshall had spoken with Martin Luther King about the dangers of his associating with Stanley Levison and accepting assistance from him. It was, therefore, believed that since this may get back to Members of Congress, Marshall should talk with the individual Senators, where this can be done on a confidential basis.

Marshall said he would, of course, keep us advised of the results of his contacts in this regard.

The Attorney General called and advised he would like to have Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall talk to Martin Luther King and tell King he has to get rid of Levison and O'Dell, that he should not have any contact with them directly or indirectly. The Attorney General inquired if King could be told these persons are communists without exposing the informant.

I advised the Attorney General I thought he could make the statement that they are members of the Communist Party without exposing the informant. I pointed out that, if King continues this association, he is going to hurt his own cause as there are more and more communists trying to take advantage of the hate movement and bigots down South who are against integration are beginning to charge King is tied in with communists. I stated I thought Marshall could very definitely say this association is rather widely known and, with things crystalizing for them now, nothing could be worse than for King to be associated with it.

SA Don Roney of the New York Office advised that NY 3810-S* on 5/30/63 furnished information concerning a conversation on that date between Martin Luther King and Stanley Levison, who has been a secret Communist Party member and has contributed funds to the Communist Party on a regular basis. King stated that he had requested a conference with the President and the Attorney General because King thought that now was a good time for such a conference. Levison agreed. Levison stated that there has never been an Administration in this country that has been as worried about the Negro problem as the present one. Levison continued that this is brought about by the Administration's concern with the common market problem in Europe. It was Levison's opinion that United States prestige is very important at this time and the inability to control the racial situation was making it more difficult. It was Levison's opinion that the needs of the President are so great that he is all ready for a different policy if it can bring about the kind of controlled situation that he feels he needs.

King and Levison agreed that the situation has to be kept moving so that the President will have to look for an alternative. The President can then be presented with certain alternatives. This will benefit the President, for then his problem, fear of violence, will be done away with. It was Levison's thought that the President is all ready to make a change. A conference now would be fruitful, but if a conference cannot be worked out, then the movement must be enlarged. King stated that he would like to put so much pressure on the President that he would have to sign an Executive Order making segregation unconstitutional.

Levison said that the method of negotiating used in Birmingham will set the pattern for a whole series of southern cities. That is, you come in with a package, come up with demands, discuss them and come out with a victory. You ask for more than you expect to get. The goals of the movement, according to Levison, are desegregation, jobs and the right to vote. The

My dear Mr. O'Donnell:

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that on May 30, 1963, Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley Levison held a discussion concerning a conference which Reverend Mr. King reportedly has requested with the President and the Attorney General.

Levison and Reverend Mr. King agreed that this is a good time for such a conference and Levison stated that no Administration has ever been as worried about the Negro problem as is the present Administration. Levison added that this is based upon the Administration's concern with the problems arising from the Common Market in Europe. Levison expressed the opinion that the prestige of the United States is very important at this time and that inability to control the racial situation makes the Administration's task more difficult. He also said that the President is ready for a different policy if it can bring about the kind of controlled situation that he feels he needs.

Reverend Mr. King and Levison agreed that it was necessary to keep the situation moving so that the President will be forced to look for an alternative. It was stated that the President can then be presented with certain alternatives which will benefit the Administration as the President's fear of violence will be done away with. Levison expressed the thought that the President is ready to make a change and that a conference at this time would be fruitful. He added that if a conference cannot be worked out, then the movement must be enlarged. Reverend Mr. King said he would like to put so much pressure on the President that he will have to sign an Executive Order making segregation unconstitutional.

Levison stated that the method of negotiation used in Birmingham, Alabama, will set the pattern for a series of Southern cities. He explained this method by stating that you come in with a package, come up with demands, discuss them and come out with a victory, and that in doing so you ask for more than you expect to get. He described the goals of the movement as desegregation, jobs and the right to vote. He described the methods of obtaining these goals as being direct action, nonviolence and negotiation.

As previously mentioned to you, another source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in March, 1963, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America, who contributes to the Communist Party on a regular basis.

I advised the Attorney General of the above information and he suggested that the President should see this letter.

INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division has asked that we give him a statement concerning the Communist Party affiliation of Hunter Pitts O'Dell. We have called to his attention current reports which have been furnished to the Security Division, Attention Mr. Walter Yeagley, concerning O'Dell's activities.

Marshall was interested in O'Dell's association with Rev. Martin Luther King and he was given a copy of a report of Special Agent James F. O'Connell dated 12/20/62 at New York, which was classified "Confidential", which had been disseminated to Walter Yeagley of the Security Division. This report reflected the current association of O'Dell and the organization of Rev. King, namely, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). In addition to the above we also furnished him a copy of a memorandum from the Director to the Attorney General dated 12/6/62 and another dated 1/23/63, pertaining to O'Dell.

Marshall stated that upon review of the above information which was furnished to him, he would like to have a statement from the FBI concerning the present Communist affiliation of O'Dell, particularly, whether O'Dell actually is a member of the Communist Party at this time.

I advised Marshall that an appropriate memorandum would be prepared and furnished to him concerning his request. There is attached hereto a memorandum which has been prepared by the Security Division indicating that we have developed evidence through our coverage of the activities of the Communist Party, USA, which indicates that as of July, 1962, Party leaders considered O'Dell to be a member of the Party. It is being pointed out that this information is highly sensitive and confidential.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division called to state that he will have to talk with Rev. Martin Luther King with reference to Jack Hunter O'Dell.

By way of background, he stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to talk to King about O'Dell.

Before Marshall can do this he states he would like to have whatever background information we have on O'Dell. In this regard, it is noted that O'Dell is supposed to be a member of the Communist Party and has in the past been associated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. This is King's organization. We have in the past furnished information to the Department concerning O'Dell and his association with Rev. King.

Marshall should be furnished with memoranda which have heretofore been given to the Security Division. It is understood that a report of O'Dell's activities is also available and has been furnished to the Security Division but has not been given to the Civil Rights Division. It would appear that Marshall is entitled to this information if he is to properly evaluate O'Dell's background.

Marshall has asked for a summary on O'Dell. If such is not readily available, copies of material previously furnished to the Department would seem to suffice. He stated he has been in touch with the Attorney General on this matter and is anxious to have it handled as soon as possible.

SECURITY MATTER - C

In response to your inquiry of Assistant Director Courtney A. Evans on January 30, 1963, you are advised that Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., accompanied by Hunter Pitts O'Dell and eight other officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), arrived in Savannah, Georgia, aboard Delta Airlines Flight Number 427 in the early morning of January 10, 1963. This group was met at the Savannah air terminal by Stanley Levison and the entire group departed Savannah in two automobiles.

Levison departed Savannah by train en route to New York City on the evening of January 11, 1963, while King, O'Dell and three other officials of the SCLC held reservations with the Delta Airlines for the morning of January 12, 1963. King, in a party of five, departed Savannah en route to Atlanta on Delta Airlines Flight Number 422 on the morning of January 12, 1963.

The racial unrest in the United States is currently the target for a determined concentration of communist effort. Long-range communist strategy includes the establishment of a Negro-labor coalition which the communists hope to be able to manipulate, as a powerful political-action weapon. They aim, thus, to provoke class struggle and promote legislation which can serve as a step toward a communist system of government. This constitutes a serious national security problem, since the individual playing a most dominant role as a leading spokesman for the estimated 20 million Negroes in this country today is knowingly, willingly, and regularly cooperating with and taking guidance from communists. An in-depth view of this individual, Martin Luther King, Jr., will serve to illustrate how he functions as a channel through which communist efforts are being directed against the Negroes and, therefore, against this country. It depicts, too, a Moral degenerate [redacted] of such magnitude as to blaspheme the title of "Reverend" which he carries.

He has been closely aligned with communists for several years and has shown not only a willingness, but at times even an eagerness, to associate and confer with communist leaders and to work closely with and rely upon the advice and guidance of dedicated communists -- this despite the fact that they have been reliably identified to him as such. In February, 1962, Stanley David Levison, a secret Communist Party (CP) member, passed the word to the Party's General Secretary, Gus Hall, that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly."

Levison -- Key Communist Directing King

Since 195[illegible] Levison has expended m[illegible]h effort in King's behalf in such activities as: actively involving himself in fund-raising drives for King; serving as King's legal counsel in selected matters; preparing speech material for King; assisting in the mechanics of some demonstrations in which King was involved; guiding King as to acceptance or rejection of public appearances and speaking commitments; and helping King with matters related to the latter's writings.

King's Reliance on O'Dell, A National Party Functionary

Another key communist through whom the Party exerts influence on King is Hunter Pitts O'Dell who, at the Party's last National Convention in 1959, was elected a member of its second highest governing body, the National Committee. His election was under a pseudonym. In 1960, while working as an assistant to the Party's National Secretary for the South, James Jackson, O'Dell also began to work actively in support of King's movement. In June, 1962, King sought Levison's counsel concerning the addition of an administrative assistant to King's staff. As a result of Levison's recommendation of O'Dell, the latter associated himself with the SCLC in Atlanta, Georgia, under the name J. H. O'Dell and also served the SCLC in its New York office. In October, 1962, several newspaper articles exposed O'Dell's connection with the SCLC and his communist affiliations, as a result of which King announced O'Dell's temporary resignation pending an inquiry.

This "temporary resignation" consisted of O'Dell's return to New York City where he continued to perform services for the SCLC until July, 1963, [redacted]

Despite the great pains being taken by the principals involved to keep the King-Levison connection secret, Bureau agents have observed them together on three different occasions since November, 1963.

Homosexual Rustin -- Liaison With Communist Party-USA

Rustin himself is an interesting link in the King "combine." He has long been inclined toward homosexual activities and in 1953 was sentenced to serve 60 days for offering to engage in an act of sex perversion of a homosexual nature, which he admitted. Rustin has also publicly admitted affiliations with the communist movement in the late 1930's and was one of a select group of observers permitted to attend the Party's 16th National Convention in 1957. He also has maintained contact with the Party's National Secretary, Benjamin J. Davis, [redacted]

[redacted]

Much of the Party's influence in the Negro field to date has been clandestine in nature. If the Party fully implements its current plans, we may expect to see more open and aggressive actions in its attempts to further influence, infiltrate, dominate and recruit the American Negro — just one more step in its ultimate goal of establishing a communist state within our boundaries.

A. INVESTIGATIONS OF KLAN-TYPE ORGANIZATIONS, HATE ORGANIZATIONS, AND ASSOCIATED INDIVIDUALS

1. While these are considered criminal investigations, they are considered delicate in nature and require the application of the restrictions necessary in conducting security-type investigations. Therefore, the investigations and reports are to be handled in accordance with the general rules applying to security-type investigations.
2. Caution
   Extreme care must be exercised to insure that in every instance there is a proper basis for investigation. Sound judgment must be used to avoid investigation of organizations or individuals that merely sponsor unpopular causes or propaganda but do not meet the standards outlined under item 3a below. The Bureau must insure that there will be no justifiable basis for any charge that these investigations infringe upon constitutional freedoms of speech, press, or assemblage.
3. Investigations
   a. Investigation is confined to those organizations or associated individuals that either:
      (1) Have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450
      (2) Have not been designated under Executive Order 10450 but there is an actual or alleged affiliation or subsidiary relation with a designated organization
      (3) Have adopted a policy or have allegedly adopted a policy of advocating, condoning, or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution
      (4) Have allegedly committed acts of violence
      (5) Have actually or allegedly committed violations of laws within the Bureau's jurisdiction
   b. During the investigation of Klan-type organizations and hate organizations, the following information should be obtained:
      (1) Organization structure
         (a) Headquarters
         (b) Officers
         (c) Location of klaverns or local chapters
      (2) Objectives
      (3) Publications and propaganda
      (4) Finances
      (5) Activity of klaverns or local chapters
         (a) Name and address
         (b) Officers
         (c) Estimated membership and recruiting activities
         (d) Meetings
            I. Date
            II. Type (open or closed)
            III. Place
            IV. Estimated attendance
   c. Follow through public source material and established sources activities of organizations which do not qualify for investigation under above standards. Initiate investigation upon receipt of information which brings organization within investigative criteria and at the same time advise Bureau this action taken and basis therefor.
   d. Conduct no investigation regarding individual acts of violence allegedly or actually committed by an organization in absence of information indicating violation within Bureau's jurisdiction. However, concerning each such incident, the following information should be obtained through informants and sources in connection with investigations of such organizations:

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

(1) Which group involved
(2) Whether action taken was on initiative of individual members or with knowledge or approval of leadership

In initial communication reporting violent act, advise if there is or is not indication of organization participation.

If act of violence is a criminal violation over which Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation; if the act of violence is a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

e. Agents are not to attend functions or rallies of any Klan or hate group although open to the public.

f. These investigations must be both vigorous and incisive. The fundamental objective is to identify those who may be engaged or responsible for acts of violence, and care must be taken to avoid becoming involved in widespread, nebulous investigation which does not go to the heart of the problem at hand. When a case is opened, it should receive immediate continuous attention until the initial allegation is resolved. The case should be promptly closed if it is definitely determined that it does not fall within the criteria set out in item 3a above.

g. Individual cases should be opened on officers, leaders, and active workers in these organizations to determine whether they have been involved in acts of violence or have a definite potential for future acts of violence. Good judgment and discretion must be exercised in the case of prominent individuals who may be dupes of such organizations and who may hold nominal office. Immediately advise the Bureau when investigation of a prominent person is contemplated; and if there is any question as to whether there is sufficient probable cause to fully justify investigation, no investigation should be conducted without Bureau approval.

h. Names of members in attendance at meetings should not be set out in investigative reports but should be indexed from informant reports. Names of new members should be furnished the Bureau by letter for indexing purposes.

4. Informants and interviews

a. In order that the Bureau may discharge its responsibilities, it is mandatory that information be obtained regarding all pertinent Klan or hate organization activities. In this regard it is necessary that informants be developed in all such organizations which meet the criteria set forth in 3a above. Efforts in this regard must be discreet.

b. Preliminary interviews with rank-and-file members of an organization and other individuals not connected with such organizations conducted solely for the purpose of determining the attitude of the individual may be authorized by the SAC. To obtain authority from the SAC, credit, arrest, informant, and indices checks should be made and a memorandum prepared for the SAC setting forth this information so that he may make a decision regarding the propriety of the interview. Officials of local groups or national officers are not to be interviewed without prior Bureau authority. Likewise where a greater than usual risk is involved, such as individuals employed in the newspaper field, educational field, radio and television industry, and the like, specific Bureau authority must be obtained. Two Agents should be present when an organization official is interviewed and, if possible, two Agents should be present at interviews with organization members. During such an interview, no attempt should be made to develop the individual as an informant; but if he is cooperative and has a potential for development as an informant, complete background information should be obtained and specific Bureau authority requested to develop him as an informant.

d. Submit by September 15 and March 15 each year letter captioned "Semiannual listing of Klan and hate organizations and informant coverage," Bureau file #157-1, containing:

(1) Names of Klan and hate organizations active in your territory
(2) Coverage of each Klan broken down by klaverns and each hate organization broken down into local chapters showing identities of informants and sources reporting on each
(3) Estimated membership by klaverns or chapters and basis for estimate

A. INVESTIGATIONS OF KLAN-TYPE ORGANIZATIONS, HATE ORGANIZATIONS, AND ASSOCIATED INDIVIDUALS

1. While these are considered criminal investigations, they are considered delicate in nature and require the application of the restrictions necessary in conducting security-type investigations. Therefore, the investigations and reports are to be handled in accordance with the general rules applying to security-type investigations.
2. Caution
   Extreme care must be exercised to insure that in every instance there is a proper basis for investigation. Sound judgment must be used to avoid investigation of organizations or individuals that merely sponsor unpopular causes or propaganda but do not meet the standards outlined under item 3a below. The Bureau must insure that there will be no justifiable basis for any charge that these investigations infringe upon constitutional freedoms of speech, press, or assemblage.
3. Investigations
   a. Investigation is confined to those organizations or associated individuals that either:
      (1) Have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450
      (2) Have not been designated under Executive Order 10450 but there is an actual or alleged affiliation or subsidiary relation with a designated organization
      (3) Have adopted a policy or have allegedly adopted a policy of advocating, condoning, or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution
      (4) Have allegedly committed acts of violence
      (5) Have actually or allegedly committed violations of laws within the Bureau's jurisdiction
   b. During the investigation of Klan-type organizations and hate organizations, the following information should be obtained:
      (1) Organization structure
         (a) Headquarters
         (b) Officers
         (c) Location of klaverns or local chapters
      (2) Objectives
      (3) Publications and propaganda
      (4) Finances
      (5) Activity of klaverns or local chapters
         (a) Name and address
         (b) Officers
         (c) Estimated membership and recruiting activities
         (d) Meetings
            I. Date
            II. Type (open or closed)
            III. Place
            IV. Estimated attendance
   c. Follow through public source material and established sources activities of organizations which do not qualify for investigation under above standards. Initiate investigation upon receipt of information which brings organization within investigative criteria and at the same time advise Bureau this action taken and basis therefor.
   d. Conduct no investigation regarding individual acts of violence allegedly or actually committed by an organization in absence of information indicating violation within Bureau's jurisdiction. However, concerning each such incident, the following information should be obtained through informants and sources in connection with investigations of such organizations:

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

(1) Which group involved
(2) Whether action taken was on initiative of individual members or with knowledge or approval of leadership

In initial communication reporting violent act, advise if there is or is not indication of organization participation.

If act of violence is a criminal violation over which Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation; if the act of violence is a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

e. Agents are not to attend functions or rallies of any Klan or hate group although open to the public.

g. Individual cases should be opened on officers, leaders, and active workers in these organizations to determine whether they have been involved in acts of violence or have a definite potential for future acts of violence. [Wholesale investigations of individuals of these organizations should not be conducted and investigations of individual members should be initiated only on a most selective basis. Individuals investigated should be those who are key personnel who actually formulate and carry out the organization's policy and not those individuals who merely attend meetings on a regular basis. If there is any question as to whether such an investigation should be initiated, the facts should be presented to the Bureau for its consideration.]

Immediately advise the Bureau when investigation of a prominent person is contemplated; and if there is any question as to whether there is sufficient probable cause to fully justify investigation, no investigation should be conducted without Bureau approval.

[The Bureau should be advised by letter of the information obtained, together with a statement as to whether the individual warrants inclusion on the potential bombing suspects list of your office. If investigation indicates that the individual should not be included, the case may then be closed administratively. If the subject is included on the list, the matter should be handled in accordance with instructions set forth in section 23, volume II, of this manual concerning bombing matters.]

h. Names of members in attendance at meetings should not be set out in investigative reports but should be indexed from informant's [statements.] Names of new members should be furnished the Bureau by letter for indexing purposes.

4. Informants and interviews
   a. In order that the Bureau may discharge its responsibilities, it is mandatory that information be obtained regarding all pertinent Klan or hate organization activities. In this regard it is necessary that informants be developed in all such organizations which meet the criteria set forth in 3a above. Efforts in this regard must be discreet.
   b. Preliminary interviews with rank-and-file members of an organization and other individuals not connected with such organizations conducted solely for the purpose of determining the attitude of the individual may be authorized by the SAC. To obtain authority from the SAC, credit, arrest, informant, and indices checks should be made and a memorandum prepared for the SAC setting forth this information so that he may make a decision regarding the propriety of the interview. Two Agents should be present when an organization official is interviewed and, if possible, two Agents should be present at interviews with organization members. During such an interview, no attempt should be made to develop the individual as an informant; but if he is cooperative and has a potential for development as an informant, complete background information should be obtained and specific Bureau authority requested to develop him as an informant.
   c. Bureau authority not necessary prior to interview with organization members in criminal- or applicant-type cases; however, interview should be confined to subject matter of inquiry, unless data concerning organization volunteered by interviewee.
   [d. [B. GENERAL RACIAL MATTERS
[1. Jurisdiction
[The Bureau does not have investigative jurisdiction over such general racial matters, as race riots, civil demonstrations, and similar developments except in instances in which the action is a violation of statute over which the Bureau has jurisdiction or some subversive influence is at work. Insofar as Federal jurisdiction in general racial matters is concerned, U. S. Army regulations place responsibility upon the Army to keep advised of any developments of a civil disturbance nature which may require the rendering of assistance to civil authorities or the intervention of Federal troops. OSI and ONI have collateral responsibility under Army in such matters and copies of pertinent documents disseminated to Army concerning such matter should be furnished to OSI and ONI.
[2. Policy
[a. As an intelligence function the Bureau does have the responsibility of advising appropriate Government agencies and officials on both a national and local level of all pertinent information obtained concerning such incidents. In this connection it is the personal responsibility of each SAC to make the necessary arrangements to insure that all developments of this type occurring within his territory are promptly reported to his office and upon receipt thereof furnished to the Bureau by whatever form of communication is warranted under the circumstances.

b. Since the Bureau does not have investigative jurisdiction in general racial matters, no open investigation is to be conducted concerning general racial matters as such.

c. In instances in which civil rights may be involved or in which a racial incident may involve an act which constitutes a criminal violation over which the Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation. Likewise, if the incident involves a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

d. In instances in which some subversive influence is determined to be at work, be guided by instructions pertaining to investigation of the specific subversive influence involved.

e. CAUTION. By their very nature racial matters are extremely delicate and great care must be exercised in the approach to such matters.

3. Procedures

a. Information dealing with general racial matters, such as proposed or actual activities of individuals, officials, committees, legislatures, organizations, etc., in the racial field, must be furnished to the Bureau expeditiously by whatever means of communication is warranted by the specific nature of the information and the circumstances involved.

b. Pertinent information bearing on general racial matters which would not otherwise be available to interested Government agencies, such as that obtained through sources and informants, and which is of such a nature that it would normally be furnished to the Bureau by letter or airtel must be transmitted to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. In general, pertinent information bearing on general racial matters appearing in newspapers or publications need not be furnished to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. In such instances merely submit copies of pertinent newspaper articles and publications to the Bureau. Of course, if such data is clearly of a nature as to require contacts with appropriate sources, such as information of unusual local or national importance, submit same expeditiously in form suitable for dissemination. Concisely summarize the pertinent article and include therein the results of contacts with appropriate sources.

c. Maintain contact with pertinent informants and sources and keep Bureau and local intelligence agencies advised of any additional pertinent developments. Unless circumstances clearly indicate necessity for more expeditious handling, furnish such additional data to the Bureau promptly in form suitable for dissemination.

d. In many instances situations involving members of the Negro and Caucasian races result in violations of criminal statutes over which the Bureau has investigative jurisdiction. While such matters are to be handled in accordance with instructions pertaining to the substantive violation involved, the Bureau has the additional responsibility of disseminating pertinent information concerning any racial aspects of such situations to appropriate Government officials and agencies that do not ordinarily receive reports in criminal matters. Therefore, the submission of a report concerning the criminal violation involved alone is insufficient. In general, pertinent data concerning the racial situation involved must be submitted immediately to Bureau in form suitable for dissemination in order that it may reach interested agencies as soon as possible.

[e. Where information is received in connection with racial matters indicating that individuals or organizations have resorted to or contemplate resorting to violence, you must

(1) Immediately advise the Bureau of full facts by expeditious means depending upon urgency of circumstances

(2) Immediately advise appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the matter unless it is already cognizant. If a compelling reason exists for not so advising the pertinent law enforcement agency, such as the possibility of exposing the informant furnishing the information, immediately furnish the Bureau with full facts. Include therein recommendations as to what other trustworthy local or state law enforcement agencies or officials may be used as intermediaries through whom the information in question may be furnished to the law enforcement agency actually having jurisdiction in such a manner as to fully protect the specific informant and the Bureau as the source thereof.

(3) Immediately advise the local office of military intelligence

(4) Contact all appropriate informants and sources to determine if they possess any additional pertinent data concerning the matter and instruct them to be alert for and to promptly furnish to you any such pertinent data obtained.

(5) Prepare and submit pertinent data to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. Include in the communication the results of contacts with appropriate sources and informants; the time and date that local agencies were advised; and the identities of the individuals so advised. (Where information is furnished to an intermediary official or law enforcement agency and not to the agency actually having jurisdiction, set forth in the cover page the reasons for such procedure.) Submit communication same day original information received except where original information is received after normal working hours, when communication is to be submitted beginning of next workday.

(6) Maintain contact with pertinent informants and sources and keep Bureau, pertinent local law enforcement agency, and local intelligence agencies advised of any additional pertinent developments as they occur. Unless circumstances clearly indicate necessity for more expeditious handling, furnish such additional data to Bureau and intelligence agencies in form suitable for dissemination.

SUBJECT: THE LONG COMMITTEE

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE BY

The Attorney General called on the morning of February 27, 1965, to advise he wanted to consult with the Bureau on certain problems raised by the Long Committee, which is exploring the use of mail covers, et cetera. He noted there was a possible problem concerning Chief Inspector Montague's testimony and whether it was necessary for Montague to change his testimony. Also, he felt that Internal Revenue Service had been using investigative techniques which they should not use and this could pose a problem. He said that the President had asked him to coordinate with all executive agencies concerning the problems raised by the Long Committee.

Inspector Moore and I met with the Attorney General in his office this afternoon. Mr. Courtney Evans was present. I told the Attorney General that in Montague's testimony he was told by Attorney Fensterwald that if any of the questions had national security implications Montague should not answer them. Consequently, Montague was estopped from doing other than answering in the negative when asked questions touching on national security. With this interpretation, it was questionable whether an attempt should be made to change or explain Montague's testimony, particularly in view of the obvious lack of judgment on the part of Fensterwald and the desire of Long for publicity. I made it clear to the Attorney General that from our dealings with Montague, he was a man of integrity and sacrificed his personal desires for the welfare of the country and had cooperated fully with us. The Attorney General said he had no intention of changing one word of Montague's testimony, but he was considering advising Long and Fensterwald that there were extreme delicate national security matters touching on the areas being covered by the committee and there could be exceptions to the answers given in the testimony when they touched on such sensitive security matters. He said further that he contemplates seeing Senator Long and impressing on him that the committee would not want to stumble by mistake into an area of extreme interest to the national security as they nearly did in a matter affecting CIA. (Apparently CIA got wind of some inquiries by the committee relative to their secret operation and went to the committee and warned them off.) Katzenbach contemplates asking for a list of the witnesses who will appear before the committee together with a brief summary of the expected testimony. On the basis of this, he will be able to advise Senator Long when he should steer clear of a sensitive area.

I told Mr. Katzenbach that I certainly agree that this matter should be controlled at the committee level but that I felt pressure would have to be applied so that the personal interest of Senator Long became involved rather than on any ideological basis. Mr. Katzenbach said that he had already talked to Vice President Humphrey about Fensterwald, who he considered a wild man, and that Humphrey had promised to talk to Long concerning Fensterwald. Katzenbach said that in addition to the Vice President he might have to resort to pressure from the President himself, although he would prefer to work it out without resorting to the President. He indicated there was no one on the committee itself who could be helpful and that he did not expect any help from Senator Eastland.

Mr. Katzenbach said that he expected troublefrom the possible activities of IRS and the military in the investigative field; that if some of these matters are uncovered before the committee they will tend to undermine the restricted and tightly controlled operations of the Bureau. I told him that our operations are tightly controlled and particularly in the delicate areas of concern, we restrict ourselves to important security matters.

Mr. Katzenbach said he was going to see Senator Long on Monday and wanted to know if the Bureau would like someone to go along with him. I told him no.

ACTION:

Mr. Katzenbach said he would advise us of the results of his conversation with Long. He also asked that I advise the Director of our discussion and I told him I would.

I called Mr. DeLoach and briefed him on this problem in order that he might contact Senator Eastland in an effort to warn the Long Committee away from those areas which would be injurious to the national defense. SENATE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY

B.C.
EDWARD V.

I called the Attorney General and told him I wanted to let him know that I had talked to Senator James Eastland today, in regard to the hearings before the Long Committee concerning mail covers, et cetera. I stated Senator Eastland is in Mississippi today but he is going to see Senator Long not later than Wednesday morning to caution him that this fellow Fensterwald must not go into the kind of questioning he made of Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department. The Attorney General stated he was going to see Senator Long himself and asked if I thought he ought to wait until after Senator Eastland talks to Senator Long. I stated the timing might be well if he did wait as Eastland assured me he will see Long not later than Wednesday and then if he, the Attorney General, could see Long sometime Wednesday, it would probably tie it down once and for all as there are no hearings until Wednesday anyway. The Attorney General stated he thought they were having a hearing tomorrow, but he would check. I stated if there is a hearing tomorrow, then I would be inclined for the Attorney General to see Senator Long now and if it is not before Wednesday, then I think he should let Senator Eastland see what he can do. I stated Senator Eastland thoroughly understands the matter and said he does not intend to have that gone into and that obviously Fensterwald is getting in over his head and that has to be stopped. The Attorney General called and advised that he had talked to Senator Long last night. Senator Long's committee is looking into mail covers et cetera. The Attorney General stated he thought somebody had already spoken to Senator Long as he said he did not want to get into any national security area and was willing to take steps not to do this. The Attorney General stated that Mr. Fensterwald was present for part of the meeting and Fensterwald had said that he had some possible witnesses who are former Bureau Agents and if they were asked if mail was opened, they would take the Fifth Amendment. The Attorney General stated that before they are called, he would like to know who they are and whether they were ever involved in any program touching on national security and if not, it is their own business, but if they were, we would want to know. The Attorney General stated the Senator promised that he would have a chance to look at the names if he wanted to, personally and confidentially, and the list would have any names involving national security deleted and he would tell the Senator how many but no more.

The Attorney General stated that the Postmaster General is going down there this morning himself which he, the Attorney General, thought would be helpful to Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department.

The Attorney General stated that Senator Long also said he is not going to propose legislation to abolish mail covers as he thought they served a useful purpose but he did think that control should be tightened. I stated I thought there was great laxity in the matter of mail covers and the matter of tapping telephones.

I stated I have always been of the view and recommended back when Tom Clark was Attorney General that no agency of the Government should tap a telephone except with the written approval of the Attorney General. I stated there would then be in one place a list of all phone taps and the purpose and reason for them. I stated that it is a fact, insofar as I am concerned, that I am the only head of an agency who does not have authority to tap telephones. I stated that I know that subordinates down the line in some agencies will tap phones without the knowledge of the chief of the agency and there is grave suspicion in Washington by some newspapermen that their phones have been tapped by agencies of the Government trying to find out where they are getting their information. I stated I have always been opposed to the law whereby it is necessary to get the authority of a court to tap phones because of the composition of some of our courts and the employees thereof, but I have always felt that the President should issue an Executive Order confidentially to all agencies that all phone tapping be discontinued except when specifically approved by the Attorney General so there would be in one place a list and then if any committee in Congress got on the warpath, the Attorney General would have a list he could vouch for as being the only phones tapped by the Government. The Attorney General stated that made sense. I stated many agencies are opposed because they realize there would be a marked restriction. I stated we only have 45 phone taps, which is a low number for a country the size of ours and the area we have to cover. The Attorney General stated no one has any idea how many phone taps the whole Government has.

I stated there is also a school being conducted in California by a private organization which instructs the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service in the matter of phone tapping and they have sent their own personnel there to be trained. I stated Internal Revenue has also from time to time hired private outside phone tappers to do their tapping. I stated it is that type of thing if there were a real investigation which would come out. The Attorney General commented that he would not guarantee some of it won't come out. I stated I was amazed when I learned of the school in California as I saw a reference to it in the newspaper and wanted to know what it was and what officers attended. I stated we have our own instructors and do it ourselves.

I stated I thought the Attorney General had made good headway with Senator Long. The Attorney General stated he thought it would be helpful, but his problem is that he thinks the Senator is fine but he does not think that Fensterwald is as straightforward, or to put it another way that Fensterwald is smart and devious and the Senator is straightforward and not very bright and that is the problem. I stated I thought that Fensterwald is trying to get publicity for the Senator. The Attorney General stated the Senator said he did not want to get into this and he would give him, the Attorney General, the names and a summary of the testimony and told Fensterwald to do so, but he, the Attorney General, can't say Fensterwald is going to do it; that he will on some but he did not know that he would on all. I stated I had no faith or confidence in Fensterwald and neither did Senator Eastland. The Attorney General stated that Senator Eastland may have already talked to Senator Long or else the Vice President, but somebody had waked him up. I stated Senator Eastland said he would do it Wednesday, but he may have called him.

The Attorney General stated that is where it stands now and we shall see what happens.

Very truly yours,

J. E. H.

UNITED STATES SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO STUDY GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Reference is made to SSC letter dated October 8, 1975, requesting all materials pertaining to the decisional process which preceded and resulted in the Bureau's request to the Central Intelligence Agency to place each of the following names on the Hunter Mail watch list:

1) "National Guardian"
2) Derk Bodde
3) Leonard Bernstein
4) National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam
5) "Ramparts"

Knowledge of the Hunter Mail watch list was limited within the Bureau to Supervisors at FBI Headquarters. When a Supervisor desired to place a name on the watch list, he would prepare a 3 x 5 card which included:

a) the name and address of the individual or organization,
b) the duration of the request, and
c) the treatment to be given to any mail located.

No date was placed on the card, however, the cards were numbered consecutively. The request was then forwarded through liaison representatives to the Central Intelligence Agency. No other documents were prepared concerning the consideration, recommendation and proposal of these requests.

On October 1, 1975, representatives of the FBI met with John T. Elliff of the SSC concerning a similar request. As a result, Elliff requested the following information concerning each of these requests:

a) a copy of the request and any other document in the Hunter Mail file in which the FBI mentions or shows results obtained from the specific request,

b) the approximate date of the request, and

c) the apparent basis for the request, or in the case of an investigation instituted after the effective date of the Hunter Mail project, the basis for the investigation.

The following summaries and enclosures constitute the Bureau's response to this request.

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

1) "National Guardian"

a) documents - The "National Guardian" was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 117 (Exhibit A-1). On April 20, 1962, a list of names to remain on the watch list was prepared and the "National Guardian" was included (Exhibit A-2). On October 25, 1966, a similar list was prepared (Exhibit A-3). The "National Guardian" was mentioned in a memorandum dated August 21, 1964, concerning data obtained from the Hunter Mail project during the past year (Exhibit A-4).

b) date - Request number 117 was made between August 18, 1961, and April 20, 1962. As indicated above, the "National Guardian" was included on a list of names to remain on the watch list on April 20, 1962. It was not on a similar list of names as of August 18, 1961.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file on the "National Guardian" is dated August 13, 1948, and reports the publication on August 1, 1948, of the "National Gazette Weekly," forerunner of the "National Guardian." During 1961 and 1962, the "National Guardian" sponsored tours of Eastern Europe, including Russia (Exhibits A-5 and 6).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

2) Derk Bodde

a) documents - No Hunter Mail request was located for Bodde. He was, however, included in a list of names to remain on the watch list which was prepared on April 20, 1962 (Exhibit A-2).

b) date - Bodde was most likely placed on the watch list in 1960. As indicated above, Bodde was included on a list of names to remain on the watch list on April 20, 1962; however, there are no documents in the file dated in 1961 and 1962. He did travel to Russia during 1960.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file on Bodde is dated February 5, 1952. A review of the documents for the period after the Hunter program was instituted failed to locate any document recommending him for inclusion on the watch list. The investigation had been placed in a closed status until information was received that Bodde was scheduled to attend the International Orientalist Congress in Moscow during August, 1960 (Exhibits B-1 and 2).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

3) Leonard Bernstein

a) documents - No Hunter Mail request was located for Bernstein. He was, however, included in a list of names to be removed from the watch list which was prepared on April 20, 1962 (Exhibit A-2).

b) date - Bernstein was most likely placed on the watch list in 1959, since he went to Russia during that year. On April 20, 1962, he was included on a list of names to be removed from the watch list.

c) basis - Since no Hunter Mail request was located, there is no background information available concerning the Leonard Bernstein who was placed on the watch list. A review of Bureau files for individuals named Leonard Bernstein does indicate, however, that the only Leonard Bernstein who travelled to Russia or had any Soviet contacts was Leonard Bernstein, born August 25, 1918 (the prominent conductor and composer). The first item in the Bureau file concerning Bernstein is dated March 2, 1949. A review of documents in this file from the beginning of the Hunter program in 1958 until April 20, 1962, the date on which his name was removed from the watch list, failed to locate a request that he be included in the Hunter program. However, information concerning him, compiled in response to a request from another government agency in December, 1958, did indicate that Bernstein planned to visit Russia during March, 1959 (Exhibits C-1 and 2).

4) National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC)

a) documents - The NMC was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 193 (Exhibit D-1). The NMC was mentioned in a memorandum dated August 28, 1969, concerning data obtained from the Hunter Mail project during the past year (Exhibit D-2).

b) date - This request was most likely made between January 16, 1969, and August 28, 1969. No investigation was conducted concerning the NMC until September, 1966 (Exhibit D-3). The request, however, was probably not made until after January 15, 1969, the date that a CIA representative suggested the Bureau use the Hunter project for development of leads in the New Left field (Exhibit D-4). Request number 233 was mentioned in a memorandum concerning results from the Hunter Mail program which was dated August 28, 1969.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file concerning the NMC is a communication dated September 14, 1966, which indicates that a group known as the November 8th Ad Hoc Committee had been formed at Cleveland, Ohio. By communication dated September 20, 1966, FBI Headquarters instructed the New York and Cleveland Divisions to keep abreast of the plans of this Committee to sponsor demonstrations during November, 1966 (Exhibit D-3). By communication dated July 28, 1967, FBI Headquarters instructed the New York Division to prepare a report concerning the same organization which had become known as the NMC (Exhibit D-5). The name NMC was used until approximately August, 1969, when an allegedly new organization known as the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam was formed.

5) "Ramparts"

a) documents - "Ramparts" was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 105 (Exhibit E-1).

b) date - This request was also most likely made between January 16, 1969, and August 28, 1969.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file concerning "Ramparts" is dated October 22, 1964; however, no active investigation was authorized at that time. Investigation was authorized in May, 1967, based on a request received from the Department of Justice (Exhibits E-2 and 3). No request to include "Ramparts" on the Hunter Mail watch list was located; however, a document dated October 17, 1968, does indicate that "Ramparts" furnished a list of names, probably their mailing list, to the Soviets (Exhibit E-4).

In order to insure that Project Hunter will continue to operate under maximum economy and efficiency, we have advised CIA at a recent conference we would review Bureau Informant 200 material received and advise CIA whether or not we desired to continue to receive material on persons whose names appear on the attached list.

The interested Supervisor should, accordingly, indicate by writing "yes" or "no" to the right of his subject's name whether or not he desires Bureau Informant 200 to discontinue furnishing data on each of his respective subjects.

The attached lists were compiled from a review of the Project Hunter card box indices maintained by Supervisor W. D. Stewart as an administrative aid for routing purposes. The names of subjects on whom we have received no material for the past year do not appear on the attached lists. They have been weeded out separately along with other subjects who have been relatively inactive.

The results of this survey will be forwarded via Liaison to CIA for appropriate action.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memo and its attachment be routed to the interested Supervisor for a determination as to the continuation of receiving Bureau Informant 200 material on his respective subject.

SECURITY MATTER - C

Information has been received from Bureau Informant 200, a most reliable and sensitive source, that the subject has been in direct contact with Dr. S. L. Tikhvinsky, Institute of Sinology, Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The subject is among 15 American orientalists who have been selected through the American Council of Learned Societies to attend the International Orientalist Congress in Moscow, Russia, during August. LEONARD BERNSTEIN
Born: August 25, 1918
Lawrence, Massachusetts

You are referred to information previously furnished to your agency on January 28 and November 10, 1955, concerning Leonard Bernstein. For your additional information, there is enclosed a copy of a memorandum dated May 27, 1958, concerning the captioned individual. (100-360261-41,49,55)

In August, 1958, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Leonard Bernstein had been in contact with Tamara Yurevna Mamedova. The August, 1958, "Diplomatic List" reflects Tamara Y. Mamedova to be a second secretary at the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, (USSR). In June, 1958, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Tamara Mamedova was employed in the Cultural Division of the Soviet Embassy. As part of her duties the informant stated that Mamedova handled inquiries from the public concerning the Cultural Exchange Program between the USSR and the United States and assisted in arrangements for appearances of groups from both countries under the auspices of that program.

In his contact with Mamedova, the confidential informant stated that Leonard Bernstein indicated that he would accept an invitation to visit the USSR and stated that he would be able to go during the first two weeks of March, 1959. He expressed a desire to conduct some orchestras while in the USSR. (105-53022-328)

Re: Leonard Bernstein, with aliases

On June 30, 1950, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in 1945 when the committee to aid Ben Davis was being considered, both Ben Davis and Jack Stachel described Leonard Bernstein to the source as an adherent of the Communist Party. This source stated that other Communist Party functionaries had also described Leonard Bernstein as a Communist. The source advised that in 1945 Jack Stachel informed him that Bernstein had agreed to submit to Communist discipline. This source advised on December 9, 1954 that he has no direct personal knowledge of Bernstein's willingness to submit to Communist discipline.

Ben Davis and Jack Stachel were members of the National Board of the Communist Party who were tried and convicted in 1949 for violation of the Smith Act of 1940.

Leonard Bernstein, by notarized affidavit dated August 3, 1953, submitted in connection with his application for passport, stated "...although I have never, to my knowledge, been accused of being a member of the Communist Party, I wish to take advantage of this opportunity to affirm under oath that I am not now or at any time ever been a member of the Communist Party or the Communist Political Association. I have never knowingly engaged in activities which supported the Communist movement under circumstances which would warrant the conclusion that I engaged in such activities as a result of direction, domination or control exercised over me by the Communist movement..."

In February, 1958, a source of unknown reliability, but who is acquainted with the subject, advised that he believed Leonard Bernstein to be a Communist. This source based this belief on the way Bernstein talks, that is, that he has continually made anti-American and pro-Russian statements. Source was unable to furnish any specific details pertaining thereto.

All organizations mentioned hereafter have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450, unless otherwise described.

The House Committee on Un-American Activities review of the Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace held March 25,26,27,1949, which conference was arranged by the National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions, reflected Leonard Bernstein was affiliated with the following organizations:

American Council for a Democratic Greece
American Youth for Democracy

Civil Rights Congress
Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee
National Negro Congress

The National Council of Arts, Sciences and Professions was cited in the aforementioned review as a Communist front.

Records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, reflect that Bernstein was a member of the Council on African Affairs, Incorporated, as of February 3, 1948.

The "New York Times", issue of March 3, 1945, contained an advertisment by the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade entitled "For America's Sake-Break With Franco Spain" wherein Bernstein was listed as a sponsor.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised during 1946 that Leonard Bernstein was identified on a letterhead of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom dated January 21, 1946, as being one of the sponsors of this organization.

The "Daily Worker" issue of May 16, 1946, page four column three, lists Leonard Bernstein as a conductor and composer and one of the endorsers of the Three Day Tag Drive of the American Committee for Yugoslav Relief.

INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM BUREAU INFORMANT 200

Items are received on repatriates, deportees, defectors, U.S. citizens who went to USSR for permanent residence because of marriage or family and individuals born in U.S. who were taken there when children. Most of this material is of limited value but all individuals are included on CIA's "defector list." However, items are of value when they pertain to individuals known to have been espionage agents or to have subversive relatives in U.S. For example, items on Harry Eisman, deported from U.S. over 30 years ago, have contained little information of interest until recently. Friends asked Eisman to see the Glass family when they visited the USSR. When he entertained the family, the daughter was greatly influenced by his colorful description of his radical activities in New York schools. (Identifies confidential source)

Prudence Glass has been maintaining contact with Eisman since her return and recently informed him of her plans to marry Bob (evidently Robert Steven Greenblatt, key activist), leader and organizer of one of the largest marches sponsored by National Mobilization Committee to End War in Vietnam. She informed him of their plans to move to Georgia where she hoped to work "in the underground." We had no previous information indicating that she had any connection whatsoever with any organization or Greenblatt or of Greenblatt's plans to leave New York. Additional information has revealed that Eisman, who had reportedly fallen from graces of Soviets, appears to have regained their confidence, sees numerous U.S. travelers and communists and lectures at an unidentified special school on youth activities in U.S.,

SUBJECT: BUREAU INFORMANT 200 - Policy

On January 15, 1969, Richard Ober, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), suggested to the Liaison Agent that the Bureau should not overlook the utilization of the Agency's Hunter project for the development of leads in the New Left and Black Nationalist fields. Ober admitted the traffic involving individuals in these areas might be light but that the Bureau might wish to give consideration to placing stops on certain key personalities.

The Hunter project for which we have given the designation of Bureau Informant 200 essentially consists of specialized coverage of mail between the United States and Russia. If we have some reason to believe that one of our subject's is communicating with anybody in the Soviet Union, it might be worthwhile to place a stop.

We should bear in mind that this coverage is extremely sensitive and the handling of any matters involving Bureau Informant 200 should conform with the ground rules which have been established. (See Mary Triplett, extension 631, Soviet Section.)

Inasmuch as the Department has authorized an investigation of "Ramparts," you are to follow the instructions set out in Bulet 5-5-67. The investigation of "Ramparts" is to be conducted separately from the investigation of Robert Scheer.

Of particular interest in your investigation is the extent of Communist Party or other subversive influence in "Ramparts."

U. S. SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Reference is made to memorandum from Mr. Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Department of Justice, to Mr. John A. Mintz, Assistant Director, Legal Counsel Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, dated October 17, 1975, and captioned "Senate Select Committee Request." This communication enclosed a letter to the Attorney General from Senator Frank Church, Chairman, SSC, dated October 15, 1975.

In Senator Church's letter he advised of the intention of the SSC Staff to interview some nine FBI sources who had cooperated with this Bureau in the course of certain COINTELPRO operations. The Senator stated that he hoped there would be no objection to conducting these interviews but that, if such objections were raised, he be contacted by Tuesday, October 21, 1975.

It is noted that the issue raised in Senator Church's letter is not new. During August, 1975, SSC Staff Member John T. Elliff proposed interviews of this type and, at that time, this Bureau objected on the principle of the FBI's obligation to protect the confidentiality of relationship with our sources. As a result of this objection, a conference was held between yourself and Senator Church on the evening of August 14, 1975. It is our understanding that an agreement was reached whereby the Committee would attempt a limited number of interviews of individuals whose identities and/or relationship with the FBI has been protected. However, as a condition precedent to such interviews, the FBI was to be allowed to contact such individuals to inform them of the proposed interview and to determine whether they would be receptive to such an interview. Senator Church concurred in this arrangement; however, subsequently on August 18, 1975, Mr. Elliff advised that Senator Church had reconsidered his agreement to the aforementioned procedures as a result of persuasion by the SSC Staff. Elliff, at that time, indicated a letter recording Senator Church's change of attitude had been drafted. To date, no such formal acknowledgement has been received by this Bureau and no interviews have been attempted in the interim.

In his October 15, 1975, communication, Senator Church again raises this issue. Although he does note that the matter was originally discussed with you "some weeks ago," he makes no mention of the agreement reached at that time. Apparently, as some sort of precedent, he does cite the fact that the FBI did make available for use and interview the names of Internal Revenue Service (IRS) personnel who cooperated with the FBI in certain COINTELPRO activities. We do not consider release of these identities on our part to be a concession with respect to confidentiality of sources in general since we specifically stipulated that we considered IRS personnel to be U. S. Government officials acting in their capacity as such.

It is clear that the merits of this issue have not changed since the agreement reached between yourself and Senator Church on August 14, 1975. I feel very strongly that the issue of confidentiality of sources is vital to the continuing effectiveness and integrity of the FBI in its investigative operations. I, therefore, strongly urge that should you concur in the need on the part of the Committee to conduct the interviews which they propose, that the agreement of prior contact by the FBI with those individuals be insisted upon as a condition to such interviews to insure their amenability and uphold the obligation of confidentiality which the FBI has assumed.

The Honorable Edward H. Levi
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

The Select Committee is presently investigating the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation carried on as part of the COINTELPRO program. We appreciate the cooperation of the FBI and the Justice Department in making materials available to us in this area. However, one problem remains to be resolved. The Committee believes its staff must contact and interview certain persons who received information from the FBI in the course of COINTELPRO operations. The FBI has withheld the names of such persons from the Committee's use on the grounds that they were FBI "sources".

As you will recall, we originally discussed this matter with you some weeks ago. Since then the Committee has had an opportunity to consider the issue more fully in the light of our experience with other investigations. For example, our inquiry into the relationships between the FBI and the Internal Revenue Service clearly showed the need to use the names of IRS personnel who cooperated with the FBI in certain COINTELPRO activities. Those names were made available to us for our use.

As I am sure you can appreciate, what is at stake here is the investigation of serious breaches of the security and confidentiality of information obtained by the FBI. Such information was apparently disclosed or "leaked" for the purpose of disruption. The full extent of such disclosures in many of the cases, such as the efforts to discredit Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is still unknown. Surely, it would be incongruous for an inquiry into these matters to be impaired on the grounds of the FBI's interest in preserving confidentiality.

The Committee has a clear mandate and a firm commitment to investigate allegations that the FBI attempted to harass and discredit individuals. The integrity of this investigation depends upon our ability to conduct interviews without the appearance of outside interference. Therefore, we hope you have no objection to our conducting the interviews of the persons on the attached list, but if you do, please contact me by Tuesday, October 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Church

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 8, 1968, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California, have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Fellowship for Social Justice, formerly known as the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, Page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities".

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

LOS ANGELES STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

A source advised in July, 1968, that the Los Angeles Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (LA-SNCC), headquartered at 7406 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California, is not a membership organization but a loose-knit agency composed of young militant, black nationalists from South Los Angeles who have eliminated all Caucasians from their ranks and have initiated a program against the draft, the war in Vietnam and discrimination and have proposed a revolutionary program utilizing armed force, political and economic action to obtain their goals. LA-SNCC is an arm of the National Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee organization headquartered at Atlanta, Georgia, and with the naming of LA-SNCC Director RONALD LEROY WILKINS as Deputy Director of SNCC for the West Coast, the affinity between the National and Local organization will be more harmonious.

The above source advised that at a meeting of LA-SNCC leaders on March 22, 1968, the group indicated it was necessary for all SNCC personnel to be armed in order to shoot "pig cops" when they are stopped in South Los Angeles.

A source, in May, 1968, indicated that LA-SNCC leadership has encouraged all associates of LA-SNCC to obtain arms and to be armed at all times.

On April 5, 1968, four LA-SNCC officers were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department at LA-SNCC headquarters in possession of two fully loaded .30 caliber M-1 carbines and one .12 gauge shotgun, pump action, with four rounds of 00 gauge buckshot. On May 4, 1968, five LA-SNCC officers were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department for possession of loaded firearms.

On May 14, 1968, then Director JOHN FLOYD and three Security Officers, LA-SNCC, were arrested by the New Orleans Police Department for possession of stolen property. New Orleans Police Department found four automatic weapons in attache cases carried by the above persons. They also obtained material concerning instructions in the making of Molotov cocktails, bombs and booby traps for sabotage in guerilla-type warfare. This literature was published in Communist China.

AT-T-1, 3/66

In response to this discussion, ABERNATHY said he and Rev. KING were of the opinion that SCLC was sorely in need of the continued services of an individual possessing the energy and resourcefulness of WILLIAMS, and therefore felt SCLC should retain WILLIAMS.

At the aforementioned meeting of the SCLC Executive Board, ABERNATHY explained that in the early part of 1967, SCLC would engage in a fund raising activity which would involve Rev. JAMES BEVEL

BEVEL, in early March, 1966 was observed to be present at the offices of the West Side W.E.B. DuBois Club in Chicago (DCC). Discussion took place at this time centering around reaction to a recent notification that the Attorney General of the United States intended to label the DuBois Clubs as a Communist front. BEVEL, in conversation, stated that he would have ignored this notification, and kept about the work in which he was engaged. He felt that if the DuBois Clubs have a real program of help for the people, then people would answer for the clubs despite any labels applied to them.

Most present agreed that the attack on the DuBois Clubs was a part of the plan by the "establishment" to undermine the civil rights movement. They felt that the recent hearings into Klan activities in this country was only a beginning which would lead to a full attack on the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the real target. One of those present stated during the course of this discussion that he was not a Communist, and to this BEVEL was overheard to reply that every thinking American should be. He stated that Negroes have not begun to read yet, but when they do, they will all be socialists.

The Courier - Journal, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 3, 1959, reported that CARL BRADEN had been sentenced to one year in prison on a charge of contempt of Congress on February 2, 1959, in Atlanta, Georgia. The story noted that he had been convicted under this charge on January 21, 1959, and that the charge arose from his refusal to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Louisville Times, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 27, 1961, reported that the United States Supreme Court had, on that date, affirmed the contempt of Congress conviction of BRADEN.

The Courier - Journal on May 2, 1961, reported that CARL BRADEN had surrendered to the United States Marshal at Atlanta, Georgia, on May 1, 1961, to begin serving a one-year prison sentence for contempt of Congress.

In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position in civil rights. LEVISON's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL

In July, 1962, HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, also known as JACK H. O'DELL, was considered by the Communist Party, USA, as a member of its National Committee.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL told EDWINA SMITH December 27, 1963, he would not go back to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference on the same basis because he is now a "left person" and if they cannot accept him the way he is then they will have to forget about him.

3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."

1 SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW dated April 26, 1946, changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals.

The SCEF is self-described as having deep roots in the South where it began as the educational wing of the SCHW, organized in 1938 to work for economic and political reform. When the SCHW disbanded in the late 1940's, SCEF continued as an independent organization, rallying support for integration and democracy and helping to stimulate and nurture new movements of the early 1960's. The SCEF maintained headquarters in Louisiana for twenty years, but in 1966 moved its headquarters to Louisville, Kentucky.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party Functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

On the late afternoon of October 11, 1975, Douglas Marvin, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, called me and requested that the Attorney General be furnished a brief statement concerning FBI relationships with the Senate Select Committee and the House Select Committee for inclusion in a statement being prepared for submission to the White House. Mr. Marvin said that the Attorney General's intention was to bring together anticipated problems concerning the two committees in the hope that a means for resolving these matters might be found.

I discussed this request with Mr. Jenkins in the absence of Mr. Callahan and I returned Mr. Marvin's call and dictated to the Attorney General's secretary. I requested her to furnish me with a copy of the dictation. Attached is the page furnished by the Attorney General's secretary which I received on October 15, 1975.

This matter was brought to the attention of the Executives Conference on October 14, 1975.

FBI Relationships with the Senate and House Select Committees

Senate Select Committee

FBI relationships with the Senate Select Committee generally have been harmonious with responses to the Committee requests delivered promptly. When difficulties have occurred they have been overcome by negotiation and tolerance on both sides. Future difficulties that may be confronted and require similar resolution include the scope of any public hearing regarding electronic surveillance of foreign nationals or their agents and establishments.

House Select Committee

In the past the FBI has experienced the following difficulties with the House Select Committee:

(1) It has held public hearings which were orchestrated to present adverse views without an opportunity for prepared rebuttal, such as occurred on October 9, 1975, regarding electronic surveillance matters;

(2) It has demanded delivery of documents on unreasonably short notice considering the time necessary to locate and prepare for delivery the enormous quantity of documents called for;

(3) It has interviewed employees, former employees and confidential sources of the FBI without first advising the FBI of the proposed interview and has demanded the appearance of agents below the policy-making level.

A large number of documents dealing with electronic surveillance conducted without a warrant between 1970 and July 30, 1975, were furnished to the Committee on Friday, October 10, 1975. Certain excisions in these documents were made and it remains to be seen whether the Committee will accept the determinations made as to what types of information, e.g., identities of subjects who were monitored, should have been excised.

The overriding concern for the future is the need to establish an understanding on both sides of the policies to be followed by each in responding to the Committee's mandate. General agreement to specified operating procedures would alleviate the suspicion on the part of the Committee and the fear of Committee ~~re~~sponsibility on the part of the FBI.

During the discussion on 10/20/75 concerning the forthcoming testimony of Assistant Director W. Raymond Wannall, Mr. Wannall mentioned to the Senate Select Committee Staff Members present (John T. Elliff, Domestic Task Force Director, Michael Epstein, and Mark Gitenstein) that in view of the fact these hearings would be open to the public the Committee would not be fully briefed concerning the background involved in the Bureau mail opening programs because of the sensitivity involved. Elliff indicated that he was in agreement and that he would contact F. A. O. Schwartz, Chief Counsel of the Committee, to see if executive session testimony could be arranged. Elliff subsequently telephonically contacted SA Paul V. Daly of this Division and advised him that Mr. Wannall could testify in executive session on mail openings in the late afternoon on 10/21/75 at approximately 4:30 p.m. subject to the approval of the Senators.

After consultation with Assistant Director Wannall, Elliff was advised that this would be acceptable and that Mr. Wannall would appear for executive session testimony concerning mail openings if the Senators agree to accept executive session testimony.*

Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination in the Department, was advised of the possible executive session testimony and interposed no objection to the Bureau giving such testimony.

Issues

The following issues are among those which are raised by the FBI mail opening programs and the FBI's cooperation in CIA's New York intercept project:

(1) Whether mail opening as an investigative technique should ever, under carefully circumscribed regulations and with proper authorization, be sanctioned in the counter-espionage field. The FBI mail opening programs raise this issue with more force than the CIA programs since, in general, the FBI programs were more circumscribed, more tightly controlled, and more focused than the CIA programs. The FBI programs were also very successful in achieving their counter-espionage goals. Mail opening does represent an extremely valuable means ~~menas~~ of intercepting the communications link in espionage communications. On the other hand, the sanctity of the mails is an established tradition in the United States, and it is doubtful that any selection criteria could be sufficiently precise to allow for the opening of only mail to or from illegal agents.

(2) Whether the mail openings that did occur were properly authorized. It is clear that FBI Director Hoover personally approved the majority of the mail opening programs. The one which was implemented without Headquarters approval was terminated shortly after it came to the attention of Headquarters. It does not appear, however, that any Attorney General ever authorized these programs or that the exact nature and full scope of the programs was even brought to the attention of any Attorney General, even though opportunities existed to do so. Similarly, despite frequent contacts with the Postal Inspection Service regarding the implementation of these programs, no Chief Postal Inspector was ever informed that the FBI contemplated the actual opening of mail.

(3) Whether the legal implications of the mail openings were adequately considered. There is no evidence that legal considerations were discussed after 1951, and there is evidence that Headquarters personnel who ran the programs either considered them illegal or ignored the legal implications entirely.

that these programs did generate such information apparently came as a surprise to the Headquarters officials who ran the programs and the obvious questions are whether this was permitted or encouraged, and, if neither, how it could have happened.

(5) Whether the selection of names for inclusion on the CIA's Watch List in the Hunter Project was sufficiently controlled and limited. Because the FBI requested the CIA for information on categories such as peace organizations and on specific individuals and groups involved in the peace and women's movement, a serious question is raised whether there was sufficient restraint on the use of this source.

NOTE: As discussed in the FBI MAIL OPENING PROGRAMS summary, several of the FBI mail opening programs utilized, as selection criteria, various "indicators" which, with some accuracy, identified letters sent by or addressed to foreign illegal agents. The fact of these indicators has been made public by FBI officials in recent weeks. But: these indicators are still felt to be valid and the FBI has no reason to believe that they are not still being used. It is recommended, therefore, that the Committee avoid questions which would require in response an elaboration of the nature of these indicators.

STAFF MEMORANDUM

EXECUTIVE SESSION ON FBI MAIL OPENING PROGRAMS

FBI Assistant Director W. Raymond Wannall and William Branigan, Chief of the Soviet Section of the FBI Counterintelligence Branch, have requested an opportunity to appear before the Select Committee in executive session to discuss classified aspects of the FBI mail opening programs. Both of them will be witnesses at the public hearing on FBI mail openings on Friday.

The Committee staff has agreed that the public hearing will not disclose the following aspects of FBI mail openings:

1. The identity of the foreign nations involved, including the Soviet Union, Communist China, Cuba, Mexico, Hong Kong, Japan, most Western European countries, and several Central and Latin American countries.

2. The fact the mail to and from the Soviet Embassy and the Soviet United Nations Mission, the Cuban United Nations Mission, other Soviet-bloc Embassies was selectively opened. (S)

3. The "indicators" used as criteria for selective opening of mail screened in several other programs designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States. (The fact that there were "indicators," but not their nature, may be disclosed publicly.)

4. The identities of specific individuals and groups whose mail was opened either by the FBI or by the CIA at the request of the FBI. (FBI officials will state publicly that some of these, especially in the category "peace and protest groups," were not adequately justified.) Some of these included:

   Leonard Bernstein
   Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam
   Jeremy Stone
   Cambridge Center for Study of Public Policy

The following are questions which cannot be discussed in public hearings because of this agreement. They should be raised at this executive session:

1. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail openings aimed at mail to and from the [Soviet and Soviet-bloc embassies?] (X)

2. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail opening programs using "indicators" and designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States? [(Soviet and Cuban)] (X)

3. What was the actual intelligence value of the material supplied to the FBI by the CIA from its mail opening operation?

4. How good are the "indicators" in selecting mail of foreign intelligence agents only and not mail of American citizens or others who are not foreign agents?

5. What standards were used for opening mail to and from Communist China, and what was the intelligence value of these programs?

6. Do FBI counterespionage officials desire to resume any mail opening programs, with proper authorization from Congress and the Attorney General?

7. How do the benefits of mail opening compare with the benefits of warrantless electronic surveillance currently used by the FBI for foreign intelligence and counterintelligence purposes?

NATHANIEL WALTER JUNIOR

Nathaniel Walter Junior has been identified as a member of the Black Panther Party (BPP).

> The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

Junior appeared in United States District Court, Chicago, Illinois, on January 18, 1971, and entered a plea of guilty on Federal Firearms charges against him, as well as on a bail jumping charge. On February 5, 1971, United States District Judge Sam J. Perry, Chicago, Illinois, sentenced Junior to three years probation on the above charges.

On September 28, 1971, Junior was interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Junior advised that he was no longer a member of the BPP, having resigned as a result of a dispute with Bobby Rush, Deputy Minister of Defense of the Illinois BPP, regarding the unauthorized use of Panther funds by Rush. He further alienated himself with the BPP when, in January, 1971, he refused to repay the BPP $1,500.00 that had been paid as bail to secure his release from jail on the aforementioned charges.

Junior furnished the following information concerning his activities with the BPP:

He originally joined the BPP at the invitation of Fred Hampton, in the Fall of 1968. Hampton at the time was the Chairman of the Illinois BPP and was subsequently slain by Cook County States Attorney Officers, December 4, 1969, who at the time were executing a search warrant in Chicago, Illinois.

While in the party, Junior held the title of Field Secretary and was privy to administrative matters relating to the BPP. On two occasions he traveled out of the state on party business, once to BPP National Headquarters for the purpose of meeting the National Staff, and to Washington, D. C., to attend the Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention (RPCC).

The RPCC, held August 7, 1970, at Howard University, Washington, D. C., was organized by the BPP to structure "a constitution that will guarantee us the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; a constitution that serves the people instead of a constitution that serves the ruling class".

In early 1969, Junior negotiated to purchase a quantity of weapons from an undercover United States Treasury Agent, for the BPP and as a result was arrested on a Federal Firearms charge. While out of jail on this charge, Junior learned that he had been indicted and decided to jump bond and leave the country.

Junior left the country for Canada, through the aid of persons connected with the draft resistence movement, and who did not know of his pending criminal charges or his affiliation with the BPP. He declined to identify these persons who aided in his leaving the country or those who aided him in Canada.

The BPP in no way aided him in leaving the country, nor did they provide him any financial assistance while he was a fugitive and for this he is bitter.

Junior decided to leave Canada and return to Chicago for the purpose of surrendering to face trial on the Federal Firearms Act charge, because of his parents' poor health.

Upon his return, he learned the BPP was no longer functioning on a democratic basis but was now being dominated by Bobby Rush, Illinois Minister of Defense. Junior sought to bring the party back to its former state, by calling for reforms and reorganization, which was resisted by Rush and he was subsequently removed from the Central Staff and he resigned from the party in September, 1970.

He is in no way involved with the BPP, or other extremist activities, at this time nor does he have any plans to resume his association with the BPP, as he feels "The BPP and other organizations are being duped by white intellectual revolutionary hobbyists, who are taking advantage of the hopelessness and frustrations of the Black community to exercise their theories on political and social democracy."

Junior claims to have no knowledge of any BPP underground, now or in the past, but admits that preliminary discussion regarding an underground cell of the BPP was had in the early development of the Illinois BPP, but that plan like most others never got off the ground.

The BPP was, and is, a big disappointment to Junior in that they departed from their original concept of neighborhood protection against police brutality, to one of international identification with communism. He maintained his association with the BPP in spite of this change in philosophy because of his respect and confidence in Fred Hampton, who rationalized that in order to further the cause of neighborhood control they'd need the financing and good will of governments oppose to people oppression, no matter where these people were.

Junior feels that the BPP is dead in Illinois and blames its demise to its identification with communism and coalitions with white revolutionary groups.

He has three things to show for his membership in the BPP; (1) probation on the Federal Firearms charge, (2) three years probation on State narcotics case (which he claims was a frame by police, but to which he entered a plea, "as part of a deal", at the urgency of his BPP attorney); and (3) an outstanding indictment with the State of Illinois charging he and fourteen others with kidnaping and related crimes. Junior advised that this was another case of police harassment of the BPP, and another example of how the BPP has lost its attractiveness to people in Chicago. Of the sixteen people who were originally charged in the kidnapping case, including the deceased Hampton, only two of those, Yvonne King, and Billy Brooks, continue as members of the BPP.

Junior claims to have no contact with any members or former members of the BPP, except when the persons charged with the kidnaping report for trial every month. Junior cites the numerous continuances of the kidnaping case as an example of white hobbyists playing with young black revolutionary hopefuls. To him the continuances represent a conspiracy on the part of the BPP attorneys and the States Attorney's Office, as on alternate months they ask that the case be continued and neither ever objects. If he could afford it he would not avail himself of the BPP attorney's services.

Junior is required to report to his probation officer twice per month and is not allowed to travel outside the State of Illinois, without prior permission.

Logical sources, in positions to know, advise that Junior is not now active with the BPP, and has not been so in more than a year.

On October 29, 1971, the FBI recontacted Junior and learned that his pending kidnaping case was continued from October 26, 1971, until November 30, 1971.

NATHANIEL WALTER JUNIOR

Nathaniel Walter Junior has been identified as a former member of the Black Panther Party (BPP), who during the time he was a BPP member was indicted on state charges of kidnaping and related crimes, with other BPP members, on June 8, 1969, by the Illinois Cook County Grand Jury.

> The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

The case against Junior, and the other BPP members indicted with him, has never come to trial having been continued numerous times.

On May 10, 1972, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed Junior as he appeared in State Court, and the case was continued until June 15, 1972.

Reliable confidential sources advise that Junior is not a BPP member, nor does he associate with the membership of this organization.

Banoff on 10/10/75 requested copies of a memorandum from Mr. Baumgardner to Mr. Belmont dated 3/30/60 and a letter to the New York Office and 15 other offices dated 3/31/60, both captioned "Communist Party, USA, Counterintelligence Program," be furnished to the Committee. Banoff stated she believed these documents had previously been requested but she was unable to locate them in the Committee files. She said she desired to have these documents because they set forth a logical program by which the FBI made an effort to prevent the Communist Party from infiltrating legitimate mass organizations. As an aside, she stated she thought the FBI was successful in this effort, indicating she felt the technique was worthy and proper.

Copies of the above two documents were made available to a SSC representative on 10/22/75. Copies of the documents together with a cover page indicating their receipt are attached. No excisions were required in these documents.

This memorandum advises that the Senate Select Committee (SSC) intends to release to the press copies of eight FBI documents (attached). The release of these documents is scheduled for 10/24/75, following the appearance of Assistant Directors Wannall and Mintz and Section Chief Branigan before the SSC.

These documents were made available to the SSC responsive to specific requests. They have been excised and declassified where necessary. With regard to dissemination of FBI documents to the Select Committees of Congress, both the White House and the Department have held that, once a document has been excised, declassified and furnished to either Select Committee of Congress, it is that Committee's property to do with whatever that Committee deems appropriate. However, we do have an understanding with the Committee that allows for more extensive excisions once the Committee decides to make documents available to the press. Personnel in the Senstudy Project have reviewed the attached eight documents and have made additional excisions which are acceptable to the SSC. These excisions are designed to protect Bureau sources, targets and, where possible, the identity of Bureau personnel.

The contents of the documents that will be made available generally portray the Bureau in a favorable light. They highlight: (1) tight supervision and control of the mail intercept programs; (2) general objectives of the program; (3) accomplishments; and (4) Departmental officials' knowledge of the existence of some of these programs.

Of course, it would be desirable if no documents were released by the SSC; however, Mr. Elliff advises that the senators are desirous of furnishing some documents to the press. If, in fact, Bureau documents have to be released, it appears that the ones the SSC plans to use are favorable to the Bureau.

SUBJECT: THE LONG COMMITTEE

The Attorney General called on the morning of February 27, 1965, to advise he wanted to consult with the Bureau on certain problems raised by the Long Committee, which is exploring the use of mail covers, et cetera. He noted there was a possible problem concerning Chief Inspector Montague's testimony and whether it was necessary for Montague to change his testimony. Also, he felt that Internal Revenue Service had been using investigative techniques which they should not use and this could pose a problem. He said that the President had asked him to coordinate with all executive agencies concerning the problems raised by the Long Committee.

Inspector Moore and I met with the Attorney General i his office this afternoon. Mr. Courtney Evans was present. I told the Attorney General that in Montague's testimony he was told by Attorney Fensterwald that if any of the questions had national security implications Montague should not answer them. Consequently, Montague was estopped from doing other than answe in the negative when asked questions touching on national security. With this interpretation, it was questionable whethe an attempt should be made to change or explain Montague's testimony, particularly in view of the obvious lack of judgment on the part of Fensterwald and the desire of Long for publicity I made it clear to the Attorney General that from our dealings with Montague, he was a man of integrity and sacrificed his personal desires for the welfare of the country and had coopera fully with us. The Attorney General said he had no intention of changing one word of Montague's testimony, but he was considering advising Long and Fensterwald that there were extreme delicate national security matters touching on the area being covered by the committee and there could be exceptions to the answers given in the testimony when they touched on such sensitive security matters. He said further that he contemplat seeing Senator Long and impressing on him that the committee would not want to stumble by mistake into an area of extreme interest to the national security as they nearly did in a matte affecting CIA. (Apparently CIA got wind of some inquiries by the committee relative to their secret operation and went to the committee and warned them off.) Katzenbach contemplates asking for a list of the witnesses who will appear before the committee together with a brief summary of the expected testimony. On the basis of this, he will be able to advise Senator Long when he should steer clear of a sensitive area.

I told Mr. Katzenbach that I certainly agree that this matter should be controlled at the committee level but that I felt pressure would have to be applied so that the personal interest of Senator Long became involved rather than on any ideological basis. Mr. Katzenbach said that he had already talked to Vice President Humphrey about Fensterwald, who he considered a wild man, and that Humphrey had promised to talk to Long concerning Fensterwald. Katzenbach said that in addition to the Vice President he might have to resort to pressure from the President himself, although he would prefer to work it out without resorting to the President. He indicated there was no one on the committee itself who could be helpful and that he did not expect any help from Senator Eastland.

Mr. Katzenbach said that he expected troublefrom the possible activities of IRS and the military in the investigative field; that if some of these matters are uncovered before the committee they will tend to undermine the restricted and tightly controlled operations of the Bureau. I told him that our operations are tightly controlled and particularly in the delicate areas of concern, we restrict ourselves to important security matters.

Mr. Katzenbach said he was going to see Senator Long on Monday and wanted to know if the Bureau would like someone to go along with him. I told him no.

Mr. Katzenbach said he would advise us of the results of his conversation with Long. He also asked that I advise the Director of our discussion and I told him I would.

I called Mr. DeLoach and briefed him on this problem in order that he might contact Senator Eastland in an effort to warn the Long Committee away from those areas which would be injurious to the national defense. The Attorney General called and advised that he had talked to Senator Long last night. Senator Long's committee is looking into mail covers et cetera. The Attorney General stated he thought somebody had already spoken to Senator Long as he said he did not want to get into any national security area and was willing to take steps not to do this. The Attorney General stated that Mr. Fensterwald was present for part of the meeting and Fensterwald had said that he had some possible witnesses who are former Bureau Agents and if they were asked if mail was opened, they would take the Fifth Amendment. The Attorney General stated that before they are called, he would like to know who they are and whether they were ever involved in any program touching on national security and if not, it is their own business, but if they were, we would want to know. The Attorney General stated the Senator promised that he would have a chance to look at the names if he wanted to, personally and confidentially, and the list would have any names involving national security deleted and he would tell the Senator how many but no more.

The Attorney General stated that the Postmaster General is going down there this morning [illegible] which he, the Attorney General, thought would be helpful to Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department.

The Attorney General stated that Senator Long also said he is not going to propose legislation to abolish mail covers as he thought they served a useful purpose but he did think that control should be tightened. I stated I thought there was great laxity in the matter of mail covers and the matter of tapping telephones.

I stated I have always been of the view and recommended back when Tom Clark was Attorney General that no agency of the Government should tap a telephone except with the written approval of the Attorney General. I stated there would then be in one place a list of all phone taps and the purpose and reason for them. I stated that it is a fact, insofar as I am concerned, that I am the only head of an agency who does not have authority to tap telephones. I stated that I know that subordinates down the line in some agencies will tap phones without the knowledge of the chief of the agency and there is grave suspicion in Washington by some newspapermen that their phones have been tapped by agencies of the Government trying to find out where they are getting their information. I stated I have always been opposed to the law whereby it is necessary to get the authority of a court to tap phones because of the composition of some of our courts and the employees thereof, but I have always felt that the President should issue an Executive Order confidentially to all agencies that all phone tapping be discontinued except when specifically approved by the Attorney General so there would be in one place a list and then if any committee in Congress got on the warpath, the Attorney General would have a list he could vouch for as being the only phones tapped by the Government. The Attorney General stated that made sense. I stated many agencies are opposed because they realize there would be a marked restriction. I stated we only have 45 phone taps, which is a low number for a country the size of ours and the area we have to cover. The Attorney General stated no one has any idea how many phone taps the whole Government has.

I stated there is also a school being conducted in California by a private organization which instructs the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service in the matter of phone tapping and they have sent their own personnel there to be trained. I stated Internal Revenue has also from time to time hired private outside phone tappers to do their tapping. I stated it is that type of thing if there were a real investigation which would come out. The Attorney General commented that he would not guarantee some of it won't come out. I stated I was amazed when I learned of the school in California as I saw a reference to it in the newspaper and wanted to know what it was and what officers attended. I stated we have our own instructors and do it ourselves.

I stated I thought the Attorney General had made good headway with Senator Long. The Attorney General stated he thought it would be helpful, but his problem is that he thinks the Senator is fine but he does not think that Fensterwald is as straightforward, or to put it another way that Fensterwald is smart and devious and the Senator is straightforward and not very bright and that is the problem. I stated I thought that Fensterwald is trying to get publicity for the Senator. The Attorney General stated the Senator said he did not want to get into this and he would give him, the Attorney General, the names and a summary of the testimony and told Fensterwald to do so, but he, the Attorney General, can't say Fensterwald is going to do it; that he will on some but he did not know that he would on all. I stated I had no faith or confidence in Fensterwald and neither did Senator Eastland. The Attorney General stated that Senator Eastland may have already talked to Senator Long or else the Vice President, but somebody had waked him up. I stated Senator Eastland said he would do it Wednesday, but he may have called him.

The Attorney General stated that is where it stands now and we shall see what happens.

Very truly yours,

Prior memoranda have advised of the starting of the trial of the Soviet illegal agents in this case, Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Baltch, in the Eastern District of New York and motions by defense counsel regarding the nature of evidence to be submitted in this case.

The Judge originally denied the motions, but Assistant Attorney General Yeagley has advised that USA Hoey in answering questions by the Judge gave answers which were too broad and which the Government cannot support and therefore it is necessary for the Government to make additional statements to Judge Dooling who is sitting in this case in the Eastern District of New York. My memorandum of September 30, 1964, advised that while we were not aware of the contents of the conversations between USA Hoey and Judge Dooling, we had no objections to Yeagley's proposed amending statement as it was correct.

Subsequently on the afternoon of 10-1-64, Departmental Attorneys Thomas K. Hall and Kevin Maroney advised Supervisor Litrento and myself that USA Hoey's statement to Judge Dooling was unfortunate because it was too broad. They believe that the Judge's query pertained to any tainted source at the Baltch residence and was confined to eavesdropping devices, but that Hoey in his answer had not confined the answer to the residence or to eavesdropping, either of which would perhaps have prevented the current problem. (No information obtained from wiretaps or microphones is contemplated to be used in this case and the only tainted source is a mail intercept which did not take place anywhere near the residence).

Subsequently on the evening of 10-1-64, Mr. Hall advised that he had just learned that apparently Hoey in his discussions with the court had stated, or at least indicated, there was no microphone involved in this case and, of course, this was incorrect and the Department felt the record had to be corrected. asked if the Bureau had any objection and was advised in the negative. This morning Mr. Hall called to advise that USA Hoey had now requested advice as to what answer could be given the court should he be asked (1) if there was a wiretap involved in this case and (2) if there was a mail intercept in this case. After checking, I called Hall back and said that we would leave the answer to #1 up to the Department, but that if the Department saw necessary, the Bureau would not object. However, with regard to #2, under no circumstances is the Bureau willing to admit that a mail intercept was utilized and Hall said he would pass this information on to Hoey and Assistant Attorney General Yeagley who is in New York. [illegible]

Hall advised that he had discussed this case with Acting Attorney General Katzenbach this morning and Katzenbach was of the opinion that the Department must be candid with the Judge. He said Katzenbach recognized the problems, but felt that in view of the value of the case, an effort should be made to go ahead with the trial even if it might be necessary drop the overt act where our tainted source is involved, and proceed on a general conspiracy basis with the recognition that the verdict might be against us, but we would have revealed the Soviet espionage activities to the people. Hall said he was passing on the Acting Attorney General's comments to Assistant Attorney General Yeagley. Hall said that the motions of defense counsel and the complications with regard to the answers may eventually force the Government to drop the prosecution. He said in view of the many facets involved, he did not feel there was any reason to agree to a pre-trial hearing on the issue of tainted source if this should be required by the court, and rather than do this, they are prepared to drop the espionage charges and attempt to proceed on lesser grounds.

SAC Schmit, NYO, was advised of the above developments and requested to keep in close touch with Yeagley in New York and you will be kept advised of developments.

ROUTE IN ENVELOPE

The captioned code word covers our investigation of the unknown subject at San Diego, California who offered to sell information concerning Sonar to the Soviets for $60,000.

BACKGROUND:

Information concerning this first came to our attention on 7-17-64 when our highly confidential coverage detected a letter addressed to Soviet Ambassador Dobrynin, postmarked 7-16-64 at San Diego, California. We followed up on this by inserting a message in a San Diego newspaper indicating that we were interested in the offer. The unsub then telephonically contacted an Agent of the Washington Field Office at the telephone number furnished him in the message in the personal column of the San Diego newspaper. Thereafter, we intercepted a telephone call that the subject made to the Soviet Embassy during which he attempted to verify that he was dealing with Soviet citizens. Acting on the subject's instructions, a package containing a camera suitable for document photography and $500 was dispatched by United Airlines air freight from Washington to San Diego during the early morning of 8-13-64.

In the meantime, another resident of San Diego, one R. Tobin, advised our office there that he had been engaged by an unidentified individual to pick up a package at United Airlines Freight Terminal which he was to subsequently turn over and for which he would be paid $20.

CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS:

According to SAC C. Williams, an Agent of the San Diego Office posing as R. Tobin in the latter's automobile picked up the package at 8 p.m., PDT, and, thereafter, proceeded as he had been instructed to a drive-in in the San Diego area. SAC Williams advised that the coverage by San Diego Agents at the Air Freight Terminal uncovered a suspect who appeared to be closely observing Tobin's automobile and who, thereafter, surveilled the automobile to the area of the drive-in.

After waiting the agreed time, our Agent proceeded to a parking lot adjacent to a church about one mile further down the highway. Shortly after the Agent arrived, he was approached by the suspect who inquired "Are you Tobin?" Thereafter, the suspect claimed to be a messenger who had been engaged to pick up the package. He did deliver an envelope to our Agent which contained the $20 agreed to. At this point, the Agent, posing as Tobin, identified himself and requested that the suspect identify himself and voluntarily accompany him to the San Diego Office.

The suspect, who has now been identified as the subject, is Perry A. Chandelaine, 3231 Par Drive, La Mesa, California. He is a Grade 13 engineer at the Navy Electronics Laboratory, San Diego. This laboratory does all the training and electronics work and research, including Sonar, for the Navy in the San Diego area. In this connection, the subject claimed that he had access to information classified "Confidential." He has been a Government employee in excess of ten years and is the father of ten children.

In May, 1952, subject was an applicant for the position of Special Agent with this Bureau. Apparently during the interview it was determined the applicant's father was killed by the police in Chicago in 1932 when caught stealing butter from a boxcar. He had been arrested for selling whiskey prior to that in Wisconsin. Applicant was considered very nervous and had a vagotomy operation for a nervous disorder performed in 1947. Applicant had an ulcer which caused his discharge from the service and which still, at that time, gave him trouble. He was unfavorably recommended for employment.

According to SAC Williams, the subject readily acknowledged that he was in real deep trouble and claimed that his wife was also knowledgeable concerning his activities. Subject freely admitted contacting the Soviets and offering to sell information to them. However, the subject steadfastly maintained that he was a patriotic American, a Catholic and one who hated the Russians and that he was endeavoring to get all out of them that he could and he then intended to turn whatever he obtained over to ONI.

Subject's wife was invited to the office and she confirmed that earlier in the evening the subject had apprised her of his activities and gave her a letter which was addressed to ONI and which she was to mail upon receipt of a phone call from him. This

Thereafter, the facts in this case were presented to Mr. Thomas K. Hall of the Internal Security Division of the Department who advised that in view of the illegal source of the original information and all that flowed from it, he could not authorize the filing of a complaint charging the subject with an attempt to commit espionage. ONI was immediately advised both at San Diego and at Washington concerning the identity of the subject and the facts admitted by him. This was done in the event the Navy could institute some action. Upon completion of the signing of the statements, subject and his wife were permitted to return to their residence since no prosecutive action could be taken.

ACTION:

The investigation at San Diego is continuing, the completed results of which will be furnished to the Navy so it can institute administrative proceedings against him. The facts will, likewise, be furnished to the Internal Security Division of the Department which has requested them.

SUBJECT: SAM SURVEY
ESPIONAGE - RUSSIA

This is to consider recommendation of the New York Office that the Sam Survey Program be reinstituted.

BACKGROUND:

Sam Survey was a successful program operated between 1959 and 1966, which involved screening of air mail destined for selected European countries and cities by our Agent personnel in an effort to detect Soviet illegal agent mail. This program was made possible through the confidential cooperation of highly placed postal officials. In 1961 we identified, through this program, the [redacted] in New York City [redacted]. In addition, [redacted], we uncovered [redacted] which had operated in the [redacted] for a certain period and then shifted its activities to the [redacted]. [redacted] In July, 1966, this program was discontinued.

Foreign Intelligence Project

RECOMMENDATION OF NEW YORK:

New York points out that although ample evidence indicate the presence of a substantial number of Soviet illegals, the Bureau has been unsuccessful in locating any in recent years; that various programs and projects put into operation have been unsuccessful. Further, it is its contention that the illegal's most vulnerable area is still his letter writing and that this is the area we have the best chance by far to locate and identify illegals. Therefore, New York wishes to submit for the Bureau's consideration the reinstitution of Sam Survey. If this is not possible, it recommend that the Bureau consider requesting CIA or postal authorities to take over this program.

RE: SAM SURVEY

OBSERVATIONS:

It is agreed that the problem to locate Soviet illegals has assumed serious proportions and that the resumption of this program could be of inestimable value to the Bureau in meeting its responsibilities in that regard. However, present Bureau policy precludes the use of this technique. For this reason, it is not believed that we consider reinstitution of this program directly or through CIA or postal authorities.

ACTION:

New York is being advised that the reinstitution of Sam Survey Program either directly or through CIA or postal authorities is not advisable at this time.

On January 15, 1969, Richard Ober, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), suggested to the Liaison Agent that the Bureau should not overlook the utilization of the Agency's Hunter project for the development of leads in the New Left and Black Nationalist fields. Ober admitted the traffic involving individuals in these areas might be light but that the Bureau might wish to give consideration to placing stops on certain key personalities.

The Hunter project for which we have given the designation of Bureau Informant 200 essentially consists of specialized coverage of mail between the United States and Russia. If we have some reason to believe that one of our subject's is communicating with anybody in the Soviet Union it might be worthwhile to place a stop.

We should bear in mind that this coverage is extremely sensitive and the handling of any matters involving Bureau Informant 200 should conform with the ground rules which have been established. (See Mary Triplett, extension 631, Soviet Section.)

Re San Francisco letter to Director 1/11/62 advising San Francisco survey would run through February 9, 1962.

As of 1/28/62, a total of about 1,764,440 letters has been surveyed in 46 days.

Fifty-one cases have been opened to determine whether recipient might be Soviet illegal agent. Thirty-two cases have been closed when subjects appeared to be legitimate residents.

SUBJECT: BUREAU INFORMANT 200 - POLICY

This is to advise you that on 10/31/62 representatives of this Bureau conferred with CIA representatives James Hunt, John Mertz and Thomas Chalmers at CIA concerning "Project Hunter." At this conference our observations concerning Hunter material furnished since our last conference on 2/13/62 were given CIA. In addition, we advised CIA specifically of certain Hunter items which were of no interest to us and of certain Hunter items which were of interest to us. These items were set forth in memorandum form and furnished to CIA; a copy of same is attached.

CIA advised that its "Hunter-Don" coverage was being operated seven days a week until November 15. This concentrated coverage is for the purpose of determining if there is any illegal agent traffic. After November 15 all Hunter coverage can be expected to be reduced until after the Christmas mail rush has subsided.

The CIA representatives were very pleased with our analysis of the Hunter material received and with the attention afforded it by us. They are very cooperative in that they are willing to focus their attention on any particular phase of coverage we suggest for our own benefit. For CIA's interest we furnished them a copy of the attached memorandum of our analysis of typical information furnished by Bureau Informant 200 of interest to us.

RE: PROJECT HUNTER

After an extensive review of 2500 Hunter Reports since our last memo captioned as above and dated 8/21/62, we have made the following observations in the interest of economy in regard to Project Hunter as it related to our Bureau and your Agency to insure time will not be unnecessarily expended by our Bureau processing unwanted material and to save your Agency the expense involved in the preparation of such material.

I Traffic Which Holds No Interest:

1. Soviet-bloc immigrants desiring to repatriate to USSR. These people are interviewed by INS and INS refers anything of interest to us.

2. Americans traveling to the USSR as such travel is permissible and several hundred people a year visit the USSR while on tour abroad as well as Soviets returning to visit relatives. We, of course, have an interest in such travel involving people on the CIA Watch List, known Communist Party members, and suspected intelligence agents.

3. U. S. professors in Academic Research corresponding with each other. It is not likely if U. S. professor is passing any data he would identify himself at the same time.

II Traffic of Specific Interest:

1. All data re Cuba. This serves to identify pro-Castro followers in the U. S.

2. All data re U. S. Cubans in contact with Cubans attending Friendship University in Moscow.

3. All material emanating from Puerto Rico of an Anti-U. S. nature and pro-Soviet.

4. Data re U. S. peace groups going to Russia and while in Russia.

5. Data indicating death of any U. S. Communist abroad.

6. Data re Maurice Hyman Halperin(now in Cuba); Helen Kagen Pozner; Miriam Zeitlin Seborer, Oscar and Stuart Seborer(All in Russia); Max, Celia and Rose Seborer(New York); Noah and Anna Sparer Seborer (Mexico).

RE: PROJECT HUNTER

8. Any traffic from or to U. S. Students in Moscow or to U. S. persons who were former students in Moscow.

9. Any traffic between U. S. persons who are with a current exposition or a previous exposition in the USSR.

1. As a part of the recent request by the Senate Select Committee, we reviewed our files to see if there were any responses to General Allen's letter of September 17, 1973 which requested recertification of "Watch Lists." At that time we did not find any responses. We recently checked with the FBI and Secret Service and discovered that there were in fact responses. The Secret Service, by letter dated 21 September 1973, did in fact recertify a "Watch List" containing U.S. names, however, NSA has not accepted the U.S. names.

2. Inclosed are copies of the FBI and Secret Service letters. Request you forward these to the Senate Select Committee with the above comments.

Dear General Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter of September 17, 1973, concerning the necessity for a mutual review of our policies with respect to the compilation and maintenance of the Watch List. I share your concern and fully agree that we should review our procedures to assure that our authorities, particularly in light of recent court decisions, are not exceeded.

As you are aware, however, the Department of Justice in filing affidavits with the United States District Court, Eastern District of Michigan, in the case of United States versus William Ayers, et al., which case involved the Students for a Democratic Society, an organization included on the Watch List, took the position that the intercepts obtained by your agency were lawful and not within the disclosure requirements of the court.

We are instituting a review of our procedures but feel that any decision reached respecting the Watch List should await the final ruling of the court.

Mintz, Legal Counsel Division; and myself appeared at an Executive Session of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities to discuss classified aspects of the Bureau's various mail intercept programs. Present were Senator Church, Chairman of the Select Committee; Senators Mondale, Goldwater, P. A. Hart, Huddleston, and Schweiker; as well as various members of the staff of the Select Committee.

Generally speaking, the reception by the Chairman and the various Senators, as well as members of the staff, was a friendly one. No antagonism was shown to the Bureau representatives, and the Senators by their questions indicated a desire to help the Bureau in our foreign counterintelligence operations.

At the request of the Chairman, the eight separate mail intercept surveys were explained to the Committee, including the length of time that these surveys were in operation and the value that was derived from them.

During the hearing we were supplied with a copy of a Staff Memorandum which outlined various aspects of our operations which would not be disclosed during a public hearing. ADDENDUM BY LEGAL COUNSEL 10/23/75, JAM:mfd

I answered the Committee's questions described in the last paragraph of this memorandum by explaining to them that in a security case we would find it most difficult to meet the 4th Amendment standard of probable cause in order to obtain a search warrant. for mail. If we are to be required to obtain warrants prior to obtaining mail and if we are to be successful, a lower standard of probable cause such as is permissible in administrative searches such as those conducted by Health Inspectors would be necessary. In answer to a specific question I explained that the Supreme Court has ruled that mail is protected absolutely by the 4th Amendment.

EXECUTIVE SESSION ON FBI MAIL OPENING PROGRAMS

FBI Assistant Director W. Raymond Wannall and William Branigan, Chief of the Soviet Section of the FBI Counterintelligence Branch, have requested an opportunity to appear before the Select Committee in executive session to discuss classified aspects of the FBI mail opening programs. Both of them will be witnesses at the public hearing on FBI mail openings on Friday.

The Committee staff has agreed that the public hearing will not disclose the following aspects of FBI mail openings:

1. The identity of the foreign nations involved, including the Soviet Union, Communist China, Cuba, Mexico, Hong Kong, Japan, most Western European countries, and several Central and Latin American countries.

2. The fact the mail to and from the Soviet Embassy and the Soviet United Nations Mission, the Cuban United Nations Mission, other Soviet-bloc Embassies was selectively opened. (S)

3. The "indicators" used as criteria for selective opening of mail screened in several other programs designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States. (The fact that there were "indicators," but not their nature, may be disclosed publicly.)

4. The identities of specific individuals and groups whose mail was opened either by the FBI or by the CIA at the request of the FBI. (FBI officials will state publicly that some of these, especially in the category "peace and protest groups," were not adequately justified.) Some of these included:

    Leonard Bernstein
    Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam
    Jeremy Stone
    Cambridge Center for Study of Public Policy

The following are questions which cannot be discussed in public hearings because of this agreement. They should be raised at this executive session:

1. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail openings aimed at mail to and from the [Soviet and Soviet-bloc embassies?] (~~S~~)

2. What was the actual intelligence value of FBI mail opening programs using "indicators" and designed to detect illegal foreign intelligence agents in the United States? [(Soviet and Cuban)] (~~S~~)

3. What was the actual intelligence value of the material supplied to the FBI by the CIA from its mail opening operation?

4. How good are the "indicators" in selecting mail of foreign intelligence agents only and not mail of American citizens or others who are not foreign agents?

5. What standards were used for opening mail to and from Communist China, and what was the intelligence value of these programs?

6. Do FBI counterespionage officials desire to resume any mail opening programs, with proper authorization from Congress and the Attorney General?

7. How do the benefits of mail opening compare with the benefits of warrantless electronic surveillance currently used by the FBI for foreign intelligence and counterintelligence purposes?

Materials furnished in response to this request were obtained by review of all abstracts regarding communications to the Postal Service requesting mail covers. Since 1971, all national security mail covers have been requested by means of a letter to the Chief Postal Inspector, Postal Service. The materials being furnished only encompass investigative matters involving domestic security cases wherein the mail cover has been terminated whether the investigation is pending or closed. The materials are comprised of copies of the letters to the Postal Service and supportive memoranda where used in lieu of notes. These materials were reviewed and, where necessary, excisions made. By memorandum 9/24/75, the SSC was furnished the bulk of such documents located at that time. The documents being furnished now are those which could not be immediately located. All domestic mail cover requests which were located by means of the abstract review have now been furnished to the SSC.

By oral agreement with the SSC staff, only domestic security mail covers were required to be furnished.

The Bureau is requested to consider securing copies of income tax returns for the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN; ROBERT MARVIN SHELTON, 1708 - 15th Street, East, Tuscaloosa, Ala., or the ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE, a name by which the UKA is sometimes known.

Inquiry at the banks in Tuscaloosa has failed to reveal any accounts in the name of the UKA or ROBERT M. SHELTON, except a small personal account of SHELTON at the First National Bank of Tuscaloosa. Informants have advised that SHELTON is paid probably $8,000 per year for his work as Imperial Wizard. This money is sent in monthly to UKA headquarters in Tuscaloosa by the individual Klaverns and presumably put in some bank.

An examination of pertinent income tax returns might furnish information concerning the financial standing of SHELTON and UKA which could be used in this program.

Robert Marvin Shelton is a full-time paid employee of the United Klans of America, Incorporated (UKA), Knights of the Ku Klux Klan with the title Imperial Wizard. He is probably the most influential and well-known Klansman in the United States. We are endeavoring as a counterintelligence technique to develop information discrediting Shelton or embarrassing to the UKA.

Through analysis of the income tax returns we may be able to determine secret sources of Shelton's income or depository used by him for the Klan organization. There is a possibility that he is misappropriating funds. We also have information Shelton has been on the payroll of a Mobile, Alabama, engineering firm as a public relations man.

In the event we determine such information we will consider exposing Shelton within the Klan organization, publicly or by furnishing information to the Internal Revenue Service.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended the Liaison Section obtain from the Internal Revenue Service two uncertified copies each of the Federal tax returns filed by Shelton and the UKA for the past five years. Attached is a memorandum for the use of the Liaison Section.

ReBUlet 11/7/64.

Attached are Xerox copies of Federal income tax returns filed by Robert M. and Betty Lou Shelton for the years 1959-63 inclusive. Also attached are Xerox copies of United States corporation tax returns filed by Robert M. Shelton as a corporate officer of the United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), for the years 1961 (year ending 6/30/62) and 1963 (year ending 6/30/64) as well as a statement of no tax liability for the year ending 6/30/63. Information set forth in these tax returns is for lead purposes only and should not be set forth in the details of any investigative report.

The following comments and investigative instructions are noted in connection with these tax returns:

1. The individual returns filed jointly by Shelton and his wife during the period 1959 through 1963 indicate Shelton's occupation to be "salesman" and "manager" and in no instance do they indicate any employment or association with the Klan. This is in conflict with the corporate returns filed by Shelton for the UKA where he indicates his position as "Imperial Wizard" or "President."

2. Shelton's return for 1959 indicates it was prepared by Ed F. Allen, Jr., Certified Public Accountant, Post Office Box [illegible], Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The form and typing on the other tax returns, both corporate and individual, indicate a strong likelihood these too were prepared by Allen. You should review your files and conduct necessary investigation to determine if Allen is active in connection with financial matters relating to the Klan.

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

3. In no instance in his individual tax returns does Shelton indicate the receipt of income for his position of Imperial Wizard or President of the UKA. However, his returns do indicate he has received some salary payments from such sources as "Tom Harris," "J.H. Mason," "Alabama Tire Company," "J & H Transport Co.," and "Vann & Johnson Lbr. Co." Inasmuch as your informants have advised Shelton spends almost all his time on Klan business and is paid almost $10,000 annually by the Klan, it would appear these salary sources are covers for payments made to him to compensate for his Klan employment. Necessary investigation should be conducted to resolve the true source of Shelton's income.

4. Shelton's return for 1960 shows other income received from a wrestling enterprise in Nashville, Tennessee. This source of income should also be checked to determine its legitimacy. It is possible Shelton's relationship with this enterprise also represents a cover for Klan activity or that the payments made to him were for efforts in behalf of the Klan.

5. In no instance does Shelton indicate any interest or dividend income. It is known he has a bank account at the First National Bank of Tuscaloosa. An attempt should be made to determine if he has failed to report interest actually earned. It is also noted the corporate returns filed by the UKA do not in any instance indicate interest received.

6. Shelton's return for 1963 lists other income of $500 as received from "Commissions - Dixie Engineering Co." Your attention is directed to an editorial that appeared in the Tuscaloosa "News," edition of 9/12/64, wherein it is indicated Shelton had been listed on the payroll of a Mobile engineering firm as a public relations man. Investigation should be conducted to determine Shelton's relationship with the Dixie Engineering Co. and also whether this company had a contract involving the use of Federal and/or state funds.

7. The corporate returns of the UKA, as filed by Shelton, in no instance indicate salary payments although both Shelton and his wife have been reported by your informants as full-time employees.

8. The gross income of Shelton and his wife for the year 1963 totals $1,070. This amount does not appear to be sufficient to support a family of five. All possible efforts should be made to develop evidence indicating Shelton is withholding or concealing income.

This investigation should be afforded prompt and continuing attention and the Bureau must be advised of all pertinent developments.

When all possible leads have been developed a blind memorandum should be prepared setting forth Shelton's background and current position with the Klan and all data probative of a possible violation of Internal Revenue laws. The Bureau will make this information available to appropriate Internal Revenue Service officials at the Seat of Government.

SUBJECT: ROBERT SHELTON
INTERNAL SECURITY - X

At the request of the Internal Security Section, Mr. William Parker, Internal Revenue Service (IRS), was contacted on 6/23/67 to determine the status of the IRS case on Robert Shelton, Imperial Wizard of the United Klans of America.

Parker advised that IRS had initiated investigation of Shelton for possible tax evasion for the years 1963 through 1965. This case is still under investigation but indications are that Shelton owes no income taxes for 1963 and 1965 and owes $100 in taxes for the year 1964. According to Parker, it appears that the criminal tax investigation of Shelton will be closed and the case will be referred to the Audit Division of IRS for civil disposition.

REC-61

This report relates to the alleged evasion of income taxes for the years 1963 and 1964 by ROBERT M. SHELTON and the alleged wilful failure to file 1961 and 1963 corporate returns by the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, K.K.K., INC. It was also alleged that SHELTON diverted KLAN funds to his personal use. SHELTON has been Imperial Wizard of the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, K.K.K., INC. since 1961. He maintains an office for himself and the KLAN in his residence at 18 Lake Sherwood, Northport, Alabama 35476. He received mail for himself, the KLAN, and ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE at P. O. Box 2369, Tuscaloosa, Alabama 35401. ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE is a cover name for the KLAN organization in Alabama. He filed his individual income tax returns involved with the District Director, Birmingham, Alabama.

Revenue Agent Wade Hutchinson, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, cooperated in the joint investigation. This case has been classified as sensitive.

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

BASIS FOR INVESTIGATION:

The investigation originated as a referral from Audit Division. It was alleged that SHELTON received $4,000.00 from DIXIE ENGINEERING COMPANY of Mobile, Alabama, during the years 1963 and 1964 and reported only $2,000.00 from this source during the aforementioned years. It was further alleged that SHELTON travels in a late model Cadillac, dresses well and recently built a new house while reporting very nominal amounts of income on his tax returns.

In respect to the KLAN, it was alleged that no corporate returns were filed for the years 1961 and 1963 and that corporate funds were being diverted to the personal use of corporate officers.

KU KLUX KLAN organizations were the subject of an investigation by the House Un-American Activities Committee during the years 1965 and 1966. SHELTON was tried and convicted on a Contempt of Congress charge for refusing to testify and produce KLAN records before this committee. He was given the maximum sentence, one year in prison and $1,000 fine, on October 16, 1966. SHELTON's conviction is presently on appeal.

Evidence was offered before the House Un-American Activities Committee alleging SHELTON signed checks on the KLAN bank account in Tuscaloosa, payable to cash, aggregating $5,600.00, which were cashed at grocery stores and service stations; and that he allegedly paid for automobiles and a diamond ring with KLAN funds. SHELTON refused to confirm or deny these allegations when testifying before the Congressional Committee.

EXTENT AND RESULTS OF INVESTIGATION:

1. I obtained photostats of INVISIBLE EMPIRE, UNITED KLANS, KNIGHTS KU KLUX KLAN OF AMERICA, INC., incorporation papers from IMPERIAL WIZARD ROBERT SHELTON. They disclose incorporation date of February 20, 1961, in Fulton County, Georgia. The general purpose of the corporation, according to these papers, is: "to teach patriotism, to support the Constitution and Laws of the United States, and to maintain the liberty bequeathed to us by our forefathers, and to preserve the American way of life."

2. I obtained SHELTON's tax returns from the files of the District Director, Birmingham, Alabama. They disclose adjusted gross income as follows:

Year	Adjusted Gross Income
1961	$ 5,600.00
1962	4,200.00
1963	1,875.00
1964	3,576.62
1965	4,663.23
1966	10,051.21

Shelton claimed a standard deduction on each of the returns and they were filed timely and the tax paid which was shown to be due thereon.

3. I obtained KLAN tax returns from the files of the District Director, Birmingham, Alabama. They disclose gross receipts and taxable income as follows:

FYE	Gross Receipts	Taxable Income
6/30/62	$ 2,980.05	$ -0-
6/30/64	7,415.63	-0-
6/30/65	13,487.60	741.09
6/30/66	75,168.12	7,135.01

SHELTON gives President JOHNSON credit for increasing gross receipts of the KLAN from $7,415.00 in 1964 to $75,168.12 in 1966. He stated that every time "LBJ" gets on television and condemns the KLAN, he gets a flood of membership applications. He also stated that the publicity he received during the House Un-American Activities Committee hearing in 1965 and 1966 got him many new members.

4. Revenue Agent HUTCHINSON and I interviewed SHELTON on seven different occasions between April 5, 1967 and May 17, 1967. He instructed his wife, BETTY LOU SHELTON, and KLAN BOOKKEEPER, MRS. MELVIN SEXTON, to cooperate with us and make available all records of financial transactions of the KLAN. SHELTON stated that:

a. He did not furnish books and records of the KLAN to the House Un-American Activities Committee because his attorney advised him he could not waive his immunity on part of his records or on part of his testimony. He either had to take the "Fifth Amendment" all the way or disclose confidential records of KLAN membership which he had taken an oath not to disclose.

b. The books and records of the KLAN are audited at least once a year by KLAN EXAMINERS. The results of this examination is reported on the annual corporate income tax return.

c. The KLAN is a tax exempt organization and should not be required to file tax returns. SHELTON exhibited a letter from the State of Alabama Revenue Department which stated that, "The UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC., is exempt from Alabama income tax and as long as it is operated not for profit and not for the gain of any individual it will not be necessary that corporate income tax returns be filed."

d. SHELTON stated that the KLAN is on a "Form System." Each Klavern (Unit) prepares a Monthly Financial Report in triplicate and sends one copy to the Imperial Office in Tuscaloosa, one copy to the State Klan Office and retains one copy for the local unit file. This form lists the following financial information from each unit, each month:

e. SHELTON stated that he was authorized by the KLAN to draw $15,000.00 per year salary but 1966 was the first year the KLAN was financially able to pay him the full $15,000.00. Prior to 1966, his salary was determined at the end of each year by aggregating his withdrawals from the KLAN, reduced by the amount of documentation for travel and other KLAN expenses he had turned in during the year.

f. SHELTON converted his carport into an office and moved the KLAN office from the Alston Building in Tuscaloosa into his space May 1, 1966. The KLAN pays SHELTON $35.00 per month rent and $15.00 per month on his utilities.

g. SHELTON maintains that four of the eight $500.00 checks he received from DIXIE ENGINEERING COMPANY bounced. The reason the four $500.00 items do not show on his bank statements as a debit to the account was the balances at the time the checks were returned were less than $500.00 and he picked up the checks with cash or with another check from DIXIE ENGINEERING.

h. KLAN checks were made payable to "Cash" because just any one would not cash a KLAN check. When he left Tuscaloosa on KLAN business he never knew where he would be able to cash a check so he would make the check payable to cash and cash the check at some grocery store or service station where he was known. The amounts were charged to him on the KLAN books and he brought back gas tickets, motel bills, invoices, etc., to account for the money spent. SHELTON stated that he travels 90,000 to 110,000 miles per year on KLAN business. He traveled 120,000 miles by automobile during the year 1966 on KLAN business.

5. Revenue Agent Hutchinson and I examined the KLAN's bank statements, cancelled checks, deposit tickets and cash receipts and disbursements books for FYE 6/30/62 through FYE 6/30/66. Receipts and expenses per books substantially reconciled with receipts and expenses per returns. For the four year period, net income was overstated on returns by $48.10. The 1963 corporate return filed by the KLAN was never located. We worked with a Profit and Loss Statement located in the KLAN file for that year which showed receipts of $3,879.44, disbursements of $3,634.89 and taxable income of $240.49. SHELTON claims he recalls mailing the 1963 return to the District Director in Birmingham. Mrs. CAROL LONG, KLAN BOOKKEEPER during this period, recalls preparing the return and giving it to SHELTON to sign and mail. Receipts during the period 2/20/61 to 6/30/61, the first four months of operation of the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, were negligible and were included in receipts for the FYE 6/30/62.

6. Revenue Agent Hutchinson analyzed all checks written to cash and examined the supporting documents. Checks to cash totaled:

Year	Total
1961	$ 156.18
1962	184.92
1963	1,033.75
1964	5,104.69
1965	11,787.45	$18,266.99

Checks written to cash and not supported by documentation were reported by SHELTON as income on his individual income tax return. Numerous checks to cash were signed by SHELTON and cosigned by T.M. MONTGOMERY or JAMES HENDRIX. It was brought out during the House Un-American Activities Committee hearings that T.M. MONTGOMERY was signed by CAROL LONG, KLAN BOOKKEEPER, and JAMES HENDRIX was signed by SHELTON's wife, BETTY LOU. SHELTON acknowledged that the MONTGOMERY and HENDRIX names on the checks were KLAN code names for MRS. LONG and MRS. SHELTON and that the names and signatures were on file at the bank. This information was corroborated by FIRST NATIONAL BANK VICE PRESIDENT J. H. PERDUE.

7. Receipts per monthly reports of various KLAN UNITS were compared with total receipts per return for FYE 6/30/64 and 6/30/65. Total receipts per reports and total receipts per returns were as follows:

Year	Receipts per Reports	Receipts per Returns	Variance
6/30/64	$ 5,557.25	$ 7,415.63	$1,858.38
6/30/65	17,552.40	18,487.60	935.20
	$23,109.65	$25,903.23	$2,793.58

The variance between receipts per reports and receipts per return consisted mainly of monies which came in without a report and anonymous contributions.

8. Monthly reports of various KLAN UNITS were pulled at random from six different states. The reports were traced individually to Cash Receipts Journal, to deposit tickets and to bank statements, without discrepancy.

9. Photostats of several thousand checks from various KLAN UNITS, payable to SHELTON or ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE, were secured from the House Un-American Activities Committee file. I found only one of these checks which was not endorsed "For deposit only" to ALABAMA RESCUE SERVICE account in Tuscaloosa. A check dated 3/28/64 payable to ROBERT M. SHELTON, in amount of $50.00, on the account of WHITE PATRIOTS, P. O. Box 7094, Montgomery, Alabama, was endorsed by SHELTON and THE AUTO-RITE STORE in Tuscaloosa. The amount was entered in receipts on the KLAN books as a donation from WHITE PATRIOTS of Montgomery. SHELTON stated that the $50.00 was for four recaps on his automobile which was used for KLAN business.

10. Transcript of the testimony of ERNEST N. MERRIWETHER, President, DIXIE ENGINEERING CORPORATION, Mobile, Alabama, was secured from the House Un-American Activities Committee file together with photostats of eight $500.00 checks payable to SHELTON during 1963 and 1964. MERRIWETHER was not contacted personally on advice of U. S. Attorney ROBERT JANSEN, Southern Judicial District of Alabama. MERRIWETHER has several tax suits pending in Mobile at present.

MERRIWETHER testified that he paid SHELTON the following checks:

Date	Amount
7/14/63	$500.00
9/24/63	500.00
11/6/63	500.00
11/13/63	500.00	$2,000.00
1/8/64	$500.00
2/13/64	500.00
3/13/64	500.00
4/22/64	500.00	$2,000.00

SHELTON reported $500.00 from this source on his 1963 return and $1,500.00 on his 1964 return. He contends four of the $500.00 checks "bounced." The ledger sheets on his personal account at the FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF TUSCALOOSA and the deposit tickets to this account disclosed eight $500.00 deposits to the account from DIXIE ENGINEERING and only one debit to the account for $500.00 for a returned DIXIE ENGINEERING check.

D. L. THOMAS, accountant for DIXIE ENGINEERING, stated that all eight checks to SHELTON were posted to their disbursements journal and postings to this journal were made from checks after they cleared the bank.

The eight checks in question were written on six different bank accounts. The banks were contacted and their records indicate all eight checks were eventually paid. However, SHELTON's five exemptions and a standard deduction for the year 1963 will offset his reported income plus the additional $1,500.00 on his 1963 return. The additional $500.00 in 1964 is more than offset by unclaimed depreciation on his automobile for that year. He will owe a small amount of self-employment tax on the unreported net amounts.

11. Revenue Agent Hutchinson and I examined SHELTON's account at LORCH's DIAMOND SHOP in Tuscaloosa from opening purchase on 6/11/62 to date. The diamond ring alleged to have been purchased with KLAN funds during the years 1964 and 1965 was purchased June 11, 1962 by MRS. SHELTON for $339.60, which amount includes carrying charges. She paid $30.00 per month on this account until November 8, 1963, at which time the account was paid in full. The checks drawn on the KLAN account to LORCH's DIAMOND SHOP during the years 1964 and 1965 were payments on an Invicta Tape Recorder purchased on 5/18/64 for $62.95 and a Webcor Recorder purchased on same date for $167.00. These items were purchased for the KLAN and charged to his account, according to SHELTON, because LORCH's would not extend credit to the KLAN.

12. Sales Invoice from STANSELL PONTIAC-CADILLAC COMPANY, 2115 15th Street, Tuscaloosa, shows the Cadillac purchased by SHELTON to be a used 1961 CADILLAC purchased on November 18, 1964, for $612.00 cash and a trade-in of a 1963 Pontiac Grand Prix. SHELTON said he traded the 1963 Pontiac on a 1961 Cadillac because the Pontiac had over 100,000 miles on it. The KLAN made three payments on the Pontiac for SHELTON but none on the Cadillac. A check was issued on the KLAN account on 6/15/63 to STANSELL PONTIAC-CADILLAC COMPANY for $277.66 and another check to the same company on 9/27/63 for $136.33. SHELTON failed to include these payments in income for the year 1963 and did not claim any depreciation on the Pontiac for that year.

13. SHELTON purchased his residence in Northport, Alabama, in April, 1966. The property was purchased from Lake Real Estate Company in Tuscaloosa for $20,876.47. He paid $11,000.00 down and assumed a $1,000.00 second mortgage held by Lake Real Estate Company. Balance of $8,876.47 was financed at FIRST FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

SHELTON acquired the $11,000.00 down payment by selling his residence at 1703 East 15th Street in Tuscaloosa for $5,000.00 and drew $6,000.00 accrued salary from the KLAN, which was included on his W-2 statement from the KLAN for the year 1966.

In June, 1966, SHELTON purchased the adjoining lot to his home for $1,500.00. This amount was raised by selling various books at KLAN rallys and through the mail. A separate record was kept by MRS. SHELTON of this income and was reported on SHELTON's 1966 income tax return.

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

The investigation disclosed that: (1) Substantially all checks received by the KLAN are deposited to the KLAN account in Tuscaloosa; (2) Currency received and cash donations are recorded on the KLAN books as receipts; (3) Checks drawn on the KLAN account payable to cash are substantiated by receipts and invoices; (4) there is no indication of income being received by the KLAN and not posted to their books; (5) controversial receipts by SHELTON from DIXIE ENGINEERING are offset by his exemptions and allowable depreciation on his automobile; (6) allegations that SHELTON purchased a diamond ring and a Cadillac automobile with KLAN funds are negated by available evidence, and (7) failure to file 1961 and 1963 returns by the KLAN resulted in no injury to the government.

I recommend that this case be closed in the Intelligence Division files because of lack of criminal prosecution potential and referred back to the Audit Division for such action as they deem appropriate. Audit Group Supervisor G. D. Grin advises he has no objection to this proposed withdrawal.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is our 1967 income tax return. Salary for which there is no W-2 forms comes from several short or part time jobs which did not withhold.

Just as last year we cannot, of course, voluntarily pay our tax so long as the war in Vietnam continues. Should the government run short of funds in the meantime we suggest repeal of the oil depletion allowance or any other of the tax breaks for the wealthy.

UNITED STATES SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO STUDY GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Reference is made to the letter from the Director of the Domestic Intelligence Task Force, SSC, to the Deputy Attorney General's Office dated September 9, 1975, requesting delivery of FBI materials pertaining to Martin Luther King, Jr., and/or the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

The purpose of this memorandum is to effect delivery to the SSC of information and materials relating to the September 8, 1975, SSC requests and specifically to the following Items in those requests: Items 8, 9, 11, 13 and 14.

Relative to Item 8, upon review of the file the only information located which is suggestive of being that to which Mr. Hoover referred in his written statement on the Baumgardner September 16, 1963, memorandum to Mr. Sullivan, is the prior memorandum from Mr. Baumgardner to Mr. Sullivan August 23, 1963. That document was previously furnished under Item 12 of this request.

Although there is no way of knowing just what Mr. Hoover was referring to with his statement, the August 23, 1963, memorandum summarizes a detailed memorandum which was attached to it and advises of Communist Party, USA, efforts being discontinued because of being "ineffective." Mr. Hoover wrote a comment on the August 23, 1963, memorandum to the effect that he could not ignore certain matters as having only "infinitestimal" effect on the efforts to exploit the American Negro by the communists.

SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Item 11 requested all materials reflecting or pertaining to conversations between Courtney Evans and Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall, and/or between Mr. Evans and the Attorney General, as described in Assistant Attorney General Marshall's September 20, 1963, memorandum to the Director captioned "Hunter Pitts O'Dell." An extensive review has been conducted of all logical files, abstracts and indices in an effort to find documents relating specifically to such conversations described in the request. The attached materials represent the only documents located that appear to be related in any manner to these conversations.

Item 13 requested the "detailed document prepared on Communist Party and the Negro in 1953," and the "analysis in this same field prepared by the Bureau in 1956," which are referred to in the penultimate paragraph of page two of Mr. Sullivan's September 25, 1963, memorandum to Mr. Belmont, subject "Communist Party, USA, Negro Question, Communist Influence in Racial Matters, Internal Security - C."

These two documents have been located. The 1953 document captioned "The Communist Party and the Negro" is a 103-page study of the interest and activities of the Communist Party, USA, in Negro-related causes and covers the years 1919-1952. The October, 1956, study is entitled "The Communist Party and the Negro, 1953--1956" and it supplements the 1953 study, and consists of 57 pages. SA Elmer W. Larson, Jr., discussed this matter with Mr. Michael Epstein of the SSC Staff on October 8, 1975. Mr. Epstein agreed that these documents need not be delivered at this time. It was agreed that the documents will be made available for access. If upon review copies are desired they will be provided. (66-04-1775; 100-3-75-1270)

In my letter dated August 2, 1963, information was set forth regarding a United Press International release issued on July 29, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, reporting that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., had agreed to submit to Attorney General Eugene Cook of Georgia an affidavit explaining the employment in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) of a man linked by Congressional committees with the Communist Party. The release stated that King sent an attorney to Cook's office to determine what the Attorney General wanted in connection with his inquiry into the relationship with the SCLC of Jack O'Dell. The release concluded with the statement "King said last week O'Dell had worked for SCLC on two occasions but his connections with the integration organization were severed for good last June 26." It is noted that the subject is also known as Jack O'Dell.

On August 16, 1963, a confidential source of the Bureau advised that King had been alerted by his assistant, Wyatt Tee Walker, to an article appearing in the Atlanta "Constitution" on August 16, 1963, regarding King's association with O'Dell. Walker told King that the article referred to a letter written by Georgia Attorney General Cook in which Cook stated that O'Dell is a known communist and in which Cook demanded an explanation from King as to why O'Dell was placed on King's staff.

King instructed Walker to reply to Cook's letter by stating that O'Dell, as of June 26, 1963, was no longer on King's staff. Cook was to be further advised that O'Dell came to him, King, through the Democratic Party of the Bronx, New York, and that King "has nothing to hide."

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Reference is made to my letter dated July 31, 1963, concerning an article in the July 25, 1963, issue of the Atlanta, Georgia, "Constitution" regarding Hunter Pitts O'Dell and entitled "Onetime Communist Organizer Heads Rev. King's Office in N.Y." My letter concluded that a telephone call to the office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) in New York City on July 30, 1963, resulted in a statement by an unidentified female employee that Hunter Pitts O'Dell was no longer employed by the SCLC.

A United Press International release issued on July 29, 1963, at Atlanta, Georgia, reported that the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., had agreed to submit to Georgia Attorney General Eugene Cook an affidavit explaining the employment in the SCLC of a man linked by Congressional committees with the Communist Party. The release states that King sent an attorney to Cook's office to determine what the Attorney General wanted in connection with his inquiry into the relationship with the SCLC of Jack O'Dell. The release further states that "King said last week O'Dell had worked for SCLC on two occasions but his connections with the integration organization were severed for good last June 26."

For your additional information in this regard, investigation by this Bureau's New York Office has developed information that, on July 2, 1963, and July 19, 1963, one "J. H. O'Dell" was the payee of checks in the amounts of $333.62 and $2,372.96, respectively, drawn by the SCLC. These checks were deposited to the account of Hunter Pitts O'Dell in a New York City bank.

On July 19, 1963, Charles Finnerty, Supervisor of the E. J. Creeden Company, 118 East 25th Street, New York City, the company which provides mailing service for the SCLC, was advised by O'Dell that he, O'Dell, had a big mailing list coming up in August. Finnerty asked O'Dell to submit written instructions but O'Dell replied that he would get together with Finnerty when Finnerty returned from vacation on August 5, 1963. Finnerty had previously on July 17, 1963, telephoned and spoken to O'Dell at the New York Office of the SCLC.

On July 22, 1963, O'Dell visited the offices of the Creeden Company and turned over to Mrs. Dorothy Creeden, the company's secretary, a check for $200 to be credited to the account of the SCLC at the Creeden Company.

On July 31, 1963, a pretext telephone call to the New York Office of the SCLC was answered by a person identifying herself as Ruth Bailey. When asked if Hunter Pitts O'Dell was still employed by the SCLC, Ruth Bailey stated that she was not in a position to say. It is known that Ruth Bailey has been employed in the New York Office of the SCLC for some time; nevertheless, she commented to the person making the telephone call that she had not been employed by the SCLC very long.

Also on July 31, 1963, O'Dell was observed by Special Agents of this Bureau's New York Office entering the premises at 312 West 125th Street, New York City, which house the New York Office of the SCLC. O'Dell remained for several minutes and then returned to his residence.

In view of current controversy regarding whether or not Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who was elected to the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, in December, 1959, under an alias, is still employed by the SCLC, the New York Office is under instructions to endeavor to definitely resolve this question. REQUEST FROM SENATOR MONRONEY

#mori6
DECLASSIFIED BY SP JALM/JTG
ON 11-8-00

For your information, there is enclosed a copy of a letter dated July 12, 1963, received from Senator A. S. Mike Monroney which is self-explanatory. I have advised Senator Monroney by letter of this date that, in line with Departmental policy, I am referring his letter to you.

In substance, the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) is not able to assume a role of leadership in the racial unrest at this time. However, the Party is attempting to exploit the current racial situation through propaganda and participation in demonstrations and other activities wherever possible. Through these tactics, the Party hopes ultimately to progress from its current supporting role to a position of decisive leadership.

Much of the CPUSA's hope to play a more decisive role is linked with Stanley Levison's role as an advisor to Martin Luther King. Party officials regard Levison, a secret member of the CPUSA, as being engaged in the most important work in the Party today because of his association with King. Levison has reportedly stated that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly." Levison is reputed to have written the speech which King delivered at the convention of the American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) in Florida in December, 1961.

When King indicated in June, 1962, that he wanted another administrative assistant, Levison recommended Hunter Pitts O'Dell, who had been elected to the National Committee of the CPUSA in December, 1959, under the pseudonym Cornelius James. King adopted Levison's suggestion and employed O'Dell in his organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). When the press identified O'Dell as a communist in late [illegible], 1962, King announced that O'Dell had resigned from the SCLC. However, O'Dell continues to associate with King to this

Recently, information received indicates that, while Levison still retains his strong communist convictions and still acts as an effective Party advisor to King, he is becoming critical of the Party's role in the relationship. He believes the Party has lost prestige among Negroes lately because it has not been sufficiently aggressive and effective in promoting civil rights for the Negro and otherwise actively immersing itself in Negro causes.

King reportedly attended a Labor Day weekend seminar in 1957 at the Highlander Folk School in Monteagle, Tennessee. According to a publication circulated concerning this meeting by the Georgia Commission of Education, which allegedly has an undercover agent in attendance, the meeting was held to discuss methods and tactics for precipitating racial strife and disturbances. While CPUSA members were on the school staff and the school followed the policy of welcoming communist students, the CPUSA was not in control of the school.

See memo Bland to Sullivan 7-1-63

In June, 1960, the SCLC was reported to have ~~[illegible]~~ solicited funds from the Soviet and Czechoslovakian Embassies and the Rumanian Legation in Washington, D. C. Same caption

In recent years, King has signed a petition urging abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities and petitions requesting the release of two imprisoned Communist Party leaders.

NAACP officials are aware that the NAACP is a communist target. As a result, the NAACP has taken a firm stand against communism and has warned its branches to be constantly alert against communist efforts to infiltrate them. The constitution of the NAACP contains an anticommunist clause which prohibits membership in the organization by known Communist Party members.

There is no indication that any of the key figures of the NAACP are or have been members of the Communist Party. Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary of the NAACP, has been strongly anticommunist and has endeavored to keep the NAACP free of communists.

The following national officers of the NAACP had communist front affiliations--in no instance extensive--a number of years ago, but none is known to have been a Communist Party member: Arthur Spingarn, President; Bishop Stephen G. Spottswood, Chairman of the Board of Directors; and Robert L. Carter, General Counsel.

There is no evidence that any of the following top leaders of CORE are or have been Communist Party members: James L. Farmer, National Director; James T. McCain, ~~Field~~ Director; and Gordon R. Carey, Director, Program and Training Department. Carey was one of the founders of the Conference of Young Socialists (CYS) in 1957 and was a member at large of the Executive Committee of CYS. The CYS was controlled by the Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party, which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Full details of the activities related herein previously have been furnished for the Department's files in individual reports and related communications.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division has asked that we give him a statement concerning the Communist Party affiliation of Hunter Pitts O'Dell. We have called to his attention current reports which have been furnished to the Security Division, Attention Mr. Walter Yeagley, concerning O'Dell's activities.

Marshall was interested in O'Dell's association with Rev. Martin Luther King and he was given a copy of a report of Special Agent James F. O'Connell dated 12/20/62 at New York, which was classified "Confidential", which had been disseminated to Walter Yeagley of the Security Division. This report reflected the current association of O'Dell and the organization of Rev. King, namely, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). In addition to the above we also furnished him a copy of a memorandum from the Director to the Attorney General dated 12/6/62 and another dated 1/23/63, pertaining to O'Dell.

Marshall stated that upon review of the above information which was furnished to him, he would like to have a statement from the FBI concerning the present Communist affiliation of O'Dell, particularly, whether O'Dell actually is a member of the Communist Party at this time.

I advised Marshall that an appropriate memorandum would be prepared and furnished to him concerning his request. There is attached hereto a memorandum which has been prepared by the Security Division indicating that we have developed evidence through our coverage of the activities of the Communist Party, USA, which indicates that as of July, 1962, Party leaders considered O'Dell to be a member of the Party. It is being pointed out that this information is highly sensitive and confidential.

Memo to Mr. Belmont from A. Rosen
Re: Hunter Pitts O'Dell

By way of background, Marshall indicated that the basis for his request stems from the necessity of having to talk with Rev. Martin Luther King with reference to O'Dell. He stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to adequately handle this inquiry.

ACTION:

If approved, attached memorandum to Burke Marshall will be handed to him. It is brief and specifically points out the need to treat this information as highly sensitive and confidential.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL
INTERNAL SECURITY - C
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

On December 6, 1962, you were furnished information indicating that despite the Reverend Martin Luther King's statement of October 31, 1962, that Hunter Pitts O'Dell had resigned his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), O'Dell had continued to represent himself as being affiliated with the New York Office of the SCLC and, during late November and early December, 1962, was actively engaged in the work of this organization. Reverend King's public statement of October 31, 1962, was occasioned by an editorial in the October 25, 1962, edition of the "Augusta Chronicle," Augusta, Georgia, which identified O'Dell as a concealed member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, who was employed by the SCLC under the alias Jack H. O'Dell.

I thought you would be interested in the fact that on three occasions during early January, 1963, O'Dell registered at an apartment in Atlanta, Georgia, as J. H. O'Dell. On each occasion, O'Dell represented himself as being with the New York Office of the SCLC. When checking out on January 7, 1963, O'Dell requested that the bill be charged to the SCLC. An inquiry by the manager resulted in telephonic confirmation from the Atlanta Office of the SCLC that that organization would pay O'Dell's bill. Also, on January 10, 1963, O'Dell, Reverend Martin Luther King and eight other officials of the SCLC traveled together via Delta Airlines from Atlanta to Savannah, Georgia.

On November 2, 1962, I forwarded to you a copy of an editorial that appeared in the October 25, 1962, edition of the "Augusta Chronicle," Augusta, Georgia. This editorial identified Hunter Pitts O'Dell, a concealed member of the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, as employed under the alias Jack H. O'Dell in the capacity of "Acting Executive Director" for the Reverend Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Subsequently, various newspapers contained accounts of a statement issued by the Reverend Martin Luther King on or about October 31, 1962, wherein it was stated O'Dell had resigned from his position with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Reverend Martin Luther King is quoted in this statement as denying knowledge of the communist affiliations of O'Dell and further describing allegations that O'Dell was the Southeastern Director of his organization as false in that O'Dell functioned "purely as a technician with 90 per cent of his work taking place in the North..." King further stated that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has a policy "that no person of known communist affiliation can serve on the staff, executive board or its membership at large."

I thought you would be interested in the fact that our New York Office has developed information that on November 23, 1962, O'Dell identified himself as affiliated with the New York office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and during late November and early December, 1962, he was actively engaged in New York City in the work of this organization.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall telephoned and advised that on instructions of the Attorney General he wanted to clear with us the rough draft of a memorandum which he was going to send to the Bureau. As a matter of fact, the Attorney General has approved the rough draft contingent upon our approval.

The proposed memorandum, a copy of which is attached, relates to Hunter Pitts O'Dell and Stanley Levison and action taken to advise Dr. Martin Luther King and his immediate associates of the communist activities on the part of O'Dell and Levison. Marshall states that some time ago it was not felt wise, in view of the position of the FBI informant, for Marshall to say that he knew O'Dell to be under communist control. Instead, he informed Dr. King and two of his immediate associates that O'Dell was believed by many people to have had communist connections and his association with Dr. King's organization was not in its best interest.

Subsequently, on June 22, 1963, according to Marshall's proposed memorandum, he brought this matter very explicitly to Dr. King's attention. Later that same date, both the Attorney General and the President, separately, strongly urged Dr. King that there should be no further connection between O'Dell and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Thereafter, the Attorney General and Marshall received copies of a letter dated July 3, 1963, from Dr. King to O'Dell. In this letter King makes reference to a resignation which O'Dell submitted some months ago which was accepted because of the SCLC's firm policy that no communist or communist sympathizer would be on the staff. Dr. King's letter continues by noting an investigation had been conducted but they were unable to discover any present connections with the Communist Party by O'Dell.

King further tells O'Dell that the situation is such that the organization cannot even afford the risk of impressions about communist inspiration and therefore O'Dell's temporary resignation is being made permanent.

Mr. Marshall's proposed memorandum also advises that he informed Dr. King on June 22, 1963, Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party. This action was taken on direction of the Attorney General and the President. Marshall had previously warned Dr. King about any association with Levison. This was the first indication given him of firm information Levison was under communist control.

Sensitive foreign intelligence operation

As a matter of background, our early information concerning the communist connections involved here came from ~~one of our two most highly placed communist informants (NY694-S*)~~. To protect ~~this most valuable informant~~ we insisted Levison and O'Dell not be informed by King we had positive information of their communist connections.

Subsequently, with the passage of time so that the risk to the informant was not jeopardized, the Director in a personal conversation with the Attorney General on June 17, 1963, agreed Dr. Martin Luther King could be informed that he should get rid of Levison and O'Dell because they are members of the Communist Party. It was on the basis of this advice from the Director that action was taken by the Attorney General and the President.

ACTION TO BE TAKEN:

While Mr. Marshall's proposed memorandum does not spell out the sequence of events here in detail, his summary is nevertheless accurate and it is therefore believed we should inform Mr. Marshall that he should feel free, of course, to submit the memorandum as he drafted it. If approved, Mr. Marshall will be so advised telephonically.

This relates to your letterhead memorandum of September 5 to the Attorney General, relating to Hunter Pitts O'Dell and the related prior memoranda. I appreciate your having sent copies of these to me.

This matter had been brought to the attention of Dr. King some time ago by me, but in accordance with conversations which the Attorney General had with Courtney Evans, it was not felt to be wise in view of the sources of the Bureau's information to state that I knew O'Dell to be under Communist control at any time. I did inform Dr. King and two members of his organization -- Reverend Andrew Young and Reverend Wyatt Walker -- some time ago -- that since O'Dell was believed by many people to have had Communist connections, his association with their organization was not in the best interests of the organization.

At that time, inconclusive steps were taken to remove O'Dell, and his job with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference was changed. In response to direct questions whether I had hard evidence of O'Dell's Communist connections, however, I replied that I was not in a position to give any.

Following further conversations with Mr. Evans in June, however, I brought the matter to the attention of Dr. King very explicitly in my office on the morning of June 22 prior to a scheduled meeting which Dr. King had with the President. This was done at the direction of the Attorney General. Later that morning both the Attorney General and the President separately strongly urged Dr. King thatthere should be no further connection between O'Dell and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Dr. King stated that the connection would be ended. Thereafter, theAttorney General and I both received copies of the attached letter, dated July 3, 1963, from Dr. King to O'Dell.

On the same occasion, I also informed Dr.King that our information was that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party. This was also done after conversations with Mr. Evans prior to the meeting with Dr. King, and was done at the direction of the Attorney General and the President. Prior to that time, again based upon talks between the Attorney General and Mr. Evans at which I was present, it had been decided that it was not in the best interest of the United States to inform Dr.King that we had any firm information that Levison was under Communist control. I had, however, on a previous occasion, warned Dr. King about any association with Levison, basing the warning upon doubts about Levison's loyalty to the United States.

I thought you should have this additional information for your file.

Dear Jack:

Several months ago you submitted your resignation pending an investigation of your alleged affiliation with the Communist party, as was suggested by an article to this effect in the Birmingham and New Orleans newspapers. We accepted this temporary resignation because of SCLC's firm policy that no Communist nor Communist sympathizer can be on our staff or in our membership. We felt that it was imperative to conduct an immediate investigation. As you know, we conducted what we felt to be a thorough inquiry into these charges and were unable to discover any present connections with the Communist party on your part.

The situation in our country is such, however, that any allusion to the left brings forth an emotional response which would seem to indicate that SCLC and the Southern Freedom Movement are Communist inspired. In these critical times we cannot afford to risk any such impressions. We, therefore, have decided in our Administrative Committee, that we should request you to make your temporary resignation permanent.

We certainly appreciate the years of unselfish service which you have put into our New York Office, and regret the necessity of your departure. Certainly, yours is a significant sacrifice commensurate with the sufferings in jail and through loss of jobs under racist intimidation. We all pray for the day when our nation may be truly the land of the free.

SUBJECT: RACIAL SITUATION

In talking with the Attorney General and Assistant AG Marshall, of the Civil Rights Division, reference was made to our earlier conversation concerning Congressional requests which had been received by the Director, relating to alleged communist influence in the racial demonstrations. The Department's original position was that there was no immediate urgency in recontacting Senator Monroney, in view of recent contacts had with him by Departmental representatives. Today, I pointed out that these requests should not be allowed to remain unresolved too long.

Assistant AG Marshall advised that he had drafted a proposed letter to be used in replying to these Congressional requests, since he had ascertained that a written reply is desired, particularly by Senator Monroney. In his letter Marshall proposes to paraphrase the President's statement at his press conference on 7/17/63. Marshall's letter will, of course, make no reference to the President's statement, but merely indicate that this is the conclusion, predicated upon reports and other information supplied to the Department.

In those instances where the Department is dealing with a Member of Congress believed to be trustworthy, Marshall plans to deliver his letters personally and to explain that the classified nature of the reports precludes the furnishing of specific information in writing or in testimony. Marshall feels that he can talk confidentially in this way to Senator Magnuson and thus forestall any requests for further information. It was noted that, as a result of the Director's conversation with the Attorney General, Marshall had spoken with Martin Luther King about the dangers of his associating with Stanley Levison and accepting assistance from him. It was, therefore, believed that since this may get back to Members of Congress, Marshall should talk with the individual Senators, where this can be done on a confidential basis.

Marshall said he would, of course, keep us advised of the results of his contacts in this regard.

The Attorney General called and advised he would like to have Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall talk to Martin Luther King and tell King he has to get rid of Levison and O'Dell, that he should not have any contact with them directly or indirectly. The Attorney General inquired if King could be told these persons are communists without exposing the informant.

I advised the Attorney General I thought he could make the statement that they are members of the Communist Party without exposing the informant. I pointed out that, if King continues this association, he is going to hurt his own cause as there are more and more communists trying to take advantage of the hate movement and bigots down South who are against integration are beginning to charge King is tied in with communists. I stated I thought Marshall could very definitely say this association is rather widely known and, with things crystalizing for them now, nothing could be worse than for King to be associated with it.

SA Don Roney of the New York Office advised that NY 3810-S* on 5/30/63 furnished information concerning a conversation on that date between Martin Luther King and Stanley Levison, who has been a secret Communist Party member and has contributed funds to the Communist Party on a regular basis. King stated that he had requested a conference with the President and the Attorney General because King thought that now was a good time for such a conference. Levison agreed. Levison stated that there has never been an Administration in this country that has been as worried about the Negro problem as the present one. Levison continued that this is brought about by the Administration's concern with the common market problem in Europe. It was Levison's opinion that United States prestige is very important at this time and the inability to control the racial situation was making it more difficult. It was Levison's opinion that the needs of the President are so great that he is all ready for a different policy if it can bring about the kind of controlled situation that he feels he needs.

King and Levison agreed that the situation has to be kept moving so that the President will have to look for an alternative. The President can then be presented with certain alternatives. This will benefit the President, for then his problem, fear of violence, will be done away with. It was Levison's thought that the President is all ready to make a change. A conference now would be fruitful, but if a conference cannot be worked out, then the movement must be enlarged. King stated that he would like to put so much pressure on the President that he would have to sign an Executive Order making segregation unconstitutional.

Levison said that the method of negotiating used in Birmingham will set the pattern for a whole series of southern cities. That is, you come in with a package, come up with demands, discuss them and come out with a victory. You ask for more than you expect to get. The goals of the movement, according to Levison, are desegregation, jobs and the right to vote. The

My dear Mr. O'Donnell:

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, has advised that on May 30, 1963, Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley Levison held a discussion concerning a conference which Reverend Mr. King reportedly has requested with the President and the Attorney General.

Levison and Reverend Mr. King agreed that this is a good time for such a conference and Levison stated that no Administration has ever been as worried about the Negro problem as is the present Administration. Levison added that this is based upon the Administration's concern with the problems arising from the Common Market in Europe. Levison expressed the opinion that the prestige of the United States is very important at this time and that inability to control the racial situation makes the Administration's task more difficult. He also said that the President is ready for a different policy if it can bring about the kind of controlled situation that he feels he needs.

Reverend Mr. King and Levison agreed that it was necessary to keep the situation moving so that the President will be forced to look for an alternative. It was stated that the President can then be presented with certain alternatives which will benefit the Administration as the President's fear of violence will be done away with. Levison expressed the thought that the President is ready to make a change and that a conference at this time would be fruitful. He added that if a conference cannot be worked out, then the movement must be enlarged. Reverend Mr. King said he would like to put so much pressure on the President that he will have to sign an Executive Order making segregation unconstitutional.

Levison stated that the method of negotiation used in Birmingham, Alabama, will set the pattern for a series of Southern cities. He explained this method by stating that you come in with a package, come up with demands, discuss them and come out with a victory, and that in doing so you ask for more than you expect to get. He described the goals of the movement as desegregation, jobs and the right to vote. He described the methods of obtaining these goals as being direct action, nonviolence and negotiation.

As previously mentioned to you, another source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in March, 1963, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America, who contributes to the Communist Party on a regular basis.

I advised the Attorney General of the above information and he suggested that the President should see this letter.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division has asked that we give him a statement concerning the Communist Party affiliation of Hunter Pitts O'Dell. We have called to his attention current reports which have been furnished to the Security Division, Attention Mr. Walter Yeagley, concerning O'Dell's activities.

Marshall was interested in O'Dell's association with Rev. Martin Luther King and he was given a copy of a report of Special Agent James F. O'Connell dated 12/20/62 at New York, which was classified "Confidential", which had been disseminated to Walter Yeagley of the Security Division. This report reflected the current association of O'Dell and the organization of Rev. King, namely, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). In addition to the above we also furnished him a copy of a memorandum from the Director to the Attorney General dated 12/6/62 and another dated 1/23/63, pertaining to O'Dell.

Marshall stated that upon review of the above information which was furnished to him, he would like to have a statement from the FBI concerning the present Communist affiliation of O'Dell, particularly, whether O'Dell actually is a member of the Communist Party at this time.

I advised Marshall that an appropriate memorandum would be prepared and furnished to him concerning his request. There is attached hereto a memorandum which has been prepared by the Security Division indicating that we have developed evidence through our coverage of the activities of the Communist Party, USA, which indicates that as of July, 1962, Party leaders considered O'Dell to be a member of the Party. It is being pointed out that this information is highly sensitive and confidential.

Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall of the Civil Rights Division called to state that he will have to talk with Rev. Martin Luther King with reference to Jack Hunter O'Dell.

By way of background, he stated that an inquiry has been received from King about O'Dell and apparently the Department wants to be able to talk to King about O'Dell.

Before Marshall can do this he states he would like to have whatever background information we have on O'Dell. In this regard, it is noted that O'Dell is supposed to be a member of the Communist Party and has in the past been associated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. This is King's organization. We have in the past furnished information to the Department concerning O'Dell and his association with Rev. King.

Marshall should be furnished with memoranda which have heretofore been given to the Security Division. It is understood that a report of O'Dell's activities is also available and has been furnished to the Security Division but has not been given to the Civil Rights Division. It would appear that Marshall is entitled to this information if he is to properly evaluate O'Dell's background.

Marshall has asked for a summary on O'Dell. If such is not readily available, copies of material previously furnished to the Department would seem to suffice. He stated he has been in touch with the Attorney General on this matter and is anxious to have it handled as soon as possible.

In response to your inquiry of Assistant Director Courtney A. Evans on January 30, 1963, you are advised that Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., accompanied by Hunter Pitts O'Dell and eight other officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), arrived in Savannah, Georgia, aboard Delta Airlines Flight Number 427 in the early morning of January 10, 1963. This group was met at the Savannah air terminal by Stanley Levison and the entire group departed Savannah in two automobiles.

Levison departed Savannah by train en route to New York City on the evening of January 11, 1963, while King, O'Dell and three other officials of the SCLC held reservations with the Delta Airlines for the morning of January 12, 1963. King, in a party of five, departed Savannah en route to Atlanta on Delta Airlines Flight Number 422 on the morning of January 12, 1963.

Levison, a secret member of the CP, and O'Dell, a concealed member of the National Committee of the CP, are not characterized in the body of the letter as they have been characterized in previous communications to the Department. AAG Marshall requested advice as to whether there was any information available indicating a meeting between the individuals referred to above had occurred as scheduled. We are not in possession of any information as to the nature of the meeting involved other than the statement by Levison that it was to be a "closeted review of where they are--a critical review," which information is in the possession of Marshall.

The racial unrest in the United States is currently the target for a determined concentration of communist effort. Long-range communist strategy includes the establishment of a Negro-labor coalition which the communists hope to be able to manipulate, as a powerful political-action weapon. They aim, thus, to provoke class struggle and promote legislation which can serve as a step toward a communist system of government. This constitutes a serious national security problem, since the individual playing a most dominant role as a leading spokesman for the estimated 20 million Negroes in this country today is knowingly, willingly, and regularly cooperating with and taking guidance from communists. An in-depth view of this individual, Martin Luther King, Jr., will serve to illustrate how he functions as a channel through which communist efforts are being directed against the Negroes and, therefore, against this country. It depicts, too, a MoRAL degenerate [redacted] of such magnitude as to blaspheme the title of "Reverend" which he carries.

King — The Communist Pawn

King, who is a copastor with his father of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia, and the recipient of Bachelor of Divinity and Doctor of Philosophy Degrees, is considered and described within the Communist Party-USA (CPUSA) as a Marxist. sensitive foreign intelligence operation(s)

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

He has been closely aligned with communists for several years and has shown not only a willingness, but at times even an eagerness, to associate and confer with communist leaders and to work closely with and rely upon the advice and guidance of dedicated communists -- this despite the fact that they have been reliably identified to him as such. ~~In February, 1962, Stanley David Levison, a secret Communist Party (CP) member, passed the word to the Party's General Secretary, Gus Hall, that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it, agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly."~~

Since 195[illegible] Levison has expended much effort in King's behalf in such activities as: actively involving himself in fund-raising drives for King; serving as King's legal counsel in selected matters; preparing speech material for King; assisting in the mechanics of some demonstrations in which King was involved; guiding King as to acceptance or rejection of public appearances and speaking commitments; and helping King with matters related to the latter's writings.

King's Reliance on O'Dell, A National Party Functionary

Another key communist through whom the Party exerts influence on King is Hunter Pitts O'Dell who, at the Party's last National Convention in 1959, was elected a member of its second highest governing body, the National Committee. His election was under a pseudonym. In 1960, while working as an assistant to the Party's National Secretary for the South, James Jackson, O'Dell also began to work actively in support of King's movement. In June, 1962, King sought Levison's counsel concerning the addition of an administrative assistant to King's staff. As a result of Levison's recommendation of O'Dell, the latter associated himself with the SCLC in Atlanta, Georgia, under the name J. H. O'Dell and also served the SCLC in its New York office. In October, 1962, several newspaper articles exposed O'Dell's connection with the SCLC and his communist affiliations, as a result of which King announced O'Dell's temporary resignation pending an inquiry.

This "temporary resignation" consisted of O'Dell's return to New York City where he continued to perform services for the SCLC until July, 1963, [redacted]

Homosexual Rustin -- Liaison With Communist Party-USA

Rustin himself is an interesting link in the King "combine." He has long been inclined toward homosexual activities and in 1953 was sentenced to serve 60 days for offering to engage in an act of sex perversion of a homosexual nature, which he admitted. Rustin has also publicly admitted affiliations with the communist movement in the late 1930's and was one of a select group of observers permitted to attend the Party's 16th National Convention in 1957. He also has maintained contact with the Party's National Secretary, Benjamin J. Davis,

Much of the Party's influence in the Negro field to date has been clandestine in nature. If the Party fully implements its current plans, we may expect to see more open and aggressive actions in its attempts to further influence, infiltrate, dominate and recruit the American Negro — just one more step in its ultimate goal of establishing a communist state within our boundaries.

A. INVESTIGATIONS OF KLAN-TYPE ORGANIZATIONS, HATE ORGANIZATIONS, AND ASSOCIATED INDIVIDUALS

1. While these are considered criminal investigations, they are considered delicate in nature and require the application of the restrictions necessary in conducting security-type investigations. Therefore, the investigations and reports are to be handled in accordance with the general rules applying to security-type investigations.
2. Caution
   Extreme care must be exercised to insure that in every instance there is a proper basis for investigation. Sound judgment must be used to avoid investigation of organizations or individuals that merely sponsor unpopular causes or propaganda but do not meet the standards outlined under item 3a below. The Bureau must insure that there will be no justifiable basis for any charge that these investigations infringe upon constitutional freedoms of speech, press, or assemblage.
3. Investigations
   - a. Investigation is confined to those organizations or associated individuals that either:
     - (1) Have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450
     - (2) Have not been designated under Executive Order 10450 but there is an actual or alleged affiliation or subsidiary relation with a designated organization
     - (3) Have adopted a policy or have allegedly adopted a policy of advocating, condoning, or inciting the use of force or violence to deny others their rights under the Constitution
     - (4) Have allegedly committed acts of violence
     - (5) Have actually or allegedly committed violations of laws within the Bureau's jurisdiction
   - b. During the investigation of Klan-type organizations and hate organizations, the following information should be obtained:
     - (1) Organization structure
       - (a) Headquarters
       - (b) Officers
       - (c) Location of klaverns or local chapters
     - (2) Objectives
     - (3) Publications and propaganda
     - (4) Finances
     - (5) Activity of klaverns or local chapters
       - (a) Name and address
       - (b) Officers
       - (c) Estimated membership and recruiting activities
       - (d) Meetings
         - I. Date
         - II. Type (open or closed)
         - III. Place
         - IV. Estimated attendance
   - c. Follow through public source material and established sources activities of organizations which do not qualify for investigation under above standards. Initiate investigation upon receipt of information which brings organization within investigative criteria and at the same time advise Bureau this action taken and basis therefor.
   - d. Conduct no investigation regarding individual acts of violence allegedly or actually committed by an organization in absence of information indicating violation within Bureau's jurisdiction. However, concerning each such incident, the following information should be obtained through informants and sources in connection with investigations of such organizations:

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the content may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI.

(1) Which group involved
(2) Whether action taken was on initiative of individual members or with knowledge or approval of leadership

In initial communication reporting violent act, advise if there is or is not indication of organization participation.

If act of violence is a criminal violation over which Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation; if the act of violence is a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

e. Agents are not to attend functions or rallies of any Klan or hate group although open to the public.

f. These investigations must be both vigorous and incisive. The fundamental objective is to identify those who may be engaged or responsible for acts of violence, and care must be taken to avoid becoming involved in widespread, nebulous investigation which does not go to the heart of the problem at hand. When a case is opened, it should receive immediate continuous attention until the initial allegation is resolved. The case should be promptly closed if it is definitely determined that it does not fall within the criteria set out in item 3a above.

g. Individual cases should be opened on officers, leaders, and active workers in these organizations to determine whether they have been involved in acts of violence or have a definite potential for future acts of violence. Good judgment and discretion must be exercised in the case of prominent individuals who may be dupes of such organizations and who may hold nominal office. Immediately advise the Bureau when investigation of a prominent person is contemplated; and if there is any question as to whether there is sufficient probable cause to fully justify investigation, no investigation should be conducted without Bureau approval.

h. Names of members in attendance at meetings should not be set out in investigative reports but should be indexed from informant reports. Names of new members should be furnished the Bureau by letter for indexing purposes.

4. Informants and interviews

a. In order that the Bureau may discharge its responsibilities, it is mandatory that information be obtained regarding all pertinent Klan or hate organization activities. In this regard it is necessary that informants be developed in all such organizations which meet the criteria set forth in 3a above. Efforts in this regard must be discreet.

b. Preliminary interviews with rank-and-file members of an organization and other individuals not connected with such organizations conducted solely for the purpose of determining the attitude of the individual may be authorized by the SAC. To obtain authority from the SAC, credit, arrest, informant, and indices checks should be made and a memorandum prepared for the SAC setting forth this information so that he may make a decision regarding the propriety of the interview. Officials of local groups or national officers are not to be interviewed without prior Bureau authority. Likewise where a greater than usual risk is involved, such as individuals employed in the newspaper field, educational field, radio and television industry, and the like,

[specific Bureau authority must be obtained. Two Agents should be present when an organization official is interviewed and, if possible, two Agents should be present at interviews with organization members. During such an interview, no attempt should be made to develop the individual as an informant; but if he is cooperative and has a potential for development as an informant, complete background information should be obtained and specific Bureau authority requested to develop him as an informant.

c. Bureau authority not necessary prior to interview with organization members in criminal- or applicant-type cases; however, interview should be confined to subject matter of inquiry, unless data concerning organization volunteered by interviewee.

d. Submit by September 15 and March 15 each year letter captioned "Semiannual listing of Klan and hate organizations and informant coverage," Bureau file #157-1, containing:

(1) Names of Klan and hate organizations active in your territory

(2) Coverage of each Klan broken down by klaverns and each hate organization broken down into local chapters showing identities of informants and sources reporting on each

(3) Estimated membership by klaverns or chapters and basis for estimate

[B. GENERAL RACIAL MATTERS

1. Jurisdiction

The Bureau does not have investigative jurisdiction over such general racial matters, as race riots, civil demonstrations, and similar developments except in instances in which the action is a violation of statute over which the Bureau has jurisdiction or some subversive influence is at work. Insofar as Federal jurisdiction in general racial matters is concerned, U. S. Army regulations place responsibility upon the Army to keep advised of any developments of a civil disturbance nature which may require the rendering of assistance to civil authorities or the intervention of Federal troops. OSI and ONI have collateral responsibility under Army in such matters and copies of pertinent documents disseminated to Army concerning such matter should be furnished to OSI and ONI.

2. Policy

a. As an intelligence function the Bureau does have the responsibility of advising appropriate Government agencies and officials on both a national and local level of all pertinent information obtained concerning such incidents. In this connection it is the personal responsibility of each SAC to make the necessary arrangements to insure that all developments of this type occurring within his territory are promptly reported to his office and upon receipt thereof furnished to the Bureau by whatever form of communication is warranted under the circumstances.

b. Since the Bureau does not have investigative jurisdiction in general racial matters, no open investigation is to be conducted concerning general racial matters as such.

c. In instances in which civil rights may be involved or in which a racial incident may involve an act which constitutes a criminal violation over which the Bureau has jurisdiction, be guided by instructions concerning the specific violation. Likewise, if the incident involves a bombing or attempted bombing having religious or racial aspects or involving a religious or educational institution, be guided by the specific instructions relating to bombings and attempted bombings.

d. In instances in which some subversive influence is determined to be at work, be guided by instructions pertaining to investigation of the specific subversive influence involved.

e. CAUTION. By their very nature racial matters are extremely delicate and great care must be exercised in the approach to such matters.

3. Procedures

a. Information dealing with general racial matters, such as proposed or actual activities of individuals, officials, committees, legislatures, organizations, etc., in the racial field, must be furnished to the Bureau expeditiously by whatever means of communication is warranted by the specific nature of the information and the circumstances involved.

b. Pertinent information bearing on general racial matters which would not otherwise be available to interested Government agencies, such as that obtained through sources and informants, and which is of such a nature that it would normally be furnished to the Bureau by letter or airtel must be transmitted to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. In general, pertinent information bearing on general racial matters appearing in newspapers or publications need not be furnished to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. In such instances merely submit copies of pertinent newspaper articles and publications to the Bureau. Of course, if such data is clearly of a nature as to require contacts with appropriate sources, such as information of unusual local or national importance, submit same expeditiously in form suitable for dissemination. Concisely summarize the pertinent article and include therein the results of contacts with appropriate sources.

c. Maintain contact with pertinent informants and sources and keep Bureau and local intelligence agencies advised of any additional pertinent developments. Unless circumstances clearly indicate necessity for more expeditious handling, furnish such additional data to the Bureau promptly in form suitable for dissemination.

d. In many instances situations involving members of the Negro and Caucasian races result in violations of criminal statutes over which the Bureau has investigative jurisdiction. While such matters are to be handled in accordance with instructions pertaining to the substantive violation involved, the Bureau has the additional responsibility of disseminating pertinent information concerning any racial aspects of such situations to appropriate Government officials and agencies that do not ordinarily receive reports in criminal matters. Therefore, the submission of a report concerning the criminal violation involved alone is insufficient. In general, pertinent data concerning the racial situation involved must be submitted immediately to Bureau in form suitable for dissemination in order that it may reach interested agencies as soon as possible.

[e. Where information is received in connection with racial matters indicating that individuals or organizations have resorted to or contemplate resorting to violence, you must

(1) Immediately advise the Bureau of full facts by expeditious means depending upon urgency of circumstances

(2) Immediately advise appropriate law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the matter unless it is already cognizant. If a compelling reason exists for not so advising the pertinent law enforcement agency, such as the possibility of exposing the informant furnishing the information, immediately furnish the Bureau with full facts. Include therein recommendations as to what other trustworthy local or state law enforcement agencies or officials may be used as intermediaries through whom the information in question may be furnished to the law enforcement agency actually having jurisdiction in such a manner as to fully protect the specific informant and the Bureau as the source thereof.

(3) Immediately advise the local office of military intelligence

(4) Contact all appropriate informants and sources to determine if they possess any additional pertinent data concerning the matter and instruct them to be alert for and to promptly furnish to you any such pertinent data obtained.

(5) Prepare and submit pertinent data to the Bureau in form suitable for dissemination. Include in the communication the results of contacts with appropriate sources and informants; the time and date that local agencies were advised; and the identities of the individuals so advised. (Where information is furnished to an intermediary official or law enforcement agency and not to the agency actually having jurisdiction, set forth in the cover page the reasons for such procedure.) Submit communication same day original information received except where original information is received after normal working hours, when communication is to be submitted beginning of next workday.

(6) Maintain contact with pertinent informants and sources and keep Bureau, pertinent local law enforcement agency, and local intelligence agencies advised of any additional pertinent developments as they occur. Unless circumstances clearly indicate necessity for more expeditious handling, furnish such additional data to Bureau and intelligence agencies in form suitable for dissemination.

SUBJECT: THE LONG COMMITTEE

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE BY

The Attorney General called on the morning of February 27, 1965, to advise he wanted to consult with the Bureau on certain problems raised by the Long Committee, which is exploring the use of mail covers, et cetera. He noted there was a possible problem concerning Chief Inspector Montague's testimony and whether it was necessary for Montague to change his testimony. Also, he felt that Internal Revenue Service had been using investigative techniques which they should not use and this could pose a problem. He said that the President had asked him to coordinate with all executive agencies concerning the problems raised by the Long Committee.

Inspector Moore and I met with the Attorney General in his office this afternoon. Mr. Courtney Evans was present. I told the Attorney General that in Montague's testimony he was told by Attorney Fensterwald that if any of the questions had national security implications Montague should not answer them. Consequently, Montague was estopped from doing other than answer in the negative when asked questions touching on national security. With this interpretation, it was questionable whether an attempt should be made to change or explain Montague's testimony, particularly in view of the obvious lack of judgment on the part of Fensterwald and the desire of Long for publicity. I made it clear to the Attorney General that from our dealings with Montague, he was a man of integrity and sacrificed his personal desires for the welfare of the country and had cooperate fully with us. The Attorney General said he had no intention of changing one word of Montague's testimony, but he was considering advising Long and Fensterwald that there were extreme delicate national security matters touching on the areas being covered by the committee and there could be exceptions to the answers given in the testimony when they touched on such sensitive security matters. He said further that he contemplate seeing Senator Long and impressing on him that the committee would not want to stumble by mistake into an area of extreme interest to the national security as they nearly did in a matter affecting CIA. (Apparently CIA got wind of some inquiries by the committee relative to their secret operation and went to the committee and warned them off.) Katzenbach contemplates asking for a list of the witnesses who will appear before the committee together with a brief summary of the expected testimony. On the basis of this, he will be able to advise Senator Long when he should steer clear of a sensitive area.

I told Mr. Katzenbach that I certainly agree that this matter should be controlled at the committee level but that I felt pressure would have to be applied so that the personal interest of Senator Long became involved rather than on any ideological basis. Mr. Katzenbach said that he had already talked to Vice President Humphrey about Fensterwald, who he considered a wild man, and that Humphrey had promised to talk to Long concerning Fensterwald. Katzenbach said that in addition to the Vice President he might have to resort to pressure from the President himself, although he would prefer to work it out without resorting to the President. He indicated there was no one on the committee itself who could be helpful and that he did not expect any help from Senator Eastland.

Mr. Katzenbach said that he expected troublefrom the possible activities of IRS and the military in the investigative field; that if some of these matters are uncovered before the committee they will tend to undermine the restricted and tightly controlled operations of the Bureau. I told him that our operations are tightly controlled and particularly in the delicate areas of concern, we restrict ourselves to important security matters.

Mr. Katzenbach said he was going to see Senator Long on Monday and wanted to know if the Bureau would like someone to go along with him. I told him no.

ACTION:

Mr. Katzenbach said he would advise us of the results of his conversation with Long. He also asked that I advise the Director of our discussion and I told him I would.

I called Mr. DeLoach and briefed him on this problem in order that he might contact Senator Eastland in an effort to warn the Long Committee away from those areas which would be injurious to the national defense. (Of couse I made no mention of such a contact to the Attorney General.) Mr. DeLoach advised that Senator Eastland is in Mississippi and he will contact him upon his return Monday.

RECORDED COPY FILED IN [illegible]

I called the Attorney General and told him I wanted to let him know that I had talked to Senator James Eastland today, in regard to the hearings before the Long Committee concerning mail covers, et cetera. I stated Senator Eastland is in Mississippi today but he is going to see Senator Long not later than Wednesday morning to caution him that this fellow Fensterwald must not go into the kind of questioning he made of Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department. The Attorney General stated he was going to see Senator Long himself and asked if I thought he ought to wait until after Senator Eastland talks to Senator Long. I stated the timing might be well if he did wait as Eastland assured me he will see Long not later than Wednesday and then if he, the Attorney General, could see Long sometime Wednesday, it would probably tie it down once and for all as there are no hearings until Wednesday anyway. The Attorney General stated he thought they were having a hearing tomorrow, but he would check. I stated if there is a hearing tomorrow, then I would be inclined for the Attorney General to see Senator Long now and if it is not before Wednesday, then I think he should let Senator Eastland see what he can do. I stated Senator Eastland thoroughly understands the matter and said he does not intend to have that gone into and that obviously Fensterwald is getting in over his head and that has to be stopped. Senate Committee on Judiciary

The Attorney General called and advised that he had talked to Senator Long last night. Senator Long's committee is looking into mail covers et cetera. The Attorney General stated he thought somebody had already spoken to Senator Long as he said he did not want to get into any national security area and was willing to take steps not to do this. The Attorney General stated that Mr. Fensterwald was present for part of the meeting and Fensterwald had said that he had some possible witnesses who are former Bureau Agents and if they were asked if mail was opened, they would take the Fifth Amendment. The Attorney General stated that before they are called, he would like to know who they are and whether they were ever involved in any program touching on national security and if not, it is their own business, but if they were, we would want to know. The Attorney General stated the Senator promised that he would have a chance to look at the names if he wanted to, personally and confidentially, and the list would have any names involving national security deleted and he would tell the Senator how many but no more.

The Attorney General stated that the Postmaster General is going down there this morning himself which he, the Attorney General, thought would be helpful to Chief Inspector Montague of the Post Office Department.

The Attorney General stated that Senator Long also said he is not going to propose legislation to abolish mail covers as he thought they served a useful purpose but he did think that control should be tightened. I stated I thought there was great laxity in the matter of mail covers and the matter of tapping telephones.

I stated I have always been of the view and recommended back when Tom Clark was Attorney General that no agency of the Government should tap a telephone except with the written approval of the Attorney General. I stated there would then be in one place a list of all phone taps and the purpose and reason for them. I stated that it is a fact, insofar as I am concerned, that I am the only head of an agency who does not have authority to tap telephones. I stated that I know that subordinates down the line in some agencies will tap phones without the knowledge of the chief of the agency and there is grave suspicion in Washington by some newspapermen that their phones have been tapped by agencies of the Government trying to find out where they are getting their information. I stated I have always been opposed to the law whereby it is necessary to get the authority of a court to tap phones because of the composition of some of our courts and the employees thereof, but I have always felt that the President should issue an Executive Order confidentially to all agencies that all phone tapping be discontinued except when specifically approved by the Attorney General so there would be in one place a list and then if any committee in Congress got on the warpath, the Attorney General would have a list he could vouch for as being the only phones tapped by the Government. The Attorney General stated that made sense. I stated many agencies are opposed because they realize there would be a marked restriction. I stated we only have 45 phone taps, which is a low number for a country the size of ours and the area we have to cover. The Attorney General stated no one has any idea how many phone taps the whole Government has.

I stated there is also a school being conducted in California by a private organization which instructs the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service in the matter of phone tapping and they have sent their own personnel there to be trained. I stated Internal Revenue has also from time to time hired private outside phone tappers to do their tapping. I stated it is that type of thing if there were a real investigation which would come out. The Attorney General commented that he would not guarantee some of it won't come out. I stated I was amazed when I learned of the school in California as I saw a reference to it in the newspaper and wanted to know what it was and what officers attended. I stated we have our own instructors and do it ourselves.

I stated I thought the Attorney General had made good headway with Senator Long. The Attorney General stated he thought it would be helpful, but his problem is that he thinks the Senator is fine but he does not think that Fensterwald is as straightforward, or to put it another way that Fensterwald is smart and devious and the Senator is straightforward and not very bright and that is the problem. I stated I thought that Fensterwald is trying to get publicity for the Senator. The Attorney General stated the Senator said he did not want to get into this and he would give him, the Attorney General, the names and a summary of the testimony and told Fensterwald to do so, but he, the Attorney General, can't say Fensterwald is going to do it; that he will on some but he did not know that he would on all. I stated I had no faith or confidence in Fensterwald and neither did Senator Eastland. The Attorney General stated that Senator Eastland may have already talked to Senator Long or else the Vice President, but somebody had waked him up. I stated Senator Eastland said he would do it Wednesday, but he may have called him.

Memorandum for Messrs. Tolson, Belmont, Gale, Rosen, Sullivan, DeLoach

The Attorney General stated that is where it stands now and we shall see what happens.

UNITED STATES SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO STUDY GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)

Reference is made to SSC letter dated October 8, 1975, requesting all materials pertaining to the decisional process which preceded and resulted in the Bureau's request to the Central Intelligence Agency to place each of the following names on the Hunter Mail watch list:

1) "National Guardian"
2) Derk Bodde
3) Leonard Bernstein
4) National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam
5) "Ramparts"

Knowledge of the Hunter Mail watch list was limited within the Bureau to Supervisors at FBI Headquarters. When a Supervisor desired to place a name on the watch list, he would prepare a 3 x 5 card which included:

a) the name and address of the individual or organization,
b) the duration of the request, and
c) the treatment to be given to any mail located.

No date was placed on the card, however, the cards were numbered consecutively. The request was then forwarded through liaison representatives to the Central Intelligence Agency. No other documents were prepared concerning the consideration, recommendation and proposal of these requests.

On October 1, 1975, representatives of the FBI met with John T. Elliff of the SSC concerning a similar request. As a result, Elliff requested the following information concerning each of these requests:

United States Senate Select Committee

Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

a) a copy of the request and any other document in the Hunter Mail file in which the FBI mentions or shows results obtained from the specific request,

b) the approximate date of the request, and

c) the apparent basis for the request, or in the case of an investigation instituted after the effective date of the Hunter Mail project, the basis for the investigation.

The following summaries and enclosures constitute the Bureau's response to this request.

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

1) "National Guardian"

a) documents - The "National Guardian" was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 117 (Exhibit A-1). On April 20, 1962, a list of names to remain on the watch list was prepared and the "National Guardian" was included (Exhibit A-2). On October 25, 1966, a similar list was prepared (Exhibit A-3). The "National Guardian" was mentioned in a memorandum dated August 21, 1964, concerning data obtained from the Hunter Mail project during the past year (Exhibit A-4).

b) date - Request number 117 was made between August 18, 1961, and April 20, 1962. As indicated above, the "National Guardian" was included on a list of names to remain on the watch list on April 20, 1962. It was not on a similar list of names as of August 18, 1961.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file on the "National Guardian" is dated August 13, 1948, and reports the publication on August 1, 1948, of the "National Gazette Weekly," forerunner of the "National Guardian." During 1961 and 1962, the "National Guardian" sponsored tours of Eastern Europe, including Russia (Exhibits A-5 and 6).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

2) Derk Bodde

a) documents - No Hunter Mail request was located for Bodde. He was, however, included in a list of names to remain on the watch list which was prepared on April 20, 1962 (Exhibit A-2).

b) date - Bodde was most likely placed on the watch list in 1960. As indicated above, Bodde was included on a list of names to remain on the watch list on April 20, 1962; however, there are no documents in the file dated in 1961 and 1962. He did travel to Russia during 1960.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file on Bodde is dated February 5, 1952. A review of the documents for the period after the Hunter program was instituted failed to locate any document recommending him for inclusion on the watch list. The investigation had been placed in a closed status until information was received that Bodde was scheduled to attend the International Orientalist Congress in Moscow during August, 1960 (Exhibits B-1 and 2).

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

3) Leonard Bernstein

a) documents - No Hunter Mail request was located for Bernstein. He was, however, included in a list of names to be removed from the watch list which was prepared on April 20, 1962 (Exhibit A-2).

b) date - Bernstein was most likely placed on the watch list in 1959, since he went to Russia during that year. On April 20, 1962, he was included on a list of names to be removed from the watch list.

c) basis - Since no Hunter Mail request was located, there is no background information available concerning the Leonard Bernstein who was placed on the watch list. A review of Bureau files for individuals named Leonard Bernstein does indicate, however, that the only Leonard Bernstein who travelled to Russia or had any Soviet contacts was Leonard Bernstein, born August 25, 1918 (the prominent conductor and composer). The first item in the Bureau file concerning Bernstein is dated March 2, 1949. A review of documents in this file from the beginning of the Hunter program in 1958 until April 20, 1962, the date on which his name was removed from the watch list, failed to locate a request that he be included in the Hunter program. However, information concerning him, compiled in response to a request from another government agency in December, 1958, did indicate that Bernstein planned to visit Russia during March, 1959 (Exhibits C-1 and 2).

4) National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam (NMC)

a) documents - The NMC was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 193 (Exhibit D-1). The NMC was mentioned in a memorandum dated August 28, 1969, concerning data obtained from the Hunter Mail project during the past year (Exhibit D-2).

b) date - This request was most likely made between January 16, 1969, and August 28, 1969. No investigation was conducted concerning the NMC until September, 1966 (Exhibit D-3). The request, however, was probably not made until after January 15, 1969, the date that a CIA representative suggested the Bureau use the Hunter project for development of leads in the New Left field (Exhibit D-4). Request number 233 was mentioned in a memorandum concerning results from the Hunter Mail program which was dated August 28, 1969.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file concerning the NMC is a communication dated September 14, 1966, which indicates that a group known as the November 8th Ad Hoc Committee had been formed at Cleveland, Ohio. By communication dated September 20, 1966, FBI Headquarters instructed the New York and Cleveland Divisions to keep abreast of the plans of this Committee to sponsor demonstrations during November, 1966 (Exhibit D-3). By communication dated July 28, 1967, FBI Headquarters instructed the New York Division to prepare a report concerning the same organization which had become known as the NMC (Exhibit D-5). The name NMC was used until approximately August, 1969, when an allegedly new organization known as the New Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam was formed.

United States Senate Select Committee
to Study Governmental Operations with
Respect to Intelligence Activities (SSC)

5) "Ramparts"

a) documents - "Ramparts" was the subject of Hunter Mail request number 105 (Exhibit E-1).

b) date - This request was also most likely made between January 16, 1969, and August 28, 1969.

c) basis - The first item in the Bureau file concerning "Ramparts" is dated October 22, 1964; however, no active investigation was authorized at that time. Investigation was authorized in May, 1967, based on a request received from the Department of Justice (Exhibits E-2 and 3). No request to include "Ramparts" on the Hunter Mail watch list was located; however, a document dated October 17, 1968, does indicate that "Ramparts" furnished a list of names, probably their mailing list, to the Soviets (Exhibit E-4).

In order to insure that Project Hunter will continue to operate under maximum economy and efficiency, we have advised CIA at a recent conference we would review Bureau Informant 200 material received and advise CIA whether or not we desired to continue to receive material on persons whose names appear on the attached list.

The interested Supervisor should, accordingly, indicate by writing "yes" or "no" to the right of his subject's name whether or not he desires Bureau Informant 200 to discontinue furnishing data on each of his respective subjects.

The attached lists were compiled from a review of the Project Hunter card box indices maintained by Supervisor W. D. Stewart as an administrative aid for routing purposes. The names of subjects on whom we have received no material for the past year do not appear on the attached lists. They have been weeded out separately along with other subjects who have been relatively inactive.

The results of this survey will be forwarded via Liaison to CIA for appropriate action.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memo and its attachment be routed to the interested Supervisor for a determination as to the continuation of receiving Bureau Informant 200 material on his respective subject.

You are referred to information previously furnished to your agency on January 28 and November 10, 1955, concerning Leonard Bernstein. For your additional information, there is enclosed a copy of a memorandum dated May 27, 1958, concerning the captioned individual. (100-360261-41,49,55)

In August, 1958, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Leonard Bernstein had been in contact with Tamara Yurevna Mamedova. The August, 1958, "Diplomatic List" reflects Tamara Y. Mamedova to be a second secretary at the Embassy of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, (USSR). In June, 1958, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that Tamara Mamedova was employed in the Cultural Division of the Soviet Embassy. As part of her duties the informant stated that Mamedova handled inquiries from the public concerning the Cultural Exchange Program between the USSR and the United States and assisted in arrangements for appearances of groups from both countries under the auspices of that program.

In his contact with Mamedova, the confidential informant stated that Leonard Bernstein indicated that he would accept an invitation to visit the USSR and stated that he would be able to go during the first two weeks of March, 1959. He expressed a desire to conduct some orchestras while in the USSR. (105-53022-328)

Re: Leonard Bernstein, with aliases

On June 30, 1950, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in 1945 when the committee to aid Ben Davis was being considered, both Ben Davis and Jack Stachel described Leonard Bernstein to the source as an adherent of the Communist Party. This source stated that other Communist Party functionaries had also described Leonard Bernstein as a Communist. The source advised that in 1945 Jack Stachel informed him that Bernstein had agreed to submit to Communist discipline. This source advised on December 9, 1954 that he has no direct personal knowledge of Bernstein's willingness to submit to Communist discipline.

Ben Davis and Jack Stachel were members of the National Board of the Communist Party who were tried and convicted in 1949 for violation of the Smith Act of 1940.

Leonard Bernstein, by notarized affidavit dated August 3, 1953, submitted in connection with his application for passport, stated "...although I have never, to my knowledge, been accused of being a member of the Communist Party, I wish to take advantage of this opportunity to affirm under oath that I am not now or at any time ever been a member of the Communist Party or the Communist Political Association. I have never knowingly engaged in activities which supported the Communist movement under circumstances which would warrant the conclusion that I engaged in such activities as a result of direction, domination or control exercised over me by the Communist movement..."

In February, 1958, a source of unknown reliability, but who is acquainted with the subject, advised that he believed Leonard Bernstein to be a Communist. This source based this belief on the way Bernstein talks, that is, that he has continually made anti-American and pro-Russian statements. Source was unable to furnish any specific details pertaining thereto.

INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM BUREAU INFORMANT 200

Items are received on repatriates, deportees, defectors, U.S. citizens who went to USSR for permanent residence because of marriage or family and individuals born in U.S. who were taken there when children. Most of this material is of limited value but all individuals are included on CIA's "defector list." However, items are of value when they pertain to individuals known to have been espionage agents or to have subversive relatives in U.S. For example, items on Harry Eisman, deported from U.S. over 30 years ago, have contained little information of interest until recently. Friends asked Eisman to see the Glass family when they visited the USSR. When he entertained the family, the daughter was greatly influenced by his colorful description of his radical activities in New York schools. (Identifies confidential source)

G.C.M.

On January 15, 1969, Richard Ober, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), suggested to the Liaison Agent that the Bureau should not overlook the utilization of the Agency's Hunter project for the development of leads in the New Left and Black Nationalist fields. Ober admitted the traffic involving individuals in these areas might be light but that the Bureau might wish to give consideration to placing stops on certain key personalities.

The Hunter project for which we have given the designation of Bureau Informant 200 essentially consists of specialized coverage of mail between the United States and Russia. If we have some reason to believe that one of our subject's is communicating with anybody in the Soviet Union, it might be worthwhile to place a stop.

We should bear in mind that this coverage is extremely sensitive and the handling of any matters involving Bureau Informant 200 should conform with the ground rules which have been established. (See Mary Triplett, extension 631, Soviet Section.)

Of particular interest in your investigation is the extent of Communist Party or other subversive influence in "Ramparts."

Reference is made to memorandum from Mr. Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Department of Justice, to Mr. John A. Mintz, Assistant Director, Legal Counsel Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, dated October 17, 1975, and captioned "Senate Select Committee Request." This communication enclosed a letter to the Attorney General from Senator Frank Church, Chairman, SSC, dated October 15, 1975.

In Senator Church's letter he advised of the intention of the SSC Staff to interview some nine FBI sources who had cooperated with this Bureau in the course of certain COINTELPRO operations. The Senator stated that he hoped there would be no objection to conducting these interviews but that, if such objections were raised, he be contacted by Tuesday, October 21, 1975.

It is noted that the issue raised in Senator Church's letter is not new. During August, 1975, SSC Staff Member John T. Elliff proposed interviews of this type and, at that time, this Bureau objected on the principle of the FBI's obligation to protect the confidentiality of relationship with our sources. As a result of this objection, a conference was held between yourself and Senator Church on the evening of August 14, 1975. It is our understanding that an agreement was reached whereby the Committee would attempt a limited number of interviews of individuals whose identities and/or relationship with the FBI has been protected. However, as a condition precedent to such interviews, the FBI was to be allowed to contact such individuals to inform them of the proposed interview and to determine whether they would be receptive to such an interview. Senator Church concurred in this arrangement; however, subsequently on August 18, 1975, Mr. Elliff advised that Senator Church had reconsidered his agreement to the aforementioned procedures as a result of persuasion by the SSC Staff. Elliff, at that time, indicated a letter recording Senator Church's change of attitude had been drafted. To date, no such formal acknowledgement has been received by this Bureau and no interviews have been attempted in the interim.

In his October 15, 1975, communication, Senator Church again raises this issue. Although he does note that the matter was originally discussed with you "some weeks ago," he makes no mention of the agreement reached at that time. Apparently, as some sort of precedent, he does cite the fact that the FBI did make available for use and interview the names of Internal Revenue Service (IRS) personnel who cooperated with the FBI in certain COINTELPRO activities. We do not consider release of these identities on our part to be a concession with respect to confidentiality of sources in general since we specifically stipulated that we considered IRS personnel to be U. S. Government officials acting in their capacity as such.

It is clear that the merits of this issue have not changed since the agreement reached between yourself and Senator Church on August 14, 1975. I feel very strongly that the issue of confidentiality of sources is vital to the continuing effectiveness and integrity of the FBI in its investigative operations. I, therefore, strongly urge that should you concur in the need on the part of the Committee to conduct the interviews which they propose, that the agreement of prior contact by the FBI with those individuals be insisted upon as a condition to such interviews to insure their amenability and uphold the obligation of confidentiality which the FBI has assumed.

The Honorable Edward H. Levi
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
Washington, D.C. 20530

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

The Select Committee is presently investigating the activities of the Federal Bureau of Investigation carried on as part of the COINTELPRO program. We appreciate the cooperation of the FBI and the Justice Department in making materials available to us in this area. However, one problem remains to be resolved. The Committee believes its staff must contact and interview certain persons who received information from the FBI in the course of COINTELPRO operations. The FBI has withheld the names of such persons from the Committee's use on the grounds that they were FBI "sources".

As you will recall, we originally discussed this matter with you some weeks ago. Since then the Committee has had an opportunity to consider the issue more fully in the light of our experience with other investigations. For example, our inquiry into the relationships between the FBI and the Internal Revenue Service clearly showed the need to use the names of IRS personnel who cooperated with the FBI in certain COINTELPRO activities. Those names were made available to us for our use.

As I am sure you can appreciate, what is at stake here is the investigation of serious breaches of the security and confidentiality of information obtained by the FBI. Such information was apparently disclosed or "leaked" for the purpose of disruption. The full extent of such disclosures in many of the cases, such as the efforts to discredit Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., is still unknown. Surely, it would be incongruous for an inquiry into these matters to be impaired on the grounds of the FBI's interest in preserving confidentiality.

The Committee has a clear mandate and a firm commitment to investigate allegations that the FBI attempted to harass and discredit individuals. The integrity of this investigation depends upon our ability to conduct interviews without the appearance of outside interference. Therefore, we hope you have no objection to our conducting the interviews of the persons on the attached list, but if you do, please contact me by Tuesday, October 21.

Sincerely,

Frank Church

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 8, 1968, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California, have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Fellowship for Social Justice, formerly known as the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, Page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities".

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

LOS ANGELES STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

A source advised in July, 1968, that the Los Angeles Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (LA-SNCC), headquartered at 7406 South Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California, is not a membership organization but a loose-knit agency composed of young militant, black nationalists from South Los Angeles who have eliminated all Caucasians from their ranks and have initiated a program against the draft, the war in Vietnam and discrimination and have proposed a revolutionary program utilizing armed force, political and economic action to obtain their goals. LA-SNCC is an arm of the National Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee organization headquartered at Atlanta, Georgia, and with the naming of LA-SNCC Director RONALD LEROY WILKINS as Deputy Director of SNCC for the West Coast, the affinity between the National and Local organization will be more harmonious.

The above source advised that at a meeting of LA-SNCC leaders on March 22, 1968, the group indicated it was necessary for all SNCC personnel to be armed in order to shoot "pig cops" when they are stopped in South Los Angeles.

A source, in May, 1968, indicated that LA-SNCC leadership has encouraged all associates of LA-SNCC to obtain arms and to be armed at all times.

On April 5, 1968, four LA-SNCC officers were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department at LA-SNCC headquarters in possession of two fully loaded .30 caliber M-1 carbines and one .12 gauge shotgun, pump action, with four rounds of 00 gauge buckshot. On May 4, 1968, five LA-SNCC officers were arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department for possession of loaded firearms.

On May 14, 1968, then Director JOHN FLOYD and three Security Officers, LA-SNCC, were arrested by the New Orleans Police Department for possession of stolen property. New Orleans Police Department found four automatic weapons in attache cases carried by the above persons. They also obtained material concerning instructions in the making of Molotov cocktails, bombs and booby traps for sabotage in guerilla-type warfare. This literature was published in Communist China.

On July 6, 1965, Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President, SCLC, conferred with ANDREW J. YOUNG, Executive Vice-President, SCLC; RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, Program Director, SCLC; HARRY WACHTEL and ABERNATHY regarding the recent arrest in Selma, Alabama, of a Rev. REESE affiliated with SCLC, who had been accused of embezzling

funds of the Dallas County, Alabama Voter's League.

AT-T-1, 7/65

Rev. KING called a conference on February 12, 1966 of SCLC officers and other individuals for the purpose of examining the immediate financial condition of SCLC and endeavoring to determine methods of increasing the organization's income. ABERNATHY attended this conference as did RANDOLPH T. LEVISON told HARRISON he appreciated the problems experienced by the Finance Office and assured him he would discuss the matter with ABERNATHY in order that ABERNATHY would take necessary action.

AT-T-1, 3/66

On June 13, 1966, Rev. KING conducted a conference of SCLC officers and other individuals for the purpose of examining the current financial status of SCLC and ascertaining methods of reducing the expenses of the organization. BLACKWELL and HOSEA WILLIAMS each attended portions of this conference.

ABERNATHY on July 7, 1966, reviewed financial contributions recently received by SCLC from the general public and noted that these contributions averaged approximately $1200 per day. He explained to several employees of the SCLC Finance . Office he thought these contributions were the result of a spontaneous reaction by the public to the recent shooting of JAMES H. MEREDITH in Mississippi rather than the solicitation efforts on the part of STANLEY LEVISON.

AT-T-1, 7/66

Rev. KING on July 25, 1966, reminded ABERNATHY they were to attend a meeting of the Executive Board of the American Foundation on Non-Violence (AFN) to be held July 26-27, . 1966 in New York City. KING said HARRY WACHTEL would also attend this meeting.

During this meeting a discussion ensued concerning the desirability of SCLC's retaining the services of HOSEA WILLIAMS, because of current publicity suggesting involvement of WILLIAMS with one HAROLD BELTON ANDREWS, who was convicted in July, 1966 in the United States District Court, Northern District of Georgia, on a charge of Interstate Transportation of a Stolen Motor Vehicle. In response to this discussion, ABERNATHY said he and Rev. KING were of the opinion that SCLC was sorely in need of the continued services of an individual possessing the energy and resourcefulness of WILLIAMS, and therefore felt SCLC should retain WILLIAMS.

AT-T-1, 8/66

At the aforementioned meeting of the SCLC Executive Board, ABERNATHY explained that in the early part of 1967, SCLC would engage in a fund raising activity which would involve Rev. KING's making a "pilgrimage to the Holy Land". AT-T-1, 8/66

ABERNATHY was present November 22, 1966 at a meeting of the SCLC Executive Staff which Rev. KING called for the purpose of considering methods of raising funds for SCLC. The YCL has been designated by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

BEVEL, in early March, 1966 was observed to be present at the offices of the West Side W.E.B. DuBois Club in Chicago (DCC). Discussion took place at this time centering around reaction to a recent notification that the Attorney General of the United States intended to label the DuBois Clubs as a Communist front. BEVEL, in conversation, stated that he would have ignored this notification, and kept about the work in which he was engaged. He felt that if the DuBois Clubs have a real program of help for the people, then people would answer for the clubs despite any labels applied to them.

Most present agreed that the attack on the DuBois Clubs was a part of the plan by the "establishment" to undermine the civil rights movement. They felt that the recent hearings into Klan activities in this country was only a beginning which would lead to a full attack on the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the real target. One of those present stated during the course of this discussion that he was not a Communist, and to this BEVEL was overheard to reply that every thinking American should be. He stated that Negroes have not begun to read yet, but when they do, they will all be socialists.

RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL

On February 26, 1953, a confidential source advised RANDOLPH BLACKWELL had been a member of the Communist Party in the District of Columbia.

The Courier - Journal, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 3, 1959, reported that CARL BRADEN had been sentenced to one year in prison on a charge of contempt of Congress on February 2, 1959, in Atlanta, Georgia. The story noted that he had been convicted under this charge on January 21, 1959, and that the charge arose from his refusal to answer questions before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The Louisville Times, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on February 27, 1961, reported that the United States Supreme Court had, on that date, affirmed the contempt of Congress conviction of BRADEN.

The Courier - Journal on May 2, 1961, reported that CARL BRADEN had surrendered to the United States Marshal at Atlanta, Georgia, on May 1, 1961, to begin serving a one-year prison sentence for contempt of Congress.

The Courier - Journal, on February 2, 1962, reported that CARL BRADEN had been released from the Federal Prison Camp at Allenwood, Pennsylvania, on February 1, 1962. BRADEN indicated that he would return to his home, Louisville, Kentucky.

On August 30, 1963, a confidential source advised that CARL BRADEN and his wife, ANNE BRADEN, continue to reside at 4403 Virginia Avenue and are still employed as Field Secretaries for the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

JULIUS GRIFFIN

Source, in June 1964, made available a flyer distributed by the Militant Labor Forum, announcing a party scheduled for May 30, 1964, at 116 University Place, New York City, which was for the purpose of welcoming home the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) presidential candidate. Scheduled to participate in a symposium at this affair was one JULIUS GRIFFIN, author of "New York Times Series on Harlem Hate Gangs." This symposium was described as relating to "What's Behind Harlem Hate Gang Scare?"

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

STANLEY LEVISON

A confidential source advised in April, 1964, that STANLEY LEVISON was a secret member of the Communist Party (CP), USA, in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the CP for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. LEVISON was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position in civil rights. LEVISON's differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL

In July, 1962, HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, also known as JACK H. O'DELL, was considered by the Communist Party, USA, as a member of its National Committee.

HUNTER PITTS O'DELL told [illegible] SMITH December 27, 1963, he would not go back to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference on the same basis because he is now a "left person" and if they cannot accept him the way he is then they will have to forget about him.

LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK

LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK is Professor of Social Sciences at Coppin State College, Baltimore, Maryland. He currently resides at 3704 Winterbourne Road, Baltimore, Maryland.

On September 17, 1943, a confidential source advised she had learned that Dr. REDDICK, who was then Director of the Schomburg Library, 103 W. 135th Street, New York City, was one of the most important unpublicized members of the Communist Party (CP). She stated that REDDICK seemed to be a source of information in regard to socialism and communism in the United States and the Soviet Union.

A confidential source on March 23, 1951, said that he met LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK in 1945, through EUGENE GORDON, a staff member of the "Daily Worker" and that both GORDON and BENJAMIN J. DAVIS advised him that LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK was at that time a member of the CP. The source also said that REDDICK was an instructor at the George Washington Carver School.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist newspaper, which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

The George Washington Carver School has been designated by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On February 5 and 11, 1954, LAWRENCE DUNBAR REDDICK was interviewed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Atlanta, Georgia. He, at that time, stated that he was not, and had never been, a member of, or a sympathizer with, the Communist Party.

On January 21, 1964, a confidential source advised that on January 18, 1964, Dr. LAWRENCE REDDICK visited with BENJAMIN J. DAVIS at the home of JACOB GREEN, State Chairman of the CP in Maryland. During conversation between REDDICK and DAVIS, it was mentioned that they had attended school together in Georgia and REDDICK commented that if he had stayed with DAVIS, he would have also joined the CP.

BAYARD RUSTIN

In "The Saturday Evening Post," issue of July 11 - 18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The "Daily Worker," February 11. 1957, page 1, column 2, reported that BAYARD RUSTIN, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9 - 12, 1957.

A confidential source advised on September 20, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked that, "RUSTIN calls me constantly--openly."

A confidential source advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that BAYARD RUSTIN contacted BENJAMIN J. DAVIS on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, DAVIS told RUSTIN that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which RUSTIN was to speak.

HARRY WACHTEL

HARRY WACHTEL is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, King Point, Long Island, New York.

A confidential source furnished information in December, 1949, that HARRY H. WACHTEL, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on the list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild.

On March 5, 1944, a confidential source furnished information which revealed that the name HARRY WACHTEL was on the list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Regarding HARRY WACHTEL's wife, LEONORA, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed her name and address were on a list of names of newly-elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County Communist Party.

HOSEA WILLIAMS

During October, 1964, a confidential source advised that on October 3, 1964, RUTH BAILEY, then an employee of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, (SCLC), Harlem, New York Office, while discussing several SCLC personalities with one CONNIE CAMPBELL, referred to WILLIAMS. BAILEY said WILLIAMS had mentioned to her (date not specified) that on a prior occasion (date not specified) HUNTER PITTS O'DELL had told him more about politics than he could read.

On May 3, 1965, a source advised that on June 30, 1964, a group of young people who attended the founding convention of the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) met in Chicago and adopted a statement of purpose and constitution forming the DCC as an affiliate of the national DCA.

A second source advised on May 1, 1967, that DCA chartered clubs in the Chicago area are the West Side DCC and the North Side DCC, neither of which currently maintain a headquarters. There is no central headquarters for the DCC and there are no unchartered clubs in this area.

The second source advised that the majority of DCC members are also members of the CP.

During the past year DCC activity has been almost nonexistent.

A source advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention.

The second source advised in September, 1966, that MIKE ZAGARELL, CPUSA Youth Director, stated that in Negro communities the Party still supported the plan to build "left" socialist centers and to solidify the Party base through the DCA. This source also advised in September, 1966, that DANIEL RUBIN, CPUSA National Organizational Secretary, stated the Party believes the DCA should have a working-class outlook and be a mass organization favorable to socialism, socialist countries and Marxism, and in April, 1967, advised that GUS HALL, CPUSA General Secretary, indicated the DCA primary emphasis should be on developing mass resistance to the draft.

A third source advised in September, 1967, that JARVIS TYNER was elected chairman of the DCA on September 10, 1967, at the Third National Convention of the DCA held in New York, New York, from September 8-10, 1967.

A fourth source advised during August, 1967, that JARVIS TYNER is a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

A fifth source advised on September 21, 1967, that the headquarters of the DCA is located at 34 West 17th Street, New York, New York.

GANDHI SOCIETY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

The Gandhi Society for Human Rights was formed for the purpose of developing a philosophy and technique of non-violent civil rights protests. It is a non-action organization and makes no attempt to influence legislation nor participate in demonstrations. The Society furnishes legal assistance in certain civil rights cases. The organization was incorporated June 14, 1962.

THE NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, to supersede Guide published on May 14, 1951, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following information concerning "The National Lawyers Guild:"

1. Cited as a Communist front.

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311, on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149).

2. Cited as a Communist front which "is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations and controlled unions" and which "since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents." (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)

3. "To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection."

1 SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot," a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 12, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW dated April 26, 1946, changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals.

The SCEF is self-described as having deep roots in the South where it began as the educational wing of the SCHW, organized in 1938 to work for economic and political reform. When the SCHW disbanded in the late 1940's, SCEF continued as an independent organization, rallying support for integration and democracy and helping to stimulate and nurture new movements of the early 1960's. The SCEF maintained headquarters in Louisiana for twenty years, but in 1966 moved its headquarters to Louisville, Kentucky.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party Functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

This memorandum reports the results of a meeting of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community, (hereafter referred to as the Group), held on 3/7/75.

The Group is chaired by Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, and is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the United States Intelligence Board (USIB). Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before various Congressional committees.

At the meeting of the Group on 3/7/75 the following items were discussed:

Congressman Robert McClory has been designated as the minority leader of the House Select Committee. Copies of the annexes prepared by various members of the Intelligence Community have been delivered to both the majority and minority leader of the House Select Committee. Congressman McClory is very security conscious, is concerned that sensitive relationships are not inadvertently disclosed during forthcoming hearings and according to Mr. John Clarke appears to have no questions regarding FBI authority to engage in domestic surveillances. CIA has prepared a draft letter to Senator Church releasing CIA employees from any obligations imposed upon them by CIA's Secrecy Agreement (draft copy furnished the Legal Counsel Division). Prior to releasing the letter to Senator Church, CIA is having it reviewed by the White House to determine if they have any objections to its content.

REC-37 62-116395-50

CIA anticipates that staff employees of the Senate Select Committee (SSC) will have direct access to CIA buildings but will not have direct access to CIA files or CIA personnel. Arrangements for the staff of the SSC to interview CIA personnel will be made through Mr. John Clarke.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mr. James Wilderotter, Associate Deputy Attorney General, and Mr. John Warner, General Counsel, CIA, will have a meeting with the Counsel of the SSC on Tuesday, 3/11/75, to work out precise wording for a Secrecy Agreement that all members of the SSC staff have agreed to sign.

On 3/10/75 the staff of the SSC will convene to develop a list of requirements that they expect to levy on all agencies making up the Intelligence Community. Hopefully Mr. Clarke will have some information on these requirements prior to the time they are levied on the individual agencies.

As a result of Mr. Colby's appearance before the House Government Information in Individual Rights Subcommittee, Government Operations Committee, 3/5/75, CIA is getting many, many, calls from Senators and Congressmen asking how they can find out whether CIA has a file on them and what its contents are. Mr. Clarke noted that members of the Group should anticipate receiving similar calls from Congressmen. (U)

Mr. Hank Knocke, who heads up the CIA task force responsive to the Rockefeller Commission, advised that staff members of the Rockefeller Commission have been issued CIA badges, occupy CIA office space, and have authority to personally contact any CIA employee without clearing such contact with CIA officials. In addition, the Rockefeller Commission staff employees have been granted access to CIA files. After reviewing these files, if the staff decides to make certain portions of the files a matter of official Commission business, CIA has a right to excise the names of any sensitive sources. In the event information contained in these files originates with another Agency of the Government CIA has insisted and the staff concurs that the originating Agency must be consulted before such information can be released to the staff. (U)

Mr. Knocke also advised that it is his understanding that both Mr. Kelley and Mr. Colby will receive in the mail shortly a request from the Commission to prepare a joint response covering the activities of foreign intelligence officials in the U. S. (U)

CIA as well as the rest of the Intelligence Community is concerned over requests received ~~by~~ from Morton Halperin under the Freedom of Information Act. Treasury, National Security Council, Defense Intelligence Agency, CIA, State Department and the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), have received requests from Halperin. According to Mr. Clarke, a meeting will be convened by the OMB involving interested parties in an effort to coordinate a response. Mr. Colby, in his role as the Director of Central Intelligence, is very concerned that in responding to Halperin's requests one Agency does not deny providing information to Halperin that another Agency expects to give Halperin. INQUIRY BY GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE (GAO) AND THE OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET (OMB) CONCERNING INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

APPROPRIATIONS - 1974

On the afternoon of March 7, 1975, Mr. James F. Hoobler, Director, Management Programs and Budget Staff, furnished a copy of a memorandum from GAO to the Deputy Director of the OMB which requested information concerning appropriations, outlays and legislative authority for such appropriations and expenditures.

With regard to the FBI's Intelligence Division, a response was requested concerning the amounts of budget authority for fiscal years 1974 and 1975 and actual outlays for fiscal year 1974; an indication of where in the Federal budget these amounts or any portion of them appear; any language in the budget which explains or indicates the purpose or purposes for which such amounts will be spent; and the legislative authority for each of the listed appropriations and expenditures.

The FBI does not receive budget authority or account for budget outlays specifically for internal security or intelligence activities or for any organizational component handling such matters. The FBI's budget request for funds to handle internal security or intelligence matters is set forth under the budget activity "Security and Criminal Investigations." Based on manpower utilization surveys which have been conducted, it is estimated that approximately 28 percent of the FBI's resources go to support activities under the supervision of the Intelligence Division. It is estimated, therefore, that in the fiscal year 1974 the FBI's budget authority contained funds amounting to some $91 million and that it had outlays of about $83 million to support these activities. The amount contained in the FBI's budget authority for the fiscal year 1975 is estimated to be $102 million.

The purposes for which these funds are expended are set forth in justification material accompanying budget estimates submitted to the Cong

Dear Mr. O'Neill:

We have recently received a request from a Member of the Senate Budget Committee for our assistance in obtaining budget data with respect to various intelligence activities of the Federal Government. 3. Defense Intelligence Agency

Mr. Kelley asked that in connection with future testimony we prepare two papers. ① One is to be a dissertation about our procedures in opening and closing domestic security cases, including the application of criteria for opening such cases and determining how long the cases should remain in a pending status. ② The second paper is to involve the jurisdiction of the President to authorize unusual investigative techniques in foreign intelligence investigations such as wiretaps, microphones and surreptitious entries. This should include a definition of his Constitutional powers and the derivative authority invested in the Attorney General and the FBI.

In connection with these two papers, it is desired that there be coordination between the Intelligence Division, Legal Counsel Division and writers in the External Affairs Division, who should participate in the basic research and discussions and prepare the final paper outlining the research and analysis of the other two divisions.

Mr. Kelley's purpose is to have papers available on various topics such as this which reduce technical dissertations to a style which can be used for argumentative purposes in an easily understood form. The types of questions he receives generally do not require a highly technical response but a concise presentation of the issues involved and the propriety of our procedures.

THE GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS COMMITTEE
HEARING, MARCH 5, 1975

Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities

This Committee which is chaired by Congresswoman Bella S. Abzug (D-N.Y.) convened on March 5th to hear testimony from Director of the CIA, William E. Colby. It was brought out at the hearing that the Central Intelligence Agency had furnished information in their files pertaining to Congresswoman Abzug the previous evening, March 4th, with the exception of information which could not be disclosed without compromising a sensitive source or intelligence gathering procedure. Director Colby also advised Congresswoman Abzug in response to her inquiry that the source of some items that she was in receipt of had been concealed because it was from another agency. Colby did not disclose the identity of that agency.

Congresswoman Abzug asked Colby, and he agreed to communicate with that agency and have them contact Congresswoman Abzug concerning the aforementioned information. By way of background according to a memorandum captioned "Bella S. Abzug (D-N.Y.)," dated 3-4-75, the CIA asked for and received permission from this Bureau to release ~~the~~ PORTION OF contents of unclassified reports furnished the CIA by the FBI and could be furnished by the CIA to Congresswoman Abzug. From the remarks made by Director Colby, it would appear that the topic of discussion between Congresswoman Abzug and Director Colby pertained to these documents and that we can expect some communication from the CIA in accordance with Congresswoman Abzug's request.

(2) Investigations conducted pursuant to FBI requests. He was asked what the CIA's response would be to an improper request for investigation concerning American citizens. He indicated that they would refuse such a request and had done so in the past. The implication being from the context of the question that the FBI had made an improper request of the CIA.

In view of the wide scope of authority enjoyed by Congresswoman Abzug's Committee and the realistic expectation the FBI will have to testify before this Committee, it would be to our advantage for the Intelligence Division, through liaison, with the Central Intelligence Agency to obtain a transcript of this Committee hearing so that same might be reviewed and possible questions contained therein concerning FBI investigations be analyzed and responses prepared.

RECOMMENDATION:

Intelligence Division take action in line with the above.

In Our Opinion

Assign Congress To Hunt Bombers

Here we go again.

The bombing of a State Department restroom and followup phone call from someone calling itself the "Weather Underground" is reminiscent of times past.

The bombers are apparently protesting any economic aid to non-Communists in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

There's a certain irony in the timing. At the very moment the CIA and FBI are being raked over the coals by self-righteous members of Congress, a radical group like the ones under surveillance in the late '60s and early '70s pulls off a terrorist act.

We wouldn't blame the FBI for turning the investigation of the latest bombing over to the congressional committee investigating government surveillance. Let the legislators handle it.

Some measure of watchfulness must be maintained over agencies like the FBI and CIA. The repugnant aspect of it all is congressmen leading the media bandwagon to roast the agencies.

Many of these congressmen and senators knew bloody well what these agencies were doing in years past, but never raised a whisper, let alone a howl. Now, with home-grown terrorism seemingly behind us, the legislators play dumb and feign shock or outrage over what they call "disturbing revelations."

You can bet if a bomb went off in the Senate or House chambers, Congress would call out the FBI, CIA and any other agency versed in intelligence gathering.

What's more, the legislators would wonder why the FBI and CIA couldn't immediately produce the 10 most likely suspects.

"Where's your surveillance mechanism," some senator would demand.

What we have, folks, is Congress at its hypocritical worst.

This memorandum reports the results of a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community, (hereafter referred to as the Group), held at CIA Headquarters on the evening of 3/20/75.

This meeting was chaired by Mr. Colby in his role as the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI). In attendance were Mr. Philip Buchen, Counsel to the President; Deputy AG Laurence Silberman; Associate Deputy AG James Wilderotter; Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the DCI, as well as officials from Defense, Treasury and the Energy Research and Development Administration (formerly the Atomic Energy Commission).

The meeting was called to have all agencies identify (1) Types of information that could not be disclosed to Congressional Committees, (2) Types of information the disclosure of which was arguable, and (3) Types of information that could be disclosed to Congressional Committees. The FBI was asked to lead off the presentation. The Group was informed that we were reluctant to discuss sensitive matters in such a large group and we asked that the Group be reduced to a select few people who would have to have knowledge of sensitive FBI operations. After some discussion, the White House agreed this was a good procedure and it now appears that Mr. Buchen of the White House, one of his associates and probably Mr. Silberman will arrange at some future date to discuss the sensitive type information embraced in the above three questions. No definite date was set for this review and presumably either Mr. Clarke's office or Mr. Silberman will be in contact with the Bureau regarding this.

this paper was on the agenda for this meeting, it was never discussed because of the length of meeting, concluding at approximately 8:30 p.m. Following the meeting, Assistant Director Mintz and Mr. Cregar had a discussion with Mr. Wilderotter. During this discussion Mr. Mintz pointed out to Mr. Wilderotter that it was imperative that this Executive Committee clearly define how responses to the Select Committees would be coordinated and how matters dealing with policy would be cleared with the White House. Mr. Wilderotter described the following procedure. All questions received by agencies of the Intelligence Community from Select Committees would be furnished to Mr. Clarke. As a matter of fact, Mr. Wilderotter advised a copy of the questions received by the Department from the Senate Select Committee requiring responses from the FBI had already been turned over to Mr. Clarke by Mr. Wilderotter. Upon receipt of a copy of such questions, Mr. Clarke would review them and attempt to identify which questions involve policy matters of interest to the White House. He would then inform all agencies involved in such a response that such a question involved policy. Those agencies would be obliged to discuss the response between themselves and arrive at a coordinated answer. That answer would then be furnished to Mr. Clarke who would in turn make a decision as to whether it should go forward to the White House forresolution. Answers to questions which did not involve policy matters would also have to be furnished to Mr. Clarke to insure that there was some coordinating mechanism in the Community and to insure that this mechanism was in possession of all questions and all answers which might be provided the Select Committees.

Mr. Mintz made it quite clear to Mr. Wilderotter that this was not the Bureau's understanding of how the coordination process would work and was of the belief that no other agency represented on the Executive Committee was aware of this procedure. Mr. Wilderotter was asked to develop such a procedure for presentation to the Group to insure everybody was in agreement as to how this process would work.

On the morning of 3/21/75, Mr. Clarke advised that as a result of the meeting during the evening of 3/20/75 he was completely confused and was at a loss as to how the coordination process was going to work. He advised Mr. Cregar that he would attempt to get some clarification and hopefully be in a position to provide some information as to how the White House, Mr. Silberman and Mr. Wilderotter wanted to proceed.

It is the opinion of both Mr. Mintz and Mr. Wannall that the Bureau must immediately set up a Task Force to handle the tremendous amount of information that will be required from the FBI, including the coordination of our responses with other agencies who might be involved in such an answer, as well as to insure that both the Department of Justice and the White House are fully informed. We can anticipate very short deadlines and requests for information that are not readily retrievable from Bureau records without considerable research involving several divisions in the Bureau.

ACTION:

That a Task Force be immediately created within the Bureau to facilitate the collation of information as well as the coordination of such information responsive to the requests we can anticipate receiving from Select Committees of the Congress.

Note: Principal responsibility for the Task Force would be the Intelligence Division in terms of personnel and collection and review of information and documents, however, an individual should be designated in each other division as contacts to handle receipt of requests of the division and to expedite responses from his division. Those designated should be briefed as to the roles of the Senate and House Select Committees and the urgency of the requests anticipated. Files Div. should consider development of special services that would assist in this effort. Legal Counsel will continue to deal with the committees and help elsewhere as necessary.

It appears we are gearing ourselves to quick response - Why can't we get an agreement as to a reasonable response time -

A. RESPONSIBILITIES AND SUPPORT

In treating with Congressional inquiries, the Director of Central Intelligence will provide leadership to the Intelligence Community. The Associate Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence Community, supported by the Intelligence Community Staff, will provide the principal staff direction and congressional liaison for the DCI in these matters. He will serve as a focal point for coordination among Community entities and assure communication with the Executive Office as appropriate. The IC Staff with the assistance of USIB Agencies will provide legal, security, substantive, and registry support structured so as to assure appropriate support to the DCI and the Intelligence Community. The AD/DCI/IC will chair an Ad Hoc Coordinating Group of USIB as a principal mechanism for exchanging information and coordinating USIB activities with respect to the inquiry where needed. The AD/DCI/IC and the USIB Ad Hoc Coordinating Group will establish periodic and special time sensitive reporting to keep the DCI, the USIB principals, and involved Executive Branch agencies advised on USIB Agencies' liaison relationships with the Select Committees and on substantive exchanges in response to Select Committee inquiries. Where useful, common standards and procedures will be developed by the USIB Ad Hoc Coordinating Group.

B. COORDINATION

1. Physical security is proceeding well. The Chairman of the Security Committee of USIB has been assigned as the principal Intelligence Community officer on physical security and clearance matters. Agreements have been reached with the Senate Select Committee on physical security standards. These standards have been provided to the House Select Committee Staff. The Senate has arranged for central facilities which meet the physical security standards and has appointed a full-time security officer who will provide certification of personnel clearances. The House at the present time is not planning central facilities and we understand will be dispersed in at least three different locations.

Discussion of classified information will occur outside of the security-approved Committee rooms and particularly in the offices of the members of the Select Committee. Agreement has been reached that the FBI will approach the House and Senate Staff Directors and offer technical sweep services for the Congressional offices involved.

2. Personnel security investigations on Select Committee Staff are under way by the FBI. It is understood that upon completion of Staff investigations, the Select Committee Chairman will certify to the DCI the Top Secret clearances of Committee Staff. The DCI, through his Intelligence Community Staff, will pass along the certification to the security elements of the respective agencies. Compartmented clearance arrangements and certification also have been agreed with the Senate Select Committee Staff. Similar arrangements have been discussed with the House Select Committee Staff.

3. Secrecy agreements for the Senate Select Committee Staff employees are being drafted and the AD/DCI/IC, supported by the CIA General Counsel and the Associate Deputy Attorney General, will negotiate similar arrangements with the House. The DCI policy is to insist upon secrecy agreements.

4. Arrangements will be established by the USIB Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for the recording of documents, testimony and transcripts, and for procedures to protect sources and methods which may be contained in the material flowing to the Select Committees from all agencies. A central index service will be provided by the Intelligence Community Staff to serve the DCI and USIB Agencies. The following describes the general content of this central index.

a. All requests received by USIB Agencies from the Select Committees. ✓

b. All other communications from Select Committees on subject of interest to more than one agency. ✓

c. Reports and responses by other non-intelligence elements of the Executive Branch (if desired by those elements).

d. Identification of document responses provided to the requests and listing of subjects covered. ✓

e. Prepared statements and transcripts of testimony made to Select Committees. ✓

f. Selective material released or denied under the Freedom of Information legislation which relates to subjects of interest to the Select Committees.

Under this concept, all USIB Agencies would have a reporting responsibility to keep the central index current. Procedures will be developed. All agencies would retain responsibility for the physical possession and accessibility of their documents. The third agency rule will apply in providing documents to the Select Committees.

C. PROTECTION AND HANDLING OF MATERIALS

1. It is suggested that in general there are four levels of security applied to documents supplied to the Committees.

a. The bulk of historical data, organizational directives, budgets, cash flow, command and control procedures, etc. should be made available to the Committees on request and transmitted by the agencies concerned directly to the Select Committees. This material will be under the control of the Select Committees. It should be properly classified as appropriate to assure downgrading under the Freedom of Information Act is consistent with the judgment of the originating agency. The agencies will inform the central registry of the IC Staff of such transmissions and provide a description of the materials. The record file will be maintained by the originating agency so that it may be retrieved if necessary for use by authorized persons.

b. A second level of material will involve more sensitive data where sanitization or compartmented arrangements may be desired. Agencies will be responsible for these determinations. The IC Staff and the USIB Security Committee will develop general guidelines for application of sanitization procedures. Emphasis will be placed on protecting sources and methods while providing meaningful response and documentation to the Select Committees. The record copy of all such material will be available in the originating agencies. The existence of the original file and its sanitized version and location will be recorded with the registry. Keys to sanitized versions will be held by the agencies concerned.

c. A third type of material will be made available to Select Committee members or staff at the originating agency or if desirable at a central point to be determined. (Facilities for a central reading room can be established by the IC Staff, if desired.) This material would be provided in the presence of an authorized representative of the originating agency. These "fondling" files may have specific limiations placed upon them by the agencies concerned. Where such search limitations are determined, they should be consistent with the agreements contained in the DCI letter to Senator Church or with ground rules agreed among responsible agencies or with the Select Committees. The Ad Hoc Coordinating Group provides one forum for such determinations where interagency discussions are useful.

A fourth type of material for numerous reasons will not be available to Select Committee Staff in its raw form, e.g., memoranda to or from the President, especially sensitive matters where Executive Branch prerogatives are involved. This material can be used to prepare briefs or provide briefings to Select Committee Staff or members bur specific documentations normally will not be provided. If such briefs or briefings do not satisfy the Select Committees, negotiations will be undertaken with the Committees. The DCI should be kept advised in all such instances. Normally, if after negotiations there is provision of raw data, such data will be hand-carried to the Committees and read by the Committee or Staff members in the presence of an authorized representative of the originating agency as in c. above. This shall be made a matter of record by memorandum of the originating agency to the DCI and recorded in the IC registry along with the ground rules negotiated with the committees and the agencies in their negotiations. These ground rules will normally be an agenda item on the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group agenda.

2. Testimony given in informal interview with Select Committee Staff will be recorded normally in a memorandum of record and filed in the agency concerned. Employees not wishing to report such testimony are free from doing so. Notification will be given to the IC central index of the existence of the file, its location and access rules. To the degree possible, the registry will cross-reference all materials provided the Committees and will prepare current reports on such materials.

D. LEGAL SUPPORT AND QUALITY CONTROLS

1. The Intelligence Community Staff has several lawyers who will be assigned to provide support to legal matters relating to this inquiry. The leader of this group will be expected to have regular consultation with the General Counsels of all USIB Agencies and the Department of Justice, the NSC, the OMB, and other Executive Branch elements involved in the inquiry. Since the inquiry can result in the introduction of legislation, the IC Staff lawyers will also provide to the DCI appropriate legal briefs for his use. The recording of these briefs will also be made by the central index. The lawyers will also assist the DCI and USIB in ensuring that the Select Committees' procedures are developed in consideration of the legal and constitutional position of the USIB agencies and employees thereof.

2. We can anticipate the Select Committees will have 40-50 staff personnel involved in the inquiries and that they will normally proceed directly to the agencies concerned within their functional areas of interest. Cross agency activity coordination and substantive comparisons will occur within the Select Committees' staffs. It is in the interest of the USIB Agencies to assure equally good coordination between and among the members and Executive Branch elements as appropriate in the material and testimony provided and that a general quality control of the product is exercised. The Ad Hoc Coordinating Group provides the forum for keeping USIB Agencies informed on responses provided in the course of the inquiry and avoiding surprise. Further, the IC Staff will establish a small quality control and evaluative function and be alert to the indicators available as the investigations proceed of potential actions or further inquiries that could derive from materials or testimony provided by the various agencies.

3. There will be a range of "skeletons" and allegations which may surface in the course of the inquiry. USIB Agencies will seek to assure that all the facts are found and addressed so as to be responsive to the Select Committee inquiry and in consideration of the Administration.

E. ALLEGATIONS AND PUBLICITY

1. The nature of the investigation will undoubtedly continue to afford considerable public discourse. Many press allegations will cause further inquiry. A system to check the veracity of such allegations should be established by each USIB Agency. The IC Staff will also undertake to monitor press allegations and discuss them with the agencies involved as appropriate.

2. Senator Church intends to provide the press with commentary on selective testimony or facts pertaining to the inquiry. He has advised that he will clear with the Director these releases to avoid inadvertent disclosure harmful to U.S. intelligence agencies. Review of such releases will be undertaken by the IC Staff in concert with appropriate agencies.

3. In preparing statements or testimony to be given in open or closed hearings, senior intelligence officials should avail themselves of all previous related testimony or material furnished by other sources.

4. The DCI, through his IC Staff, will assure regular consultation with Executive Branch agencies on press matters and take steps to foster good communication between USIB entities and political officials.

Notification of all inquiries from press officials to intelligence agencies concerned should be provided to the IC Staff and a record of these inquiries maintained in the central registry.

This memorandum is responsive to a request by the Director, that is, "It appears we are gearing ourselves to quick responses--why can't we get an agreement as to a reasonable response time?"

Memorandum W.O. Cregar to Mr. W.R. Wannall, dated 3/21/75, captioned as above, described in considerable detail problems concerned with coordinating responses to the Select Committees of Congress. One of the significant problems is the very short deadlines we anticipate receiving from the Select Committees.

Responsive to the Director's question, should we get unreasonable deadlines from the Select Committees requiring extensive file reviews, our legislative liaison will personally contact Senator Church or Congressman Nedzi, pointing out to them the problems attendant to the short deadline and ~~requesting~~ negotiating an extension in order that we may be completely responsive to their requests.

CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM

O ROOSEVELT

This morning, in accordance with the request of the President conveyed to me personally by him last Wednesday in New York City, I called at the White House at 9:15 and was with the President until 10:15.

He was desirous of discussing the question of the subversive activities in the United States, particularly Fascism and Communism. He had previously received the memorandum which I had prepared covering my conversation with General Smedley Butler and the effort of Father Coughlin to have General Butler head an expedition to Mexico. I informed the President concerning certain recent developments in the Communist activities in the country, particularly the efforts of the Bridges organization in San Francisco and their progressive control of the shipping on the Pacific Coast, the Gulf Coast and their recent expansion to shipping operations on the Atlantic Coast. I told him that while their contract will expire on September 30, 1936, they are endeavoring to have it temporarily extended until April 1, 1937, in order to conform to the same date that the United Mine Workers' contract expires, which organization is headed by John L. Lewis. I told him that the Bridges organization was practically controlled by Communists and that the Communists had now decided to make very definite plans to get control of the Lewis organization.

I called his attention to the activities of the Newspaper Guild headed by Heywood Broun, which has strong Communistic leanings, and which has been responsible for putting out of operation the Seattle Post Intelligencer. I told him that my information was that the Communists had planned to get control of these three groups and by doing so they would be able at any time to paralyze the country in that they could stop all shipping in and out through the Bridges organization; stop the operation of industry through the Mining Union of Lewis; and stop publication of any newspapers of the country through the Newspaper Guild.

I also related to him the activities which have recently occurred within Governmental service inspired by Communists, particularly in some of the Departments and in the National Labor Relations Board.

I likewise informed him that I had received information to the effect that the Communist Internationale in Moscow has recently issued instructions for all Communists in the United States to vote for President Roosevelt for reelection and against Governor Landon because of the fact that Governor Landon is opposed to class warfare.

The President stated that he had been considerably concerned about the movements of the Communists and of Fascism in the United States and that while the Secret Service of the Treasury Department had assured him that they had informants in every Communist group, he believed that if that was true it was solely for the purpose of getting any information upon plots upon his life, whereas what he was interested in was obtaining a broad picture of the general movement and its activities as may affect the economic and political life of the country as a whole. I told him that there is at the present time no governmental organization which is getting any so-called "general intelligence information" upon this subject. He inquired what suggestions I might offer relative to this matter. I told him that the appropriation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation contains a provision that it might investigate any matters referred to it by the Department of State and that if the State Department should ask for us to conduct such an investigation we could do so under our present authority in the appropriation already granted. He stated that he is reluctant to have a formal request come through the State Department because of the many leaks therein, but that what he would do would be to put a handwritten memorandum of his own in his safe in the White House, stating he had instructed the Secretary of State to request this information to be obtained by the Department of Justice. He stated he would have the Secretary of State at the White House tomorrow afternoon, and asked me to call at the White House at 1:45 p.m. to see him, the President, and the Secretary of State, at which time the matter could be further discussed and an oral request could be made of me by the Secretary of State for investigation so as to avoid any possibility of any leak.

He suggested that I endeavor to coordinate any investigation along similar lines which might be made by the Military or Naval Intelligence Services. He stated that the Secret Service was not being brought in on this investigation as they should confine themselves strictly to the matter of protecting his life and the survey which he desired to have made was on a much broader field.

CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM

Today, in line with the request of the President, I called at the White House at 1:45 p.m., and present at the conference were the President, the Secretary of State and myself. The President related to the Secretary of State his concern relative to Communist activities in this country, as well as Fascist activities. He stated that he was very desirous of having a survey made of these conditions and informed the Secretary of State that this survey could be made by the Department of Justice if the Secretary of State requested the Department to conduct the inquiry, as under the Appropriation Act this Bureau would have authority to make such investigation if asked to do so by the Secretary of State. The President pointed out that both of these movements were international in scope and that Communism particularly was directed from Moscow, and that there had been certain indications that Oumansky, attached to the Russian Soviet Embassy, was a leading figure in some of the activities in this country, so consequently, it was a matter which fell within the scope of foreign affairs over which the State Department would have a right to request an inquiry to be made.

The Secretary of State inquired if a request should be made in writing. The President indicated that it should not be since he desired the matter to be handled quite confidentially and that it would be sufficient that the President, the Secretary of State and I should be the ones aware of this request.

The Secretary of State asked that the investigation be made and then made several suggestions - one, relative to the making of a protest, either formally or informally, to the Russian Government relative to its interference with affairs in this country. Discussion was also had as to the information obtained indicating that the Third Internationale had indicated preference for Roosevelt as against Landon. It was the opinion of the President that some statement should be made along this line by the Attorney General at an early date. The President asked that I speak to the Attorney General, upon his return to the city, about this matter, and he suggested to the Secretary of State that he talk over the technique to be followed in this particular aspect, with the Attorney General.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Although the bulk of criminal offenses occurring in the course of recent riots have been local rather than federal in nature, the question as to whether there was an organization which (a) had made advanced plans for, and (b) was active during any of the riots in the summer of 1967 is one that cannot always be readily resolved by local authorities. In view of the seriousness of the riot activity across the country, it is most important that you use the maximum available resources, investigative and intelligence, to collect and report all facts bearing upon the question as to whether there has been or is a scheme or conspiracy by any group of whatever size, effectiveness or affiliation, to plan, promote or aggravate riot activity.

In this connection the following federal statutes could be applicable depending, of course, upon the factual situation that develops:

Title 18, USC, Section 2383, which proscribes the inciting or engaging in any rebellion or insurrection against the authority of the United States.

Title 18, USC, Section 2384, which proscribes conspiring to overthrow or to destroy by force the Government of the United States or to oppose by force the authority thereof or by force to prevent, hinder or delay the execution of any law of the United States.

Title 18, USC, Section 2385, which proscribes, inter alia, advocacy of overthrowing the Government of the United States or the Government of any state, territory, District or possession thereof, or the Government of any political subdivision therein by force or violence.

Activities Affecting Armed Forces, 18 USC 2388

Selective Service, 50 USC (App.) 462

Travel and Interstate Transportation,
18 USC 1952 (Arson)
18 USC 831-33 (Explosive)

Assault and Killing of Federal Officers and Employees, 18 USC 111, 114 and 2231

Destruction of Government Property, 18 USC 1361 et al.

Federal Firearms Act, 15 USC 901-909

Crimes on Federal Reservations, 18 USC 13, 81 et al.

I appreciate that the Bureau has constantly been alert to this problem and is currently submitting intelligence reports to us about riots and about the activity of certain groups and individuals before, during and after a riot. Indeed, the President has said both publicly and privately that the FBI is conducting extensive and comprehensive investigations of these matters.

There persists, however, a widespread belief that there is more organized activity in the riots than we presently know about. We must recognize, I believe, that this is a relatively new area of investigation and intelligence reporting for the FBI and the Department of Justice. We have not heretofore had to deal with the possibility of an organized pattern of violence, constituting a violation of federal law, by a group of persons who make the urban ghetto their base of operation and whose activities may not have been regularly monitored by existing intelligence sources.

In these circumstances, we must be certain that every attempt is being made to get all information bearing upon these problems; to take every step possible to determine whether the rioting is pre-planned or organized; and, if so, to determine the identity of the people and interests involved; and to deter this activity by prompt and vigorous legal action.

As a part of the broad investigation which must necessarily be conducted, it is requested that all available information be reported and analyzed regarding each sniper caught in any riot or extremist activity and regarding those arrested during the course of a riot or significant racial disturbances who were not residents of the general area. Moreover, sources or informants in black nationalist organizations, SNCC and other less publicized groups should be developed and expanded to determine the size and purpose of these groups and their relationship to other groups, and also to determine the whereabouts of persons who might be involved in instigating riot activity in violation of federal law. Further, we need to investigate fully allegations of conspiratorial activity that come to our attention from outside sources such as those reported regarding Newark in Life Magazine for July 28, 1967, and those regarding the Detroit riot which were furnished to the Department by Walter Sheridan of the National Broadcasting Company (summary of latter is attached).

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TAMM

In talking with the Attorney General today concerning the radical situation, I informed him of the conference which I had with the President on September 1, 1936, at which time the Secretary of State was present, and at which time the Secretary of State, at the President's suggestion, requested of me, the representative of the Department of Justice, to have investigation made of the subversive activities in this country, including communism and fascism. I transmitted this request to the Attorney General, and the Attorney General verbally directed me to proceed with this investigation and to coordinate, as the President suggested, information upon these matters in the possession of the Military Intelligence Division, the Naval Intelligence Division, and the State Department. This, therefore, is the authority upon which to proceed in the conduct of this investigation, which should, of course, be handled in a most discreet and confidential manner.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

This memorandum reports that on the morning of 3/24/75 Mr. John Clarke, Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community, telephonically advised Section Chief William O. Cregar, the Bureau's representative on this Group, that the Senate Select Committee (SSC) has requested a copy of the 2/7/66 FBI - CIA Understanding, entitled "CIA operations in the United States."

We have previously received requests from the House Appropriations Committee as well as the Rockefeller Commission for copies of the FBI - CIA Understanding dated 2/7/66. In both instances, Deputy AG Laurence Silberman authorized the release of the FBI - CIA Understanding to the House Appropriations Committee as well as the Rockefeller Commission.

On the morning of 3/24/75 Mr. John Clarke telephonically advised that CIA has received a request from the SSC to provide the SSC with a copy of the FBI - CIA Understanding. Inasmuch as we have previously provided a copy of this Understanding to another Congressional committee, it would appear that we have no choice but to furnish a copy of this Understanding to the SSC; however, clearance should be obtained from Deputy AG Silberman.

Inasmuch as a timely response to the SSC is desired, it would appear reasonable for the Legal Counsel Division to telephonically inquire from Mr. Silberman whether he interposes any objection to CIA furnishing a copy of the Understanding to the SSC. If oral authority is obtained, the Intelligence Division will confirm such authority from the Deputy AG in writing.

This memorandum reports the results of a meeting of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community, (hereafter referred to as the Group), held on 3/14/75.

The Group is chaired by Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, and is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the United States Intelligence Board (USIB). Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before various Congressional committees.

At a meeting of the Group on 3/14/75 the following items were discussed:

Freedom of Information:

Mr. Clarke asked all agencies to report on the volume of requests that are received under the Freedom of Information Act. The CIA representative pointed out that as of 3/10/75 CIA had received 93 requests. Since 3/10/75 the requests are averaging approximately 50 per day. The National Security Agency has received approximately 35 requests. None of the other agencies reported any high volume of requests and those requests that had been received did not impact on the Intelligence Community.

Security Arrangements:

CIA's Director of Security, Mr. Charles Kane, and the Chairman of the USIB Security Committee, Mr. Donald E. Moore, have met with Mr. Ben Marshall, Security Officer for the Senate Select Committee (SSC), and are encouraged by the physical and document security arrangements the SSC intends to employ. Attached is a letter from Senator Church to Mr. Colby expressing Senator Church's appreciation for the help provided by Mr. Colby's staff in developing security precautions.

Memorandum for Mr. Wannall

The FBI - CIA 1966 Understanding:

Mr. Clarke advised that the Rockefeller Commission requested a copy of the FBI - CIA Understanding of 1966 and inquired whether one could be made available to the Commission. I advised Mr. Clarke that we had made the 1966 Understanding available to Congressional committees and I saw no reason why a copy of the Understanding could not be furnished to the Rockefeller Commission but I would have to defer to Deputy AG Silberman (also in attendance). Mr. Silberman said by all means we would have to respond to the Rockefeller Commission and he authorized Clarke to furnish a copy of the Understanding to the Rockefeller Commission.

Clearances for Staff Members of the SSC:

Attached hereto is a copy of a letter to the Staff Director of the SSC from Mr. Clarke outlining procedures for the certification of clearances granted to SSC staff members. As an enclosure to this attachment is a suggested format which the SSC could use in certifying that staff members who have received a security investigation by the FBI meet the requirements of Executive Order 10450 for access to classified information up to and including "Top Secret." A second enclosure to Clarke's letter to Miller contains a copy of Director of Central Intelligence Directive (DCID) 1/14 which sets up the Uniform Personnel Security Standards and Practices Governing Access to Sensitive Compartmented Information. Clearances for access to compartmented information are the responsibility of CIA and such clearances will be issued to select members of the SSC on a "need-to-know" basis.

Staff Members on Whom Substantial Derogatory Information is Developed:

Mr. Clarke asked if I could describe for the Group what procedures had been worked out with Senator Church when information was developed of a significant derogatory nature regarding potential staff employees. I advised the Group that upon such a determination a Bureau official would bring the written results of the investigation personally to the attention of Senator Church or his Staff Director. Following that a copy of this investigation would be made available to Mr. Colby as the Director of Central Intelligence and that Senator Church or the Staff Director would welcome any comments from Mr. Colby as to the security ramifications attendant to the employment of this person. Mr. Clarke agreed this was a very desirable procedure and the Group fully endorsed this arrangement.

Organization of the SSC:

Attached is Mr. Clarke's understanding of how the SSC will be organized. It is noted it will be broken down into four Task Forces, each with a Task Force Director, a lawyer or lawyers assigned, each with several researchers. As noted from this enclosure, Task Force three concerns domestic activities including the FBI and those parts of the CIA that relate to domestic matters. Army counterintelligence activities may also come under the cognizance of this Task Force. Staffing for Task Force number three is still in process and no Task Force Director has yet been appointed.

CIA Secrecy Agreement and Employee Bulletin:

Attached hereto is a letter to Senator Church from Mr. Colby designed to relieve current CIA employees from any obligation of secrecy. It is noted all CIA employees sign a Secrecy Agreement as a prerequisite to employment. Also attached is a copy of an Employee Bulletin, dated 3/12/75, advising CIA employees as to the procedures he should follow if he is selected to be interviewed by a member of the SSC or its staff. It is to be noted that both the Employee Bulletin and Colby's letter to Senator Church were reviewed by the White House and the Department of Justice.

Memorandum for Mr. Wannall
RE: SENSTUDY 75

CIA Requirements Received from the SSC:

Attached herewith is a letter from Senator Church to Mr. Colby enclosing the initial request for CIA documents for transmittal to the SSC. According to Mr. Clarke, it is his understanding that similar requests if not already received are being prepared by the SSC for other members of the Group.

Executive Session:

At the conclusion of the formal meeting, Mr. Clarke asked for an executive meeting to include the following persons: Deputy AG Laurence Silberman, Associate Deputy AG James Wilderotter; Mr. Philip Buchen, Counsel to the President; Mr. Chamberlain, Inspector General, CIA; Mr. Thomas Latimer, Department of Defense and myself.

According to Mr. Clarke the purpose of this meeting was to develop strategy as to how the Group would respond to the anticipated requests from the SSC. Both Mr. Buchen of the White House and Mr. Silberman,acting in his capacity as the President's Counsel for Congressional Inquiries, insisted that all requests as well as the responses to all such requests be coordinated through the above Group. Much discussion was had as to how this could be accomplished. No definitive decision was arrived at. However, it was agreed that the CIA would prepare a paper outlining how they would respond to the questions that they had already received, defining the level of response, the area of coordination and identification of sensitive problems. It was not quite clear to the Group as to exactly what form CIA's paper would take. It was proposed by Mr. Buchen and agreed that the same Executive Group would meet at CIA Headquarters on 3/19/75 to review the paper developed by CIA.

In view of the various legal questions involved and because of the direct involvement of Congressional committees, the question of the Bureau's representation was discussed with Mr. Adams. It was agreed that in addition to Mr. Cregar, the Bureau would be represented by Assistant Director Mintz. This proposal was discussed with Mr. Clarke and he readily agreed that certainly Mr. Mintz' presence would be a valuable asset to the Group.

CONTINUED - OVER

As a result, Mr. Mintz and Mr. Cregar will attend the meeting of the Group on Wednesday, 3/19/75, at CIA Headquarters, at 10:30 a.m.

Senator Towers had requested the Bureau to conduct a counteraudio sweep of his personal office inasmuch as he anticipated having sensitive conversations in his office concerning the business of the SSC. Mr. Cregar was asked to raise the question of a counteraudio sweep during the executive session to get an expression from the Group as to whether counteraudio sweeps should be done. Both Mr. Silberman and Mr. Buchen felt it was desirable to conduct such sweeps and strongly recommended that they be done. No commitment was made as to who would do the sweeps at the time. However, after consultation with Assistant Directors Wannall and White, Mr. Adams and Mr. Callahan, it was agreed that the Bureau should do the sweeps inasmuch as it was a domestic matter. Mr. White indicated that he did have the personnel and the equipment to conduct such sweeps. As a result of that decision Mr. Clarke was telephonically advised that the Bureau would conduct counteraudio sweeps of the personal offices of both the Senate and House Select Committees providing such was in accord with the desires of both Committees. Our Legislative Liaison is currently contacting both Senator Church and Congressman Nedzi to confirm that both Committees desire this counteraudio check. It is to be noted that these sweeps will not include the outer offices of the Senators or Congressmen and will not include the offices of the employees of both staffs.

Dear Mr. Colby:

On behalf of the Senate Select Committee To Study Governmental Operations With Respect to Intelligence Activities, I want to thank your for your letter of March 11, and the copy of the Employee Bulletin you have issued to all CIA employees. As we jointly recognize, in order for the Committee to carry out a thorough inquiry, in accordance with the mandate contained in S. Res. 21, the Agency's full cooperation will be necessary. Your recognition that our mandate authorizes all, past and present, agency employees to cooperate fully, and without impediment due to secrecy agreements, will serve to facilitate our expeditious collection of material relative to that mandate.

I particularly appreciate your statement recognizing our security precautions. As you know, your staff was very helpful to the Committee's staff in designing those precautions.

The Staff Director and the Chief Counsel will, under the direction of the Committee, notify Mr. John Clarke of the members of the Committee who have been designated to carry out studies, inquiries and investigations required to meet the tasks specified in S. Res. 21.

It is the Committee's understanding that the members of the Committee and designated staff will have access to any and all information which the Committee determines is necessary for its inquiry. We recognize, however, that the Committee inquiry may touch on sensitive areas, such as the identity of CIA personnel, sources, or cooperating organizations whose disclosure could place persons in actual jeopardy. In the event that the Committee inquiry touches on such sensitive areas, which matters we have already discussed in our meeting of February 27, we should discuss jointly, and as you suggest quickly, what procedures might be followed should the Committee decide it requires more information in these specific areas.

I welcome these first steps in close cooperation and hope that it forecasts an expeditious and thorough inquiry that will result in the strengthening of our nation's intelligence activities under the law.

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

Following up on our brief discussion Tuesday on the clearances of Committee Staff, I thought it might be helpful to outline a procedure which you may consider reasonable to use.

As I understand your current ground rules, you are submitting your staff applicants to the FBI for full field security investigation and on report from the Bureau, under the authority of Senate Resolution 21, the Chairman and/or the Committee will take action to grant or deny clearance.

The next step requires a notification to the Director of Central Intelligence of the Chairman's decision and certification of the clearances granted. I've attached a suggested format for this which you could use. On receipt of the certification we will advise the USIB security elements of the people so certified.

I also promised to go over with you the range of compartmented clearances that exist and I am prepared to do that when we next get together. You will recall these are the clearances for which you will want to determine the "need-to-know" for selected members of your staff. We need to establish agreed procedures here as well. Access to this information requires that an individual meet security standards set forth in DCID 1/14, a copy of which is attached.

I would like to suggest that you appoint a member of your staff - say, Ben Marshall - as a focal point for handling compartmented information access approvals and assign him the responsibility of insuring that these security standards are met by persons selected to participate in this sensitive area.

The CIA operates a Compartmented Information Branch as a service of common concern to the intelligence community which records the names of all individuals in the Government with access to compartmented information. Your personnel would be similarly recorded which would considerably ease the access certifications to all organizations for the duration of your inquiry.

As indicated, I am prepared to discuss this with you at any time.

Purpose

1. The continued protection of sensitive compartmented information within any one participating agency or among Government contractors affects and is a matter of serious security concern to all participating agencies. The provisions of this Directive shall apply to all persons under the jurisdiction or cognizance of the Executive Branch, without regard to civilian or military status, form of employment, official rank or position, or length of service. The establishment of uniform personnel security standards and practices as well as continuing security programs should enhance the security protection of such information and at the same time facilitate the security certification process among

(2) The members of the individual's family and those persons to whom he is bound by affection or obligation should neither be subject to physical, mental and other forms of duress by a foreign power nor advocate the use of force or violence to overthrow the Government of the United States nor the alteration of the form of Government of the United States by unconstitutional means.

4. When there is compelling need to grant access to sensitive compartmented information prior to completion of the full prescribed investigation, such investigative checks as are immediately possible shall be made at once, and shall include a personal interview by trained security or counterintelligence personnel whenever feasible. Access in such cases shall be strictly controlled, and the full prescribed investigation and final evaluation shall be completed at the earliest practicable moment.

Exceptions

5. The exceptions to paragraph 3.b. (1) (2) above may be granted only by the Senior Intelligence Officer of the parent organization represented on the United States Intelligence Board (USIB), including military departments, or his designee, unless such authority has been specifically delegated to the head of an office or organization as set forth in interdepartmental agreements. All exceptions granted will be a common sense determination based on all available information, and shall be recorded by the agency making the exception. In those cases in which the individual has lived outside of the United States for a substantial period of his life, a thorough assessment of the adequacy of the investigation in terms of fulfillment of the minimum investigative requirements, and a judicious review of the information therein must be made before an exception is considered.

Investigative Requirements

6. The investigation conducted on an individual under consideration for access to sensitive compartmented information shall be thorough and shall be designed to develop information as to whether the individual clearly meets the above Personnel Security Approval Criteria.

7. The investigation shall be accomplished through personal interviews by trained investigative personnel and shall establish affirmatively to the adjudicating agency complete continuity of identity to include birth, residences, education, emloyments and military service. Where the circumstances of a case indicate, the investigation shall exceed the basic requirements set out below to ensure that those responsible for adjudicating access eligibility have in their possession all the relevant facts available.

8. During the course of the investigation the individual shall furnish a signed personal history statement and a certificate of non-affiliation with those organizations designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Fingerprints of a quality acceptable to the Federal Bureau of Investigation shall be obtained. Photographs of the individual shall also be obtained where additional corroboration of identity is required.

9. The individual under investigation shall be given a personal interview by trained security or counterintelligence personnel whenever feasible.

10. Minimum standards for the investigation are as follows:

a. Verification of date and place of birth and citizenship of the individual.

b. Check of the subversive and criminal files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, including submission of fingerprint charts, and other national agencies as appropriate. An additional check of Immigration and Naturalization Service records shall be made if members of the individual's immediate family are other than United States citizens by birth.

c. Local checks in all areas of the United States where the individual has resided for at least six (6) months during the past fifteen years or since age eighteen, whichever is the shorter period. Such period of coverage shall include the following:

For Committee guidance in their determinations on clearances for compartmented access!

GROUP 1

< (1) Check of police and credit records. > where feasible?

(2) Interviews with neighbors at present residence regardless of duration and, to the extent considered to be productive and practical, any other address at which the individual has resided.

d. Confirmation of all employment during the past fifteen years or since age eighteen, whichever is the shorter period. Personal interviews with supervisors and co-workers who had personal contact with the individual shall be accomplished to the extent possible and practical.

e. Attendance at institutes of higher learning or at the most recently attended secondary school shall be verified in all instances. During these inquiries collateral verification of prior educational records shall be made and personal interviews with faculty members who had personal contact with the individual shall be accomplished to the extent possible and practical.

f. Review of appropriate military records.

g. Interviews with a sufficient number of personal references given by the individual and with a minimum of two other persons who can furnish information on the basis of personal knowledge concerning the individual's character, discretion and loyalty.

h. When employment, education or residence, except U.S. Government service, has occurred overseas during the past fifteen years, or since age eighteen, a check of the records will be made at the Passport Office/Department of State, Central Intelligence Agency and other appropriate agencies. Efforts shall be made to develop informants who knew the individual overseas in order to cover employment, education or residence during this period.

i. The spouse of the individual and members of the immediate family shall be investigated to the extent necessary and appropriate to permit affirmative determination by the adjudicating agency that the provisions of paragraph 3, Personnel Security Approval Criteria, above, are met. In all cases, the spouse shall be checked through the subversive files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other national agencies, as appropriate.

Previous Investigation

11. Where a previous investigation has been conducted within the past five years which substantially meets the above minimum standards, it may serve as a basis for granting access approval provided a review of the personnel and security files does not reveal substantive changes in the individual's security eligibility. If a previous investigation does not substantially meet the minimum standards or if it is more than five years old, a current investigation shall be required but may be limited to that necessary to bring the individual's file up to date in accordance with the investigative requirements set forth in paragraph 4, above. Should new information be developed during the current investigation which bears unfavorably upon the individual's activities covered by the previous investigation, the current inquiries shall be expanded as necessary to develop full details of this new information.

Evaluation

12. The evaluation of the information developed by investigation on an individual's loyalty and suitability shall be performed by analysts of broad knowledge, good judgment and wide experience in security and counterintelligence. When all other information developed on an individual is favorable, a minor investigative requirement which has not been met will not preclude favorable adjudication. In all evaluations the protection of the national interest is paramount. Any doubt concerning personnel having access to sensitive compartmented information shall be resolved in favor of the national security. The ultimate determination of whether the granting of access is clearly consistent with the interests of national security shall be an over-all common sense determination based on all available information.

Security Programs

13. In order to facilitate the attainment of the highest standard of personnel security and to augment both the access approval criteria and the investigative requirements established by this Directive, member departments and agencies shall institute continuing Security Programs for all individuals having access to compartmented information. In addition to security indoctrinations, these programs shall be tailored to create mutually supporting procedures under which no issue will escape notice or be left unresolved which brings into question an individual's loyalty and integrity or suggests the possibility of his being subject to undue influence or duress through foreign relationships or exploitable personal conduct. When an individual is assigned to perform sensitive compartmented work requiring access to sensitive compartmented information and operations, the department, agency or Government program to which he is assigned shall assume a continuing security and counterintelligence responsibility for that individual throughout the period of his assignment.

14. The Security Programs shall include the following:

a. Security Education Programs to ensure that individuals who are granted access to sensitive compartmented information are initially and periodically thereafter indoctrinated as to its unique sensitivity and that they understand their personal responsibility for its protection. These indoctrinations should be conducted by individuals having extensive background and experience regarding the nature and special vulnerabilities of the particular type of compartmented information involved.

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

b. Security Supervisory Programs to ensure that supervisory personnel recognize and discharge their special responsibility for maintaining the security of sensitive information. Such programs shall provide practical guidance as to indicators which may signal matters of security concern. Specific instructions concerning reporting procedures shall be disseminated to enable the appropriate authority to take timely corrective action to safeguard the security of the United States as well as to provide all necessary help to the individual concerned to neutralize his vulnerability.

c. Security Review Programs to ensure that appropriate security authorities invariably receive and exchange, in a timely manner, all information bearing on the security posture of persons having access to sensitive information. Personnel history information shall be kept current. Security and related files shall be kept under continuing review. Departments and agencies shall develop security programs under which at intervals no greater than 5 years, checks are made with the Federal Bureau of Investigation as well as all relevant police and credit sources and, where feasible, each individual is given a personal interview by trained security or counterintelligence personnel.

15. Whenever indicated during the course of these Security Programs, appropriate investigations shall be conducted on a timely basis. In the absence of such indication the tempo of additional investigation shall be tailored by the adjudicating agency to the circumstances surrounding the individual under consideration as well as the breadth of knowledge and degree of sensitivity involved in his access. The investigation shall be sufficient in scope to ensure that continued utilization of the individual in activities requiring sensitive compartmented information is clearly consistent with the interests of the national security.

Effective Date

16. This Directive declares the policy of USIB concerning Uniform Personnel Security Standards and Practices for Access to Sensitive Compartmented Information. This policy shall become effective as soon as practicable after approval of this Directive but in no case later than 1 July 1968. Existing directives,[2] regulations, agreements, and such other references governing access to sensitive compartmented information as defined herein shall be revised accordingly.

Director of Central Intelligence

The Organization of the Senate Select Committee - Rough Structure

The Committee will organize into four Task Forces - each with a Task Force Director, each with a lawyer or lawyers assigned and each with several researchers. Total professionals - 30/40.

Task Force One - Foreign Intelligence

This will deal with the CIA as a line Agency and with the institution of the Director of Central Intelligence in his responsibility under NSCID #1. USIB intelligence entities, i.e., State, Treasury, AEC and the military establishments collecting, processing or producing foreign intelligence will be reviewed in this context as well. CIA covert action is also covered here.

They plan to begin with basic papers being prepared on USIB agencies - their missions, functions, organizations and general contribution so as to provide the Committee with a "sound understanding on the role, nature, performance and structure of intelligence looking toward legislation which would address national intelligence needs, and provide adequate oversight of national and defense intelligence entities and their relationships in foreign policy generally." William Bator is designated the Task Force Director.

Task Force Two - Military Intelligence

This Task Force will deal with the organizational entities within the Department of Defense collecting, processing, or producing intelligence including the DIA, the Services Agencies, and the National Security Agency, the NRO, and other collection entities such as AEDS, Attaches, etc. The interrelationships between Task Force One and Task Force Two according to the Staff Director will be accommodated by regular communication among the Select Committee staff and be addressed by the Committee in the broader context of considering possible legislation for alternative structures. The staffing for this Task Force is still in process and no Task Force Director has yet been appointed.

Task Force Three - Domestic Activities

This Task Force will concern itself with intelligence organizations engaged in domestic activities and including the FBI, those parts of the CIA that relate to domestic matters, and possibly Army counterintelligence activities. The staffing for this Task Force is still in process and no Task Force Director has yet been appointed.

Task Force Four - Executive Branch Command and Control

This Task Force will be concerned with the tasking of the intelligence community - its oversight, the use of intelligence, and the adequacy thereof and mesh with the DCI's role as principal intelligence advisor to the President. It will treat with the National Security Council's activities, functions, and structure. It will address the variety of sub-committees thereunder as well as the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board (PFIAB). David Aaron will be the Task Force Director. Note: Covert Action direction and oversight is also included herein.

The Staff Director has indicated that the Committee is interested in dealing with Agencies and documents therefrom in the most efficient fashion consistent with security and economy of time. He is not committed at this time to any particular procedure. He has stated a desire to work selectively inside the Agencies where access and screening of selective records could take place. He wishes to avoid shipping in loads of data to the Committee.

The Honorable Frank Church
Chairman
Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Mr. Chairman:

This letter will confirm and reduce to writing some of the matters agreed upon at our recent meeting.

At the outset, I should like to express my deep personal appreciation for the candor and helpfulness of you and Senator Tower in that meeting and for your sensitivity to the respective responsibilities under our Constitutional framework of the Select Committee and the Central Intelligence Agency in the area of your review. For my part, I should like to renew again, for myself and the CIA, my promise of cooperation with respect to the important work of the Select Committee. In my judgment, a spirit of good faith and cooperative effort is not only necessary to enable your Committee to discharge its responsibilities fully and expeditiously, but is indeed in the best interests of the intelligence community as well. I am convinced that a responsible and thorough review of U.S. intelligence activities will serve to vindicate the CIA and enhance the public's understanding of the important contribution that the intelligence efforts of this nation can make toward the goal of preserving and strengthening our democracy.

I am particularly appreciative of your recognition that certain sensitive aspects of our intelligence activities must receive special consideration and treatment by the Select Committee in the course of your work. As we discussed, such matters as the identities of our sensitive sources, the material provided to us by cooperating foreign intelligence services, the details of technical devices and systems and of operational methods, the identities of certain of our employees who could be targets of kidnapping or assassination, the identities of American citizens and organizations who have cooperated with U.S. intelligence, and some additional materials the public disclosure of which would create serious foreign policy or national security problems, should be protected not only from exposure, but indeed from the risk of exposure. We should also work together to protect certain other information which, if improperly disclosed, might impair the privacy rights of individuals. Where these kinds of considerations are present, I anticipate that appropriate understandings can be arrived at to avoid the risk of exposing such matters and at the same time to satisfy the Select Committee's need for a full understanding of our activities.

As I stated to you, employees of the Central Intelligence Agency will be available to the Select Committee for staff interviews and for testimony. As we have discussed, this might require, in some circumstances, special arrangements to protect the identity of particular employees whose physical safety or future career might be placed in jeopardy by exposure. I anticipate that suitable safeguards can be established to avoid such dangers. I assume the Committee will make its own arrangements with respect to ex-employees as to whom I no longer have the authority to direct their cooperation. However, I am available for whatever assistance I can provide in this regard.

As you are aware, all employees of the Central Intelligence Agency are required to sign a secrecy agreement when they enter on duty. This is a condition of employment, and it requires that they keep forever secret all classified information gained during the course of their employment. The secrecy agreement further requires that they may not disclose classified information, either orally or by publication, without prior authorization from the Director of Central Intelligence. Under the secrecy agreement, an employee's obligations with respect to the protection of classified information continue after his employment with the CIA has been terminated.

It is my desire that the secrecy agreements signed by our employees shall not impair the necessary work of the Select Committee. To accomplish this, and in recognition of the security protection contemplated by the Select Committee, I have determined that disclosure of otherwise protected information to the Select Committee or its designated staff members will constitute an authorized provision of information within the meaning of the secrecy agreements. This letter may be used to indicate such authorization for any Agency employee or ex-employee to furnish information to the Select Committee or appropriate staff members on matters which would otherwise be covered by their secrecy agreement, but which are not among the particularly sensitive matters such as mentioned above. With respect to those particularly sensitive matters, different procedures are obviously necessary. Accordingly, where any matter included in these sensitive categories would be involved in responding to the Committee, the employee should express his concern and, if possible, propose a way of responding to the Committee without exposing such sensitive details. If the Committee believes that a disclosure of those aspects is nevertheless necessary, the matter will be discussed between the Committee and the Agency. I am prepared to consult with the Committee at any time to avoid difficulties in this area and quickly determine together the appropriate course of action to be taken.

With the good faith evident in our discussions on these matters, I believe that these arrangements will enable me to discharge my responsibilities to protect intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure, while at the same time to provide the Select Committee with all the information it needs to accomplish its task.

As we have agreed, it is in the national interest as well as that of the Select Committee and the U.S. intelligence community to ensure that your review proceed as smoothly and as expeditiously as possible. Toward that end, I have instructed all CIA personnel to respond in a spirit of cooperation.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
Director

No. 442 | 12 March 1975

Senate Select Committee To Review U.S. Intelligence Activities

Senate Resolution 21 established a Select Committee of the Senate to review U.S. intelligence activities. The Resolution calls for a comprehensive review of the total U.S. intelligence effort and is not restricted to the recent charges and allegations against CIA alone. Consequently, it is likely to be far-ranging in its impact.

It is in all of our interests to see that the Select Committee receives full understanding of our activities and their contribution to the country as expeditiously as possible. I have every confidence that the inquiry will be responsible, and constructive, and will produce new understanding of, and improvements in, the American intelligence system.

It is with this conviction that I have pledged my personal cooperation and that of the CIA. I have advised Senators Church and Tower, the Committee Chairman and Vice Chairman, that employees of the CIA will be available to the Select Committee for Staff interviews and for testimony. We are working with the Committee Staff to design procedures to facilitate their work in examining topics of concern.

Attached to this bulletin is a letter which I have sent to Senator Church. To facilitate the necessary work of the Committee and in recognition of the security protection contemplated by the Committee, I have determined that disclosure of otherwise protected information to the Select Committee or its designated Staff members will constitute authorized provision of information within the meaning of the Secrecy Agreements signed by each CIA employee, subject to the special procedures and limitations set forth in the letter regarding particularly sensitive matters. Senator Church has agreed that reference to sensitive data in any Committee report will be subject to consultation between the Committee and the Agency.

The cooperative spirit of our relationship with the Committee and its Staff must at the same time take account of the rights of Agency employees. The Committee Staff has agreed to advise employees of their Constitutional rights at the beginning of any interview or other appearance.

When a current Agency employee is selected to be interviewed by the Select Committee Staff, the Staff Director or Chief Counsel will normally notify Mr. John M. Clarke, who is my principal liaison with the Committee and its Staff. Mr. Clarke, in turn, will notify the employee. The purpose of this is in no way to inhibit the work of the Committee. It is intended to allow time for the employee to gain general legal guidance if he wants it, and to obtain security guidance from an appropriate senior officer.

My own belief is that after a careful review of all U.S. intelligence activities, the Committee will address needed legislative changes and will reaffirm their confidence in the importance and contribution of U.S. intelligence programs.

REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION

[illegible] 11-7-00 BY SP-2 ALM/[illegible]

TO: The Director of Central Intelligence and the Central Intelligence Agency

FROM: The Senate Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities

Guidelines

1. The attached request is not intended to call for a general file search of the Agency. Rather it is intended to call for various significant documents available in the upper levels of the Agency. Without foreclosing any further file review that may seem appropriate to agency personnel familiar with agency files, we would suggest the following offices (current and past files) as likely sources for initial review:

(i) The U.S. Intelligence Board staff and ICS
(ii) Offices of the Director and the Deputy Director/CIA
(iii) Offices of the General Counsel and Legislative Counsel/CIA
(iv) Offices of the Comptroller, Inspector General, Historical Studies, and Finance/CIA

2. The requests are addressed to the Director, both in his capacity as Director of the Central Intelligence Agency and as Director of Central Intelligence and Chief Executive of the United States Intelligence Board.

3. Rather than waiting until all materials are available, it would be helpful if any particular group is produced when ready.

4. As previously discussed, please advise if there are categories of material where it would be appropriate for Committee staff members to review called for material on the Agency premises in order to cull out the most pertinent materials.

5. The request covers documents in the covered offices wherever originated (including other departments or agencies). If any document referred to is believed by the Agency to be in the possession only of another agency or department, advice to that effect plus an indication that the Agency would not object to its being made available to the Committee, would facilitate an expeditious inquiry.

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

I. OUTSTANDING RE[illegible]ESTS

The Agency has agreed to provide the Committee with (1) charts indicating the organizational history of the CIA; (2) identification of headquarters personnel; and (3) budgetary and cash flow information. The following is a further elaboration of the kind of material in each of these categories which is necessary for the Committee's basic understanding of the Agency:

A. Organization Charts and Personnel - The charts reflecting CIA organizational history down to the Branch level should be accompanied by annotations or a narrative explaining when particular units were formed, merged, expanded or abolished. The narrative should also indicate any changes in lines of authority, reporting responsibilities, and functions for each unit. Changes in unit designation which were not accompanied by substantive changes should be noted.

The charts should include the organization and staffing arrangements of the USIB, the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, and its predecessors, and the Forty Committee and its predecessors.

The identification of personnel should include all officials and supervisors down to the Branch Chief and Deputy Branch Chief level, and to the executive assistants for the directors or deputy directors of all Divisions, Offices and Staffs and similar assistants for any officials above those levels.

B. Budget and Cash Flow - The budgetary information should include both the budgets proposed to OMB and the final budgets approved. The cash flow data should include the funds actually appropriated, their location in the appropriations for other Departments and agencies, and an indication of whether funds transferred from particular agencies are earmarked for particular uses within the CIA.

II. SPECIAL REPORTS OR STUDIES

SUBJECT: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

On 2-19-75 Inspector Bowers talked with William Miller, Staff Director of captioned Committee. Miller was asked if the Committee had established a possible timetable concerning hearings. He stated they are "months" away from formal hearings but that they expect to begin taking testimony in closed sessions to "build a record" in about two weeks.

Miller said these sessions will be conducted by a Member of the Committee but will basically involve questioning of various agency officials, not at the Director level, to provide basic information about the administrative structure, legal basis, objectives and mission, and budget of the various agencies in which the Committee will have an interest. Miller was requested to give us specific notification as far in advance as possible concerning such testimony sessions so that we would have sufficient time to prepare the necessary material. Miller said this would be done.

Miller stated he would doubt that the Director would be needed for any testimony for some time unless the Director wishes to be involved in the early stages of providing basic information.

It seems apparent that the Committee still is uncertain of its course of action. Miller commented that the Committee will probably follow much the same procedure as used in the impeachment hearings where extensive testimony was taken in closed sessions and used by the Members and staff to prepare for the later public hearings. It seems apparent that John Doar and his staff who worked on the impeachment hearings will play a major role in the Select Committee operations. Doar and a number of his former impeachment staff members already are working with the Select Committee group.

During a meeting attended by Section Chief Cregar, Intelligence Division, on March 14, 1975, it was approved by the Deputy Attorney General and Philip Buchen, Counsel to the President, and concurred in by William Colby, Director of CIA, that the Chairman of the two captioned committees should be approached and asked whether they would make a Committee request for the offices of members to be examined for any electronic surveillance devices. Offices occupied by staff members would not be included in their proposed search.

RECOMMENDATION:

The Legal Analysis Office will contact Senator Church and Congressman Nedzi to inquire ~~if~~ they, acting as Chairman of their respective committees, would make a committee request for such a search to be conducted. If requested by Chairman we propose FBI to handle survey.

Reference McDermott to Jenkins memorandum of 1-31-75 recommending contact with Senator Frank Church (D-Idaho) concerning the procedure for clearing staff personnel for captioned Committee.

Contact was made with the Senator's office on the morning of 2-6-75 to arrange an appointment. The Senator's secretary advised that his schedule was so crowded that it would be impossible for him to discuss this matter for several days. She said he requested that we discuss this situation with William Miller, who the Senator intends to have head the Select Committee staff.

Miller was contacted on the morning of 2-6-75 by Inspector Bowers, accompanied by Inspector Hotis. It was explained to him that the FBI has no authority to issue clearances as such but that in conference with Central Intelligence Agency officials it had been agreed that the FBI will investigate prospective staff personnel, furnish results of the investigation to Senator Church as the Select Committee Chairman, and CIA will issue actual clearances based on certification from Church. Miller agreed to this procedure. He was furnished a small supply of SF 86, Security Investigation Data for Sensitive Position forms. It was pointed out to him these forms should be filled out in complete detail and furnished to us along with a current set of fingerprints. It was suggested the applicants for these positions be fingerprinted by the Capitol Police Department.

EX-110 REC-71 62-116395-40

Miller stated they would need results of these investigations as soon as possible and after some discussion he agreed that a two week deadline would be reasonable. It was suggested to him that in cases involving clerical-type personnel that perhaps a longer deadline might be in order, and he said he would keep this in mind. It was pointed out to Miller that results of the investigations will be furnished to Senator Church personally. He also was advised that representatives of various intelligence agencies currently are drawing up proposed guidelines to suggest to the Committee for use in determining whether or not an applicant qualifies for security clearance as well as proposed guidelines to deal with the maintenance of classified material received by the Committee. He was told someone will be in touch with Senator Church regarding this in the near future.

Miller stated that the Committee is going to set up offices in the auditorium of the Dirksen Senate Office Building, the same space used by the Senate Watergate Committee. This space currently is being altered to meet Committee requirements.

Miller stated that the Committee probably will bring on board as staff personnel most of the "security team" used by the House Judiciary Committee during the impeachment hearings. He said this group has a proven track record with respect to leaks of information since all leaks resulting from the impeachment proceedings have been traced to Members following hearings rather than staff personnel. This is the group headed by former Assistant Attorney General John Doar, and Miller indicated Doar will play a major role on the Senate Select Committee staff.

Miller will furnish Bowers the completed SF 86 forms and fingerprint cards on proposed staff personnel as soon as possible and these will be furnished directly to Assistant Director Cleveland for handling. This matter already has been discussed with Mr. Cleveland.

SUBJECT: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

We have received the enclosed letter dated 1-29-75 from Senator Frank Church (D-Idaho) writing in his capacity as the Chairman of the recently established Select Committee on Intelligence Activities. The Senator states that to carry out the task of the Committee, it will be necessary for the Members and designated staff to have access to the most sensitive classified material. He said the Committee is in the process of gathering a staff, adding that it is likely many members of the staff will not have current security clearances. He stated he would be most grateful if the FBI could expedite clearances on designated staff so that work can proceed as expeditiously as possible. He points out the standard clearance agreed upon during debate on the resolution creating the Committee would be the equivalent of a "Q" clearance.

William E. Colby, as Director of Central Intelligence, is coordinating the compilation from various agencies of the intelligence community suggested guidelines dealing with clearances and the handling of security information to be presented for consideration to the Select Committee. FBI representatives from the Intelligence Division have been participating in this matter.

This matter was discussed with Mr. Mintz and Mr. Adams, and it was agreed that the Intelligence Division representative should explore with CIA whether or not that agency would agree to issue clearances for the Select Committee staff if the FBI handled the investigations. Section Chief William O. Cregar took this matter up on the afternoon of 1-30-75 with John M. Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence. Cregar advised Clarke had obtained Colby's agreement to the following procedure. The FBI will handle investigations of potential staff members named by the Select Committee. Results of the investigations would be furnished to Church as Chairman of the Select Committee and the Committee would determine whether or not the individual meets the necessary criteria for clearance. Following such certification by the Committee, CIA would issue the appropriate clearance. A Sub Group of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community was to meet on 1-31-75 to draw up proposed guidelines to be presented to the Committee regarding the storage of information and the clearance of the staff. This group consists of representatives from the FBI, CIA, NSA, and Atomic Energy Commission. These guidelines, once approved by the Select Committee, would be followed in determining whether or not potential staff members should receive clearances.

Cregar said there is no objections to the FBI discussing the foregoing procedure--FBI investigation, Select Committee certification, followed by issuance of clearance by CIA-with Senator Church. Senator Church will be told at the same time that proposed guidelines regarding a clearance decision will be presented to him as soon as they are compiled.

Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities

Dear Mr. Kelley:

The Senate, on January 27, created a Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations With Respect to All Intelligence Activities. I am confident that the Federal Bureau of Investigation will make every effort to assist the Select Committee in its work, and I look forward to working together with you in completing this important task.

In order to carry out the necessary tasks mandated by the vote of the Senate, it will be necessary for Senators and designated staff to have access to the most sensitive classified material. The Select Committee is now in the process of bringing together a staff to assist in carrying out its work. In this regard, it is likely that many members of the staff who will be hired will not have current security clearances.

On behalf of the Select Committee, I would be most grateful to you if you could expedite, as a priority matter, clearances on designated staff so that the work of the committee can proceed as expeditiously as possible. In debate, prior to passage of S. Res. 21, the standard of clearance agreed upon by the Senate was equivalent to the standard applicable to a "Q" clearance.

Reference is made to memorandum of W. O. Cregar to Mr. W. R. Wannall dated 3/10/75, captioned as above. It was also noted that the Bureau had not received a request as of that time from Halperin under the FOIA.

The Department has now referred over to us today, 3/14/75, a request from Mr. Halperin to "inspect and, if I choose, to copy files marked 'Official and Confidential' or 'OC' kept in the private office of J. Edgar Hoover." This request is being processed in the FOIA Unit.

This memorandum reports the results of conversations with Mr. John Clarke, Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry, referred to hereafter as the Group, reporting steps taken to insure that Mr. William Cotter, Chief Postal Inspector, is invited to any discussions of the Group wherein the question of opening U. S. mail is addressed in the context of Congressional hearings.

In a memorandum to Mr. Adams and Mr. Wannall, dated 3/4/75, Mr. Kelley reported the results of his meeting with Mr. Cotter on that date. Cotter advised the Director that the Postmaster General has become alarmed about the opening of mail by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Mr. Cotter asked the Director if the FBI knew this was going on and did we actually receive the benefits of it. Mr. Kelley pointed out to Mr. Cotter that the FBI knew of it and did get information on the procedure from CIA.

REC-10 62-116395-34

During the course of their conversation, Mr. Kelley told Mr. Cotter that he should be joined in the group of investigative organizations headed by Mr. Colby, Director of CIA, to consider actions in the Select Committee's probe. Mr. Wannall was instructed to make sure the Postal Service is included in the Group.

7 MAR 21 1975

On 3/6/75 Mr. William O. Cregar, the Bureau's representative on this Group, discussed this matter with Mr. John Clarke. Mr. Clarke advised that inasmuch as membership on the Group is made up of United States Intelligence Board (USIB) agencies and departments he felt most matters discussed at future meetings of the Group would not be of interest to the Postal Service and would be a waste of Mr. Cotter's time. However, he assured Mr. Cregar that should a question involving opening of U. S. mails be addressed by the Group or any questions involving matters of interest to the Postmaster General, he would see to it that Mr. Cotter or his designated representative

Dear Bill:

During our meeting in my office on March 4, 1975, we discussed your participation in the group of investigative organizations headed by Mr. William Colby, Director of Central Intelligence, to consider Community actions resulting from Select Committee probes.

On March 6, 1975, Mr. William O. Cregar, my representative on this Group, discussed the matter with Mr. John M. Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community and Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry. Mr. Clarke advised that membership on this Group is made up of representatives from the U. S. Intelligence Board agencies and departments and that the major portion of information discussed at this Group would not involve the Postal Service. However, Mr. Clarke has assured Mr. Cregar that should any questions regarding matters of interest to the Postmaster General be scheduled for discussion before this Group, he would see to it that your office is so advised in order that either you or your designated representative can attend the meeting. In addition, Mr. Clarke indicated he would be in telephonic contact with you to arrange for any discussions you might desire to have with him.

RE DESTRUCTION OF RECORDS
JANUARY 27, 1975

Hotis/TBH

In a letter to Mr. Kelley dated 1-27-75, Senators Mike Mansfield (D - Mont.) and Hugh Scott (R - Pa.) requested we not destroy any documents or files that may be of interest to the Senate in the forthcoming hearings on intelligence activities.

A memorandum from H. R. Hauer to Mr. LaPrade dated 1-31-75 captioned "Destruction of Files and Records, Files and Communications Division," pointed out that our destruction program is governed by the Federal Records Act of 1950 and regulations of the National Archives and Records Service. Our current practice is to destroy files over 25 years old relating to subversive activities which are based on unsubstantiated allegations and have not resulted in prosecution. Criminal files over 10 years old are reduced to microfilm and the paper records are destroyed. In addition, all duplicate copies of communications are destroyed when they no longer serve a useful purpose. The Files and Communications Division asked the Legal Counsel Division to determine whether the Senators' request applied to our current destruction program. Mr. Callahan noted "Discuss with SSC staff."

On 2-10-75 Inspector J. B. Hotis, Legal Counsel Division, met with William G. Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Acdivities, concerning this matter. Miller was told that our destruction program has been suspended until we can determine whether any documents are involved that might be of interest to the Committee. Miller said he doubted that the Committee would inquire into intelligence matters that were over 25 years old but asked that we withhold destruction of files until he consulted with Senator Church. He said he would contact us later this week.

This reports information received telephonically from Mr. Robert Gambino, Office of Security, CIA, on the morning of 3/1/75.

According to Mr. Gambino, a CIA officer employed by CIA's Office of Security, Mr. Richard Kuh, has been called to testify before the Rockefeller Commission on 3/3/75. The purpose of this testimony is to discuss CIA's recruitment of approximately 10 dissidents. The dissidents were to be infiltrated into extremist and revolutionary groups active in the Washington, D. C., area in 1967 in order that CIA could obtain firsthand knowledge as to whether any of these extremist or revolutionary groups were planning any physical damage or attack on CIA installations throughout the Washington, D. C., area.

In preparation for this testimony CIA was reviewing all records in their Office of Security. In this connection they came across a note from CIA Security Officer Paul Gaynor reflecting a conversation he had with myself. During that time I had liaison responsibilities with CIA's Office of Security. The note, signed by Paul Gaynor, read as follows: "Discussed with William O. Cregar, FBI, 4/4-6/67. Says go ahead after conferring with Mr. William Sullivan, Assistant Director, FBI. 'They never heard of this matter.'" Copies of this note are being furnished to the Rockefeller Commission contemporaneous with Kuh's testimony.

I have reviewed all possible Bureau records in an effort to locate any memoranda that might have been prepared. I have found no such memoranda and am inclined to believe that I did not make a record of my conversation with Mr. Gaynor in view of the quotation, "They never heard of this matter."

RE: SENSTUDY 75

Although I have no specific recollection of the conversation with Mr. Gaynor, I do have some recollection that such a conversation did take place with him as well as with Mr. Osborn, the Director of Security, CIA. This is somewhat reinforced by the fact that I can recall CIA and specifically Mr. Osborn was concerned about the security of CIA's installations. There was considerable campus unrest during this period of time. I can recall CIA recruiters were attacked and beaten. As a matter of fact, I am almost sure that CIA's recruiters were forced off campus and did potential employees' interviews in Federal buildings. Recognizing that both Osborn, as the Director of Security, and CIA generally were very security conscious, I can understand and believe it was probably likely that the Office of Security, CIA, began to plan the security and physical protection of all their offices throughout the U. S. The fact is that approximately one and one-half years after my reported conversation with Mr. Gaynor one of CIA's offices in Ann Arbor, Michigan, was bombed, resulting in the now famous Keith decision. In the interim Martin Luther King was assassinated 4/4/68 and parts of the District were burned; Resurrection City existed during May and June, 1968. All of these events remind one of the situation that existed at that time and helps me at least put into perspective why CIA's Office of Security was concerned about the security of their installations.

Although I cannot recall the specific conversation with Mr. Gaynor, I did periodically speak to him during my eight-year liaison assignment. Had I received such a request as reported on Mr. Gaynor's note, I would have discussed it with the Assistant Director at that time. It is likely that Mr. Sullivan who was then the Assistant Director would have reacted as reported in Gaynor's quotation. I say this because if the facts are true, no operational activity to collect intelligence was envisioned. CIA merely proposed to place assets in a position to know if any violent activity was planned against CIA establishments and the Bureau was merely interposing no objections to such activity on the part of CIA.

RE: SENSTUDY 75

I have attempted to reconstruct the events in my own mind as well as to view other activities that transpired during the approximately eight years of my liaison assignment. In all honesty I cannot recall any case wherein I was requested or instructed to make an arrangement with CIA without making a specific record of it in Bureau files.

On March 12, 1975, Associate Deputy Attorney General Wilderotter advised me that he was just advised that the Senate Committee staff has compiled a lengthy list of requests for documents to be furnished by CIA to the Senate Committee. He said that the list will be submitted to the Committee today for their approval in requesting the material from CIA. He described the list as unrealistic. Mr. Wilderotter said that we may anticipate that the FBI will receive a similar list requesting documents in great detail. He said that his assignment in the Department at the present time is to assist in coordinating the Department responses with the White House in regard to requests from the Senate Committee and he requested me to advise him at once upon receipt of such a request from the Senate Committee.

RECOMMENDATION:

That upon receipt of request from the Senate Committee, as described above, Mr. Wilderotter be immediately informed.

This memorandum reports the results of a meeting of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community (hereafter referred to as the Group) held on 2/27/75 at CIA Headquarters.

The Group is chaired by Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, and is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the U.S. Intelligence Board. Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before various Congressional committees.

At the meeting of the Group on 2/27/75 several items of interest were discussed, which items are set forth hereinafter.

Mr. Colby, in his role as Director of Central Intelligence, and Mr. Clarke met with Senator Frank Church on the morning of 2/27/75. Church advised that it is not his intention to harass the intelligence community and he hopes to reaffirm to both the Congress and the people of the United States that there is a valid and critical need for intelligence. Church is concerned that no inadvertent disclosures result from these hearings which could prejudice sensitive intelligence community interest. He assured Mr. Colby that he would continue to consult him on any sensitive matters that come before the Committee to avoid such inadvertencies. Senator Church was appreciative of the security guidelines furnished to him for the handling of sensitive information and documents and assured Mr. Colby that the Senate Select Committee (SSC) would abide by these guidelines. With regard to the Secrecy Agreement, which heretofor Senator Church has been somewhat reluctant to have his staff personnel complete, it is now acceptable to the Senator. However, he does want to have the Chief Counsel of the SSC review the Secrecy Agreement and will probably propose certain changes in its wording. (A Secrecy Agreement was developed by a subcommittee of the Group in concert with the Justice Department.)

Senator Church stated that it was the Committee's intention to investigate all agencies' participation in "covert action" with primary emphasis on CIA activities overseas. (Roughly interpreted, this could involve the Bureau's COINTEL Program.) The SSC hopes to avoid any confrontation with any members of the intelligence community over the release of sensitive documents or testimony and it is Senator Church's intention for him and Senator John G. Tower to consult with both the President and the Vice President to resolve this matter. In this regard, Mr. Clarke advised members of the Group that Deputy Attorney General Laurence H. Silberman has been designated by the President to act as his counsel in ~~dealing with both the Senate and the House~~ select committees. It is Mr. Clarke's opinion that Mr. Silberman will act in this capacity only as long as he remains Deputy Attorney General.

It is the feeling of Senator Church at this time that all staff employees of the SSC will be afforded "Q" clearances. (issued by the successor to the Atomic Energy Commission.) However, there is some question as to whether this in fact will be true and Clarke hopes to get further clarification on this point.

Mr. Colby advised Senator Church that CIA requires all employees to sign a CIA secrecy agreement. It is Mr. Colby's intention, as he did in the case of the Rockefeller Commission, to issue an agency notice to all employees releasing them from their obligation under the secrecy agreement in the event an employee is called before the SSC. Additionally, Mr. Colby intends to write a letter to the SSC advising it that he has so relieved CIA employees from this obligation. (Attached is a draft copy of an Agency notice circulated within CIA. Also attached is a copy of the letter Mr. Colby forwarded to the Honorable Nelson A. Rockefeller advising the Rockefeller Commission that he was relieving Agency employees from any obligation under the secrecy agreement.)

Inasmuch as the Bureau requires all employees to complete a secrecy agreement, the Intelligence Division believes that the Legal Counsel Division should review what action, if any, the Bureau should take in anticipation of FBI personnel being called to testify.

With regard to deleting the names of Agents and confidential sources from documents furnished to the SSC, Senator Church agreed that this would be acceptable providing he or members of his staff could consult with officials of the submitting agency if it was deemed necessary that the names of Agents or sources had to be revealed.

RE: SENSTUDY 75

During the Colby/Church meeting, Church advised that he anticipates asking all agencies and departments of the intelligence community for the following three items as their initial request: 1) Organizational charts, broken down to a branch level, going back as far as 1947; 2) Copies of all budgets since 1947; and 3) Documents reflecting all cash flows since 1947.

With regard to items 2 and 3, Mr. Clarke indicated that he will seek clarification with regard to budget and cash flow submission and will hopefully have additional information for members of the Group in the near future as to exactly what the SSC desires.

During the course of the meeting of the Group, Mr. Clarke advised that the Bureau should consider advising Mr. Colby of any "bad apples" that are uncovered during the Bureau's investigation of staff personnel. This was not intended to try to eliminate a candidate as a staff employee where there is some derogatory information but if the Bureau develops very substantial information indicating the subject is a definite security risk, it is conceivable that Mr. Colby could at least discuss that individual's possible employment with Senator Church to prevent the Committee from hiring anyone that could later prove embarrassing to the SSC.

Prior to the adjournment of the meeting of the Group, Mr. Clarke queried all members as to what provisions they have made for handling the onslaught of paper and requests he anticipates all agencies will receive from the SSC. As an example, CIA has had to Xerox over 15,000 pages of CIA documents in the last ten days in response to requests from the Rockefeller Commission. Clarke feels strongly that each agency should develop a task force within their ranks supplemented by stenographic personnel to prepare themselves for what he believes will be very extensive requests from the SSC with relatively short deadlines.

AGENCY NOTICE

As you are aware, the President on 4 January 1975 established a Commission on CIA Activities Within the United States to look into allegations that certain Agency activities conducted within this country exceeded our charter and statutory authority.

Upon completion of its inquiry, the Commission will issue its findings and submit recommendations to the President and to the Director of Central Intelligence.

The President has directed that the Agency extend support and assistance to the Commission, and I have pledged my cooperation to the Commission and its Staff.

I have also told the Commission that any current employee of the Agency is available to the Commission and its Staff for discussions.

The Agency and the Commission Staff have now developed sufficient working experience so that we can design additional procedures to facilitate the Staff's work in examining topics of concern.

All members of the Commission Staff have received security clearances and have been given badges providing them with access to Agency offices in the Washington, D. C. area.

The Commission Staff will, during their inquiries in CIA Headquarters Area Offices, be given access to Agency files related to the Commission's fields of responsibility. The use of specific sensitive data from these files in any unclassified report by the Commission will be subject to consultation between the Director and the Commission.

To facilitate interviews by the Commission Staff Officers with CIA employees, I have advised the Commission that employees are authorized to furnish classified information with certain exceptions. My letter to the Vice President, the Chairman of the Commission, is attached. It sets forth guidelines for the furnishing of classified information.

The cooperative spirit of our relationship with the Commission and its Staff must at the same time take account of the rights of Agency employees. Like other citizens, they have the right to remain silent. The Commission Staff will advise employees of their rights at the beginning of any interview or other appearance.

My own belief, after careful review of all activities in question, is that legal action will not be taken against individuals. The final decision, however, must rest with the Department of Justice and other legal authorities and risk of such action is a judgment each employee must make for himself.

When a current Agency employee is asked to be interviewed by a member of the Commission Staff, the Staff member should notify Mr. E. H. Knoche who is my assistant in charge of liaison with the Commission and its Staff.

Mr. Knoche, in turn, will ~~advise~~ NOTIFY the employee. ~~that~~ The purpose of this is in no way to inhibit the work of Staff members. It is intended to allow time for the employee to gain general legal guidance if he wants it, and to obtain security guidance from an appropriate senior officer.

Normally, we think an employee would advise his supervisor or other Agency authorities on the nature of the interview. It should be understood, however, that this is not mandatory.

In arranging the interviews, I am acutely aware of the need to avoid the appearance as well as the fact of collusion between Agency and employee. None of us has any intention to fabricate or mislead. I am convinced that being forthcoming~~, while perhaps embarrassing in a few details,~~ will ~~on the whole,~~ vindicate the Agency and its eminent service to our country.

In keeping with my long-standing policy, employees with any knowledge of activities conducted within the United States, now or in the past, which they believe to be of a questionable nature can follow the customary practice within the Agency of calling the matter to my attention or that of the Inspector General. This will ensure my ability to continue to be forthcoming with all those involved in external reviews of Agency activities.

Employees should also feel free to bring any such matters directly to the attention of the Commission or the Commission Staff outside of Agency channels if they so desire. In doing so, however, employees should bear in mind that the Commission's field of interest is CIA activities within this country.

To contact the Commission, employees can call the Executive Director, Mr. David Belin on 456-7010 or the Counsel, Mr. Marvin Gray, Jr., on 456-7014. The mail address is:

The Honorable Nelson A. Rockefeller
Chairman, Commission on CIA Activities

Dear Mr. Vice President:

As you are aware, all employees of the Central Intelligence Agency are required to sign secrecy agreements when they enter on duty. This is a condition of employment, and it requires that they keep forever secret all classified information gained during the course of their employment. The secrecy agreement further requires that they may not disclose classified information in interviews or by publication without prior authorization from the Director of Central Intelligence. There is a provision in the secrecy agreement that the conditions and obligations with respect to the protection of classified information by the agreement continue after employment with the Agency has been terminated.

As I have stated to the Commission, I will make available any employee of this Agency to the Commission for staff interview and for testimony before the Commission. This letter will serve as authorization for any such employees or ex-employees to furnish information as requested by the Commission or its staff on matters that may be classified. As has been discussed with the Commission, there are certain sensitive items which should receive special handling. Such items include names of sources, specific details of technical devices and systems maintained in compartmented channels by the Agency, names of employees, names of persons who may be targets of kidnapping or assassination by foreign intelligence organizations, names of organizations cooperating with the Agency, and detailed information which would pinpoint any of the above. Some information might also conflict with a subject's right of privacy.

There is no purpose here to impede in any way the Commission's investigation. I believe, however, in most cases these specific identifying names and details are not necessary for an understanding of our activities. Where the Commission or the staff believes that specific identification is necessary to the purpose of the testimony or the staff interrogation, the matter will be discussed between the Commission and the Agency, and I will be prepared to consult with you and the Commission to determine the course of action to be taken. Where in the judgment of the employee a specific identification is especially sensitive as outlined in this paragraph, an identity number will be assigned pending resolution of the matter between the Commission and the Agency, and in the meantime the identity will not be divulged by the employee.

I appreciate the cooperation of the Commission and of Agency employees in this regard. I am still responsible under the statute and as a professional for the protection of intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure. In many situations the inadvertent disclosure of a name or identification could have serious repercussions, including placing lives in jeopardy, and I cannot in good conscience put such information at risk.

This arrangement of course does not affect the Commission's procedures for advising prospective witnesses of their rights, securing waivers, nor the employee's or ex-employee's right not to answer certain questions if they are concerned that the answers might tend to incriminate them.

Respectfully,

SIGNED

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

This memorandum recommends that we keep Mr. Colby apprised, as the Director of Central Intelligence, through the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Inquiry of any proposed or completed FBI testimony before congressional committees when such FBI testimony impacts on other members of the Intelligence Community, could result in other members of the Intelligence Community being called to testify, or any questions are asked of the FBI which are of proprietary interest to another agency or department of the Intelligence Community.

The Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Inquiry, chaired by Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the United States Intelligence Board (USIB). Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before congressional hearings.

At a meeting of the USIB on 2/26/75, Chairman Colby commented on the effective manner in which the Ad Hoc Group was functioning. However, he noted that it is imperative all members of USIB be extremely sensitive to the need for prior coordination to insure that the basic interests of the Intelligence Community are served and that any testimony or documents furnished congressional committees are factual and accurate. He hoped that all members will be made aware of what other members are testifying to before a congressional committee as well as the identity of that congressional committee. Mr. Colby noted that it is highly likely that members of the Intelligence Community will be called before various congressional committees other than the Senate and House Select Committees.

or inadvertency. As an example of this coordination, Mr. Colby has furnished the Bureau and other members of the Intelligence Community the statement he plans to make as the lead-off witness before the Senate Select Committee (SSC). This statement has been reviewed by the Intelligence Division and a memorandum has been prepared which notes that there is nothing objectionable from the Bureau's standpoint in Colby's proposed statement.

A second point Colby made at the USIB meeting was his desire that all members understand that no agency representative should discuss with a congressional committee information or techniques which are of proprietary interest to another agency without prior consultation. This is certainly a valid request and we should concur. As an example, the FBI would not want the National Security Agency to discuss with a congressional committee FBI support of National Security Agency's TELEX effort without first clearing with us. Likewise, the Bureau representative should not discuss National Security Agency's exploitation of teletype traffic furnished to them by the FBI without prior coordination with NSA. Recently a congressional committee asked CIA for copies of any written agreements between FBI and CIA. CIA felt they had no alternative but to provide the committee with copies of the FBI - CIA Understanding dated 2/7/66. However, before doing so CIA did obtain FBI approval.

ACTION:

If approved, through the Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Inquiry, representatives of the Intelligence Division will keep Mr. Colby and the Intelligence Community advised of any FBI testimony before congressional committees wherein such testimony could impact on other members of the Intelligence Community, could result in other members of the Intelligence Community being called to testify, or where questions are asked which are of proprietary interest to another member of the Community.

SUBJECT: CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY (CIA) EMPLOYEE SECRECY AGREEMENTS

0 Sen. Study - 75

Concerning a news article appearing in the 2/28/75 edition of the Washington Post newspaper (copy attached) entitled "Colby Will Lift CIA Secrecy Pledge to Cooperate With Senate Probe," the Director noted "Can we determine what the agreement includes?"

On 3/4/75 Mr. Steve Kuhn, Office of Security, CIA, advised that all CIA employees prior to commencing employment with that Agency are required to execute an "Entrance on Duty Secrecy Agreement" and upon terminating their Agency employment are requested to execute a "Termination Secrecy Agreement" (copies of both attached). Briefly, these agreements require that CIA employees keep forever secret all classified information gained during the course of their employment. Both agreements further require that CIA employees may not disclose classified information during interviews or by publication without prior authority from the Director of Central Intelligence. Both agreements specifically set forth that the employee has read the provisions of the espionage laws (Sections 793, 794 and 798 of Title 18, U.S. Code), is aware that unauthorized disclosure of classified information relating to the national defense could lead to prosecution and has reviewed the provisions of the National Security Act of 1947, which specifically charges the Director of Central Intelligence with protecting intelligence sources and methods from unauthorized disclosure. In this connection, the "Termination Secrecy Agreement" notes that the employee has also read the provisions of Section 1001, Title 18, U.S. Code, and is aware that making a false statement "herein or otherwise" may be punished as a felony. The "Termination Secrecy Agreement" consists of a four-page form, pages three and four of which are entitled "Excerpts From Title 18, United States Code" and specifically sets forth the provisions of Sections 793, 794, 798, and 1001. Both Secrecy Agreements also state that the conditions and obligations with respect to the protection of classified information continue after Agency employment has terminated.

The FBI, of course, utilizes Form FD-291 "Employment Agreement," which has been executed by all current employees and must be signed by all new personnel entering on duty, to cover the foregoing situation. The "Employment Agreement" (copy attached) covers essentially the same points noted in the attached CIA Secrecy Agreements. While we do not have an exit secrecy agreement signed by the terminating employee, Form FD-193 "Report of Exit and Separation" requires (under Paragraph D, Page 2) that the exiting employee be cautioned regarding divulging confidential information and reminded that such improper action may violate Department of Justice regulations as well as Federal statutes providing for substantial fines and lengthy imprisonment or both.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. ADAMS

RE: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE
~~Inquiry re Opening of Mail by the~~ Central Intelligence Agency

On March 4, 1975, William Cotter, Chief Postal Inspector, came to see me. He said the Postmaster General has become alarmed about the opening of mail by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) for many years. Mr. Cotter went to CIA and received a listing, by year, of the activity in this regard. This list further stimulated the alarm of the Postmaster General.

Mr. Cotter advised that he had known of this project since the 1950s when he was assigned to New York as an Inspector. He said that several of the Postmaster Generals were informed of the project and no protest was made. He said the general feeling was that these were possible enemies of the nation and, therefore, the method was considered as necessary. The present Postmaster General feels the procedure might be highly criticized, and Mr. Cotter came to me to get my assurance no such activity was now going on. I informed him it is not.

Mr. Cotter further asked me if we knew it was going on and did we actually receive the benefits of it. I informed him we knew of it and did get information on the procedure from CIA.

I then told Mr. Cotter I thought he should be joined in the group of investigative organizations, headed by Mr. Colby, Director of CIA, to consider our actions in the Select Committee's probe. Mr. Cotter said they had been invited to the first meeting, but to none since.

Assistant Director Wannall should check to make sure they are included and we should confirm to Mr. Cotter that his organization has been established as a participant.

On this date, SA Alonzo L. Lacey of the Intelligence Division delivered the above-captioned memoranda to the Laboratory with a request to determine the make of typewriter employed in the preparation of the memoranda and the date of introduction of the type styles employed. SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

This memorandum reports the results of a meeting of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community (hereafter referred to as the Group) held on the morning of 2/14/75 at CIA Headquarters.

The Group chaired by Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the United States Intelligence Board (USIB). Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before various congressional meetings.

At the meeting of the Group on 2/14/75 several items of interest were discussed. They were:

(1) A Secrecy Agreement (copy attached) was presented to Mr. William Miller, Staff Director of the Senate Select Committee (SSC), with therequest that all staff employees of the Committee, which may number as high as 40, be requested to sign. Miller was rather cool to the suggestion and indicated that the SSC and Senator Church would take it under advisement. It is to be noted that this draft of the Secrecy Agreement was prepared by the Security Committee of USIB in concert with Mr. Kevin T. Maroney, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Department of Justice. Although this was considered the final draft of the Secrecy Agreement, the Treasury representative on the Group was hopeful additional language could be incorporated into the Agreement to cover other than classified information such as the confidentiality of Internal Revenue returns.

(2) Memorandum Cregar to Wannall, dated 2/4/75, advised that Mr. Colby, in his role as the Director of Central Intelligence, had been instructed by the White House to identify what information the Intelligence Community felt could not under any circumstances be discussed with a congressional committee.

Attached is a copy of the paper Colby provided to the White House responsive to this request. It does encompass recommendations of member agencies of the Group including the FBI.

At a subsequent meeting Mr. Colby had with unidentified persons at the White House, the above list was discussed. Colby recommended the Intelligence Community had three options to deny a congressional committee sensitive information. They were: (A) to refuse providing sensitive information to a congressional committee and face the possibility of a contempt citation, (B) have the President refuse to authorize the release of such information, presumably through the exercise of Executive Privilege, or (C) the President could call the majority and minority leaders of the congressional committee to the White House, furnish to them the answer to the question with the added caveat that they were the only persons being informed of the answers and, therefore, would be personally accountable for any leak of information. Representatives of the White House were not very enthusiastic to the options put forth by Mr. Colby and indicated that they would be calling a meeting at the White House of senior officials of the Department of Defense, Justice Department, CIA and the FBI to review what position the Intelligence Community should take in responding to a request for extremely sensitive and highly classified information.

(3) Members of the Group were allowed to read an internal memorandum from Mr. David W. Belin, Executive Director of the Commission on CIA Activities Within the U. S. (The Rockefeller Commission), to Mr. Philip Buchen, Counsel to the President. This memorandum reports the results of a conversation between Mr. Belin and Mr. William Miller, Chief of Staff for the SSC. The memorandum revealed that Miller believes that within two weeks his staff will be in three-quarters gear. He plans to have a total staff of about 40, 10 to 12 of whom will be lawyers. The initial work of the staff will concentrate on a review of documents, interviews, and what Miller called "depositions." Miller does not plan to have any hearings of the SSC for several months and believes the September deadline could not be met, rather that the investigation would take at least the rest of the year.

62-116395

Bellin's memorandum also noted that the thrust of the SSC's investigation will include the whole range of intelligence gathering agencies; will delve into the basic matters of policy, including whether or not there is a need for all of the agencies; what the results are; related public policy matters, as well as rights of privacy.

Miller also advised Bellin that the SSC would operate out of a room referred to as "the auditorium," which Miller thought gave the best security. He said there would be rigid standards imposed to seal off any leaks. These standards would include having everything in a central filing area with a specific check-out system permitted to particular people so that if leaks occurred the source of such leaks could be readily ascertained. Xeroxing would be severely limited. In response to a question from Bellin to Miller as to why the Senate and House did not create a joint Senate/House committee as opposed to individual Senate and House Select Committees, Miller advised that it was too difficult to arrange because of matters of protocol.

It is noted that although a House Select Committee is being formed with basically the same charter as the SSC, no chairman of the House Select Committee has been designated and the Group estimates that it will be a month before the House Select Committee can get started.

SUBJECT: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Pursuant to request of Mr. Adams, Liaison Officer L.F. Schwartz contacted Mr. John Clark of the Intelligence Community Staff on 2/11/75 with regard to suggested security procedures for the handling of classified information by the Select Committee.

Mr. Clark advised that on 2/10/75 he had met personally with Mr. William Miller who has been designated to head the Select Committee Staff. He stated that he discussed with Mr. Miller the proposed guidelines for security and the proposed secrecy agreement for staff members and furnished Miller with copies of both these items. Mr. Clark stated that Miller was generally receptive to the proposed guidelines and felt that they would be acceptable subject to the approval of Senator Church. Mr. Miller was decidedly cool concerning the idea of staff members signing a secrecy agreement but indicated that a final decision regarding this would be made by Senator Church.

Mr. Clark stated that he raised two specific questions which Mr. Colby considers most important with regard to any presentation made to the Select Committee. He advised Miller that the Intelligence Community would desire to not identify specific agents or the details of sensitive operations which might reveal the identities of sensitive sources. Mr. Miller was agreeable to this and foresaw no problem with the Select Committee accepting this proposal. Secondly, Mr. Clark advised Mr. Miller that Mr. Colby, speaking for the Intelligence Community, was opposed to having any dealings with staff members of the various Senators and Representatives other than those assigned to work directly under Mr. Miller as part of the Select Committee Staff. Mr. Miller stated that this was also acceptable to him and he assured Mr. Clark that all of his staff members would be subject to an FBI background investigation and the issuance of a security clearance by CIA.

RE: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

During the conversation with Mr. Clark he advised further that it is not the intention of Mr. Colby to use as any part of the CIA's defense for alleged domestic activities the allegation that such activities were undertaken because the FBI had failed or was unwilling to carry out its responsibilities in the domestic area. Mr. Clark noted that he is aware that there have been references to such a claim in the newspapers but he assured SA Schwartz that Mr. Colby does not support this position in any way. Mr. Clark volunteered to arrange a personal meeting between Mr. Colby and an appropriate FBI official to discuss this point, if the Bureau so desired.

This memorandum reports that on 2/14/75 Mr. John Clarke, Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community, telephonically advised Section Chief, W. O. Cregar, the Bureau's representative on this Group, that Mr. Samuel R. Preston, Senior Staff Member of the House Appropriations Committee, requested that CIA provide the House Appropriations Committee with any written agreements between CIA and the FBI.

The Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the U. S. Intelligence Board. Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before various congressional committees.

On the late afternoon of 2/14/75, Mr. John Clarke, telephonically advised Mr. Cregar that he had received a telephone call from Mr. Samuel R. Preston. The purpose of the call was to request any written agreements that existed between the CIA and the FBI. Clarke advised the only written agreement he could identify existing between the FBI and CIA was one dated 2/7/66 (copy attached).

Clarke stated that inasmuch as he had gotten this specific request from Mr. Preston he felt CIA had no alternative but to provide a copy of the Agreement to him. However, Clarke wanted to be sure the FBI concurred in this action.

EX-101

Subsequent to Mr. Clarke's call, Mr. Adams telephonically contacted Deputy Attorney General Laurence Silberman and explained the problem to him. Mr. Silberman authorized the release of a copy of the FBI - CIA Agreement to Mr. Preston. On the afternoon of 2/14/75 Mr. Cregar advised Mr. Clarke that the FBI interposed no objection to the release of a copy of the 1966 Agreement to Mr. Preston.

Honorable Hugh Scott
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Scott:

We have received the letter of January 27, 1975, with enclosure, from you and Senator Mike Mansfield which requests that we not destroy or otherwise dispose of any records or documents relating to a forthcoming Senate investigation of intelligence activities.

Our procedures regarding the destruction of documents in our files are governed by the Federal Records Act of 1950 and regulations of the National Archives and Records Service. It is our current policy to destroy all records over twenty-five years old pertaining to subversive activities which were based on unsubstantiated allegations and did not result in prosecutive action. In addition, all criminal files over ten years old are reduced to microfilm and the original records are destroyed. We also destroy the duplicate copies of all documents when these copies no longer serve a useful purpose.

SUBJECT: DESTRUCTION OF FILES AND RECORDS
FILES AND COMMUNICATIONS DIVISION

As you are aware, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield and Republican Leader Hugh Scott, in a letter to the Director dated 1-27-75, requested the Bureau not to destroy, remove from our possession or control, or otherwise dispose or permit the disposal of any records or documents which might have a bearing on subject's under investigation proposed by Senate. Accordingly, Files and Communications Division is holding in abeyance any destruction program previously approved by statute or regulation and has issued instructions to all field offices and Legats to do likewise until clarification of above request is received. Recommend Office of Legal Counsel prepare letter to Senators Mansfield and Scott asking clarification of their request and whether or not it includes existing destruction procedures previously approved by the Archivist of the United States.

Regulations of the National Archives and Records Service (NARS), General Services Administration, which are based on Title 44, Chapter 33, Sections 3301 and 3302, U. S. Code, govern the type of material which we must maintain. NARS regulations also govern what material may be destroyed. Record material is described as including "all books, papers, maps, photographs, or other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics, made or received by an agency of the U. S. Government under Federal law or in connection with the transaction of public business and preserved or appropriate for preservation by that agency or its legitimate successor as evidence of the organization, functions, policies, decisions, procedures, operations, or other activities of the Government or because of the information value of data contained therein." Our destruction programs are conducted in compliance with NARS regulations to conserve space and manpower. In those instances where we have more than one copy of a communication, it is our policy to file only the original of the communication and to destroy any copies when they no longer serve a useful purpose. Memo Hauer to LaPrade
Re: Destruction of Files and Records
Files and Communications Division

Identification Division has purge-type projects in both the criminal and civil fingerprint files involving the destruction of certain fingerprint cards and related name index cards, primarily duplicate-type cards on persons considered inactive because of age.

Insofar as destruction of material by Files and Communications Division is concerned, files, index cards, and related material over 25 years old maintained at FBI Headquarters pertaining to unfounded allegations of subversive activities, membership in subversive organizations, subversive sympathies and tendencies on the part of individuals and organizations are approved for destruction by NARS when investigations revealed allegations predicated upon rumor, nebulous complaints and nonspecific allegations from which no prosecutive action occurred. Archival authority has been obtained to destroy FBI Headquarters files in connection with Interstate Transportation of Stolen Motor Vehicles cases, Selective Service Act cases, Destruction of Aircraft or Motor Vehicles cases (provided no prosecution results from the inquiries conducted and the case had been closed ten years); and Archival authority has been obtained for destruction of files at FBI Headquarters in unknown subject cases in which there was no criminal prosecution (no time limit set regarding the destruction of unknown subject cases).

In addition to the above authority for the outright destruction of FBI Headquarters records, Archival authority has also been obtained to microfilm any closed criminal file after the case has been closed for ten or more years. Thereafter, the paper records may be destroyed. We currently have on hand 38,601 index cards to be destroyed which pertain to paper record material which has been destroyed previously under NARS regulations and authority.

In addition, personnel files concerning employees who have been separated more than one year are reviewed and temporary records contained therein which no longer serve a useful purpose are purged and only those permanent records as described in the Federal Personnel Manual are retained in the official personnel folder.

Also files, index cards and related material, over 15 years old, maintained at FBI Headquarters relating to laboratory examinations requested by various local, state and Federal law enforcement organizations in cases other than FBI cases wherein positive identification was not effected are also purged. These files no longer possess sufficient reference or evidentiary value to merit retention.

Administrative and noninvestigative records maintained in the various field offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are purged also. This material is retained in the field offices until necessary action has been taken or it has served its purpose.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Office of Legal Counsel prepare an appropriate reply to Senators Mansfield and Scott to determine if their request not to destroy records and documents was intended to include the destruction programs enumerated above.

Discuss with SSC staff.

Dear Senator Mansfield:

We have received the letter of January 27, 1975, with enclosure, from you and Senator Hugh Scott which requests that we not destroy or otherwise dispose of any records or documents relating to a forthcoming Senate investigation of intelligence activities.

Our procedures regarding the destruction of documents in our files are governed by the Federal Records Act of 1950 and regulations of the National Archives and Records Service. It is our current policy to destroy all records over twenty-five years old pertaining to subversive activities which were based on unsubstantiated allegations and did not result in prosecutive action. Resolved, That (a) there is hereby established a select committee of the Senate which may be called, for convenience of expression, the Select Committee To Study Governmental Operations With Respect to Intelligence Activities to conduct an investigation and study of the extent, if any, to which illegal, improper, or unethical activities were engaged in by any agency or by any persons, acting either individually or in combination with others, in carrying out any intelligence or surveillance activities by or on behalf of any agency of the Federal Government.

(b) The select committee created by this resolution shall consist of eleven members of the Senate, six to be appointed by the President of the Senate from the majority members of the Senate upon the recommendation of the majority leader of the Senate, and five minority members of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the Senate upon the recommendation of the minority leader of the Senate. For the purposes of paragraph 6 of rule XXV of the Standing Rules of the Senate, service of a Senator as a member, chairman, or vice chairman of the select committee shall not be taken into account.

(c) The majority members of the committee shall select a chairman and the minority members shall select a vice chairman and the committee shall adopt rules and procedures to govern its proceedings. The vice chairman shall preside over meetings of the select committee during the absence of the chairman, and discharge such other responsibilities as may be assigned to him by the select committee or the chairman. Vacancies in the membership of the select committee shall not affect the authority of the remaining members to execute the functions of the select committee and shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments to it are made.

(d) A majority of the members of the select committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but the select committee may affix a lesser number as a quorum for the purpose of taking testimony or depositions.

SEC. 2. The select committee is authorized and directed to do everything necessary or appropriate to make the investigations and study specified in subsection (a) of the first section. Without abridging in any way the authority conferred upon the select committee by the preceding sentence, the Senate further expressly authorizes and directs the select committee to make a complete investigation and study of the activities of any agency or of any and all persons or groups of persons or organizations of any kind which have any tendency to reveal the full facts with respect to the following matters or questions:

(1) Whether the Central Intelligence Agency has conducted an illegal domestic intelligence operation in the United States.

(2) The conduct of domestic intelligence or counterintelligence operations against United States citizens by the Federal Bureau of Investigation or any other Federal agency.

(3) The origin and disposition of the so-called Huston Plan to apply United States intelligence agency capabilities against individuals or organizations within the United States.

(4) The extent to which the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Central Intelligence Agency, and other Federal law enforcement or intelligence agencies coordinate their respective activities, any agreements which govern that coordination, and the extent to which a lack of coordination has contributed to activities or actions which are illegal, improper, inefficient, unethical, or contrary to the intent of Congress.

(5) The extent to which the operation of domestic intelligence or counterintelligence activities and the operation of any other activities within the United States by the Central Intelligence Agency conforms to the legislative charter of that Agency and the intent of the Congress.

(6) The past and present interpretation by the Director of Central Intelligence of the responsibility to protect intelligence sources and methods as it relates to the provision in section 102(d)(3) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 403(d)(3)) that "... that the agency shall have no police, subpena, law enforcement powers, or internal security functions...."

(7) Nature and extent of executive branch oversight of all United States intelligence activities.

(8) The need for specific legislative authority to govern the operations of any intelligence agencies of the Federal Government now existing without that explicit statutory authority, including but not limited to agencies such as the Defense Intelligence Agency and the National Security Agency.

The nature and extent to which Federal agencies cooperate and exchange intelligence information and the adequacy of any regulations or statutes which govern such cooperation and exchange of intelligence information.

(9) The extent to which United States intelligence agencies are governed by Executive orders, rules, or regulations either published or secret and the extent to which those Executive orders, rules, or regulations interpret, expand, or are in conflict with specific legislative authority.

(10) The violation or suspected violation of any

State or Federal statute by any intelligence agency or by any person by or on behalf of any intelligence agency of the Federal Government including but not limited to surreptitious entries, surveillance, wiretaps, or eavesdropping, illegal opening of the United States mail, or the monitoring of the United States mail.

(11) The need for improved, strengthened, or consolidated oversight of United States intelligence activities by the Congress.

(12) Whether any of the existing laws of the United States are inadequate, either in their provisions or manner of enforcement, to safeguard the rights of American citizens, to improve executive and legislative control of intelligence and related activities, and to resolve uncertainties as to the authority of United States intelligence and related agencies.

(13) Whether there is unnecessary duplication of expenditure and effort in the collection and processing of intelligence information by United States agencies.

(14) The extent and necessity of overt and covert intelligence activities in the United States and abroad.

(15) Such other related matters as the committee deems necessary in order to carry out its responsibilities under section (a).

SEC. 3. (a) To enable the select committee to make the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution, the Senate hereby empowers the select committee as an agency of the Senate (1) to employ and fix the compensation of such clerical, investigatory, legal, technical, and other assistants as it deems necessary or appropriate, but it may not exceed the normal Senate salary schedules; (2) to sit and act at any time or place during sessions, recesses, and adjournment periods of the Senate; (3) to hold hearings for taking testimony on oath or to receive documentary or physical evidence relating to the matters and questions it is authorized to investigate or study; (4) to require by subpena or otherwise the attendance as witnesses of any persons who the select committee believes have knowledge or information concerning any of the matters or questions it is authorized to investigate and study; (5) to require by subpena or order any department, agency, officer, or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government, or any private person, firm, or corporation, to produce for its consideration or for use as evidence in its investigation and study any books, checks, canceled checks, correspondence, communications, document, papers, physical evidence, records, recordings, tapes, or materials relating to any of the matters or questions it is authorized to investigate and study which they or any of them may have in their custody or under their control; (6) to make to the

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

This memorandum recommends that a paper entitled "The Role of Counterintelligence" be furnished to Mr. Colby as the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) for inclusion as an annex in a series of annexes Mr. Colby intends to provide the Senate Select Committee (SSC) on the occasion of his appearance as the leadoff witness. The FBI was given the responsibility for preparing this paper by the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community.

The Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community is made up of representatives of agencies and departments having membership on the U. S. Intelligence Board (USIB). Its purpose is to serve as a coordinating mechanism for future testimony before various Congressional committees.

Enclosed herewith is a paper prepared by the Intelligence Division entitled "The Role of Counterintelligence." It is a basic paper and describes what counterintelligence means from an intelligence community viewpoint. It incorporates a considerable amount of input from the CIA, as well as from the Intelligence Division of the FBI. The paper has been circulated as a draft to representatives of CIA, DIA, Army, Navy, Air Force and NSA, All have concurred in its content and have recommended it be furnished to Mr. Colby for use as an annex in connection with his forthcoming appearance before the SSC.

THE ROLE OF COUNTERINTELLIGENCE

Counterintelligence is an integral part of our national defense. By definition and by its very nature counterintelligence is a defensive posture to the extent that it reacts primarily to intelligence initiatives of hostile intelligence services. As any good defense, however, it cannot be static or passive. It is based upon knowledge of this country's adversaries; it seeks out and engages hostile agents and the intelligence services that employ them. The national counterintelligence defense, in other words, requires both sound preventive measures and an energetic and sustained counterattack.

The purpose of defensive and aggressive counterintelligence is to ensure that adversaries who do not want to risk open confrontation cannot attain the same objectives through stealth. In more concrete terms, the purpose of counterintelligence is to identify and neutralize spies and their masters who serve our opponents.

Spycatching, by itself, is not enough, because spies are replaceable. American counterintelligence must also know who sent the spies and who supported and directed their work in this country and in friendly nations. And beyond identifying these agent handlers--the officers of the KGB and other such clandestine communist organizations--our counterintelligence must know how these people are motivated, recruited, trained, structured, rewarded, and punished. We need to know how they communicate with each other--from New York or Washington, for example, to Moscow or Prague. In short, we need to know everything we can find out about them, as individuals and as organizations. And finally, what we know must be shared appropriately with other services equally concerned.

This need is even more acute today than in the 1950s and 1960s. We know from hard experience that the clandestine communist services always increase the range and the intensity of their operations during periods of Western relaxation, when the openness and multiplicity of exchanges provide favorable conditions and opportunities for launching intelligence operations against our country.

The growth in communist-bloc intelligence representation over the past several years, not only in the United States but also throughout the rest of the world, is statistically and operationally demonstrable. For convenient reference there is attached to this paper a fact sheet documenting this growth based on information recorded by the CIA and FBI. In considering the number of communist-bloc nationals posted to official establishments outside their countries, it is important to recognize that a substantial proportion of these are intelligence officers. These officers have a primary mission to conduct intelligence operations and official duties involved in their cover positions, if required at all, are secondary and serve mainly to legitimize their cover. In the Soviet case, it is an estimate accepted by the United States intelligence community that at least 40 per cent of the officials are intelligence officers. Indeed, some defector sources have estimated that 70 per cent to 80 per cent of Soviet officials have some intelligence connection, although this figure includes officials who act only in a minimal support capacity and only occasionally.

The most effective way to achieve the counterintelligence purpose is to recruit personnel from hostile secret services. It is also the hardest of counterintelligence tasks, a goal usually requiring years of close study and meticulous planning. Even if the effort succeeds, we cannot accept at face value what the penetration source tells us. His reports must be most carefully crosschecked against everything known from all other sources. Otherwise we may be duped by an adversary who uses "our" agent to tell us what he wants us to hear.

If there is no penetration of the adversary, or none at the level of seniority, all the other sources (hostile agents whom we have detected and "doubled," intercepted communications, defectors, etc.) become all the more important.

If counterintelligence is to identify and then contain or control secret action directed against the United States, it must be closely coordinated. The adversary services do not run uncoordinated, haphazard operations against us. All their major programs of espionage, counterespionage, subversion, sabotage, deception, and disinformation are intertwined. For example, a computer program designed to keep track of CIA personnel at home and abroad was planned in the Soviet Union, is maintained in Czechoslovakia, and draws upon information from East Germany, Hungary, and elsewhere. Another example: information from multiple defector sources indicates that the Cuban security service, the DGI, since 1968-69, has agreed to operate against the United States and American intelligence in areas where the Soviets are at an operational disadvantage.

A second reason why United States counterintelligence must be coordinated is the need for effective liaison with counterintelligence services abroad. No one Western service can cope by itself with the worldwide, centrally directed, attack of the Soviets, the bloc (including the Cubans), and the whole array of Communist Party auxiliaries. A counterintelligence defense which stops at a border is no defense at all.

The work within our borders is equally essential to our safety. Because the United States continues to be the main site of hostile clandestine operations, it is also the main site of American counterintelligence.

Both forms of counterintelligence--the security of our own operations and the penetration of operations against us--have to be sustained if the Director of Central Intelligence is to be able to protect United States intelligence methods and sources, as required by law.

Counterintelligence has three values which flow from its functions. The value of its security function is that it prevents our adversaries from gaining information that the United States Government does not want to make public. Counterintelligence cannot perform this security role by rote and routines. And it cannot depend entirely upon guards, safes, and other passive measures. It must be active to prevent the subversion of those people to whom the United States Government has entrusted its classified information. Some of these persons are members in American intelligence and counterintelligence organizations.[1]

It must also prevent leakage of sensitive United States information from foreign services to whom American secrets are necessarily confided as a matter of common concern but which in turn have been penetrated by enemy agents.[2]

The value of what might be called an anticipatory defense is not always evident because when it succeeds, nothing happens. It is like preventive medicine. Its value becomes dramatically clear only when it fails.

The second value of counterintelligence is that it provides information about hostile clandestine intentions and capabilities. This information is the more valuable if our adversaries do not know that we have it.

Finally, the third value of counterintelligence is the large amount of straight intelligence obtained as a by-product by counterintelligence agents in the normal course of their business.

[1] Some specific and subsequently publicized examples of Soviet success in the recruitment of American officials, in most cases exposed and frustrated by the FBI, are: Nelson Drummond (1962), Jack Dunlap (1963), William Whelan (1963), Robert Johnson (1965), Herbert Boeckenhaupt (1966), and Ulysis Harris (1967).

[2] There may be cited here some of the completed counter-intelligence cases which resulted in the identification and suppression of high-level Soviet penetrations of Western intelligence services and which were directly attributable to CIA counterintelligence work: George Blake (UK - 1961), Heinz Felfe (West Germany - 1961), Harold Adrian Russell ("Kim") Philby (UK - 1963), George Paques (France - 1964), Giorgio Rinaldi Ghislieri (Italy, Spain - 1967), Yuriy Loginov (South Africa - 1967), Nahit Imre (Turkey - 1968), and Francis Roussilhe (France - 1969).

All United States governmental components have some individual internal responsibility for the security of personnel, records, and physical facilities. Aside from these basic security functions, the overall counterintelligence role in the United States Government is shared by several specific intelligence agencies. The conduct of counterintelligence overseas is one of CIA's original functions flowing from the National Security Act of 1947, as amended, and specifically spelled out and developed in a series of National Security Council Intelligence Directives. The FBI has the general responsibility for conduct of counterintelligence operations within the United States based on statutory responsibilities (enforcement of espionage, sabotage, neutrality, registration acts, and related matters) as well as a series of Presidential Directives and Attorney General orders.

Success of United States counterintelligence is proportionate to the extent to which it exists as an integrated, unified concept with fullest coordination among the separate agencies. It did not exist as such until World War II; and only small progress was made after that war, despite the National Security Act of 1947. An integrated system first began to take shape in 1958, when the National Security Council moved directly into the problem. Intelligence and counterintelligence directives which established the basic ground rules were formulated and placed in effect. As a result the United States has a set of counterintelligence concepts and precepts that organize our experience and hold us together. Throughout the recent years interagency coordination and cooperation have become a working reality, becoming more and more effective as the level of coordination continues to rise.

The effectiveness of counterintelligence also requires recognition of its separateness as a function. In CIA and elsewhere, before the mid-1950s, counterintelligence was often identified only with security and the ad hoc exchange of limited amounts of information in liaison. It was sometimes regarded as an adjunct to other specialities, usually espionage. This subordination degraded the function to its lowest level, to such necessary but elementary work as nametracing and operational bookkeeping. But these are only the elementary building blocks of the masonry of counterintelligence. If it is restricted to nothing more than that, American counterintelligence will inevitably degenerate to parochialism and departmentalism. It will not be responsive to a central and vital philosophy. It will tend to yield the initiative to the adversary and to the writing of damage reports after we have been hurt instead of seeking the adversary out and engaging him before he can hurt us.

In summary, the value of counterintelligence as an integral part of national defense requires a continuity of doctrine, an organization of experience, and must be sustained by a full-time, experienced cadre of specialists with continuing emphasis on interagency understanding and coordination.

FACT SHEET
COMMUNIST-BLOC INTELLIGENCE REPRESENTATION

There are presently 667 intelligence and security services operating throughout the world.

The 13 countries comprising the Soviet Union and other communist states, including Cuba, operate 52 services of domestic and foreign intelligence and security. Some 23 of these work outside their own frontiers. The principal service in action throughout the world against the United States and Americans--which our highest grade documentary sources confirm are termed "The Main Enemy" (Glavny Vrag)--is the Soviet State Security Service (KGB), together with Soviet military intelligence, the GRU, headed by a senior KGB officer.

Soviet intelligence representation in the Free World has been massively increasing for at least the past 16 years, as the following data show:

Year	Persons
1959	1,500
1966	2,490
1971	2,106
January, 1974	3,100 (est.)

The Central Committee of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and the Soviet intelligence services also direct communist parties--or, more accurately, certain sections of and individuals in such parties--for purposes of espionage and subversion abroad. During the period 1969-73, Soviet funding of non-bloc communist parties showed actual and estimated annual costs to be almost $17 million. But we do not have the quality of sources that would guarantee this as anything but a minimal figure.

The scope of the clandestine attack upon the United States is suggested by the number of identifiable recruitment approaches made to Americans by Soviet, bloc, Cuban, and Chinese services during the 9 years from 1965 through 1973, which totals 742. This averages out to 82 per year, or better than one recruitment attempt per week. These are the things we know. Our primary concerns now are those recruitment approaches that have been successful and where there has been no volunteering of information.

SUBJECT: SELECT COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE

This communication is Secret - Sensitive since the information herein and in the attachments has been so classified by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). (S)

On 2/6/75 the writer was furnished the attached material by Mr. William E. Colby, Director of Central Intelligence, during a meeting in his office which was also attended by Lt. General Lew Allen, Director of the National Security Agency (NSA). General Allen was provided copies of the same material. It includes a three-page statement containing a listing of categories of activities of subject matters that require stringent protection during testimony before the captioned Committee by any members of the U.S. Intelligence Community. The FBI had input in connection with the compilation of this information and the material we furnished has been included. (S)

Also among the material is a copy of a statement which Mr. Colby is hopeful of securing permission to present at the very beginning of the Select Committee hearings in order that he can emphasize the importance of and need for intelligence operations, ~~its processes~~, the processes for collection of intelligence, how they are controlled and overseen, why there is an overriding need for secrecy in certain areas and what Congress can do to enhance U.S. intelligence collections. (S)

The third paper lists eleven papers which Mr. Colby intends to turn over to the Committee whether or not he is permitted to make his opening statement. These papers supplement his statement and have been the subject of previous memoranda. The FBI has prepared the last two papers listed and is coordinating with all other interested Intelligence Community members to assure that all of the papers will be in such form as not to conflict with Bureau interests. Memorandum to Mr. Adams instances of failure or error that may have occurred in the past be understood in context. He states we cannot operate effectively without more precise provisions in the law to protect our secrets. (S)

Referring on page 5 specifically to the FBI, he notes that intelligence collection on a worldwide basis contributes to our internal security. The efforts of foreign nations to penetrate our society and to manipulate our citizens are well documented. There are several hundred foreign members of the KGB and intelligence operatives in this country seeking information about the United States and its plans and their efforts must be met by an intensive counterintelligence effort. He states "Within the United States, this is the function of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Abroad, it is CIA's responsibility to identify the foreign agent before he arrives in America or to learn of the plans of foreign groups to try to subvert our institutions. To this traditional danger has been added a new threat of international terrorism. CIA's foreign and the FBI's domestic intelligence activities have collaborated to frustrate several plans to bring to America and its citizens the kind of hijacking and indiscriminate terrorist bombings that characterize too many areas of the world." (S)

Beginning at page 7, Mr. Colby undertakes to explain the processes of collecting intelligence and on page 10 briefly goes into the roles of the various intelligence components and the legislative bases for their activities. For example, he states the intelligence roles of the other members of the Intelligence Community in part stem from the 1947 Act and in part from separate legislation, such as that charging the FBI with responsibility for internal security, which I consider a correct statement. (S)

On page 11, he notes that all intelligence elements operate within legal authority and are given further direction by the National Security Council, but (page 13) "each of us in the Intelligence Community takes full personal responsibility for the actions recommended or taken in conformance with such general guidance and policy." (S)

He explains the role of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board (PFIAB) whose "members are an impressive group of responsible Americans who report their independent views of the accomplishments and weaknesses of the Intelligence Community directly to the President." (S)

Following this, he notes that in addition to responding to various Congressional committees, the National Security Council and the PFIAB, all of which exercise oversight-type functions, the (S) intelligence agencies are exposed to audit-type functions exercised by the Office of Management and Budget, internal audit systems, the General Accounting Office, and the Director of Central Intelligence. (S)

On page 14, after referring to the manner in which the Intelligence Community functions through a series of committees and boards, Mr. Colby states that the work of such committees and boards is limited to foreign intelligence,"as internal security falls solely within the jurisdiction of the FBI. The FBI participates in the Intelligence Community effort, however, so that any contributions that foreign intelligence might make to internal security can be properly handled." (S)

On page 17, Mr. Colby expresses confidence that the American people not only support but insist upon an effective intelligence apparatus to protect their security and intelligence. Thereafter, referring to Congress, on page 17, he states "Just tell us in the intelligence business what the Nation wants and does not want, and we will do our best to satisfy it. But also give us a way openly to change these rules when the Nation expects them to be changed." He then calls upon Congress to organize itself to protect the necessary secrecy of our intelligence operations while exercising its responsibility for oversight. (S)

A review of Mr. Colby's proposed statement has revealed no information which I feel would be objectionable from the Bureau's standpoint.

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Committee

This Committee's inquiry and its conclusions and recommendations can open a new era in American intelligence and even in the intelligence profession worldwide. Historically, the intelligence activities of a state have been considered an essential function, but one conducted outside normal Government processes. Indeed, one foreign official recently expressed some surprise to me that our intelligence rests upon legislation enacted by the Congress and is subject to oversight and annual appropriation by the Congress. He commented that he had always considered it a matter private to the Executive. This Committee's charter demonstrates the contrary in America.

America has made many innovations in the intelligence process, and I believe we have brought ours to the highest peak of efficiency of any intelligence service in the world. Our Government's policies can now be based on factual information and demonstrable analysis rather than on hunches, circumstantial evidence, and overly qualified judgments that alone were available a few years ago.

With the assistance of my Intelligence Community colleagues, I hope to give this Committee the broadest possible look at these intelligence efforts of the United States.

I will also offer ideas for improvements that could help us do our job better.

It is important that our intelligence activities be viewed in proper perspective and that the few instances of failure or error that may have occurred in the past be understood in context.

We will welcome clear statements of the authority and mission assigned to American intelligence. I believe the public, including those engaged in the intelligence profession, are entitled to and are prepared to accept clarifications and new definitions. The Congress and the American people do not expect intelligence to be carried on in the shadows of euphemism and ambiguity. Nor can we operate effectively without more precise provisions in the law to protect our secrets. I believe our nation is ready to accept the necessity of reasonable secrecy in our intelligence operations in the same way it accepts the need for secrecy in diplomatic negotiations, in development of war plans, or in protecting newspaper sources.

I. The Importance of Intelligence

Mr. Chairman, American intelligence helps protect our country, it helps maintain peace in the world, and it helps our Government make better decisions affecting the welfare of every one of our citizens. It is not only responsible for warning us of imminent attack by a hostile power, these days it must also look into the future and warn of the research and development of new weapons systems which, unless countered or negotiated away, would affect the security of our citizens ten years hence.

Perhaps the most dramatic example of the contribution of intelligence to our security occurred in 1962 in the Cuban Missile Crisis. But this story began long before in the secret development of the U-2 aircraft to give us access to areas where we had always been blinded. Its flight over Cuba on October 14, 1962, provided the first certain evidence of the deployment of offensive missiles there, but intelligence during that crisis involved far more than the U-2. Through the entire apparatus of intelligence, a close watch was maintained over all the ways in which our national security might have been jeopardized, and it was precisely this centralized analysis of thousands of individual bits of information that provided our Government with reasoned assessments and estimates during the critical days of October 1962. These assessments drew on all types of technical, diplomatic, and military intelligence, and they were substantially assisted by the contribution made by at least one foreign agent who paid for his commitment with his life.

Mr. Chairman, the Intelligence Community has not been idle since the development of the U-2, and the improvements that have been made have added a new dimension to the importance of intelligence today--its contribution to the maintenance of peace in the world.

As I believe is well known, the breakthrough in the Strategic Arms Limitations negotiations followed the development of our ability to monitor whether or not the other side is complying with the agreements made. To do so with respect to closed and suspicious societies, intelligence has had to invest hundreds of millions of dollars and heavy doses of imagination and technical genius.

We have not yet convinced all the nations that might pose a threat to us that our system of openness is the best for them as well as for us, so we must depend upon our intelligence to give us the means with which to negotiate with them and, at least, to limit, if not eliminate, the risks we both run in today's world.

The peace-keeping role of intelligence goes beyond strategic arms. There are a number of situations in which our knowledge of some local situation around the world was better than that of the participants. By bringing this knowledge to both sides, or to the one about to make a mistaken military move, intelligence has several times assisted in defusing a potential crisis and thus disproving our own predictions. This is a contribution of which we are proud, for our purpose is not merely to record facts pertaining to foreign situations but to help maintain security and peace as well.

Intelligence likewise contributes to our internal security. The efforts of foreign nations to penetrate our society and to manipulate our citizens are well documented. There are several hundred foreign members of the KGB and intelligence operatives in this country seeking information about the United States and its plans, and their efforts must be met by an intensive counterintelligence effort. Within the United States, this is the function of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Abroad, it is CIA's responsibility to identify the foreign agent before he arrives in America or to learn of the plans of foreign groups to try to subvert our institutions.

To this traditional danger has been added a new threat of international terrorism. CIA's foreign and the FBI's domestic intelligence activities have collaborated to frustrate several plans to bring to America and its citizens the kind of hijacking and indiscriminate terrorist bombings that characterize too many areas of the world. Intelligence has also contributed to the identification of international narcotics traffickers, reducing the threat this pernicious activity poses to the health of our citizens.

Major political and economic decisions are regularly made by our Government and by our Congress with assistance from our intelligence. These decisions range from the appropriate level of our defense budget to economic and monetary policy. In the past several years the Intelligence Community--CIA, and parts of State, and Treasury in particular--has paid considerable attention to international economics and related political issues. The interdependence of the world with respect to energy, food, raw materials, and service industries is increasing at a very rapid rate. The accompanying shifts in economic power and control can require future adjustments of grave importance to our country. American intelligence keeps watch on such foreign activities. Stated another way, it is becoming as important to our national security to watch the machinations of foreign cartel arrangements as to follow Soviet or Chinese missile development. Intelligence is critical to our country's economic negotiations and we are contributing materially.

Mr. Chairman, I indicated at the outset the importance of this Committee's getting a full appreciation for the contribution intelligence is making to our country. But foremost in this process is the Intelligence Community's reputation for objectivity in our intelligence assessments. We do not claim that intelligence analysis provides a scientific procedure for reaching decisions. We do feel it provides an essential mechanism for giving visibility to the issues for the policymaker. Our job is to provide an independent and objective analysis based upon a wide range of confidential sources and technical inputs. The organization of the Intelligence Community is designed to provide this independence and objectivity.

II. The American Intelligence Process

Mr. Chairman, I would like to cover briefly the American intelligence process, as I believe it is grossly misunderstood by many quarters who associate it almost exclusively with the spectacular images of James Bond, Mata Hari, or even Maxwell Smart. American intelligence is first and foremost an intellectual exercise that encompasses the following steps:

1. The collection and assembly of raw information from all sources available to the U.S. Government, ranging from overt news dispatches to data from the most secret technical devices or agents;
2. The assessment of the validity of the raw information;
3. The analysis of the information and the development of objective conclusions and judgments; and
4. The presentation of the findings to policy makers in a clear, succinct, and timely fashion.

The collection process involves acquiring open information wherever this is possible. This information largely comes from abroad but also here in the United States from knowledgeable citizens and Government officers whose missions are well understood and accepted in international life, such as Foreign Service Officers, Defense, Treasury, and even Commercial and Agricultural Attaches. To this is added the information collected by technical means. Today these give us access to areas never before seen. Electronic marvels identify details we never hoped to know, and computers select and store masses of detail never before manageable. These ways to collect are supplemented by clandestine collection for those matters and in those societies where open or technical collection cannot provide the secret war plans, the research idea before it is visible, or a perception of authoritarian political dynamics.

After the material is collected, it must be processed or analyzed. Again the electronic and computer worlds have added new dimensions to our potential to extract valuable information from hitherto incomprehensible indicators, although, alas, the computer has also increased the incomprehensibility of some of the systems we try to identify.

The analytical process is the smallest of our categories of expenditure, but upon the integrity, the objectivity, and the expertise of this body of men and women rests the real fruit of the whole process--reasoned assessments of developments abroad today and in the future.

An essential element of the process is the presentation of intelligence to those who make the decisions for our nation. In our society this is not restricted to the Executive but also includes the Congress and the public. As a consequence, intelligence has endeavored to bring its product to the Congress and even to the public through unclassified publications where possible, through classified testimony in executive session that is later reviewed so we can release all information that does not reveal our sources and methods, and through informal discussion with journalists and the academic community where conclusions can be debated but sources omitted.

In addition, the Department of Defense has regularly made available the results of the intelligence process, the best example perhaps being the way we followed in the news media the development and testing of the generation of Soviet missiles now being deployed. When such material is consciously released, it can be done in a form that allows the Congress and the public to benefit from the conclusions and assessments involved but still protects the sources and methods by which we reach them. Unfortunately, their revelation by individuals without authorization can result in the exposure of the source or technique by which we learn the information.

Mr. Chairman, the National Security Act of 1947 was the foundation stone for this American intelligence process. At that time, intelligence was deemed by our country to be a matter which should be protected from public exposure. Thus, the specifics of the intelligence process and its authorities were deliberately expressed in general language and left by that statute to be specified in classified directives by the National Security Council. The CIA Act of 1949 further recognized the importance of this secrecy to intelligence and specifically exempted the CIA from the publication of the "organization, functions, names, official titles, salaries, or numbers of personnel employed by the Agency.

The intelligence roles of the other members of the Intelligence Community in part stem from the 1947 Act and in part from separate legislation, such as that charging the FBI with responsibility for internal security, the AEC, now ERDA, with its security authorities, and other laws such as Public Law 86-36, which provides the National Security Agency the authority to function without disclosing information that would endanger its cryptologic functions. All intelligence elements operate within legal authority. All are given further direction by the National Security Council.

Those Acts, however, were not the end of Congress' role with respect to intelligence. Intelligence operates on annual appropriations, it reports to a variety of Congressional committees, and the Director and Deputy Director of Central Intelligence are appointed with the advice and consent of the Senate after hearings which, in the cases of General Walters and me, included open sessions.

Congress long ago made special arrangements to handle oversight and appropriations for intelligence. The consistent position of the Executive Branch in this regard has been that it would respond to any way in which the Congress organized itself to conduct this oversight and appropriations process. To this, as indicated earlier, I add my own concern that this process be conducted in a manner that preserves the secrecy upon which intelligence must rest.

In tune with the times, we have in more recent years, and not just in my Directorship, become increasingly responsive to Congress both in executive session and in open session. For example, in 1974, I appeared before thirteen committees or subcommittees on twenty-five occasions.

These were supplemented by informal responses or briefings to interested members on a frequent basis. The result has been greater exposure of the substance of our intelligence process to assist Congress in its decisionmaking, as well as a few untoward exposures of our sources and methods. I hope that this Committee sets out clearer arrangements with both houses so that we can make available the substance of our intelligence to assist in your decisionmaking while protecting the intelligence sources and methods.

The Executive Branch directs and supervises the intelligence apparatus to insure that our intelligence agencies work together for the common goal without duplication or bureaucratic conflict. At the head of the structure is, of course, the National Security Council, pursuant to statute. The Council itself has issued general directives to the Intelligence Community, and the subcommittees established under the Council give more frequent guidance and direction to our effort. Certain subcommittees focus on current crises and call for intelligence coverage thereof, certain work on longer term problems that require intelligence analysis, and certain review the work of the Intelligence Community in specified fields. I will not get into the bureaucratic detail necessary to clarify this at this session, although I certainly expect to do so in the future. I would like, however, to state my belief that the Intelligence Community receives appropriate general guidance and direction from the National Security Council and its committees. However, the Intelligence Community itself is responsible for recommending actions needed or for recommending the best way to accomplish the general goals set out by policy leaders. Thus, general policy direction stems from the National Security Council, but each of us in the Intelligence Community takes full personal responsibility for the actions recommended or taken in conformance with such general guidance and policy.

An independent review of the effectiveness of our intelligence effort is conducted by the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board. This Board over the years has had an important role in stimulating and supporting improvements in our intelligence machinery. Its members are an impressive group of responsible Americans who report their independent views of the accomplishments and the weaknesses of the Intelligence Community directly to the President.

Also in the Executive Branch, the Office of Management and Budget conducts through a compartmented unit the same type of budget review of the work of the Intelligence Community as it does of any department.

The Intelligence Community is also subject to intensive audit, both internally within the departments and agencies involved, and to the extent feasible by the General Accounting Office. Even in those areas exempted by law from GAO review, our internal procedures follow the same standards and practices of audit and accounting that apply to the other components of the Government.

Lastly, consistent with the policy outlined in Section 102(e) of the National Security Act of 1947, the Director of Central Intelligence has been charged by the President with providing overall leadership to the Intelligence Community. He has been directed to review all expenditures for foreign intelligence within the Government and make an annual recommendation to the President as to the appropriate level thereof. This charge requires him to insure that the intelligence activities of the various departments and agencies give us the best intelligence product at the least cost.

The Intelligence Community functions through a series of committees and boards that bring the different agencies together. I have submitted an annex to this presentation outlining these relationships. The work of these committees and boards is limited to foreign intelligence, as internal security falls solely within the jurisdiction of the FBI. The FBI participates in the Intelligence Community effort, however, so that any contributions that foreign intelligence might make to internal security can be properly handled. I will not take your time here to describe all of these bureaucratic arrangements, but I would like to stress the scope and complexity of the Community so that its individual elements can be understood.

The collection of raw information consumes the highest percentage of the resources devoted to intelligence. Large sums are required for the complex technical systems I mentioned earlier. In addition, the very substantial increases in military and civilian personnel costs over recent years have put a large burden on our intelligence budget despite reductions in personnel. In conformity with the Senate's vote on June 4th, 1974, I do not propose to discuss these figures publicly, but I do believe that you will be impressed with the way the Intelligence Community has increased its productivity over the years and also reduced its size and focused its effort in order to adjust to inflation.

III. The Needs of Intelligence

Mr. Chairman, in recognition of the fundamental purpose of this Select Committee, I indicated early in my statement that I wanted to outline for you some of the ways in which our Intelligence Community might be improved so as to open a new era in American intelligence. In this context, I believe this Committee may want to focus particularly on the role and procedures of intelligence in the future as well as in the past.

First, Mr. Chairman, I believe it essential to clarify for the Congress and the people of America, as well as the personnel in our Intelligence Community, the authorities, the limitations, and the mission of American intelligence. When President Eisenhower assumed full responsibility for sending a U-2 over the Soviet Union, and President Kennedy for the Bay of Pigs, they repudiated in the name of the American people the old concept of intelligence being disowned. I am confident that our people not only support but insist upon an effective intelligence apparatus to protect their security and welfare. I believe, however, that they want the role of intelligence clearly spelled out, they want controls adequate to prevent abuse, and they also want necessary secrecy protected.

In my confirmation hearing, I suggested the word "foreign" be inserted each time the word "intelligence" appears in the charter of the CIA, to make crystal clear its proper function and to end any possible "gray area" in its authority. Legislation was introduced in the last Congress that would do this and would also clarify the proper role of the Agency within the United States. I welcome such clarification of our authority and any limitation on our activities desired by the people of this country. Just tell us in the intelligence business what the nation wants and does not want, and we will do our best to satisfy it. But also give us a way openly to change these rules when the nation expects them to be changed.

With respect to oversight of our activities, Mr. Chairman, I have described the current procedures. I believe they are sufficient on the Executive side, and I reiterate that the organization of the Congress to carry out its responsibilities is not a matter for my determination or recommendation. I do honestly request and trust, however, that the Congress will organize itself to protect the necessary secrecy of our intelligence operations while exercising its responsibilities for oversight.

Lastly, I most earnestly request of the Congress some improvement in our ability to protect the secrets necessary to effective intelligence operations. The spectacle that we are presenting to the world of being unable to prevent ex-employees from revealing their knowledge of intimate relations with individuals and friendly intelligence services who put their trust in us is raising a substantial question as to our ability to obtain information from such sources in the future. The revelation of our activities from a series of leaks of supposedly secret testimony makes it impossible to contemplate the initiation of sensitive operations today under procedures that require their exposure to a large number of reviewing bodies. The issue of whether we should again adopt Secretary Stimson's view that "gentlemen do not read each other's mail" (and that we live in a world of gentlemen) should be faced squarely and openly by the Congress and not through irresponsible individual exposures.

IV. Cooperation with the Committee

Mr. Chairman, I assure you, as I did on the telephone when you were named, of my most sincere intention to cooperate with you and this Committee in its work. I look forward to your, as well as our, contribution of ideas to the shaping of the new era that American intelligence can have if we do our work well. By my presence here I indicate my intention to be as open and public as I can be during your proceedings. There will be, however, many matters which, I am sure you will agree, can only be handled effectively in executive session. For this purpose, your staffs have been given appropriate clearances by the committee, and I urge that you take steps to insure not only that they will abide by the Committee's rules but also that you have the legal ability similar to the one we use for our employees to require any later exposure of such matters to occur only after you have had a chance to review whether they may improperly reveal sensitive information.

There are some matters, Mr. Chairman, which I am required under the statute and as a professional to protect against any chance of exposure. The names of our agents, the names of many patriotic Americans who have worked with us, and the specifics of a number of our costly and delicate technical systems are so important, Mr. Chairman, that I believe an additional level of secrecy is necessary to protect them. The lives of individuals are at stake, and we cannot put them to risk. There are also cases where the reputations and future prospects of a number of patriotic Americans who have helped or contributed to our intelligence process could be jeopardized if their associations are revealed openly and then twisted in the press through misunderstanding or by hostile opponents. American intelligence cannot hope to have any future if it repudiates the understanding of confidentiality upon which cooperation was extended to it. There are also a range of specific methods for gathering information which needs to be secret. Hundreds of millions of dollars in complex technical equipment can be made worthless if the access it provides to foreign secrets is exposed.

An exposure is a one-time sensation, and American intelligence today is suffering internally and abroad from a series of exposures and sensational exaggerations which have raised questions among many of our foreign individual and official sources, and also among our personnel. Whether the Intelligence Community can continue its contribution to our nation's security and welfare and the maintenance of peace in the world will depend on our ability to conduct this review without further exposures. Thus, I do not propose to provide these details, but if one becomes of particular importance to the work of the Committee, I will certainly consult with you and the ranking minority member to determine the best course of action. I stress this, Mr. Chairman, as we have but one chance to avoid unwarranted disclosures which can ruin the lives or the futures of people and institutions which put their trust in our nation through its intelligence service. I believe that you and the Committee will want to fulfill that trust, and that this Committee's inquiry can be comprehensive and searching without violating it.

Mr. Chairman, I have not discussed the newspaper allegations that led to this Committee's formation. I have reported fully on this to the President, to the President's Commission, and to the Senate Appropriations and Armed Services Committees. I am submitting for the record of this Committee my remarks there and am, of course, prepared to expand on them. I believe it only appropriate here to deny flatly, as I have already, that CIA conducted a "massive illegal domestic intelligence operation."

I have also submitted for the record a number of annexes to this statement, mostly in classified form, in order to set out for the use of the Committee and its staff some further detail about our intelligence apparatus and its work. I am, of course, available for further questioning here today and to cover classfied questions in Executive Session when this may prove to be necessary. I hope that out of the Committee's work will come a better public understanding of the role and functioning of American intelligence today and that the Committee's recommendations for improvements in our authority, procedures, and protection may indeed be looked back on in the future as the initiation of a new era in American intelligence.

We in American intelligence are proud to be of service to our country, and we firmly believe that the personnel of American intelligence, and my predecessors in this post, have served their country well over the years. We are equally convinced that our intelligence profession will serve the country well in the new era of American intelligence being launched by this Committee.

Thank you.

This will confirm the authorization provided by Mr. Silberman to Mr. Adams with regard to permitting CIA to furnish a memorandum dated February 7, 1966, entitled "Central Intelligence Agency Operations in the United States," to Mr. Samuel R. Preston, Senior Staff Member, House Appropriations Committee. For your information, attached is a copy of this memorandum.

It is our understanding that Mr. Preston telephonically contacted Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, and requested all written agreements between the FBI and CIA be furnished him for the use of the House Appropriations Committee.

Memorandum F. B. Griffith to Mr. Bassett, dated 2/6/75, recommended that Section Chief William O. Cregar, the Bureau's representative on the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community, be authorized to concur in recommendations dealing with proposals to protect the integrity of classified documents which will necessarily be provided to the Select Committee of the Senate (SCS) during forthcoming hearings. Referenced memorandum was approved subject to a recommended change by Inspector J.E. Herington, Legal Counsel Division.

The Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review of the Intelligence Community met on the morning of 2/7/75, at which time the above-described Paper was considered. The change of language offered by Inspector Herington was submitted to the Group for consideration and was adopted. No substantive changes in the Paper were made and the over-all Paper was approved.

These security proposals will now be discussed with Senator Church and his staff by Mr. Colby's staff in an effort to insure proper protection of classified documents that might be presented during forthcoming SCS testimony.

SUBJECT: SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE ON FBI OVERSIGHT

On 1-23-75 Tom Hart, Professional Staff Member, Senate Judiciary Committee, advised Inspector John B. Hotis that the creation in the Senate of a Select Committee on Intelligence Operations raises serious questions about the future of the FBI Oversight Subcommittee. The Select Committee will make a final report to the Senate in September, together with recommendations as to any new legislation that might be necessary. It is possible that a new committee dealing solely with the intelligence community may be created or that recommendations will be made that there be stronger oversight by the parent committee.

Hart said that he is troubled over the mounting pressures in the Congress to reduce the power and effectiveness of the Bureau. He feels that is what is behind the "phony stories" that have suddenly been circulating about Bureau files on Congressmen. Even some of the "right wing Republicans," he said, are attempting to capitalize on the controversy, hoping thereby to take some of the criticism away from former President Nixon.

He said that some of the younger Senators are attempting to take over the oversight responsibilities on the grounds that Senators Eastland and McClellan have been overly protective of the Bureau. It is important, therefore, that the Oversight Subcommittee show some immediate activity. As soon as the confirmation hearings on Attorney General Designate Levi are completed, Hart will go to the Rules Committee to get budget approval for the Oversight Subcommittee.

SENATE RESOLUTION 21—R[illegible]LUTION RELATING TO INVES[illegible]IGATION AND STUDY OF GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES—PLACED UNDER "RESOLUTIONS AND MOTIONS OVER, UNDER THE RULE"

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I yield to the distinguished Senator from Rhode Island.

Mr. PASTORE. Mr. President, I send to the desk a resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, I understand that this is the resolution having to do with the CIA.

Mr. MANSFIELD. With the intelligence community.

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. With the intelligence community.

Mr. MANSFIELD. I do not think we should emphasize the CIA too much, because it is the intelligence community. I think that should be understood.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The clerk will report the resolution.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

Resolved, to establish a select committee of the Senate to conduct an investigation and study of governmental operations with respect to intelligence activities.

Mr. MANSFIELD addressed the Chair.

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. Mr. President, I have reserved the right to object.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent, so that it will be fully understood, that the resolution be read in full.

Mr. PASTORE. That is right.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The clerk will report the resolution in full.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

Resolved, To establish a select committee of the Senate to conduct an investigation and study of governmental operations with respect to intelligence activities and of the extent, if any, to which illegal, improper, or unethical activities were engaged in by any agency of the Federal Government or by any persons, acting individually or in combination with others, with respect to any intelligence activity carried out by or on behalf of the Federal Government.

Resolved, That (a) there is hereby established a select committee of the Senate which may be called, for convenience of expression, the Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations With Respect to Intelligence Activities to conduct an investigation and study of the extent, if any, to which illegal, improper, or unethical activities were engaged in, by any agency or by any persons, acting either individually or in combination with others, in carrying out any intelligence or surveillance activities by or on behalf of any agency of the Federal Government.

(b) The select committee created by this resolution shall consist of eleven Members of the Senate, six to be appointed by the President of the Senate from the majority Members of the Senate upon the recommendation of the Majority Leader of the Senate, and five minority Members of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the Senate upon the recommendation of the Minority Leader of the Senate.

For the purposes of paragraph 6 of Rule 25 of the Standing Rules of the Senate, ser[illegible]ice of a Senator as a member, chairman, or vice chairman of the select committee shall not be taken into account.

(c) The majority members of the committee shall select a chairman and the minority members shall select a vice chairman and the committee shall adopt rules and procedures to govern its proceedings. The vice chairman shall preside over meetings of the select committee during the absence of the chairman, and discharge such other responsibilities as may be assigned to him by the select committee or the chairman. Vacancies in the membership of the select committee shall not affect the authority of the remaining members to execute the functions of the select committee and shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments to it are made.

(d) A majority of the members of the select committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but the select committee may affix a lesser number as a quorum for the purpose of taking testimony or depositions.

SEC. 2. The select committee is authorized and directed to do everything necessary or appropriate to make the investigations and study specified in subsection (a) of the first section. Without abridging in any way the authority conferred upon the select committee by the preceding sentence, the Senate further expressly authorizes and directs the select committee to make a complete investigation and study of the activities of any agency or of any and all persons or groups of persons or organizations of any kind which have any tendency to reveal the full facts with respect to the following matters or questions:

(1) Whether the Central Intelligence Agency has conducted an illegal domestic intelligence operation in the United States.

(2) The conduct of domestic intelligence or counter-intelligence operations against U.S. citizens by the Federal Bureau of Investigation or any other Federal agency.

(3) The origin and disposition of the so-called "Huston Plan" to apply United States intelligence agency capabilities against individuals or organizations within the United States.

(4) The extent to which the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Central Intelligence Agency, and other Federal law enforcement or intelligence agencies coordinate their respective activities, any agreements which govern that coordination, and the extent to which a lack of coordination has contributed to activities or actions which are illegal, improper, inefficient, unethical, or contrary to the intent of Congress.

(5) The extent to which the operation of domestic intelligence or counter-intelligence activities and the operation of any other activities within the United States by the Central Intelligence Agency conforms to the legislative charter of that agency and the intent of the Congress.

(6) The past and present interpretation by the Director of Central Intelligence of the responsibility to protect intelligence sources and methods as it relates to the provision in section 102(d)(3) of the National Security Act of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 403(d)(3)) that ". . . that the agency shall have no police, subpena, law enforcement powers, or internal security functions. . . ."

(7) Nature and extent of executive branch oversight of all United States intelligence activities.

(8) The need for specific legislative authority to govern the operations of any intelligence agencies of the Federal Government now existing without that explicit statutory authority, including but not limited to agencies such as the Defense Intelligence Agency and the National Security Agency.

The nature and extent to which Federal agencies cooperate and exchange intelligence information and the adequacy of any regulations or statutes which govern such cooperation and exchange of intelligence information.

(9) The extent to which United States intelligence agencies are governed by executive orders, rules, or regulations either published or secret and the extent to which those executive orders, rules, or regulations interpret, expand or are in conflict with specific legislative authority.

(10) The violation or suspected violation of any State or Federal statute by any intelligence agency or by any person by or on behalf of any intelligence agency of the Federal Government including but not limited to surreptitious entries, surveillance, wiretaps, or eavesdropping, illegal opening of the United States mail, or the monitoring of the United States mail.

(11) The need for improved, strengthened, or consolidated oversight of United States intelligence activities by the Congress.

(12) Whether any of the existing laws of the United States are inadequate, either in their provisions or manner of enforcement, to safeguard the rights of American citizens, to improve executive and legislative control of intelligence and related activities, and to resolve uncertainties as to the authority of United States intelligence and related agencies.

(13) Whether there is unnecessary duplication of expenditure and effort in the collection and processing of intelligence information by United States agencies.

(14) The extent and necessity of overt and covert intelligence activities in the United States and abroad.

(15) Such other related matters as the committee deems necessary in order to carry out its responsibilities under section (a).

SEC. 3(a). To enable the select committee to make the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution, the Senate hereby empowers the select committee as an agency of the Senate (1) to employ and fix the compensation of such clerical, investigatory, legal, technical, and other assistants as it deems necessary or appropriate, but it may not exceed the normal Senate salary schedules; (2) to sit and act at any time or place during sessions, recesses, and adjournment periods of the Senate; (3) to hold hearings for taking testimony on oath or to receive documentary or physical evidence relating to the matters and questions it is authorized to investigate or study; (4) to require by subpena or otherwise the attendance as witnesses of any persons who the select committee believes have knowledge or information concerning any of the matters or questions it is authorized to investigate and study; (5) to require by subpena or order any department, agency, officer, or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government, or any private person, firm, or corporation, to produce for its consideration or for use as evidence in its investigation and study any books, checks, canceled checks, correspondence, communications, document, papers, physical evidence, records, recordings, tapes, or materials relating to any of the matters or questions it is authorized to investigate and study which they or any of them may have in their custody or under their control; (6) to make to the Senate any recommendations it deems appropriate in respect to the willful failure or refusal of any person to answer questions or give testimony in his character as a witness during his appearance before it, or in respect to the willful failure or refusal of any officer or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government or any person, firm, or corporation to produce before the committee any books, checks, canceled checks, correspondence, communications, document, financial records, papers, physical evidence, records, recordings, tapes, or materials in obedience to any subpena or order; (7) to take depos[illegible]s and other testimony on oath anywhere within the United States or in any other country; (8) to procure the temporary or intermittent services of individual consultants, or organizations thereof, in the same manner and under the same conditions as a standing committee of the Senate may procure such services under section 202(i) of the Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946; (9) to use on a reimbursable basis, with the prior consent of the Committee on Rules and Administration, the services of personnel of any such department or agency; (10) to use on a reimbursable basis or otherwise with the prior consent of the chairman of any subcommittee of any committee of the Senate the facilities or services of any members of the staffs of such other Senate committees or any subcommittees of such other Senate committees whenever the select committee or its chairman deems that such action is necessary or appropriate to enable the select committee to make the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution; (11) to have direct access through the agency of any members of the select committee or any of its investigatory or legal assistants designated by it or its chairman or the ranking minority member to any data, evidence, information, report, analysis, or document or papers relating to any of the matters or questions which it is authorized and directed to investigate and study in the custody or under the cotrol of any department, agency, officer, or employee of the executive branch of the United States Government, including any department, agency, officer, or employee of the United States Government having the power under the laws of the United States to investigate any alleged criminal activities or to prosecute persons charged with crimes against the United States and any department, agency, officer, or employee of the United States Government having the authority to conduct intelligence or surveillance within or outside the United States, without regard to the jurisdiction or authority of any other Senate committee, which will aid the select committee to prepare for or conduct the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution; and (12) to expend to the extent it determines necessary or appropriate any moneys made available to it by the Senate to perform the duties and exercise the powers conferred upon it by this resolution and to make the investigation and study it is authorized by this resolution to make.

(b) Subpenas may be issued by the select committee acting through the chairman or any other member designated by him, and may be served by any person designated by such chairman or other member anywhere within the borders of the United States. The chairman of the select committee, or any other member thereof, is hereby authorized to administer oaths to any witnesses appearing before the committee.

(c) In preparing for or conducting the investigation and study authorized and directed by this resolution, the select committee shall be empowered to exercise the powers conferred upon committees of the Senate by section 6002 of title 18 of the United States Code or any other Act of Congress regulating the granting of immunity to witnesses.

SEC. 4. The select committee shall have authority to recommend the enactment of any new legislation or the amendment of any existing statute which it considers necessary or desirable to strengthen or clarify the national security, intelligence, or surveillance activities of the United States and to protect the rights of United States citizens with regard to those activities.

SEC. 5. The select committee shall make a final report of the results of the investigation and study conducted by it pursuant to this resolution, together with its findings and its recommendations as to new congressional legislation it deems necessary or desirable, to the Senate at the earliest practicable date, but no later than September 1, 1975. The select committee may also submit to the Senate such interim reports as it considers appropriate. After submission of its final report, the select committee shall have three calendar months to close its affairs, and on the expiration of such three calendar months shall cease to exist.

SEC. 6. The expenses of the select committee through September 1, 1975, under this resolution shall not exceed $750,000 of which amount not to exceed $100,000 shall be available for the procurement of the services of individual consultants or organizations thereof. Such expenses shall be paid from the contingent fund of the Senate upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the select committee.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Is there objection to the resolution?

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. Mr. President, reserving the right to object, I do so in order, first, to make the point that what we are really trying to do here is agree on a time to vote on this resolution if we can. It may be necessary to object formally to get the matter on the calendar. If so, I will be prepared to object for that purpose.

I am not objecting to the early consideration of the resolution. The distinguished majority leader and I have discussed the possibility of an early vote. I personally am in accord with that.

I should like to ask one question for the benefit of the legislative history: It is my understanding that it would be the intention of the majority that the vice chairman of the committee will be a member of the minority party.

Mr. PASTORE. That is correct, and it is so specified in the resolution.

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. I yield to the distinguished Senator from Texas, if I may, who may also wish to reserve the right to object.

Mr. TOWER. I have nothing to add to what the distinguished Senator from Pennsylvania has said, except to express the hope that when the objection is formally raised, we can consent to get the resolution on the calendar as soon as possible; Monday, if possible.

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. For the purpose of achieving that, I can object now.

I object.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The objection is heard. The resolution will go over under the rule.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that notwithstanding the objection, the resolution be placed on the calendar at this time to save the time of the Senate. I do so because it is not anticipated at the moment that we will be in tomorrow, and perhaps not on Thursday. We will be in Friday. It is for that reason that I make this unanimous-consent request.

Mr. HUGH SCOTT. I have no objection.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, it is so ordered. The resolution is placed on the calendar.

Mr. MANSFIELD. I have notified Senators STENNIS and MCCLELLAN of what was going to happen today and have also discussed the matter with the distinguished Republican leader and the ranking member of the Armed Services Committee, Mr. TOWER.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. PASTORE. Mr. President, I do want to say, while the resolution is before the Senate, that there is no intention here to conduct a witch hunt. There is no one in the Senate who has more appreciation or more respect for the necessity for a CIA, a civilian intelligence agency, a military intelligence agency, and an FBI in order to guarantee the security and the survival of this great Republic. But in recent weeks and in recent months there have been charges and counter charges spelled out on the front page of every newspaper in this country. The matter has been discussed over television and radio. The people of America are confused. They are asking themselves, "What is actually happening to these organizations which are essential for the security and the survival of our great Nation?"

In order to clear the air, in order to cleanse whatever abuses there have been in the past, so that we can put these agencies on the right track, so that we can recite, once and for all, the proper parameters within which they can function, I am afraid we will do irreparable harm to the security and the survival of the country unless we do this.

It was for that reason, Mr. President, that I introduced this resolution before the Democratic conference. I made it plain at the time that in my judgment there are no three greater Americans than Colby, Helms, and Kelley. I know all three, I have worked with all three, and I have found them to be distinguished gentlemen who are patriotic and love this country as much as any other Americans, without any doubt at all.

But there has been abuse. They have been influenced in making their judgments, and these influences, I am afraid, have come from on high, may times right out of the Oval Room of the White House, and sometimes from some underlings at the White House.

We had the instance before our committee where Ehrlichman called up the Deputy Director of the CIA and instructed him to give disguise paraphernalia to Mr. Hunt. The question is, Under whose authority? Who was Ehrlichman? Was it within the purview of the statute? Was it in conformity with the charter that established the CIA?

These are questions that have to be resolved, because we want the CIA to be responsive to the President of the United States directly, and not indirectly. We want him to be responsible to the Congress that is responsible, in turn, to the people of this country. It is for that reason that this investigation is being conducted and this resolution is before this body.

It was argued by the distinguished Senator from Mississippi that this falls within the purview and the jurisdiction of his own Armed Services Committee. As a matter of fact, when we talk about jurisdiction, we also have the Foreign Relations Committee, we have the Appropriations Committee, and I do not think we are ever going to get around discussing the question of jurisdiction unless we get it into a select committee. If we get it into the Appropriations Committee or the Armed Services Committee, I am afraid we are going back again to the question of seniority, the seniority complex that has disturbed so many people.

I am not against putting senior Members on this select committee, but we have a wealth, we have a reservoir of competence in this body, of people who have not settled their minds or prejudiced themselves one way or the other. Frankly, I must say, from my own contact with these two agencies, I am a little prejudiced, myself, in favor of the CIA, of military intelligence, and of the FBI. I am chairman of the subcommittee that funds the FBI. In my humble opinion, there is no man I respect more than Clarence Kelley. I think he is a fine American, and I think he is an excellent police officer; no question about it. I have no fault to find with him, and fundamentally, I have no fault to find with anybody, except that we want the right thing done.

We are not going to conduct a witch hunt in this case. We are not out to get anyone's scalp. What we are trying to do is to serve America. This is an open society. Even in an open society, sometimes we have to have a secret organization. The big question is, To whom are they responsible? Who got us into Cambodia? Who got us into Laos? Who got us into the Bay of Pigs? Who got us into Chile? Who got us in all over the world, and under whose authority, and why was not the Congress told?

Here we are; we passed the war powers bill in order to restrict the power to declare war and require that Congress be consulted, and we find now they can do it surreptitiously through the CIA or through some other agency of Government. This is all wrong, Mr. President, and it should be rectified. I hope that the majority leader and the minority leader will pick out competent personnel, of whom we have enough here in the Senate, and that they will conduct a hearing, that they will protect the secrecy of the CIA, the FBI, and the military intelligence, and that they will not spread it out publicly and thus injure this Nation.

I think we have that competence. I think we have the responsibility to do that. And after all, the Armed Services Committee, the Appropriations Committee, and the Foreign Relations Committee are not so sanctified that they are the only ones who can do it.

The only thing I am saying is, let us spread this out. Let us widen our scope, and let us pick out men who will devote themselves to this task, who are not already too much involved with other responsibilities in the Senate, and can get on and do this job that needs to be done, and report back to the people.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. PASTORE. I yield.

Mr. KENNEDY. I wonder if I could direct the Senator's attention to certain provisions of the resolution, and ask his interpretation of such provisions.

Mr. PASTORE. The Senator may.

Mr. KENNEDY. The first resolve clause, refers to establishing a "select committee of the Senate to conduct an investigation and study," and then I draw particular attention to these words, "of Government operations with respect to intelligence activities."

I want to find out from the author of the resolution whether he interprets those particular words to include covert actions as well as literal intelligence-gathering activities, including the full range of Central Intelligence Agency activities such as the paramilitary operations, propaganda, subversion, destabilization, operation of proprietary companies, and counterintelligence. The inquiry would thus include, for example, activities like the secret war in Laos, Operation Phoenix, and destabilization of the Government of Chile.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The 10 minutes of the Senator from Montana has expired.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that I may proceed for an additional 10 minutes, and yield that additional time to the distinguished Senator from Rhode Island.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. PASTORE. The answer is "Yes." If they fall within the purview of any of the activities of these agencies; and whether these actions are performed domestically or abroad, the resolution is very specific in that respect. The answer is yes.

Mr. KENNEDY. I thank the Senator. I believe this is again referred to in subsection 2(14) of the resolution, where it concludes with reference to "the extent and necessity of covert intelligence activities in the United States and abroad.

Mr. PASTORE. That is correct.

Mr. KENNEDY. I bring this up because one might later argue that the resolution does not cover some of the activities the CIA has been involved in because they are not literally "intelligence activities," and therefore that they are not subject to the scope of the resolution.

Mr. PASTORE. No.

Mr. KENNEDY. But quite clearly, as I have listened to the Senator here on the floor and also to his explanation in the caucus, the scope of the resolution covers all of these matters I have just referred to, and they would be so included in the inquiry authorized by the resolution.

Mr. PASTORE. That is correct; and the majority leader will address himself to that point; that this is not to be construed in any limited way, that it has to be given a broad interpretation, and that interpretation will be the interpretation of the committee itself, and of nobody else.

Mr. KENNEDY. I thank the Senator.

Mr. GOLDWATER. Mr. President will the Senator yield?

Mr. PASTORE. I yield to the Senator from Arizona.

Mr. GOLDWATER. Serving on the Armed Services Committee, as I do, I can understand the anxiety and the interest of other Members of this body over reports emanating from the New York Times and other newspapers in the country relative to the activities, or at least charged activities, of the CIA.

I expected that such a resolution would be introduced, and I am very glad that it has been introduced, and particularly because my friend, the Senator from Rhode Island, seems to be heading it up.

Now, the point that I am trying to get to is, serving on the Armed Services Committee, there are many times——

Mr. STENNIS. Mr. President, may we have order so that those who wish to can give attention to the debate?

The VICE PRESIDENT. Order.

Mr. GOLDWATER. There are many times, Mr. President, when we are confronted with testimony that we do not want to hear. It is of such a highly classified nature, I do not think, frankly, anyone outside of the intelligence community should hear it.

Now, it is my hope and prayer that during the course of this investigation, first that a proper committee be selected. We do not want to have anyone running for President on this committee, or any other office. We want to have people who are going to be objective and hew to the line.

Mr. PASTORE. That is correct.

Mr. GOLDWATER. Now intelligence is not something that we gather on Americans. It is something we gather on an enemy. Intelligence is a worldwide operation and, I must say, we have already lost from the CIA probably the world's finest intelligence officer, because he was not going to put up with what he thought he would be subjected to in questioning on the CIA.

Mr. PASTORE. Will the Senator from Arizona admit that part of that has already been accomplished by the stories that have appeared?

Mr. GOLDWATER. I am sorry about what happened.

Mr. PASTORE. Absolutely.

Mr. GOLDWATER. What I want to see prevented is a further diminution of the intelligence forces we have had.

I never worked too closely with intelligence but I have worked close enough to know, though, people in these jobs and in this field are very difficult to come by, they are very sensitive to exposure, and are very sensitive to having their records and discussions brought out in the press.

So I would hope, when the majority leader and minority leader get together to select this committee, that they select a committee that will weigh all of the facts and be particularly careful about what is allowed to leak, because the Watergate leaked like an old sieve, and we sure do not want that to happen in an area as sensitive as intelligence.

I might say that we have gone through a lot of criticism or we have suffered through a lot of criticism in this country in the last several years, criticism of the military. Who is responsible for the military to go to Vietnam? It was not the Pentagon; it was the President of the United States who was the only man who could do it.

Who is responsible for the CIA, FBI, and DIA and others getting into fields I have a feeling they did not want to get into? The President of the United States. Now should we go that high?

BACKGROUND:

By letter dated 6/20/69 Tom Charles Huston, Staff Assistant to the President, addressed a letter to the Director, FBI, stating that the President had directed that a report on foreign communist support of revolutionary protest movements in the United States be prepared for his study. According to the Huston letter, the President specifically requested that the report draw upon all the sources available to the intelligence community, that it be as detailed as possible, and that the word "support" should be liberally construed to include all activities by foreign communists designed to encourage or assist revolutionary protest movements in the United States. The letter stated that on the basis of earlier reports submitted to the President on a more limited aspect of the problem, it was apparent "present" intelligence collection capabilities in the area were inadequate. Huston stated the President wanted to know what resources were currently targeted toward monitoring foreign communist support of revolutionary youth activities in the United States, how effective they were, what gaps existed in our (U.S.) intelligence because of either inadequate resources or low priority of attention and what steps could be taken, if the President directed, to provide the maximum possible coverage of these activities.

The request was also sent to CIA, NSA and DIA seeking contributions relating to this same problem. Pursuant to the request, the FBI and CIA submitted available information on the matter. These responses were handled unilaterally and without coordination between CIA and FBI.

On 6/5/70 Director Hoover met with President Nixon at which meeting the President appointed him as chairman of a special intelligence committee to coordinate a more effective intelligence-gathering function.[1] He also instructed that the FBI, Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), National Security Agency (NSA) and the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) were to coordinate their efforts to insure that comprehensive information would be obtained for the President's use which would provide him with a worldwide picture of the efforts of new left and subversive groups in directing dissident activities in the United States. Present at this meeting were CIA Director Richard Helms; Vice Admiral Noel Gayler, NSA; General Donald V. Bennett, DIA; Mr. Tom Charles Huston, White House Staff Assistant;

Res. 803, "A Resolution Authorizing and Directing the Committee on the Judiciary to Investigate Whether Sufficient Grounds Exist for the House of Representatives to Exercise its Constitutional Power to Impeach Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States of America," Book VII, Part 1, pg. 375.

Assistant to the President H. R. Haldeman; Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs John D. Ehrlichman and Robert H. Finch, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

An initial meeting of the Interagency Committee on Intelligence (AD HOC) was held in Mr. Hoover's office on 6/8/70. This meeting was attended by Mr. Helms, Vice Admiral Gayler, General Bennett and Mr. Huston. Mr. Hoover emphasized the President's keen interest in the problem of intelligence collection and outlined the general objectives to which the Committee was to address itself. He instructed that a working subcommittee be established composed of representatives of all the member agencies which subcommittee was to be headed by FBI Assistant Director William C. Sullivan.

The first meeting of the working subcommittee was held on 6/9/70. At this meeting Mr. Huston presented the subcommittee with an outline which he stated the President desired the subcommittee to follow in preparing its report. The outline addressed itself mainly to the purpose, procedures and objectives of the subcommittee's review. The following from the outline is quoted:

"PURPOSE:

(A) To define and assess the existing internal security threat.

(B) To evaluate the collection procedures and techniques presently employed and to assess their effectiveness.

(C) To identify gaps in our present collection efforts and recommend steps to close these gaps.

(D) To review current procedures for inter-community coordination and cooperation and to recommend steps to improve these procedures.

(E) To evaluate the timeliness of current intelligence data and to recommend procedures to increase both its timeliness and usefulness.

(F) To assess the priorities presently attached to domestic intelligence collection efforts and to recommend new priorities where appropriate.

PROCEDURES:

(A) Although the sub-committee will be officially constituted within the framework of USIB, it will in fact be an independent, ad hoc, inter-agency working group with a limited mandate.

(B) Operational details will be the responsibility of the chairman. However, the scope and direction of the review will be determined by the White House member.

(C) The sub-committee will submit its reports to the White House and not to USIB. Report will be due by July 1, 1970.

(D) To insure that the President has all the options available for consideration, the WH member may direct detailed interrogatories to individual agencies in order to ascertain facts relevant to policy evaluation by the President. Information resulting from such interrogatories will, if the contributing agency requests, be treated on a confidential basis and not be considered by the sub-committtee as a whole.

OBJECTIVES:

(A) Maximum coordination and cooperation within the intelligence community. The sub-committee may wish to consider the creation of a permanent Domestic Intelligence Operations Board, or some other appropriate mechanism to insure community-wide evaluation of intelligence data.

(B) Higher priority by all intelligence agencies on internal security collection efforts.

(C) Maximum use of all special investigative techniques, including increased agent and informant penetration by both the FBI and CIA.

(D) Clarification of NSA's role in targeting against communication traffic involving U. S. revolutionary leaders and organizations. (S)

(E) Maximum coverage of the overseas activities of revolutionary leaders and of foreign support of U. S. revolutionary activities.

(F) Maximum coverage of campus and student-related activities of revolutionary leaders and groups.

(G) More detailed information about the sources and extent of financial support of revolutionary organizations.

(H) Clarification of the proper domestic intelligence role of the Armed Services.

(I) Development of procedures for translating analyzed intelligence information into a format useful for policy formulation."

At a meeting of the working subcommittee held on 6/23/70 a consensus was reached on a final draft of the Report to be issued by the Interagency Committee. This Report, which was captioned "Special Report Interagency Committee on Intelligence (AD HOC),"[2] dated June, 1970, and numbering 43 pages was signed and approved by the heads of each member agency at a final meeting of the Committee held in Mr. Hoover's office on 6/25/70.[3] The Report footnoted several objections by the FBI to certain options contained in the Committee's Report.[4] These objections are enumerated in a latter portion of this paper.

[4] Ibid., pg. 433.

A copy of the "Special Report" was delivered to Mr. Huston at the White House on 6/26/70. The "Special Report" was divided into three main sections: Part One, a summarized estimate of the internal security threat; Part Two, a summary of various operational limitations on certain intelligence collection techniques with cited advantages of maintaining such restrictions as well as the advantages of relaxing them; and Part Three, an evaluation of interagency cooperation with suggested measures to improve the coordination of domestic intelligence collection.

During the first week of July, 1970, Huston sent the "Special Report" to H. R. Haldeman with a memorandum entitled "Operational Restraints on Intelligence Collection." In his memorandum Huston recommended that the President, from among the options discussed by the "Special Report," select, in most areas discussed, the options relaxing the restraints on intelligence collection.[5]

On 7/14/70 Haldeman sent a memorandum to Huston stating the President had approved Huston's recommendations for relaxing restraints on intelligence collection and requested a formal decision memorandum be prepared.[6]

In a memorandum dated 7/23/70 addressed to the AD HOC Committee agencies with copies for the President and Mr. Haldeman,[7] Mr. Huston advised that the President had carefully studied the "Special Report" and had made certain decisions with respect to issues raised therein. The President's decisions called for a relaxation of certain existing restraints on intelligence coverage including the following: NSCID-6 was to be interpreted [to permit NSA to program for coverage the communications of United States citizens using international facilities;] (S) the intelligence community was directed to intensify electronic surveillance coverage of individuals and groups in the United States who pose a threat to the internal security; restrictions on legal mail coverage were to be removed and restrictions on covert mail coverage relaxed to permit its use on select targets of priority intelligence; restraints on the use of surreptitious entry were to be removed on certain high-priority targets; the coverage of violence-prone campus and student-related groups was to be increased; [CIA coverage of American students traveling or living abroad was to be increased;] (S) the restrictions on the use of military undercover agents were to be retained; each member agency was to submit a detailed estimate of manpower and monetary needs required to implement the decisions; and a committee consisting of the directors of representative agencies or appropriate alternates was to be constituted effective 8/1/70 to provide evaluation of domestic intelligence, prepare periodic domestic intelligence estimates, carry out other objectives specified in the Report and perform such other duties as the President should from time to time assign. The Director of the FBI was appointed to serve as chairman of this committee. An attachment to the memorandum from Mr. Huston captioned "Organization and Operations of the Interagency Group on Domestic Intelligence and Internal Security (IAG)" set forth specific composition, operations and duties of this new committee.[8]

[7] Ibid., pp. 450, 454.

On receipt of the letter from Mr. Huston the Director, FBI, addressed a letter to the Attorney General dated 7/27/70 pointing out FBI objections to certain of the decisions reported in the Huston letter. Mr. Hoover objected to relaxation of electronic surveillance policy, the implementation of covert mail coverage, the removal of restrictions on the use of surreptitious entry of embassies to obtain cryptographic materials, the removal of controls and restrictions relating to the coverage of violence-prone campus and student-related groups and the establishment of a permanent Interagency Committee on Domestic Intelligence. The Director stated that in the "Special Report" he had pointed out his opposition to these aspects of the Report and requested of the Attorney General a prompt expression of his views concerning the matter. He noted that no action to implement the instructions contained in Mr. Huston's letter would be taken pending a reply from the Attorney General.

No further action to implement the Huston letter subsequent to the 7/27/70 letter to the Attorney General was instituted by the intelligence community. There is no indication that the Attorney General ever responded to this communication.

INTELLIGENCE EVALUATION COMMITTEE

Introduction

Since its existence was first revealed publicly during the height of the Senate Watergate Committee investigation in 1973, the Intelligence Evaluation Committee (IEC) has been the object of suspicion and misunderstanding. Unfortunately associated by some politicians and representatives of the media with such things as political spying, illegal electronic surveillance and surreptitious entry, it was nothing more than an effort by the Executive Branch to better coordinate and disseminate intelligence information received by various intelligence and investigative agencies in the Federal Government. While the fact of its existence was kept secret, which may have contributed to the misunderstanding of its purpose and function, the IEC was not an operational entity. That is, it did not conduct its own investigations as did the FBI and other agencies. Nor did it engage in surreptitious entries, wiretapping or other similar activity. It merely received data collected by the agencies represented on the Committee and put this information into one comprehensive report or estimate for dissemination to interested agencies and individuals within the Executive Branch. The Committee was staffed by career personnel and it existed for approximately 18 months.

Origin

In November, 1970, then Attorney General John Mitchell met with John Ehrlichman, Assistant to the President for Domestic Affairs; Richard Kleindienst, Deputy Attorney General; Jerris Leonard, Administrator of the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA); Robert Mardian, Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division; and a consultant from the State of Washington, former State Judge Morell Sharp, to discuss the need for an inter-departmental unit capable of obtaining and evaluating intelligence information from all the resources of the Federal Government relating to the membership, status and activities of militant terrorist groups operating within the United States. The meeting took place on November 10, 1970 in Mr. Mitchell's office and, according to a memorandum dated November 12, prepared by Mr. Mardian, past attempts to elicit such cooperation from interested departments and agencies of the Executive Branch had been unsuccessful. It was decided that Judge Sharp, John Dean, then Counsel to the President, and Mr. Mardian were to contact the heads of various agencies and explain the wishes of the President and seek their advice and cooperation. (See Attachment 1).

According to a memorandum dated December 17, 1970, from Mr. Mardian to the Attorney General, a second meeting of the Intelligence Evaluation Committee took place at 9:00 a.m. in the Executive Office Building, and was attended by Mr. Mardian, Judge Sharp, Mr. Dean, Egil Krogh (Deputy Counsel to the President), Robert Froehlke (Assistant Secretary of Defense), James Angleton (Central Intelligence Agency), Thomas Kelly (Secret Service), Benson Buffham (National Security Agency), George Moore (Federal Bureau of Investigation) and John Doherty (Department of Justice). It was agreed at that meeting that on or before January 6, 1971 the agencies represented would furnish information relating to "organizational targets and intelligence targets." Judge Sharp was to be available on a full-time consulting basis beginning January 11, 1971, and the Committee was to have its next meeting on January 11 at 9:00 a.m. (See Attachment 2).

Judge Sharp attended three meetings of the IEC during its initial stages of development. He did not attend the fourth scheduled meeting on January 25, 1971, at which time Mr. Mardian explained his absence by stating there had been several inquiries by the former Judge's acquaintances in Congress which caused the Attorney General and the White House to be concerned that it would be difficult to maintain appropriate security regarding the Committee's work with Judge Sharp as its head. Mardian stated that at a meeting at the White House on January 21, it was decided that Judge Sharp would be removed from the Committee and assigned other consultant duties with the Justice Department.

Subsequent memoranda revealed that certain individuals were designated by their respective agencies as representatives on the Intelligence Evaluation Committee, and by February 10, 1971 a document outlining the authority, mission, membership, staff, procedures and functions and office space and facilities was drafted and presented to each of the member-representatives.

Functions and Purpose

According to the February 10, memorandum, the purpose of the Intelligence Evaluation Committee was to provide intelligence estimates to the respective Government departments and agencies on a need-to-know basis, in order to effectively evaluate and anticipate problems for appropriate response to civil disorders. In carrying out this mission, the Committee was to have access to all pertinent intelligence in the possession of the United States Government. The membership was to consist of representatives from the Department of Defense, Department of Justice, Central Intelligence Agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Secret Service, and National Security Agency and "when necessary, representatives of other departments and agencies designated by the Committee." 1/

The Committee was to be supported by a permanent staff consisting of representatives from member departments and agencies and headed by an Executive Director appointed by the Committee. The staff was to perform certain functions which included: (1) when requested by the Committee, agency representatives would furnish to the staff all pertinent information relevant to the stated request of the Committee; (2) prepare estimates; (3) report information gaps; (4) recommend subjects for intelligence estimates; (5) prepare relevant studies and reports; and (6) provide for the secrecy of the information received and the protection of all sources of the information. The Department of Justice provided necessary office space, supplies and incidental administrative support. (See Attachment 3).

1/ In his report of January 15, 1975 to the Senate Appropriations Committee, Director of Central Intelligence William E. Colby stated that the State Department was represented on the IEC. It was not. However, at some time after its formation, the Treasury Department appointed a representative to the Committee.

Mr. Hoover initially declined a request from Mr. Mardian to provide staff support, but on May 17, 1971, the Attorney General requested that the FBI provide two agents and one secretary for the permanent working staff of IEC. Mr. Hoover acceded to this request.

Meetings and Reports

John Doherty of the Department of Justice was named as the first Executive Director of the Intelligence Evaluation Committee and with the approval of the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, James McGrath, a staff attorney, was assigned as his assistant. Subsequently, Bernard Wells, a former Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation replaced Mr. Doherty, who retired from government service, as Executive Director in September, 1971. Weekly meetings were held with representatives of the various agencies and procedures for agency contribution to IEC estimates or reports were adopted. (See Attachment 4).

The first estimate or report prepared and disseminated by the IEC was designated E-1 dated February 18, 1971 entitled "April-May Demonstrations" dealing with the potential for violence during the anti-war demonstrations in Washington and other parts of the country planned for April-May 1971. During the period February 18, 1971 to April 30, 1973, the Committee produced and disseminated 31 estimates or reports dealing with such subjects as anti-war demonstrations, potential for violence in major cities, black power organizations, Arab terrorist groups, prison riots, and related topics. There is attached a complete list of all of the estimates or reports produced and disseminated by the IEC during its existence. (See Attachment 5). The estimates were disseminated to the Counsel to the President; Director, Central Intelligence; Director, National Security Agency; Director, Secret Service; Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation; Director, Office of Law Enforcement, Treasury Department; the Assistant Attorney General, Internal Security Division, Department of Justice; and the Defense Intelligence Agency. No estimates were produced after April 30, 1973. A communication to all interested agencies dated June 11, 1973 pointed out that inasmuch as the end of the war in Vietnam had resulted in the termination of demonstrations which carried a potential for violence, there was no longer any useful function to be served by the IEC and that, effective immediately, the IEC would no longer be in existence.

During July, 1971, Mr. Mardian, at a meeting of the IEC, stated that President Nixon had requested a report regarding the handling of classified information, which was prompted by the Pentagon Papers case. Shortly thereafter, the IEC staff was advised that White House Staff Member Gordon Liddy had been appointed to work with the IEC regarding its study of the handling of classified information and by November, 1971 the IEC completed and disseminated a special report entitled "The Unauthorized Disclosure of Classified Information."

Relationship of the IEC to the "Huston Plan"

In June 1970, J. Edgar Hoover met with President Nixon, at which time Mr. Hoover was appointed chairman of a special committee to coordinate more effectively the intelligence-gathering efforts of the FBI, CIA, NSA, and DIA. The head of each of these agencies was present at a June 5, 1970 meeting with the President, which included White House Staff Assistant Tom C. Huston. Subsequently, a working subcommittee headed by Assistant Director William C. Sullivan of the FBI was formed, and it held a series of meetings beginning June 9, 1970. A final meeting held in late June 1970, a "Special Report" was filed and approved by the head of each member agency.

The "Special Report", which was submitted by Mr. Hoover to the President, was divided into three sections: a summary of the internal security threat; summarized limitations on certain intelligence collection techniques; and, a brief evaluation of interagency cooperation, with suggested measures to improve the coordination of domestic intelligence collection. Mr. Hoover objected to certain options for relaxation of restraints on intelligence gathering. Although President Nixon at first approved the relaxation of certain restraints, this approval was rescinded about five days later.

Inquiries by Various Committees of Congress and Other Entities Into the Operations of the IEC

Since its disclosure, the IEC has been the target of a number of investigations and inquiries, none of which has revealed any illegality or impropriety. The Senate Select Committee on Presidential Campaign Activities (Senate Watergate Committee) interviewed former IEC personnel in 1973, and a member of the Committee staff was offered access to all IEC reports and documents. The final report of the Watergate Committee published in June 1974 makes no reference to any improper or illegal activity by the IEC, but devoted a section to the Huston Plan. (See Attachment 6).

The House Judiciary Committee Investigating the Impeachment of Richard Nixon (Rodino Committee) did not see fit to conduct any investigation of the IEC, and one may conclude that it developed no information which would require scrutiny. The Senate Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights (Ervin Committee), after submitting voluminous questionnaires to the Department of Justice beginning in August, 1973 regarding the activities of the former Internal Security Division, was given complete information and access to all documents relating to the IEC and, to date, has reported no finding of impropriety or illegality.

The Watergate Special Prosecution Force has been given complete access to the documents and records of the Committee and it has conducted interviews of former Committee representatives and staff with no report to the Attorney General of any improper conduct. Moreover, the IEC will continue to be a target of inquiry by the recently formed Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations With Respect to Intelligence Activities (Church Committee).

In his testimony before the Senate Watergate Committee, former Counsel to the President, John Dean, testified that "I am unaware of the IEC ever having engaged in any illicit activities or assignments." SUBJECT: DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE UNIT

The purpose of this memorandum is to set forth the tentative conclusions reached in the discussion in your office on November 10, 1970, which was attended by yourself, John Ehrlichman, the Deputy Attorney General, Jerris Leonard, Justice Morell Sharp, and Robert Mardian.

1. That there was a need for an inter departmental unit capable of obtaining and evaluating intelligence information from all the resources of the Federal government, relating to membership, status and anticipated activities of militant terrorist groups operating within the United States.

2. That previous attempts to elicit the cooperation of the Departments and Agencies possessing this information have been unsuccessful for numerous reasons and that the most recent attempt failed largely because of the lack of confidence by the Departments and Agencies in the White House representative responsible for contacting them.

3. That Justice Sharp, John Dean, and Robert Mardian be appointed as an ad hoc committee to contact the heads of the affected Departments and Agencies and explain the wishes of the President in this regard, and to seek their advice and enlist their cooperation in this effort. That such contacts would only be made after the heads of the affected Agencies were advised by the White House of the appointment and purposes of the ad hoc committee.

4. That the Inter-Departmental Information Unit(IDIU) of the Department of Justice would be used as a cover for the proposed domestic intelligence unit.

5. That Justice Sharp would meet with Jim Devine of the IDIU for the purpose of informing himself as to the character of the IDIU operation and developing with Devine a strategy for the use of the IDIU as the operating entity for the proposed domestic intelligence unit.

Justice Sharp, Dean, and Mardian met on Wednesday, November 11, and reviewed the history of the government's attempt to create a domestic intelligence unit, including the efforts of the Ad Hoc Inter-Agency Committee(under the Chairmanship of Director Hoover) that recently made a study of the domestic intelligence gathering process and proposed steps that could be taken to improve that process.

It was generally agreed that, initially, the proposed domestic intelligence unit should limit itself to obtaining and evaluating the available intelligence information from the existing sources of the government and developing a more sophisticated method of collating and evaluating such information.

If you approve the foregoing and will advise us that preliminary contact has been made with the heads of the affected Agencies, we will proceed in accordance with your instructions.

SUBJECT: Intelligence Evaluation Committee Meeting

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL RECEIVED
DEC 17 1970

The second meeting of the Intelligence Evaluation Committee took place at the hour of 9 AM in the Conference Room of the Vice President, Executive Office Building, on Wednesday, December 16, 1970. Attending were Justice Morell Sharpe, Egil Krogh, John Dean, Robert Froehlke (DOD), James Angleton (CIA), Thomas Kelly (Secret Service), Benson Buffham (NSA), George Moore (FBI), John Doherty (Technical Advisor to the Chairman), and myself.

Assistant Secretary Froehlke explained that he had been requested by Secretary Laird to attend the preliminary meetings and that after he had had an opportunity to brief the designee (probably Colonel Downey) that said designee would attend future meetings. He requested that I meet with him and Don Bennett of the DIA preliminary to Secretary Laird's making any designation. This I agreed to do.

I opened the meeting by briefly outlining the conclusions reached at our first meeting for the benefit of those who were not present. We then discussed how best to approach a solution to the problem and it was unanimously agreed as follows:

> That on or before January 6, 1971, the operative agencies represented would furnish to me under appropriate security measures: (1) organizational targets and (2) intelligence targets (such as the extent and nature of foreign influence on our organization targets and the extent and nature of the financing of our organization targets).

Inspector Moore disclosed that the FBI had compiled a calendar of demonstrations and events planned by certain of the target organizations. He agreed to furnish a copy of the calendar to me and it was agreed that I would circulate the calendar (much of which is public knowledge) under appropriate security measures to ascertain whether or not the other agencies represented were aware of any further planned demonstrations.

We informed the Committee that sufficient space for the evaluation committee had been provided in FOB #7 and that Justice Sharpe would be available on a full-time consulting basis starting on January 11, 1971.

The Committee agreed to have its next meeting on Monday, January 11 at 9 AM, at which time I will have engrossed the submissions of each of the member agencies and further that at the next meeting we would attempt to establish priorities with respect to our intelligence targets.

The meeting adjourned at 11:35 AM.

PROCEDURES FOR THE AGENCIES CONTRIBUTION TO IEC ESTIMATES

1. The INTELLIGENCE EVALUATION COMMITTEE (IEC) has been charged with the responsibility of providing intelligence estimates to designated Government departments by effectively evaluating and anticipating problems of civil disorder. To evaluate a potential problem it will be necessary for IEC to request each assisting agency to prepare an intelligence analysis. The analysis, in the form of evaluated contributions, will be forwarded to the Executive Director of IEC. These contributions, pursuant to requirements set forth by IEC, will become the basis for the IEC's intelligence estimate of potential problems of civil disorder.

2. The IEC does not desire to receive a voluminous collection of intelligence data from the member agencies. The contribution should be an evaluation of the particular situation based on the data which that agency has in its possession. The IEC Staff may issue GUIDELINES, to assist the five agencies in the preparation of their intelligence contribution. Additionally, such GUIDELINES will be of assistance to IEC in identifying intelligence "gaps" and the basis for making supplemental requests to the individual agency for further intelligence information.

3. The following format will be generally used by the IEC evaluation staff in the preparation of intelligence estimates. It would be of great assistance if the participating agencies would follow the same format when submitting the completed contribution.

1. THE HUSTON PLAN

The earliest evidence that this concept of presidential power existed is found in a 1970 top secret document entitled "Operational Restraints on Intelligence Collection,"[16] and the various memorandums from Tom Charles Huston to H. R. Haldeman which were first revealed by John Dean.[17] In preparation for his testimony before the Select Committee, Dean placed these papers, some of which bore the highest security classification, in the custody of Chief Judge John Sirica of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. This step was taken by Dean, on the advice of counsel, to avoid violation of any Presidential directive or Federal laws prohibiting release of Government documents affecting national security. After due consideration, Judge Sirica released one copy of these papers to the Department of Justice and one copy to the Select Committee, pursuant to its motion. (United States v. John Doe, et al., Misc. No. 77–73, May 14, 1973.)

The committee, with the aid of various intelligence agencies, reviewed these documents. While the committee sealed a few items therein, which could involve national security considerations, it concluded that these papers, for the most part, dealt primarily with domestic affairs and were unrelated to national security matters.[18] The papers, as sanitized by the committee, were entered into the committee's record during Dean's testimony.[19]

These papers and the President's own statement of May 22, 1973, disclose that the President approved the use of illegal wiretapping, illegal break-ins and illegal mail covers for domestic intelligence purposes. The President was fully advised of the illegality of these intelligence-gathering techniques prior to approving them. In the top secret document entitled "Operational Restraints on Intelligence Collection," the recommendation for surreptitious entries (break-ins) contained the following statement under the heading "Rationale":

> Use of this technique is clearly illegal. It amounts to burglary. It is also highly risky and could result in great embarrassment if exposed. However, it is also the most fruitful tool and can produce the type of intelligence which cannot be obtained in any other fashion.[20]

On July 14, 1970, Haldeman sent a top secret memorandum to Huston, notifying him of the President's approval of the use of burglaries, illegal wiretaps and illegal mail covers for domestic intelligence. In the memorandum, Haldeman stated:

> The recommendations you have proposed as a result of the review, have been approved by the President. He does not, however, want to follow the procedure you outlined on page 4 of your memorandum regarding implementation. He would prefer that the thing simply be put into motion on the basis of this approval. The formal official memorandum should, of course, be prepared and that should be the device by which to carry it out . . .[21] [emphasis added]

It appears that the next day, July 15, 1970, Huston prepared a decision memorandum, based on the President's approval, for distribution to the Federal intelligence agencies involved in the plan—the FBI, the CIA, the National Security Agency and the Defense Intelligence Agency.[22] In his May 22, 1973, public statement, the President reported that the decision memorandum was circulated to the agencies involved on July 23, 1970. However, the decision memorandum is dated July 15, 1970, indicating that it was forwarded to the agencies on that day or shortly thereafter.[23]

Huston's recommendations were opposed by J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the FBI.[24] Hoover had served as the chairman of a group comprised of the heads of the Federal intelligence agencies formed to study the problems of intelligence-gathering and cooperation among the various intelligence agencies.[25] In his public statement of May 22, 1973, President Nixon stated:

> After reconsideration, however, prompted by the opposition of Director Hoover, the agencies were notified 5 days later, on July 28, that the approval had been rescinded.

Haldeman's testimony is to the same effect.[26] Dean, however, testified that he was not aware of any recision of approval for the plan[27] and there apparently is no written record of a recision on July 28 or any other date. There is, however, clear evidence that, after receipt of the decision memorandum of July 15, 1970, Mr. Hoover did present strong objections concerning the plan to Attorney General Mitchell.[28]

Huston was concerned that Hoover's objections would interfere with the plan's implementation. On August 5, 1970, 8 days after the President states he ordered recision, Huston sent Haldeman a lengthy top secret memorandum on the subject, "Domestic Intelligence," which strongly attacked Hoover's objections and made a number of recommendations concerning a forthcoming meeting regarding the plan among Haldeman, the Attorney General and Hoover.[29] Indicative of the fact that the plan was still quite alive, but imperiled by Hoover, is the following language in this memorandum:

> At some point, Hoover has to be told who is President. He has become totally unreasonable and his conduct is detrimental to our domestic intelligence operations . . . It is important to remember that the entire intelligence community knows that the President made a positive decision to go ahead and Hoover has now succeeded in forcing a review. If he gets his way, it is going to look like he is more powerful than the President. He had his say in the footnotes and RN decided against him. That should close the matter and I can't understand why the AG is a party in reopening it. All of us are going to look damned silly in the eyes of Helms, Gayler, Bennett, and the military chiefs if Hoover can unilaterally reverse a Presidential decision based on a report that many people worked their asses off to prepare and which, on the merits, was a first-rate, objective job.[30]

It should be noted that this memorandum indicates that the NSA, DIA, CIA and the military services basically supported the Huston recommendations.

Two days later, on August 7, 1970, Huston sent a brief, confidential memorandum to Haldeman urging that Haldeman "meet with the Attorney General and secure his support for the President's decision, that the Director (Hoover) be informed that the decision will stand, and that all intelligence agencies are to proceed to implement them at once."[31] Huston noted that: "Mr. Hoover has departed for the west coast to vacation for 3 weeks. If you wait until his return to clear up the problems surrounding our domestic intelligence operations, we will be into the new school year without any preparations."[32]

Later, on September 18, 1970 (almost 2 months after the President claims the plan was rescinded), Dean sent a top secret memorandum to the Attorney General suggesting certain procedures to "commence our domestic intelligence operation as quickly as possible." [emphasis added] This memorandum specifically called for the creation of an Inter-Agency Domestic Intelligence Unit which had been an integral part of the Huston plan. Dean's memorandum to the Attorney General observed that Hoover was strongly opposed to the creation of such a unit and that it was important "to bring the FBI fully on board." Far from indicating that the President's approval of Huston's recommendation to remove restraints on illegal intelligence-gathering had been withdrawn, Dean, in his memorandum, suggested to the Attorney General:

> I believe we agreed that it would be inappropriate to have any blanket removal of restrictions; rather, the most appropriate procedure would be to decide on the type of intelligence we need, based on an assessment of the recommendations of this unit, and then proceed to remove the restraints as necessary to obtain such intelligence.[33] [emphasis added]

Dean's memorandum indicated that the creation of the Inter-Agency Domestic Intelligence Unit would go forward and provided recommendations for the choosing of a unit director to serve as a "righthand man" to the Attorney General and for the selection of representatives from the various intelligence agencies who would serve on it. Dean closed his memorandum with the suggestion that the Attorney General call weekly meetings to monitor problems as they emerged and "to make certain that we are moving this program into implementation as quickly as possible."[34] [emphasis added] Recognizing that Hoover was still a problem, Dean added a note to the bottom of his memorandum: "Bob Haldeman has suggested to me that if you would like him to join you in a meeting with Hoover he will be happy to do so."[35]

Hoover, however, never did come completely "on board" and the plan for an Inter-Agency Domestic Intelligence Unit was never implemented. A clue to the fate of the Huston plan is provided by the edited, unauthenticated "Submission of Recorded Presidential Conversations to the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives by President Richard Nixon", on April 30, 1974, where the following passage appears:

> D. . . . what Bill Sullivan's desire in life is, is to set up a domestic national security intelligence system, a White House program. He says we are deficient. He says we have never been efficient, because Hoover lost his guts several years ago. If you recall he and Tom Huston worked on it. Tom Huston had your instructions to go out and do it and the whole thing just crumbled.

Dean testified that the plan for the creation of an Inter-Agency Domestic Intelligence Unit was the product of White House fear of demonstrations and dissent.[37] Haldeman denied that such an atmosphere of fear existed in the White House.[38] In his statement before the committee, Haldeman gave as the reason for White House interest in improving intelligence-gathering operations the "critical proportions" of the domestic security problem in 1970 as illustrated by "a wave of bombings and explosions, rioting and violence, demonstrations, arson, gun battles and other disruptive activities across the country—on college campuses primarily—but also in other areas."[39] On this issue, Ehrlichman's testimony corroborates Haldeman's.[40]

The Huston recommendations themselves refer to "a major threat to the internal security"[41] and express the belief that "the potential for even greater violence is present and we have a positive obligation to take every step within our power to prevent it . . . for surely drastic violence and disorder threaten the very fabric of our society."[42]

The committee notes that the evidence presented to Senator McClellan's Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations of the Senate Committee on Government Operations, in hearings beginning in July 1970, indicates that, in the several years preceding the hearings, there were significant increases in illegal acts of violence directed against Government facilities and a disturbing number of such acts directed against law enforcement officials.[43]

Dean testified, however, that the White House concern was directed not only toward violent demonstrations, but also to peaceful demonstrations and dissent. As an illustration he said:

> . . . [D]uring the late winter of 1971 . . . the President happened to look out of the windows of the residence of the White House and saw a lone man with a large 10-foot sign stretched out in front of Lafayette Park. Mr. Higby called me to his office to tell me of the President's displeasure with the sign in the park and told me that Mr. Haldeman said the sign had to come down. When I came out of Mr. Higby's office, I ran into Mr. Dwight Chapin who said that he was going to get some "thugs" to remove that man from Lafayette Park. He said it would take him a few hours to get them, but they could do the job.[44]

SENSTUDY 75 is the code word for a new control file for all communications relating to the Senate Select Committee (SSC) to conduct investigation and study of conventional operations with respect to intelligence activities.

Pursuant to recommendation in memorandum W. O. Cregar to W. R. Wannall dated 1/27/75 regarding the SSC, I attended a meeting of the Ad Hoc Security Group of the U. S. Intelligence Board (USIB) Security Committee at CIA Headquarters on 2/5/75. Security representatives from DIA, NSA and CIA were present at this meeting which was concerned with proposals to protect the integrity of classified documents which will necessarily be provided the SSC during its investigation. Results are set forth below.

Attached are copies of: (1) proposed agreements the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) will be asked to obtain from the SSC; (2) guides for protection of classifed information and of documents furnished the SSC; and (3) proposed secrecy agreement to be executed by SSC staff members and employees. These items were discussed paragraph by paragraph and revisions agreed upon were penciled in. These revised drafts will be discussed at a meeting on 2/7/75 of the Ad Hoc Group of USIB on Congressional Investigations to be attended by Section Chief W. O. Cregar. At this time a final version will be approved for presentment to the DCI.

The registry of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy referred to on page 2 of the guides was described as a facility geared to handle and account for classified documents to the satisfaction of the intelligence community. It is guarded and has a suitable alarm system.

REC-18 [illegible] -14

The guides include the possibility that agencies presenting testimony may conduct their own security sweeps of the hearing room; calls for a system of document control as well as control from reproduction and destruction of classified material. Consideration of secure transcription procedures is requested with the possibility that each agency could provide such service. It might be necessary, however, to provide escort service in the event outside transcribers are utilized. This would entail security of carbons, waste and notes and return of the transcribed testimony to the Committee upon completion. It was also suggested that a security officer be appointed by the SSC who would be a central contact for representatives of agencies falling within the purview of the SSC investigation. Attached material was reviewed by Legal Counsel Division by Inspector J. E. Herington who concurred with the exception of item number 4 of the proposed guidelines dealing with countermeasures of inspections to preclude, ". . . surreptitious use of transmitters and/or unauthorized recording devices similar to the device located in the Rayburn House Office Building on 12 February 1973." He noted this wording could be construed as placing a limitation on what type of device could be prohibited and suggested revising the above phraseology by placing a period after "recording devices" and then stating, "It is noted such a device was located in the . . ."

OBSERVATIONS:

At this time it is unknown if the above-mentioned material will be accepted by the SSC or whether the committee will draw up its own procedures. In any event, the material to be presented will at least serve as a means of calling the Senators' attention to the many faceted program involved in the protection of classified information. It is felt concurrence with the attached material with the suggested observation of the Legal Counsel Division be accepted is to our best interest.

ACTION:

It is recommended Section Chief W. O. Cregar offer the revision referred to above at the meeting on 2/7/75 and be authorized to offer FBI concurrence with this material.

AGREEMENTS TO BE SOUGHT BY THE DCI WITH CHAIRMEN OF THE SELECT COMMITTEES

1. It would be desirable if the DCI could secure agreement with the Chairmen of the Select Committees, as has been customary in other Congressional proceedings regarding sensitive matters, that:

(a) Departments and agencies shall have the right to request that testimony be given only in executive session, that in some instances testimony be "off-the-record" and that certain testimony be heard only by members and in some cases only by the Chairman and Vice Chairman.

(b) Witnesses be afforded an opportunity to review and comment on and/or correct the record of their testimony prior to any publication of it.

(c) The "Third-Agency Rule" is binding upon members of the United States intelligence community and may require witnesses representing one member of the intelligence community to decline to testify concerning matters within the proprietary purview of another community member.

2. It would also be desirable if the DCI could secure agreement with the Chairmen of the Select Committees that those agencies furnishing documents to the committees be authorized to excise from those documents prior to presentation, the names of their personnel as well as those of other individuals whose safety or individual privacy may be jeopardized by disclosure. This would include names of sources or specific information on highly technical devices and operations in keeping with the DCI's responsibilities to protect sources and methods.

3. THAT THE DCI ATTEMPT TO SECURE AN AGREEMENT WITH THE CHAIRMEN OF THE SELECT COMMITTEES THAT THEY ENTERTAIN AND CONSIDER SECURITY PRINCIPLES AND GUIDELINES WHICH WILL BE PROVIDED.

GUIDES FOR PROTECTION OF CLASSIFIED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS FURNISHED THE SELECT COMMITTEES

1. Personnel Security Clearances

(a) Background Investigation

It would be desirable for the Select Committees to stipulate that no staff member is to be given access to any classified material, testimony or information received or generated by the committees without prior receipt of a security clearance based on a full field investigation.

(b) Secrecy Agreement

It would be desirable for the Select Committees to require a signed secrecy agreement of employees or individuals assigned to the committees' staffs. The agreement should include provisions:

1) That acceptance of committee secrecy regulations is a condition precedent of employment or assignment;

2) Recognizing US Government property rights to classified information;

3) Requiring prior written consent before divulgence of classified information.

4) For recognition that breach of the secrecy rules and obligations contained in the agreement could subject the signer to administrative and/or legal action under appropriate statutes;

5) That there is no time limit on the terms of the agreement.

2. Physical and Document Security

The Select Committees should adopt rules to insure that the secrecy of any sensitive information received or generated by it be preserved. These rules be made known to the individuals and agencies who will be called upon to present testimony or materials. Among these should be rules on physical security and document security.

(a) Physical Security

It would be desirable if the Select Committees adopt the following rules related to physical security:

1) All classified material will be stored in safes for safekeeping in the registry of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy or similar facility and handled in accordance with the regulations of this registry for classified material.

~~2) Material should be stored in safes when not in use.~~

2~~1~~) TWENTY FOUR HOUR Guard protection SUPPLEMENTED BY ANTI-INTRUSION ALARMS should be required on THE STORAGE ~~this~~ area.

3~~2~~) Areas selected for use in closed session should be guarded against entry by unauthorized persons.

4~~3~~) Agencies presenting testimony should be permitted to conduct or arrange with the Sergeant-at-Arms to conduct audio countermeasures inspections to preclude the possibility of surreptitious use of transmitters and/or unauthorized recording devices similar to the device located in the Rayburn House Office Building on 12 February 1973.

5~~4~~) At the end of each session of the Select Committees, the hearing room should be examined by a cleared staff officer who will secure any misplaced classified material or waste.

6~~5~~) Areas should be designated in which classified material can be reviewed. These areas should be secure against access by unauthorized personnel. Material should not be removed from these areas for the sake of convenience except when necessary for the work of the committees and should not be transported overnight to the office or residence of personnel of the committees.

(b) Document Security

1) Committees should select and identify a single location/and specific personnel authorized to sign acknowledgement of receipt of classified materials provided ~~by~~ to the committees.

2) A system of document control should be established to permit control of classified documents to provide for accountability. ~~of documents furnished the committee~~.

3) Duplication of documents should be controlled so as to ~~permit~~ require a record of the document reproduced, the number of copies reproduced, and the custodian or receiving personnel. Reproduced classified documents should be subject to the same controls as the original.

4) Appropriate arrangements should be made for the destruction of classified waste.

5) Transcripts. The committees should give consideration to the necessity of providing appropriate security in the transcription of testimony by committee transcribers. The committees may desire to charge each agency presenting testimony with this responsibility. In some, if not all cases, this might include escort of materials to the place of transcription, the securing of carbons, waste and notes and the return of the transcribed testimony to the committee for safekeeping in accordance with committee rules.

6) At the conclusion of the committees' investigations, classified material should be reviewed for ~~the possibility of~~ disposition, ~~by~~ including return to contributors. ~~of material submitted by them.~~

3. Security Officer

It would be desirable if the committees appointed one member of its staff as a security officer with the responsibility of discharging the security rules adopted by the committee and of serving as a point of contact with the departments and agencies of interest to the committee. It would also be desirable if the committee rules required each agency of interest to identify a single point of contact to facilitate provisions of security support required by the committee.

Memorandum W. O. Cregar to W. R. Wannall, dated 1/24/75, entitled "United States Intelligence Board (USIB), Meeting of 1/24/75," recommended that Section Chief William O. Cregar's name be provided to the Deputy Director of the Intelligence Community Staff as a point of contact within the FBI to coordinate matters dealing with the Senate Select Committee (SSC). The mandate of the SSC is to examine the extent of overt and covert intelligence activities in the U.S. and abroad.

On the morning of 1/27/75 Mr. John Clarke, Deputy Director of the Intelligence Community Staff, advised that Mr. Colby believes it is necessary for security representatives of FBI, CIA and National Security Agency (NSA), to meet in order to develop recommendations for the SSC as to how documents and testimony furnished to the SSC will be protected against unauthorized disclosure. In this regard, Mr. Donald E. Moore, former Inspector in the Intelligence Division and currently Chairman of the USIB Security Committee, will function as the USIB representative to this group.

OBSERVATIONS:

7 FEB 4 1975

According to the Senate Resolution dated 1/21/75 relating to the investigation and study of ~~governmental~~ operations with respect to intelligence activities, the SSC is going to involve all agencies of the Intelligence Community. In anticipation that Bureau representatives will be called to testify and asked to supply some extremely sensitive documents regarding our investigative activity in the U. S., it is believed essential that we have an input into how such documents and testimony are going to be handled by staff personnel of the Committee. Unless we participate in developing security standards, we may find that sensitive documents and testimony that we are called to provide to the Committee cannot be adequately protected from public scrutiny.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED

At a meeting of the USIB this morning Chairman Colby spoke briefly about Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) procedures for testifying before the Blue Ribbon Commission (BRC) investigating CIA as well as anticipated problems that might arise regarding future testimony at the Senate Select Committee (SSC) whose membership has not yet been announced. According to Colby, the mandate of the SSC is to examine the extent of overt and covert intelligence activities in the U. S. and abroad. Colby advised that the SSC would involve all member agencies and departments of the intelligence community and for that reason he believed the members of the intelligence community should stay in close communication.

As a result of the above, Colby has selected Mr. John Clarke, Deputy Director of the Intelligence Community Staff, to act as a coordinator for the intelligence community to insure close coordination. He requested that all agencies and departments represented on USIB designate one individual in their agency as Clarke's point of contact to insure the close coordination Colby feels will be necessary during future appearances before the SSC. The Intelligence Division believes this is a desirable procedure and recommends that Section Chief William O. Cregar who is the Bureau's alternate member on USIB be designated as the Bureau representative to maintain liaison with Mr. Clarke.

In addition, Colby advised that in his opening statement before the SSC he intends to make a strong pitch for the intelligence community. He proposes to show the value and importance intelligence has played in the past as well as the future; he expects to outline for the SSC how the intelligence business is run and organized. In addition, he proposes in his opening statement to make an appeal for legislation to shore up the protection of sources and methods against planned and calculated leaks of classified information.

Memorandum for Mr. Wannall
RE: UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD (USIB)
MEETING OF 1/24/75

Colby advised that any examples member agencies or departments could provide CIA wherein the acquisition of intelligence proved useful to the development of U. S. policies or programs would certainly be appreciated. Colby stated that in this regard Mr. John Clarke as the over-all coordinator would be in touch with the designated representatives of USIB departments or agencies to further clarify this point.

With regard to the BRC chaired by Vice President Rockefeller, Colby advised that CIA has already obtained an agreement from that Commission that any documents furnished to the Commission by CIA would have the names of CIA employees and/or CIA sources deleted from the document. The purpose of this deletion was to avoid such names from appearing in press releases. Colby also hopes to obtain the same agreement from the SSC.

The Intelligence Division believes that the Bureau should also attempt to obtain such an agreement from the BRC and the SSC if at some time FBI representatives are called to testify or are called to produce FBI documents. This matter has been discussed with the Office of Legal Counsel and it concurs in this recommendation.

ACTION:

(1) If approved, Section Chief William O. Cregar's name will be provided to Mr. Clarke as his point of contact within the FBI.

(2) Should Bureau representatives be called to testify before the BRC or the SSC an agreement be obtained to delete any names of FBI employees and/or sources with the understanding that the identities could be made available to either the Commission or Committee if either felt such names were absolutely necessary.

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

SENSTUDY 75 is the code word of a new control file for all communications regarding matters relating to the Select Committee of the Senate (SCS) to conduct an investigation and study of governmental operations with respect to intelligence activities.

On 2/4/75 Mr. John Clarke, Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry, advised that Mr. Colby has been instructed to have four items prepared for the President's consideration by 2/5/75. They are as follows: (1) an outline as to what Colby plans to say as lead-off witness before the SCS, (2) two lists identifying what information the Intelligence Community feels under no circumstances could be discussed with the SCS as well as what information could be discussed with the SCS under controlled conditions, (3) a set of suggested talking points the President should discuss with the Senate leadership regarding procedures for the proposed hearings, and (4) a list of annexes that Colby plans to provide the Chairmanship of the SCS on the occasion of his initial appearance.

With the Director's approval we have provided Colby with our suggestions relative to items 2 and 3. With regard to item 4 we are preparing two annexes which will be furnished to the Director for his approval prior to furnishing them to Colby.

REC-111 62-116395-10

Mr. Clarke was asked whether the four items to be furnished to the President would also be provided to the Bureau. Clarke assured us that it was his intention to recommend to Colby that material covering items 1, 2, 3 and 4 ~~be furnished~~ to the FBI as well as other members of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry and he felt confident that Colby would so order.

The following are deemed to be matters so essential to the security and survival of the nation that they never should be discussed outside the intelligence community, and even within the intelligence community, they should be discussed only on a strict need-to-know basis:

The names and other identifying characteristics of sensitive sources.

Details which would permit opposition assessment of the totality of our effectiveness in the fields of internal security and foreign counterintelligence, including:

The numbers, locations, times, and affiliations of recruitments-in-place of personnel within target organizations.

Specific subjects of highly sophisticated intelligence-gathering techniques.

The total extent of our investigative effectiveness against any given target organization or individual, or the lack thereof.

Intelligence information furnished in confidence by friendly foreign agencies, the disclosure of which could jeopardize operations of those agencies.

SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE

INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Concern for the security and survival of the nation dictates that discussion of details of highly-sophisticated intelligence-gathering techniques and methods employed by the FBI be held only under controlled conditions, such as in Executive Session before only Senators serving as members of the Committee. This includes not only those techniques and methods used in furtherance of FBI responsibilities, but also those utilized in support of missions of other members of the United States intelligence community.

This memorandum recommends that we provide at Mr. Colby's request two lists: (1) information which the FBI feels under no circumstances could be discussed with the Select Committee of the Senate (SCS) and (2) items of information which could be discussed with the SCS under controlled conditions.

On the afternoon of 2/1/75, Mr. John Clarke, in his role as Chairman of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry, telephonically advised the Bureau's representative on this Group that a meeting was held at the White House on the morning of 2/1/75. Participants were the Secretary of Defense, the Director of Central Intelligence and Dr. Henry Kissinger in his role as advisor to the President on national security affairs. Dr. Kissinger requested Mr. Colby to prepare two lists for the President's consideration. The purpose of these lists was to provide the President with information necessary for him to make a judgment as to whether certain information should be withheld from the SCS on the basis of executive privilege.

As a result of the White House meeting, Mr. Clarke requested the Bureau prepare by the close of business, 2/3/75, two lists: (1) that information proprietary to the FBI which under no circumstances could be discussed with the SCS and as a result would require the denial of such presentation by virtue of executive privilege and (2) a list of information proprietary to the FBI which could be discussed with the SCS under controlled conditions (presumably this means discussed in Executive Session limited to members of the SCS).

Attached herewith are the two lists requested by Mr. Clarke, which will be furnished to Mr. Colby by our liaison representative with CIA.

SUBJECT: SENATOR FRANK CHURCH
CHAIRMAN, SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES
MEETING WITH THE DIRECTOR
11:30 A.M., FEBRUARY 6, 1975

At 2:50 p.m., 2-3-75, Bill Miller, Counsel, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, advised Inspector John B. Hotis that Senator Frank Church (D - Idaho), Chairman of the Committee, would like to meet with Mr. Kelley at his earliest convenience.

The meeting is an informal one and no other members of the Committee will be present. The purpose is merely to get acquainted and discuss in general terms what the Committee hopes to accomplish. Senator Church also wants to assure Mr. Kelley that it is not his intention to undermine public confidence in the intelligence agencies of the United States. But the Committee wants to ascertain whether these agencies are being run with integrity and in a manner which is consistent with national goals.

The only time this week which is mutually convenient to Mr. Kelley and Senator Church is Thursday, 2-6-75, at 11:30 a.m. This has been verified by Mrs. Metcalf and approved by the Director. Mr. Adams will accompany the Director to this meeting. Mr. Miller has been advised and he will inform us as to the precise location of the meeting.

SUBJECT: SELECT COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE

This memorandum recommends that Mr. Colby, in his role as the Director of Central Intelligence, be furnished two write-ups for inclusion as annexes in a briefing book he plans to provide the Select Committee of the Senate (SCS) on the occasion of his appearance as the lead-off witness before this Committee. The write-ups are: (1) the role of counterintelligence and (2) the origin and disposition of the "Huston Plan."

A previous memorandum was approved that Section Chief William O. Cregar be designated as the point of contact within the FBI to coordinate matters dealing with future testimony before the SCS. Mr. John Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence, has been designated as the coordinator for the Intelligence Community. The points of contact under Mr. Clarke's auspices have been given the title of Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry.

On 1/31/75 Clarke held a second meeting of this Group wherein he reiterated that it was Mr. Colby's intention to make a very strong plea for the Intelligence Community as the lead-off witness. In addition, Mr. Colby plans to provide to the SCS a series of annexes, some of which will be classified, which will address some of the issues to be looked into by the SCS. Those issues have been generally identified in Senate Resolution Number 21, dated 1/21/75. Representatives at Mr. Clarke's meeting were asked to prepare certain of these annexes. The FBI was requested to prepare the annex on the role of counterintelligence as well as the annex on the origin and disposition of the "Huston Plan."

The Intelligence Division in responding to the request from Clarke's Group will prepare these two write-ups. It is anticipated that there will be no problems in connection with the write-up on counterintelligence and this is going forward.

With regard to the origin and disposition of the "Huston Plan," we anticipate having an initial paper ready for discussion with representatives of the National Security Agency (NSA), CIA and the Department of Justice by Wednesday, 2/5/75. This coordination is necessary inasmuch as both CIA and NSA were actively involved in the development of the Plan. The Department's participation is necessary inasmuch as the Intelligence Evaluation Committee (IEC), chaired by the Department, evolved from one of the recommendations set out in the "Huston Plan." Mr. James Wilderotter, Associate Deputy Attorney General, is a member of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry and is preparing an input to the "Huston Plan" annex, which input will describe the origin, function and disposition of the IEC.

Prior to releasing these two annexes for Mr. Colby's use, they will be submitted to the Director for his approval.

REC-111 62-116395-5

SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY OF GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

With regard to legislation proposed by the FBI, a letter was sent to the Office of Legislative Affairs, Department of Justice, on August 29, 1974, strongly recommending that consideration be given to a legislative proposal that would authorize the Government to conduct court-approved electronic surveillances in domestic security cases. This recommendation was based on the Supreme Court decision which held that electronic surveillances conducted solely within the discretion of the Executive violated the warrant requirement of the Fourth Amendment and our opinion that the current standards imposed by Title III of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1970 would be ineffective techniques in domestic intelligence investigations.

In another legislative bill pending in the United States Senate, Senate Bill S3001, although the FBI was not the sponsor of the bill it has a particular interest in its passage both for internal security and foreign counterintelligence considerations. This bill would make it a Federal offense to obtain, produce, sell or utilize false documentation.

Of possible interest, in recognition of questions which have been voiced as to the jurisdiction and authority of the FBI to conduct domestic intelligence investigations and in order to cover any possible gap between statutory authority and Executive authority necessary to protect the national security, this Bureau submitted to the Attorney General in August, 1973, a proposal for an Executive Order to establish both authoritative and definitive guidelines for the FBI in this area. The proposed order took cognizance of the constitutional responsibility of the President to defend the Constitution and the Government; of continuing threats to domestic tranquility and the general welfare; of existing statutes relating to national security and public safety; and of the President's need for intelligence information. The proposed Executive Order included an order by the President that "The Attorney General prepare and issue guidelines, conforming to the principles of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, and outlining the necessary direction, coordination, and guidance of investigations to assure that the Federal Bureau of Investigation provides on a continuing basis intelligence information essential to the execution of laws pertaining to subversive activity and other such activity affecting the national security, domestic tranquility, and general welfare of the United States."

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE.

The FBI has the exclusive responsibility for protection of the internal security of the United States. As regards foreign counterintelligence activities in the United States, the FBI, as a member of the United States intelligence community, not only has the function of detecting and neutralizing hostile intelligence activities, but is a producer of positive intelligence information of value to the United States Government.

The FBI's foreign counterintelligence operations not only thwart the efforts of hostile intelligence services but contribute to the overall knowledge and effectiveness of the United States intelligence community. Since 1950, more than 110 Soviet-bloc intelligence officers and/or agents have been removed from their official positions within the United States or excluded from entry or reentry into the United States as a result of FBI investigative efforts. Some noteworthy examples of the FBI's contribution in this area and of the types of hostile activity which challenge our intelligence community follow:

In 1962 the FBI was successful in terminating an operation which was begun in 1960 when the Soviet intelligence services attempted to develop an agent of influence in American politics. A Soviet intelligence officer employed at the United Nations Secretariat cultivated a New York law student and eventually offered to finance this individual's campaign as a candidate for the New York State Assembly. The FBI terminated this operation by exposing it and the Soviet departed the United States and will not be permitted to return. (S)

In July, 1966, a Czech intelligence officer assigned to the Czech Embassy in Washington, D. C., was declared persona non grata following an FBI operation which balked his plans to place an electronic listening device in a Department of State office. (S)

In 1967 a Soviet-bloc diplomat defected to the United States. The history of Soviet-bloc espionage is colored with the efforts of their services to prevent defections and take reprisals against those who throw off the communist yoke. In 1969 the FBI detected a plot by hostile intelligence against the aforementioned defector who was residing in the United States. The FBI determined that the hostile service had recruited two individuals during visits by them to their foreign homeland and assigned them to locate and photograph the defector. The immigrants confessed their assignments against the defector and a stern warning was issued by the Department of State to the offending nation that such incidents would not be tolerated in the future. (S)

On February 7, 1970, a Soviet national employed at the United Nations Secretariat was arrested on espionage charges in Seattle, Washington. He had been dispatched to the United States undercover as a translator at the United Nations, but his primary job was to collect classified documents about United States western air defense from an agent the Soviets believed they had developed, but who actually was a double agent under FBI control. The complaint against this Soviet was dismissed with the provision that he depart the United States by February 17, 1970. (S)

On February 14, 1972, another Soviet national who was dispatched to the United States under the cover of translator at the United Nations, was arrested outside of a restaurant on Long Island in the process of receiving classified documents pertaining to a jet fighter airplane being built for the United States Navy. Again, an FBI double agent was involved. (S)

SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE
TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY OF GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

On July 21, 1973, a Soviet diplomat assigned to the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. C., was detained in New York City in the process of meeting with a member of the United States military. The United States military man was arrested on charges of espionage and upon establishing the fact that he had diplomatic immunity, the Soviet was permitted to depart the United States on August 15, 1973. By this arrest the FBI prevented the transmission to the Soviet Government of over 1,000 classified documents weighing nearly 40 pounds and encompassing information from the entire United States intelligence community. (S)

During 1973 three highly explosive devices were located in the vicinity of three Israeli-connected business establishments in New York City. The explosive devices fortunately failed to detonate, thus saving possibly hundreds of lives. FBI investigation identified an Iraqi national who had entered the United States on a visitor's visa during the early part of 1973 as the individual who planted these devices. It was later developed that the Iraqi national was a known member of the Black September Organization, which is the secret terrorist wing of Al Fatah. The Iraqi national was indicted in Eastern District New York on May 17, 1973, on one count, and in Southern District New York on May 23, 1973, on two counts of violations of Title 18, Section 844i. (S)

Industrial espionage by hostile intelligence services, which causes a drain of valuable technology from the United States, is of increasing concern to the United States intelligence community. In August, 1973, a Soviet-bloc industrial representative, who had entered the United States ostensibly for commercial purposes just a few days before, was arrested by FBI Agents following an attempt to steal a secret glass process from the Ford Motor Company. The process reportedly cost over one million dollars to develop. (S)

Another example of investigations dealing with communist officials permanently assigned to the United States was the attempt by another Soviet diplomat during 1971 to penetrate the secure voice communications system of the Presidential command plane, as well as the secure voice communications system between The White House and Number 10 Downing Street. This operation also failed because of FBI counterintelligence efforts. (S)

An attempt of the Soviets to penetrate United States policy-making and legislative organs came to the attention of the FBI during the latter part of 1973 when a Soviet intelligence officer contacted an aid to a United States legislator. During this same period the FBI learned that an individual connected with the Communist Party of the United States had been encouraged to move to the Washington, D. C., area to gather all available information concerning this same legislator. Coincidental with this display of interest in the particular legislator, it was learned that the wife of another Soviet intelligence officer attempted to gather all information available concerning this legislator through the New York Times Information Bank.* (S)

SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY OF GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Inasmuch as the captioned Committee, to be referred to hereinafter as the SSC, will, of necessity, be concerned in part with highly sensitive information relating to national security, this Bureau suggests that agreement of the SSC be sought for the adoption of the following security measures and procedures, both in the interests of national security and of protection of privacy of individuals:

In the resolution establishing the SSC it was established that no employee of the SSC or person performing tasks for the SSC on a contractual basis should be given access to classified material unless appropriately cleared for access to such material by the SSC. It was indicated that the type of clearance would be commensurate with the type of information to be made available to such persons under conditions agreed upon by the SSC. In this regard it would be desirable for the SSC to stipulate that no staff member who is to be given access to any material, testimony, or information received or generated by the committee other than that which is, in essence, public information be granted such access without prior receipt of a security clearance based on a full field investigation. Consideration might also be given by the SSC to assuring itself that its members are appropriately cleared to receive all material to which they may have access.

The SSC should adopt rules to insure that the secrecy of any sensitive information received or generated by it be preserved and that these rules be made known to the individuals and agencies who will be called upon to present testimony or materials.

It should be stipulated that those agencies which will present documents to the committee be authorized to excise from those documents, prior to their presentation, the names of their personnel as well as those of any other individuals whose safety or individual privacy might be jeopardized by unauthorized disclosure of their identities.

It should be stipulated that, as has been customary in other Congressional proceedings regarding sensitive matters, witnesses shall have the right to request that testimony be given in executive session, that in some instances testimony be "off the record," and that certain testimony be heard only by members of the SSC.

It should further be stipulated that witnesses be afforded an opportunity to review and comment on and/or correct the record of their testimony prior to any publication of it.

It should be understood by the committee that the "Third Agency Rule," binding upon members of the United States intelligence community, may oblige a witness representing one member of the intelligence community to decline to testify concerning matters within the proprietary purview of another community member.

It is the intention of this Bureau to cooperate fully with the SSC. It will be requested that in attempting to satisfy requirements of the SSC we be afforded sufficient time to research these requirements in order to insure that our answers will be totally responsive and accurate.

Provision should be made for the safeguarding of information and documentary materials received or generated by the SSC, consistent with their substance, and, at the conclusion of the Committee's investigation and study, for secure disposition of such records, including return to contributors of materials submitted by them.

REC-111

SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY OF GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

There have been public charges that the FBI has operated for 50 years without oversight or any external controls. This is not accurate. In the Congress, several bodies have had jurisdiction over matters affecting FBI programs and activities. These include the Appropriations Committees of both Houses, the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights and on Administrative Practice and Procedure, a special Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on Surveillances, the House Judiciary Committee, the former House Committee on Internal Security, the Government Operations Committees of both the House and Senate and the Senate Subcommittee on FBI Oversight.

During 1972 the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board, with the full cooperation of the FBI, conducted detailed and extensive examination of the FBI's activities as a member of the United States intelligence community.

The Foreign Relations Authorization Act of 1972 created a Commission on the Organization of the Government for the Conduct of Foreign Policy. That committee made inquiries of members of the intelligence community regarding the role of intelligence as it affects the conduct of our foreign policy. In its research the committee looked into certain pertinent FBI activities and had contact with FBI representatives both in the United States and abroad.

By direction of Chairman Peter Rodino and the House of Representatives' Judiciary Committee, the General Accounting Office (GAO) is currently reviewing the domestic intelligence operations of the FBI, concentrating on policies, programs, procedures and case management.

① Senate Select Committee To Conduct An Investigation and Study of Governmental Operations With Respect to Intell. Activities

This memorandum recommends that the original and one copy of four memoranda (copies attached) be furnished to Mr. William Colby, Director of Central Intelligence, for his consideration at the time of his forthcoming appearance before the Select Committee of the Senate.

Memorandum W. O. Cregar to W. R. Wannall, dated 1/27/75, captioned as above, advised that Mr. Colby anticipates being called as the first witness before the Select Committee of the Senate responsible for examining the extent of overt and covert intelligence activities in the U. S. and abroad. In connection with this appearance, Colby has indicated that he intends to make a very strong pitch for the Intelligence Community and has asked all agencies and departments of the U. S. Intelligence Board (USIB) to provide him with memoranda on the following four subjects: (1) examples of how the FBI in its counterintelligence role has materially benefited the U. S. Government, (2) ground rules that the FBI believes should be discussed with the Committee in order to insure that innocent persons are not maligned and sources and methods of investigation are protected, and (3) a chronology of independent boards or commissions which have examined the efficacy and authority of the FBI, and (4) any pending or proposed legislation involving internal security matters submitted by the FBI.

Attached are copies of four memoranda prepared by the Intelligence Division which we propose to deliver to Mr. Colby before the close of business, 1/29/75.

File 62-116395

ACTION:

If approved, the original and one copy of each of the four memoranda will be delivered to Mr. Colby's office on the afternoon of 1/29/75, by liaison.

SUBJECT: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY OF GOVERNMENTAL OPERATIONS WITH RESPECT TO INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Senate Select Committee

PURPOSE:

This recommends code word "SENSTUDY 75" be adopted as title of new control file for communications regarding subject.

On 1/21/75 the U. S. Senate reported Senate Resolution 21 to establish captioned committee. The Committee will look into operations of members of the U. S. intelligence community including the FBI. The Committee is being chaired by Senator Frank Church of Idaho. We have already received and responded to requests from the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group for Congressional Inquiry for information to be used by Mr. William Colby, Director of Central Intelligence, in preparing for his anticipated initial appearance before the committee. The Ad Hoc Group is composed of representatives of U. S. Intelligence Board member agencies and departments to deal with "SENSTUDY 75."

For administrative convenience, as well as economy, it is suggested that copies of all communications and material dealing with the activities of the committee be placed in a new control file, 62-116395, and that the code word "SENSTUDY 75" be adopted as a brief title for internal communications relating to this matter. FBIHQ indices contain no references to that code word.

SELECT COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE

On January 21, 1975, Resolution 21 established a Select Committee of the Senate to conduct an investigation and study of governmental operations with respect to intelligence activities.

Mr. William Colby, in his role as Director of Central Intelligence and Chairman of the United States Intelligence Board (USIB), has advised that he anticipates being called as the first witness before the Select Committee of the Senate. In his opening remarks it is Mr. Colby's intention to make a strong presentation on behalf of the Intelligence Community highlighting some of its outstanding contributions. In addition, he expects to show that the Community has over the years been subject to scrutiny by Government commissions and boards.

In furtherance of a coordinated effort to insure those agencies and departments of the Intelligence Community are portrayed in a most favorable light Mr. Colby has requested points of contact be established in each USIB agency or department. Mr. John H. Clarke, Associate Deputy to the Director of Central Intelligence for the Intelligence Community, is Mr. Colby's personal representative to insure a proper coordinated effort.

In anticipation that the Intelligence Evaluation Committee which was chaired by the Department of Justice might be the subject of the Select Committee's interest, it is our understanding that Mr. Clarke will be in contact with your office.

This is to confirm a conversation between you and Deputy Associate Director Adams on January 23, 1975, wherein you authorized the FBI to honor name check requests on staff employees received from the Select Senate Committee to Investigate Intelligence Agencies. You were advised that we presently have a request in this connection from Senator Howard H. Baker, Jr., for name checks on four potential staff employees.

Senator Baker had also indicated to the FBI that he had no idea as to who would have the responsibility of conducting the background investigations which must be conducted, and this is to confirm your approval that we contact Director William E. Colby of the Central Intelligence Agency regarding their desires in this matter since they normally handle background checks of staff employees of committees receiving sensitive information concerning Central Intelligence Agency and the FBI normally handles such background investigations on staff employees of committees receiving sensitive FBI information. Following discussions with Mr. Colby, contact will be had with the Chairman of the Select Senate Committee in order to ascertain which agency should conduct the required background investigations.

No domestic spies?

Allegations and disclosures about CIA and FBI surveillance of Americans within U.S. borders have been interpreted by some as a type of domestic spying that could have a chilling effect on the exercise of political expression. One response has been that all domestic intelligence operations should be eliminated. Recent events show this would be a non-solution, a patent overreaction.

Most public opinion and most judicial opinion, we suspect, would not consider it an invasion of constitutional rights of privacy if the FBI infiltrated or otherwise kept an eye on activities of the Weathermen. That organization not long ago expressed itself by taking credit for a bomb explosion in the State Department and for placing another explosive device at the Armed Forces Induction Center in Oakland, Calif.

Should members of Fuerzas Armadas de Liberacion Nacional (FALN), the Puerto Rican nationalist group that claimed responsibility for the Jan. 24 bombing — three men killed, many injured — at New York's historic Fraunces Tavern's annex, be exempted from monitoring by federal police because the act was supposedly politically inspired? By some remote logic, FALN believes that bombing Wall Street restaurants will bring independence to Puerto Rico.

The question answers itself: Society has the right and the obligation to protect itself. These were acts of terrorism, whether or not motivated by political aims. Imperiling innocent people to enforce points of view that have been repudiated by a free, open political process is blackmail. And blackmail cannot become integral to any long-sustainable political system.

The Weathermen and FALN, as well as any other organization that indicates it will use extra-legal methods to voice dissent, should not be freed from fear of domestic spying.

The answer is not to eliminate all domestic political surveillance. It is to set the conditions, and they should be rigid, under which domestic spying will be tolerated and under which abuse by federal agents of such infrequently granted authority will be met with stern penalties.

Senate And The CIA

The special committee the U. S. Senate is forming to look into charges of illegal spying on Americans by the CIA, the FBI or other agencies can do a lot of good—or harm.

If the committee conducts a sober and responsible inquiry it can determine if the CIA did in fact overstep the law against domestic espionage and what corrective measures, if any, are needed.

If, however, the committee conducts a Watergate-style probe, complete with televised hearings and sensationalized leaks, it can severely damage the nation's foreign policy and intelligence capability.

Incidentally, by voting in caucus 45-7 to establish the special committee, Senate Democrats delivered a rebuff, which seems to be unjustified, to President Ford and the commission headed by Vice President Nelson Rockefeller which Mr. Ford named to investigate the CIA.

The Democrats implicitly stated by their vote that they did not trust the Rockefeller commission to perform an objective inquiry.

That amounts to prejudicial prejudgement. The Rockefeller panel should be given a chance to do its job. Then if it does come up with a whitewash, the criticism would be in order.

Meanwhile, the investigation into illegal spying widened after the FBI confirmed its files contain some information on the personal behavior of some congressmen. Included are references to their "loyalty, character or reputation."

Many congressmen are indignant about this. But they should restrain their outrage.

For unlike the CIA, the FBI does have the duty of conducting domestic investigations—and there are times when members of Congress are proper objects of FBI interest.

Every so often, for example, a congressman turns out to be a crook. And in such instances the laws he violates are usually federal ones.

So the FBI, as the federal government's investigatory agency, should not be barred from keeping records on any suspects, even if they happen to be congressmen.

Some people, of course, react with knee-jerk fashion any time they hear of the FBI keeping files on anybody. They immediately begin screaming about "police state" tactics.

Well, no American citizen in his right mind should defend police-state actions by any agency.

But agencies like the FBI and the CIA are essential, considering the kind of world we live in. So we dare not emasculate them to the point where they won't be able to perform their necessary functions.

FBI Chief Looked for Skeletons in Closets of Famous

WASHINGTON — The files went to the Oval Office under J. Edgar Hoover's familiar "I thought you might be interested in knowing" heading. And what they contained was always interesting — to say the least.

From one of the most proficient information-gathering machines in existence — the FBI — J. Edgar Hoover compiled explicit tales of human weakness in high places: Illicit sex, drunkeness, homosexuality, marital problems.

If any president who received such information from Hoover — and all are said to have — ever rebuked him for his efforts, it remained as secret as the contents of the memos themselves. Most were dutifully grateful.

Old FBI hands say Hoover began compiling information on public figures, including congressmen, very early in his 30-year reign.

By the early 1950s field agents were under a standing directive to forward biographical information on newly elected congressmen or executive branch appointees to Washington for the benefit of bureau officials who had to deal with them.

As far as it is known, there never were any specific orders, official or unofficial, for FBI agents to solicit information of an intimate personal nature.

But one former assistant FBI director recalled recently: "It was understood that Hoover was interested in such material. Some agents who might come across a little smut in the course of an investigation would simply ignore it and not forward it. But others saw it as a chance to gain favor and deliberately went out of their way to get more."

Hoover's penchant for ferreting out the skeltons in the closets of the famous was as well known outside the agency as within. The absence of protest against it until now indicates that the threat that those files might be bared may well have been the major source of Hoover's power.

"I can't really say how much of the information ever was used," said one former high-ranking bureau official. "But I am convinced that many a politician shied away from confrontations with the director because he did not know what Hoover had on him."

THE COMING congressional investigations may not verify the existence of secret. The official bureau position is that the information is stored in bits and pieces and was only pulled together when needed.

But there are witnesses who can swear that such dossiers existed, perhaps in Hoover's personal files which have either been destroyed or removed from the bureau. And they were readily accessible to presidents.

"I have personally carried files to the White House dozens of times and delivered them to a secretary," said a former FBI-White House liaison during the Johnson administration. "That was the president could truthfully say he had never talked to the FBI on a particular matter."

WHILE THE ultimate abuse of the FBI occurred under Richard Nixon, most present and former FBI officials say President Lyndon B. Johnson, who had a private telephone line to the home of assistant director Cartha D. DeLoach, did not hesitate to use Hoover's bureau for political purposes.

For example, Johnson requested complete bureau investigations of both Sen. Spiro Agnew, after he became vice-president-elect in 1968.

Johnson justified the Goldwater request, one ex-FBI official reported, by pointing out that Goldwater was a reserve major general in the Air Force and "had more secrets than we do at the White House."

In 1964 Johnson sent an entire team of agents headed by DeLoach to the Atlantic City Democratic convention to do a little spying on friends of Robert F. Kennedy, whom he feared might be plotting to take the nomination away from him.

And a decade before, it was Hoover's FBI that supplied Sen. Joseph McCarthy with much of the ammunition in his now discredited pursuit of alleged communists.

More than one president, FBI officials agree, used the agency to gather information on personal enemies, including elected officials.

Roosevelt, for instance loosed the FBI on foes of his lend-lease program. Johnson frequently passed information along to allies on Capitol Hill who could stun a Johnson opponent by casually dropping a juicy tidbit of gossip from his FBI file.

Although never documented, it was widely believed in Washington that Johnson amused himself with bedside reading of what J. Edgar was finding out about others.

House Speaker Carl Albert, who like everyone else heard rumors that the FBI had a thick file on his personal life, wrote Hoover and asked him about it. Hoover responded equivocally that no such file existed.

The existence of such files was not ~~publicly~~ acknowledged until 1973, after Hoover's death, when the Senate was considering the appointment of L. Patrick Gray as his successor.

Then acting director, Gray told the Senate Judiciary Committee he had seen files so hot there was no way of destroying them without risking hurt to some subjects.

Saying he would like to burn them, Gray said the law gives the National Archives final say over the documents.

Subsequent news stories disclosed the existence of files on Sen. Edward Kennedy then House Majority Leader Hale Boggs, an~~d several~~ others.

MDR-16

DATE 1-19-01 BY SP2ALM/RC

At 2:30 p.m. on June 2, 1975, a conference was held with the Deputy Attorney General attended by K. William O'Connor, Kevin Maroney, Philip White, and Robert McDermott of the Department. Bureau representatives were Mr. Callahan, Mr. Adams, Mr. Wannall and me.

Mr. O'Connor discussed the request by the Senate Select Committee for access to the 39 page report by former Assistant Attorney General Petersen concerning COINTELPRO. Though objections were presented by the Bureau representatives that the report should not be furnished to the Committee, and its enclosures, particularly the legal memoranda should not be made available, the Deputy Attorney General decided and instructed that the 39 page report should be made available to John Elliff on Tuesday, June 3, 1975, for his review, at which time he would be permitted to take notes, but he would not be furnished a copy of the document. The Deputy further instructed that should Mr. Elliff request the attachments to the report, Mr. O'Connor should offer as an alternative the memoranda which initiated each of the COINTELPROs.

Upon our return to the Bureau, Mr. Adams requested that the Intelligence Division undertake an analysis of each of the summaries which were attached to the Petersen report in order to make a damage assessment based on factors that would affect current Bureau operations should they be revealed to the Committee. He also requested that ~~this information~~ be compiled and available to brief the Deputy Attorney General as to the difficulties that would be involved upon disclosure.

Honorable Charles E. Wiggins
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Congressman Wiggins:

Reference is made to your letter dated April 9, 1975, enclosing a resolution adopted by the State Bar of California condemning the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for placing an informant on the staff of a legal service agency to communicate information learned in that capacity to the FBI and our response dated April 28, 1975.

Contact with the State Bar of California has enabled us to identify the situation to which they were referring.

Between April, 1968, and November, 1968, one Rudolph Leamer Muse was operated as an informant by our New Orleans, Louisiana, Division. Muse furnished information regarding black extremist activities and he was paid for services rendered. Muse was unemployed when initially volunteering his assistance to the FBI and subsequently, on May 10, 1968, began working as an investigator for the New Orleans Legal Assistance Corps (NOLAC), an organization funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Information in the files of our New Orleans Division indicates during June, 1968, Muse advised it had become necessary to tell his supervisor at NOLAC of his relationship with the FBI. His supervisor became aware of Muse's association with black nationalist groups and attempted to discharge him. To avoid discharge, Muse told his supervisor he was cooperating with the FBI. Subsequently Muse's supervisor from NOLAC contacted the New Orleans Division and advised he wanted to assure the FBI that the relationship between Muse and the FBI would be maintained by him and would go no further. Muse's supervisor said he was cognizant of the importance of Muse's cooperation with the FBI remaining confidential.

The New Orleans Division of the FBI never conducted any investigation regarding NOLAC and Muse never furnished information concerning its activities.

I hope this information will clarify the issue for you. If I may be of further assistance in this matter, please contact me.

A copy of this letter is being provided to the State Bar of California.

Honorable Charles E. Wiggins

NOTE:

The resolution of the State Bar of California (SBC) referred to above did not identify the specific incident in which they were interested so Congressman Wiggins' letter was acknowledged and we indicated additional details would follow. On 4/25/75 San Francisco advised the basis for the SBC resolution was articles contained in the 2/7/75 issues of the San Francisco Examiner and Oakland Tribune. In these articles Muse was not mentioned by name but the details corresponded with his case. On 4/28/75 Supervisor Ernest Wall, New Orleans, advised Muse was identified by name in articles concerning this incident in the 2/2/75 issue of the New Orleans Times Picayune and the 2/25/75 issue of the New Orleans States Item. Since Muse revealed his relationship with the FBI and has been publicly identified by name and appears to be no privacy issue or need to protect the confidentiality of our files, Congressman Wiggins should be advised of the complete details in this matter. As the SBC urged issues such as this be considered by the select committees of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives, a copy of this communication is being furnished for the information of the Legal Analysis Section and Project Senstudy 75 in Division 5.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Principals ~~of the USIB~~ Ad Hoc Coordinating Group

SUBJECT : Ninth Meeting, 4 June 1975

1. A meeting of the USIB Ad Hoc Coordinating Group was held on 4 June 1975 at 10:00 a.m. A list of attendees is attached.

2. The meeting was opened by Dr. Clarke who described the current activities of the Senate Select Committee in accelerating their official interviews with knowledgeable officials across the Community and the criticality of firming up agreements on how these interviews are to be handled. This has not been forthcoming despite White House interest. House Select Committee procedure is not yet clear.

3. The second item raised by the Chairman was the list of category II "abuses" which had been developed at the direction of the Policy Steering Group. The set developed was the result of discussions with Mr. Schwarz, Counsel to the Senate Select Committee, who plans to present a complete list of "category II" items to the Committee on Friday, 6 June. At that point, it is expected "notices" would go out to the Community agencies advising them so that agreed interview procedures will apply. It is also anticipated that the presence of private as well as Agency counsel will be addressed. The Policy Steering Group has accepted the principle of dealing with these identified "category II" subjects by assigning responsibility for gathering of comprehensive and paper preparation to specific individuals within the Community agencies. Dr. Clarke is the focal point for gathering the names of individuals who will assume these responsibilities. To date, individuals had been named for all subjects except those to be handled by CIA.

4. In addition to the "category II" items, there are a number of additional subjects largely geographic in nature for which the DCI feels CIA should assume responsibility for preparing comprehensive papers. In view of the apparent adversary relationship between the Senate Select Committee Staff and the agencies under investigation, it may be that preparation of papers dealing comprehensively with specific subjects will deflect some of this cross-agency probing and result in a positive solution to problems before they arise.

5. The Chairman reminded the group of the responsibility which exists to keep Mr. Cotter of the Post Office Department informed on matters resulting from the Congressional investigations which will clearly impact on his agency's affairs. At present, the cross-agency character of the interviews now under way indicate a possible communication gap in adequately coordinating on postal matters.

6. The Chairman explained the DCI's action taken in late May to separate the responsibility for CIA's response to the Congressional Select Committees from those responsibilities of the IC Staff. Both Dr. Clarke and Mr. Elder emphasized the very close relationship which exists in the two efforts. Mr. Elder will represent CIA at all USIB Ad Hoc sessions henceforth.

7. The Chairman questioned Mr. Elder, the CIA representative, whether or not the Senate Select Committee had yet furnished the Agency with a list of subjects with which they plan to deal in depth. Mr. Elder reported they have not yet done so, but it is apparent that three items are of priority interest at the moment: assassinations, the Phoenix program, and covert action; that it appears clear the Committee is currently pursuing the question of authorities, approvals, and support from other agencies.

8. The 27 May request addressed to the DCI covering materials under the jurisdiction of a number of Community agencies was provided to the members of the Ad Hoc Group. Dr. Clarke indicated he was seeking policy guidance on selected items in the request which dealt with Community product such as NIE etc. He noted the 27 May request indicated identical letters were being forwarded to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of Defense. Copies have been sent to all USIB Ad Hoc members, the NSC and the White House.

9. Copies of a memorandum which set forth the action items resulting from the Policy Steering Group session of last week were provided to the Ad Hoc members for their information.

10. Mr. Elder reported that the House Committee has indicated to CIA its intent to concentrate on specific issues, but as of now are not adequately organized to be specific in their requests. The one extant request forwarded to the CIA was posing some problems because of the lack of cleared personnel, approved storage facilities, and determinations on the ultimate disposition of records. The Chairman noted that concurrent with this meeting, a meeting of Community legal representatives was taking place with the purpose of commenting on the House Select Committee's proposed security regulations which have not yet been adopted.

11. CIA reported its success with the provision of a reading room for SSC Staff at CIA headquarters. State reported there were no comparable facilities anticipated there. Defense has provided badges to Staff members and reading facilities are available. The same accessability of materials is true at NSA and FBI.

12. The last subject on the agenda was the implementation of the Community Central Index. In the material provided to the group was a letter reaffirming the purposes of the Central Index and a list of 40 key words to be used in identifying material furnished the Index. A printout of the Index content was provided to the group as a review document only. The final format of such periodic reports has not yet been refined. Group members are encouraged to comment if they detect any problems with items in the printout. Forms for inputting information to the Central Index were also provided to the Group. This is a service of common concern which will assure the uniformity of information received and should serve to lighten the workload of the individual agencies. The telephone number of Mrs. Young of the Central Index was provided for agencies' convenience in accessing the Index information.

Accordingly the Atlanta Office was contacted and subsequently the writer was contacted by Robert Olmert of the Bureau. Mr. Olmert advised that if it was desired the Bureau would make available a representative not for the purpose of participating in the interview but to be available for advice. The writer stated he was interested in obtaining such assistance. Accordingly during the morning of 5/12/75 Mr. Seymor Phillips contacted the writer.

"This is dictated immediately following interview by Siedel. No effort is herein made to follow the chronology of questions presented by Siedel. During the interview no notes or recording were made by writer. Will use "Q" for question and "A" for answer. Questions (Q) were asked by Siedel and answers (A) were given by writer.

"A: Was it correct that matters concerning the King investigation were discussed openly over coffee by members of the Atlanta field office?

"A: Matters relating to the King investigation were discussed by individuals concerned therewith. I have no recollection during the period I was connected with the investigation that it was discussed by everybody like the previous night's ballgame might have been.

"Q: Shortly after King received the Nobel Prize did a Bureau official William Sullivan come to Atlanta?

"A: It is my recollection King received the Nobel Prize sometime before the case was assigned to me. I do not remember if Bureau official William Sullivan visited Atlanta.

"Q: Did Sullivan have any contact with Ralph McGill concerning King?

"A: I do not know.

"Q: Were taps (telephone) and bugs (microphone) used by Atlanta in connection with King?

"A: A tap (telephone) was utilized re King at his SCLC office and his residence.

"Q: When were the bugs (microphone) utilized?

"A: There were none.

"Q: What was the purpose of the investigation of King?

"A: To determine whether King and/or SCLC were influenced by persons or groups having communist tendencies.

"Q: Did you feel the investigation was worthwhile?

"A: I don't recall that I ever asked myself that question. It was an assignment made by my employer and my responsibility to handle it.

"Q: How did other agents feel about the illegal use of these taps?

"A: The taps were not illegal. They were obtained through the authority of the Attorney General.

"Q: Did any agents express the opinion that these investigations were improper?

"A: I do not recall specifically although Mr. Murtaugh (sic) may well have so stated.

"Q: What electronic surveillance was used concerning Levison?

"A: I do not know. Levison resided in New York City.

"Q: Was Levison covered by the tap on King?

"A: Only to the extent that he was in contact with King. There was no tap on Levison per se in Atlanta.

"Q: Was there any physical surveillance of King?

"A: I do not recall any physical surveillance of King as such. There was surveillance conducted of individuals in contact with King and consequently King would obviously have been physically surveilled. But such surveillance was not on King directly.

"Q. Did you participate in these surveillances?

"A: Yes on several occasions.

"Q: How many occasions?

"A: I cannot recall.

"Q: How long were you in Atlanta?

"A: August 1960 - March 1971.

"Q: What other offices did you serve in and when?

"A: Baltimore, September 1948 - January 1949; Buffalo, January 1949 - August 1960; Atlanta, August 1960 - March 1971.

"Q: Where were you born?

"A: London, England.

"Q: How long did you live there?

"A: 9 years.

"Q: Where did you live first when in this country?

"A: In New Jersey approximately one year. I spent most of my growing up time in Iowa.

"Q: You entered the Bureau July 1948 and left in March 1971?

"A: That is correct.

"Q: When was the King and SCLC case assigned to you?

"A: I believe it was the early part or spring of 1965.

"Q: How long had the investigation been going on before you got the case?

"A: I really am not sure - possibly a year; it might have been longer.

"A: How long did the investigation continue?

"A: I cannot actually recall.

"Q: Was it still going on when you left the Bureau?

"A: Yes, regarding the SCLC.

"Q: How long after King's death did the tap remain?

"A: I cannot be sure. It seems as though it was discontinued a short time after, however I believe it continued for a longer period of time on the SCLC.

"Q: Did you have any contact with news media or clergy regarding King, SCLC, or Levison?

"A: No.

"Q: What relationship was there with the Atlanta Police Department and what electronic surveillance did it have of King, SCLC, or Levison?

"A: Throughtout my entire period as agent in Atlanta I never had any information as to what electronic surveillance may have been conducted by the Atlanta Police Department. During the period of time I was concerned with King, SCLC, Levison there was no discussion to my knowledge of these matters with the Atlanta Police Department. Generally speaking the rapport with the police department was good.

"Q: Did you monitor the taps on King, SCLC?

"A: No.

"Q: What squad were you assigned to in the Atlanta Office?

"A: Security. More correctly it was referred to as the Security and Racial Squad.

"Q: Who else was assigned to this squad? Was there a man named Harding?

"A: Yes.

"Q: What was his first name?

"A: Charles.

"A: Who else was assigned?

"A: Your friend Murtaugh, a Richard Davis.

"At this point the writer stated he preferred not to name additional personnel simply because he did not wish to feel that they might subsequently be interviewed as a result. The writer stated he was confident that Siedel or his agency had already been furnished all of these names by Mr. Murtaugh. He was informed that in the writer's opinion the Bureau was fully able and capable of furnishing this information. Siedel opined it would be a waste of government money to subpoena the writer to Washington in order to obtain these names.

"Q: Did you develop any evidence relating to Levison's CP connections?

"A: No.

"Q: Did you read reports from New York regarding Levison?

"A: Yes.

"Q: Did those reports set forth information from taps and bugs?

"A: The reports did not state source of information.

"Q: Did you know the information came from taps (or bugs)?

"A: I did not know directly but presumed that it did.

"Q: What type of work was the Security Squad in Atlanta concerned with?

"A: That squad primarily handled matters in the security category, racial matters, and also civil rights matters.

"Q: What kind of matters constituted racial matters besides SCLC?

"A: The investigation of SCLC was not a racial matter. It was concerned with possible communist influence of the organization. The Ku Klux Klan was a racial matter because it involved pressures between white and black persons.

"Q: What organizations or individuals were investigated in the security category?

"A: I have had no contact with Bureau matters for over four years. At this time I have no knowledge what effect my answer to your question might have upon the current status of any matter of concern to the Bureau.

"Siedel essentially repeated his question and endeavored to explain that he had no desire to affect the Bureau's investigative status.

"The writer advised his answer to the question remained as above. At this point Siedel suggested the writer might wish to consult Mr. Phillips which was done.

"Writer consulted privately with Phillips. After which Phillips entered the writer's office and told Siedel that if he was seeking the Bureau's policy relative to security, racial and civil rights investigations, same was in the Bureau's manuals available to the Committee. At this point Siedel said he was not after policy but names of specific persons and organizations the writer would now recall were under investigation.

"The writer restated former answer to this question and explained to Siedel that he did not consider himself so naive to suppose that any of the information given to Siedel would not at some future time appear in print. To which Siedel stated he would not be personally responsible therefore. Siedel was informed the writer was not necessarily stating he would be personally responsible therefore. Siedel pointed out that he could not require a different answer to this question at the present time but went on to explain the writer could be subpoenaed for this purpose for open or closed testimony.

"Q: During the course of these investigations did you ever alter or fabricate any document previously prepared?

"A: No.

"Q: Do you know of such having been done in the Atlanta Office?

"A: No.

"Q: Do you know of a tape recording pertaining to King which was sent to Mrs. King?

"A: Not during that period. It seems I might have heard such an allegation but there has been so much material news media wise the past year or two, I actually cannot be sure whether I read of such an allegation or might have heard it said. In any case so far as I am concerned it was hearsay.

"Q: What was your participation in COINTELPRO investigations and what did they cover while you were in the Atlanta Office?

"A: I left the Bureau over four years ago and have absolutely no knowledge of what might be the present status of any investigation by the Bureau past or present. I feel very strongly that any answer I might give could conceivably adversely effect the Bureau's investigative position. For this reason I decline to discuss this matter.

Siedel stated the Bureau had recently stated it had discontinued COINTELPRO. The writer advised he was not aware of this; that his answer above remained the same.

"Q: Do you know of any effort by the Bureau to influence a political campaign?

"A: No."

In addition to the foregoing verbatim statement, Sentinella also voluntarily furnished to the FBI several observations, the following of which may be of interest:

"1. Siedel obviously was attempting to verify allegations made by other individuals.

"2. All of his questions appeared to have been previously prepared in writing.

"3. At one point he commented he was conducting this interview for a colleague (not named).

"4. Siedel did not appear satisfied with the results of the interview. It is presumed he considers the writer's cooperation to be minimal.

"5. As Siedel prepared to depart he was informed that during 23 years as an agent the writer suffered some adverse administrative action; that these ultimately proved to be experiences from which the writer profited. He was told the writer had "no axe to grind" regarding the Bureau and no intent or desire to accomplish any questionable literary fame."

The individual who interviewed Sentinella was SSC Staff Member Lester B. Seidel, not Siedel, as indicated in Sentinella's statement.

The King referred to in Sentinella's statement is the late Martin Luther King, Jr., subject of prior investigation by the FBI. The Levison referred to is Stanley David Levison, also subject of prior FBI investigation. The SCLC referred to is the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, an organization which was headed by King. The Murtaugh referred to is Arthur Leo Murtagh who was an SA of the FBI from April 16, 1951, until his retirement on September 25, 1971.

NOTE:

Original and one copy to the AG, copy for forwarding to James A. Wilderotter, Associate Counsel to the President. Information herein taken from Sentinella's verbatim statement and from a separate statement containing his observations, both of which he voluntarily mailed to S. F. Phillips of the Senstudy 75 Project. The procedure of furnishing the AG an extra copy for forwarding to Wilderotter has been established through liaison by P. V. Daly of the Legal Counsel's Office with the AG's Office.

At this point the writer stated he preferred not to name additional personnel simply because he did not wish to feel that they might subsequently be interviewed as a result. The writer stated he was confident that Siedel or his agency had already been furnished all of these names by Mr. Murtaugh. He was informed that in the writer's opinion the Bureau was fully able and capable of furnishing this information. Siedel opined it would be a waste of government money to subpoena the writer to Washington in order to obtain these names.

Q: Did you develop any evidence relating to Levison's CP connections?

A: No.

Q: Did you read reports from New York regarding Levison?

A: Yes.

Q: Did these reports set forth information from taps and bugs?

A: The reports did not state source of information.

Q: Did you know the information came from taps (or bugs)?

A: I did not know directly but presumed that it did.

Q: What type of work was the Security Squad in Atlanta concerned with?

A: That squad primarily handled matters in the security category, racial matters, and also civil rights matters.

Q: What kind of matters constituted racial matters besides SCLC?

A: The investigation of SCLC was not a racial matter. It was concerned with possible communist influence of the organization. The Ku Klux Klan was a racial matter because it involved pressures between white and black persons.

Q: What organizations or individuals were investigated in the security category?

A: I have had no contact with Bureau matters for over four years. At this time I have no knowledge what effect my answer to your question might have upon the current status of any matter of concern to the Bureau.

Siedel essentially repeated his question and endeavored to explain that he had no desire to affect the Bureau's investigative status.

The writer advised his answer to the question remained as above. At this point Siedel suggested the writer might wish to consult Mr. Phillips which was done.

Writer consulted privately with Phillips. After which Phillips entered the writer's office and told Siedel that if he was seeking the Bureau's policy relative to security, racial and civil rights investigations, same was in the Bureau's manuals available to the Committee. At this point Siedel said he was not after policy but names of specific persons and organizations the writer would now recall were under investigation.

The writer restated former answer to this question and explained to Siedel that he did not consider himself so naive to suppose that any of the information given to Siedel would not at some future time appear in print. To which Siedel stated he would not be personally responsible therefore. Siedel was informed the writer was not necessarily stating he would be personally responsible therefore. Siedel pointed out that he could not require a different answer to this question at the present time but went on to explain the writer could be subpoenaed for this purpose for open or closed testimony.

Q: During the course of these investigations did you ever alter or fabricate any document previously prepared?

A: No.

Q: Do you know of such having been done in the Atlanta Office?

A: No.

Q: Do you know of a tape recording pertaining to King which was sent to Mrs. King?

A: Not during that period. It seems I might have heard such an allegation but there has been so much material news media wise the past year or two, I actually cannot be sure whether I read of such an allegation or might have heard it said. In any case so far as I am concerned it was hearsay.

Q: What was your participation in COINTELPRO investigations and what did they cover while you were in the Atlanta Office?

A: I left the Bureau over four years ago and have absolutely no knowledge of what might be the present status of any investigation by the Bureau past or present. I feel very strongly that any answer I might give could conceivably adversely effect the Bureau's investigative position. For this reason I decline to discuss this matter.

Siedel stated the Bureau had recently stated it had discontinued COINTELPRO. The writer advised he was not aware of this; that his answer above remained the same.

Q: Do you know of any effort by the Bureau to influence a political campaign?

A: No.

WRITER'S OBSERVATIONS

1. Siedel obviously was attempting to verify allegations made by other individuals.

2. All of his questions appeared to have been previously prepared in writing.

3. At one point he commented he was conducting this interview for a colleague (not named).

4. Siedel did not appear satisfied with the results of the interview. It is presumed he considers the writer's cooperation to be minimal.

5. As Siedel prepared to depart he was informed that during 23 years as an agent the writer suffered some adverse administrative action; that these ultimately proved to be experiences from which the writer profited. He was told the writer had "no axe to grind" regarding the Bureau and no intent or desire to accomplish any questionable literary fame."

6. Upon departing Siedel inquired as to the proximity of the Equitable Building (office building) and the First National Bank of Atlanta (also office building). Any significance to these locations was not apparent to the writer. When informed that banking hours terminated at 4:00pm Siedel made no comment.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

As consideration for employment in the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), United States Department of Justice, and as a condition for continued employment, I hereby declare that I intend to be governed by and I will comply with the following provisions:

(1) That I am hereby advised and I understand that Federal law such as Title 18, United States Code, Sections 793, 794, and 798; Order of the President of the United States (Executive Order 11652); and regulations issued by the Attorney General of the United States (28 Code of Federal Regulations, Sections 16.21 through 16.26) prohibit loss, misuse, or unauthorized disclosure or production of national security information, other classified information and other nonclassified information in the files of the FBI;

(2) I understand that unauthorized disclosure of information in the files of the FBI or information I may acquire as an employee of the FBI could result in impairment of national security, place human life in jeopardy, or result in the denial of due process to a person or persons who are subjects of an FBI investigation, or prevent the FBI from effectively discharging its responsibilities. I understand the need for this secrecy agreement; therefore, as consideration for employment I agree that I will never divulge, publish, or reveal either by word or conduct, or by other means disclose to any unauthorized recipient without official written authorization by the Director of the FBI or his delegate, any information from the investigatory files of the FBI or any information relating to material contained in the files, or disclose any information or produce any material acquired as a part of the performance of my official duties or because of my official status. The burden is on me to determine, prior to disclosure, whether information may be disclosed and in this regard I agree to request approval of the Director of the FBI in each such instance by presenting the full text of my proposed disclosure in writing to the Director of the FBI at least thirty (30) days prior to disclosure. I understand that this agreement is not intended to apply to information which has been placed in the public domain or to prevent me from writing or speaking about the FBI but it is intended to prevent disclosure of information where disclosure would be contrary to law, regulation or public policy. I agree the Director of the FBI is in a better position than I to make that determination;

(3) I agree that all information acquired by me in connection with my official duties with the FBI and all official material to which I have access remains the property of the United States of America, and I will surrender upon demand by the Director of the FBI or his delegate, or upon separation from the FBI, any material relating to such information or property in my possession;

(4) That I understand unauthorized disclosure may be a violation of Federal law and prosecuted as a criminal offense and in addition to this agreement may be enforced by means of an injunction or other civil remedy.

I accept the above provisions as conditions for my employment and continued employment in the FBI. I agree to comply with these provisions both during my employment in the FBI and following termination of such employment.

On the morning of May 30, 1975, Mr. Robert Nichols (SA-Retired), and SA John Dennis Miller, Legal Analysis Office, met in Miller's office, prior to Nichol's appointment for interview by members of the staff of the Senate Select Committee.

Miller gave Nichols a copy of the Committee's rules at approximately 8:35 a.m. after Nichols stated he had not been given a copy by anyone else. He advised Nichols that nothing Miller was about to say was intended to or should be interpreted as an order or suggestion to be uncooperative with the Senate Select Committee or its staff.

Miller then advised Nichols he had the right to be represented by an attorney; if he is unable to retain an attorney, he should so advise the Committee staff and ask them to assist him in securing counsel; and the FBI could not provide the services of an attorney. Nichols said he understood.

Miller then escorted Nichols to the JEH Building where he met SAs Paul V. Daly and Seymor F. Phillips.

On the evening of 5-20-75 Deputy Assistant Attorney General K. William O'Conner telephonically advised SA Paul V. Daly of the Legal Counsel Division that the Department had reached a decision concerning the scope of testimony to be allowed in the Senate Select Committee interview of former SA Alan G. Sentinella. We previously had informed the Department that Mr. Sentinella was to testify pursuant to a subpoena before this Committee and that Department of Justice Order 501-73 requires we obtain Departmental approval before testimony may be given. We also informed the Department that Lester B. Seidel , staff member of the Senate Select Committee, had advised SA Daly that the scope of the intended interview of Sentinella would include knowledge Sentinella may have concerning the investigations of Martin Luther King, Stanley David Levinson, and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). Mr. Seidel also indicated that they would interview Sentinella concerning his activities between the years 1960 to 1971.

Mr. O'Conner advised SA Daly that the decision of Deputy Attorney General Harold R. Tyler; Assistant Attorney General Antonin Scalia, and Associate Deputy Attorney General Robert McDermott was that Sentinella was released insofar as the Department was concerned to only discuss three areas, those areas being the FBI investigations of Martin Luther King, Stanley David Levinson, and SCLC. He was to advise the Committee that he was not permitted to go outside of these three areas because of instructions from the Department of Justice which instructions were issued pursuant to Department of Justice Order 501-73.

On 5-21-75 former SA Sentinella was advised of the Departmental restrictions on the information he could furnish the Committee by SA Daly, and he was accompanied by SA Daly to the Senate Select Committee office located in G308 of the Dirksen Senate Office Building. Sentinella's interview was scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Mr. Seidel met Mr. Sentinella and at 9:31 a.m. furnished Mr. Sentinella a copy of the Rules of Procedure for the Select Committee to Study Governmental Operations with Respect to Intelligence Activities. At the same time, former SA Sentinella was furnished forms which Seidel requested he fill out at that time. Seidel also made reference to Sentinella's Fifth Amendment rights but did not specify or spell out his rights.

It was brought to Mr. Seidel 's attention by SA Daly that the Rules adopted by the Senate Select Committee called for a witness to be given copies of the Rules 24 hours prior to his appearance before the Committee and that these Rules are important for a potential witness to have knowledge of prior to his being interviewed since they contain a list of rights and privileges which a witness is entitled to. It was also brought to Mr. Seidel 's attention that despite the fact that the interview was to be initiated at 10 a.m. (initially the interview was scheduled for 9:30 a.m., however, upon arrival former SA Sentinella was advised it would not be held until 10 a.m.) with Mr. Sentinella being required to fill out forms, he would have very little opportunity to review and digest the Rules of the Committee.

Mr. Seidel was also advised of the restrictions placed on the area which former SA Sentinella could respond to by the Department of Justice. Mr. Seidel specifically requested that he be allowed to ask questions concerning "COINTELPRO." He was advised that this was not within the scope of the Department's release for Sentinella unless such information may have been related to the investigations of Martin Luther King, Stanley David Levinson, or SCLC.

SA Daly also explained to John Elliff, Task Force Head for the Committee on Domestic Intelligence Matters, the circumstances surrounding the failure to provide a copy of the Rules 24 hours prior to interview and of the lack of specificity of Mr. Seidel as to areas in which Mr. Sentinella would be interviewed. Mr. Elliff apologized for the oversight of the Committee in complying with its Rules and assured SA Daly this would not happen again. In addition, he was advised that the Rules of the Committee provide that witnesses would have a reasonable opportunity to inspect and correct their testimony, however, the Rules provide that a witness must inspect his testimony in the office of the Committee. It was pointed out to Mr. Elliff that such procedures were unreasonable in that in Mr. Sentinella's instance, he would have to travel from Atlanta to Washington, D. C., to review the transcript of his testimony at his own expense. Mr. Elliff indicated that he believed other arrangements concerning this particular aspect of the Rules could and would be worked out.

Mr. Sentinella at the conclusion of his testimony advised SA Daly, who was not present at the testimony, that the Committee adhered to the restrictions placed on his testimony by the Attorney General with one possible exception. They asked Mr. Sentinella if while he was working in Atlanta his squad investigated the "Klan" and "SNCC" (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee). Sentinella advised he did not raise an objection to this question because he felt the deviation from the Departmental restrictions was very slight, and our investigations of these matters were well known.

On the afternoon of 5-21-75 K. William O'Conner inquired of SA Daly how the interview went and he was generally advised of the facts surrounding the interview, including the fact that former SA Sentinella was not furnished a copy of the Rules until immediately preceding the interview. Mr. O'Conner inquired as to whether the Senator (Senator Robert Morgan [D-N.C.]) remained during the taking of testimony from Mr. Sentinella, and he was advised that according to Sentinella, Senator Morgan departed approximately five minutes after placing Mr. Sentinella under oath.

Mr. O'Conner expressed his displeasure at the way the Committee operated and indicated he was going to discuss this matter with Deputy Attorney General Tyler.

Subsequently, on 5-21-75 O'Conner indicated he had been in contact with James Wilderotter, assistant to the Counsel to the President, and Deputy Attorney General Tyler, and they want the Bureau to prepare a letter protesting the Committee's handling of the interview of Sentinella and of the fact that they violated Rules which were adopted by that Committee, specifically the Rules requiring Mr. Sentinella be furnished a copy of the Committee Rules 24 hours prior to giving testimony to the Committee, failure to be specific concerning the areas to be covered by Sentinella's testimony, the general manner in which the rights of Sentinella were explained to him, and the fact that Senator Morgan departed from the Committee session after giving the oath. O'Conner explained in this regard Deputy Attorney General Tyler feels that this is in contravention of the Rules of the Committee, and he questions whether an executive session of the Committee being held to hear such testimony can continue in the absence of a Senate Committee Member. He requested this letter be directed to Senator Church. He was advised that such a letter could only be prepared after approval had been obtained from proper Bureau authorities, and it was also pointed out to Mr. O'Conner that we had orally protested this matter to Mr. Elliff of the Committee and Mr. Seidel , and he was apprised of Elliff's statement that such mistakes would not be repeated in the future. It was pointed out to Mr. O'Conner that the Bureau had furnished former SA Sentinella a detailed briefing of his rights and a briefing as to what was contained in the Rules of the Committee prior to his interview. Mr. O'Conner again requested that we prepare a letter protesting this matter.

It is not felt that a letter concerning this particular matter should be directed to Senator Church in view of Mr. Elliff's statement that this incident will not be repeated in the future. It is felt that our oral protest to the Committee is sufficient at this point, especially inasmuch as they accepted the limitations placed on the testimony of former SA Sentinella by the Department. It would appear we could expect to achieve very little by sending such a letter at this time.

RECOMMENDATION:

That we orally advise Mr. O'Conner the Bureau does not feel a letter should be directed to the Committee concerning this particular incident.

Senstudy-75

Dear Senator Church:

It is my understanding that the continuing efforts of staff members of the Executive and Legislative Branches to prepare standard guidelines for witness interview procedures are continuing this week. While that process continues, the Department of Justice is, of course, continuing to cooperate in an ad hoc and responsive manner. In order to ensure our attention to these cooperative efforts, I have designated K. William O'Connor as Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination and as such he will be the principle liaison officer of DOJ in this effort. I understand that your Chief Counsel and members of his staff are now dealing with Mr. O'Connor in the execution of their responsibilities.

In the meantime, in an effort to expedite the cooperative provision of appropriate information to SSC, it would be most helpful if the Committee Staff would ensure that the Department of Justice is advised, in advance of Committee Staff contact with FBI employees and former employees, of the name of the witness and the scope of the prospective interview. This would facilitate the interview process, since it would make it possible to ensure that appropriate instructions are issued to the witness under 28 CFR 16.22, and would permit early decision upon the release of any applicable secrecy agreements.

In the same vein, I should like to invite your attention to some procedural matters surrounding recent witness presentation before the Committee. It appears, from reports which I have received, that two former FBI agents who recently appeared, did not receive copies of the Committee's Rules of Procedures until immediately before appearance before the Committee; and that the scope of their proposed testimony was defined with somewhat less than optimum precision for pre-clearance. Some procedural problems are almost inevitable, especially in the early stages of hearings. I know that you share my interest in assuring that full procedural due process is unequivocally provided to all witnesses who testify before the Committee or are interviewed by Committee Staff. In calling this matter to your attention I seek your support in restricting such problems to a minimum and prospectively avoiding others of like kind.

Sincerely,

Edward H. Levi

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise that a representative of captioned Committee has advised that if the Bureau's response to a Committee request concerning the Democratic Convention in Atlantic City in 1964 is sufficiently informative it may not be necessary to interview Bureau personnel concerning this matter and to recommend that an expeditious effort be made to furnish a summary concerning the Atlantic City investigation be made available along with certain documents concerning this matter.

By way of background, we have received a request dated 5-14-75 pertaining to many items, among which was information concerning the Bureau's activities in Atlantic City in 1964 at the Democratic National Convention. At a meeting on 5-30-75 it was pointed out to the Committee that certain aspects of their May 14, 1975, request were particularly burdensome, would in some instances invade privacy and for other reasons was most difficult. During this meeting which was attended by Mark Gitenstein, staff member of the Committee; John Elliff, Task Force Director; representatives of the Bureau; and K. William O'Conner, Special Counsel to the Deputy Attorney General for Intelligence Coordination, the Committee representatives indicated that subject to the Senate Committee's approval they would accept some sort of summary with regard to their request in Appendix D, Item 8 of the May 14, 1975, request. This item pertains to the Bureau's activities in Atlantic City.

We have had former Agents interviewed concerning this matter, a request has been made to interview two Bureau secretaries, and the Committee has indicated they intend to interview as many as five additional Bureau Agents concerning this matter. In conversation with K. William O'Conner, he mentioned that the Committee had specifically informed him that if the Bureau's response was informative enough concerning the Atlantic City matter, they would not interview the two Bureau secretaries, Mary Ann Massa and M. Ann Mierzejewski. (The request concerning the interview of these Bureau employees, who are Newark Office employees, is the subject of a separate memorandum captioned and dated same.) He requested SA Paul V. Daly to contact Mark Gitenstein in an effort to determine what type of response the Committee expected concerning the Atlantic City incident.

On 6-4-75, SA Daly contacted Mr. Gitenstein and Mr. Gitenstein advised that the Committee knew of the existence of certain memoranda and in particular a memorandum from former Assistant to the Director C. D. DeLoach reporting a conversation with the President requesting Bureau coverage at the Convention. Gitenstein stated that with regard to the Atlantic City incident, if a summary was prepared concerning this incident which would in general show the types of people whose conversations were monitored, the type of information collected, and the type of information disseminated along with furnishing the Committee certain important documents that it would not be necessary to interview Bureau personnel. He indicated among the documents they would expect to be furnished would be the DeLoach memorandum along with other "benign" documents which would not involve a privacy consideration or other considerations which might preclude their being made available to the Committee. Gitenstein indicated that it is the Committee's feeling that information of a political nature such as the credentials argument at the Convention was collected and furnished to the White House and that the collection and dissemination of this information is not apparently in concert with the ostensive purpose of electronic surveillance. He felt that the summary need not and should not identify individuals monitored but rather describe them such as a senator or some other descriptive phrase to describe the individual whose conversation might have been monitored. He said as to the verification of the information contained in the summary with the information in the files, that subject will be addressed by the Committee at a later time.

Gitenstein again mentioned that if such information was furnished by the Bureau, their need to interview employees would be muted as what they are attempting to learn through interview of Agents involved would have already been furnished by the Bureau. He volunteered that the Committee is relatively well informed concerning this particular matter. It is obvious from the specific mention of the DeLoach memorandum along with other observations and statements he made that this could well be true.

It is realized that the White House has requested that a paper be prepared which would include the Atlantic City incident; however, K. William O'Connor indicated that he had conversed with Mr. James Wilderotter, assistant to the Counsel to the President, and that Wilderotter had advised that document requests pertaining to Atlantic City or any other topic which will be addressed in a paper should be responded to and response should not be delayed.

It would appear to be advantageous to the Bureau to attempt to comply with the summary request along with furnishing certain documents concerning Atlantic City on an expeditious basis as opposed to the Committee continuing to conduct interviews of current and former Bureau personnel. If this type of arrangement can be worked out in this particular incident which the Committee characterizes as an abuse, it might lend itself to a similar arrangement in other areas.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the Intelligence Division expeditiously prepare a summary in line with the above concerning the Atlantic City incident along with furnishing the important documents concerning this incident.

NOTE:

Referenced teletype alerted field to work of the Senate and House Select Committees and Bureau's handling of its requests. Also, it pointed out FBI has pledged full cooperation with Committees. San Francisco teletype 5/14/75 advised that on that day Lester B. Seidel, Investigator, Senate Select Committee, telephonically sought and was furnished identities of SACs in San Francisco in 1970. Seidel did not indicate specific nature of his inquiries. Considering the publicity being afforded the work of the Committee, it is not inconceivable some unauthorized persons may attempt to obtain information from the FBI particularly at field level, under guise of one of the Committees. It is therefore believed this teletype to all SACs is desirable as a cautionary measure.

LEGAL DIVISION

Attached teletype advises former Agent Richard H. Davis, Atlanta Office, had been contacted by Senate Select Committee (SSC) Staff Member (FNU) Epstein in an attempt by Epstein to arrange an interview concerning Bureau investigation of Martin Luther King. On the night of 6-4-75, Michael Epstein, Staff Member SSC advised SA Paul V. Daly that he had contacted former Agent Davis to arrange interview concerning Bureau investigation of Martin Luther King, Stanley David Levison, and Southern Leadership Christian Conference (SLCC). Epstein stated Davis refused to submit to interview since he was bound by an employment secrecy agreement and needed necessary clearance from Bureau. He told Epstein that he would not contact Bureau for such clearance. Epstein requested Bureau release Davis from the agreement for purposes of this interview which will be a staff interview in Atlanta.

Legal Division recommends Davis be released from security agreement for purposes of this interview and to answer questions concerning the King, Levison, and SLCC investigations. If approved, we will separately advise Davis through Atlanta Office of this decision, and give him pertinent briefing.

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

This memorandum reports the results of an executive meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group of Congressional Review for the Intelligence Community on 5-28-75. The meeting was chaired by William Colby, Director of Central Intelligence. Also present were: Philip Buchen, Counsel to the President, James Wilderotter, Associate Counsel to the President, Thomas K. Latimer, Special Assistant to the Secretary of Defense, John M. Clarke, Associate Deputy to the DCI for the Intelligence Community, William O'Connor, Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Department of Justice, Section Chief William O. Cregar, Inspector John B. Hotis, and senior officials of the State Department, National Security Agency, Office of Management and Budget, Defense Department, and the Treasury Department.

Hotis

The following matters of interest were discussed at the meeting:

House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities

Mr. Colby said he met earlier this week with Chairman Nedzi of the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, John L. Boos, Chief Counsel, and A. Searle Field, Committee Staff Director. He said they seemed interested in the relationship which had developed between the Senate Committee and CIA and asked where he thought the Senate inquiry was going. They also discussed procedures regarding access to documents and witnesses and requested they be furnished some basic materials concerning the CIA's authority to conduct intelligence investigations. They also requested that the Committee be provided with all the materials requested by the Senate Select Committee. Colby pointed out that the House Resolution (H-Res. 138) which established the Select Committee prohibits the disclosure of information outside the Committee without Committee approval. There is some question, however, whether this Resolution can supersede Rule 11 of the Rules of the House of Representatives which provides that members of the House shall have access to all Committee records. He said Congressman Robert N. Giaimo (D-Conn.) has indicated that he will not accept any limitations on access. Colby said he will appear in an open session before the Committee sometime in the next few weeks to discuss, in general terms, the agency's position on collection of intelligence information.

Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities

Mr. Wilderotter said that F. A. O. Schwarz, Counsel to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, has agreed to identify in advance specific allegations of abuse that will be reviewed by the Committee. Wilderotter said he will then appoint a task force or some other coordinating mechanism within the executive branch to examine each of these areas in depth. The purpose will be to develop an executive department brief on each subject which can be used to respond to Committee requests. He felt that this might enable the Administration to gain the initiative on these issues and perhaps limit the Committee's inquiries to the boundaries set forth in the Senate Resolution. He asked that the agencies make an effort to identify abuse subjects so that the White House can pull together all the information available on each topic. He said it is already clear that the Committee will examine such subjects as assassinations and the CIA's role in the internal affairs of Chile and the Dominican Republic.

Mr. E. H. Knoche, Assistant to the Director, Central Intelligence Agency, reported that Mr. Colby has made three appearances before the Senate Select Committee and on each occasion discussed assassination matters. Mr. Colby will meet with the Committee three times next week, and it is expected that he will be asked about the Phoenix program and the covert activities of the CIA including political, counterintelligence, and clandestine intelligence collection. The Committee will trace the agency's operations back to the 1947 directive in an effort to determine how they relate to policy objectives of the Government.

Mr. William G. Hyland, Director of Intelligence and Research, Department of State, said the Committee has requested position papers on the Department's activities in Laos and Chile and to explain of the Department's approach to covert action and whether it was a supplement or instrument of policy. Mr. Hyland raised the question of whether the agencies had any moral obligation to advise former employees that documents were now being made available to Congress. He felt that they should be given an opportunity to review these files prior to interview in order to refresh their memories. Mr. Wilderotter agreed and said that each agency should adopt a similar policy.

Mr. John M. Clarke, Associate Deputy to the DCI, asked whether anyone knew what John Elliff hoped to accomplish as Director of the Task Force on Domestic Intelligence. We pointed out that his earlier writings would indicate that he intends to draft an intelligence charter for the FBI, and perhaps the entire intelligence community. Elliff has made a comprehensive study over the past several years of the Bureau's internal security intelligence functions, including sources of the FBI's authority and the legal restrictions of its operations. This was the subject of a paper he submitted at the Princeton Conference in 1971, and he has since called for the establishment of legal standards for the Bureau's collection, retention, and dissemination of intelligence information.

Mr. Buchen then requested that the FBI draft a proposed intelligence charter for the Bureau. He felt that it would be helpful for the Administration to have a proposal available which it might use to counter any recommendations made by the Committee. At the end of the meeting Mr. Wilderotter asked that a second paper be prepared reviewing all of Mr. Elliff's articles on the subject of domestic intelligence with the view toward identifying those issues which seem to be of major importance.

With regard to Mr. Buchen's request, we feel that it would be inappropriate for the Bureau to draft an intelligence charter for the executive branch. It is the responsibility of the White House and other consumers of intelligence to define their needs and propose appropriate operating authority. We also question the utility of reviewing Professor Elliff's writings on the domestic intelligence functions. We feel a better course of action at this point is simply to ask Mr. Elliff to define the goals and objectives of his task force. He has always been very candid and forthright and we have no reason to think that he would be reluctant to discuss the matter with us. In addition, it is likely his views on the intelligence function differ from those expressed in his earlier articles, and it is best to get his current thinking on the problem. If this approach proves unsuccessful, we can then resort to a review of his written materials.

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

This records the results of contact with Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) concerning release to Senate Select Committee (SSC) of two documents pertaining to Appendix C, Paragraph 24 of the SSC request to the Department of 5/14/75, which requested "all memoranda and other materials reflecting conversations, contacts or communications between the FBI and the CIA on the subject of the establishment or creation of 'notional' Marxist-Leninist organizations withinthe United States."

No information has been developed indicating this Bureau conferred with CIA regarding the establishment or creation of a Bureau-sponsored "notional" Marxist-Leninist organization. Although the FBI did, in fact, direct several such organizations, no information has been developed indicating the FBI consulted with CIA regarding their establishment or creation.

In one instance, CIA advised in 2/70 it had established a notional organization with post office box addresses in Boston, Massachusetts and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This notional organization, to be known as the Union for the Revolution, had the objective of developing penetrations and/or sources in revolutionary Arab groups in the Middle East. It was CIA's intention to circulate propaganda from the post office boxes in anticipation of interesting Arab groups. Thereafter, it was CIA's plan to use its personnel under "suitable" cover to contact the Arab groups. (See memorandum dated 2/13/70, captioned "Union for the Revolution," 100-456409-2, copy attached.)

By letterhead memorandum dated 3/23/70, the FBI indicated information had been received indicating the Union for the Revolution had been in contact with a domestic Marxist-Leninist organization requesting literature. This memorandum set forth an analysis of a "Statement of the Union for the Revolution" indicating the document lacked credibility as a revolutionary document. On 6/6/75, Mr. Walter Elder, CIA, advised that CIA had no objection to the LHM dated 3/23/70, being furnished to the SSC. With regard to the memorandum from Mr. Papich to Mr. Brennan dated 2/13/70, Mr. Elder requested that the name of the CIA representative who furnished the information in the memorandum be deleted from line one of the memorandum prior to its being furnished to the SSC. Provided this is done, CIA has no objection to this memorandum being furnished to the SSC. He suggested that when the name is deleted, it be replaced with the phrase "A CIA officer."

ACTION:

To record CIA's clearance of the above-described documents.

At 4:55 p.m. on June 4, 1975, Daniel M. Armstrong, III, telephonically advised me that he has not as yet been contacted by the Senate Select Committee staff for interview but it was his intention to call Mark Gitenstein to discuss further his interview by the Committee. Mr. Armstrong inquired as to whether the Bureau has any objections to his discussing the two subject areas previously described by Mr. Gitenstein. Those areas were Armstrong's knowledge of the Bureau's Intelligence Division activities as a result of his employment in the FBI, and his knowledge of the possibility of the Bureau getting an Executive Order establishing the FBI's authority in security matters.

I advised Mr. Armstrong that to the extent that the interview would concern those two subjects, the Bureau would have no objection and he could consider his secrecy agreement waived, but only to that extent. Mr. Armstrong inquired as to whether there were any particular problems with information he furnished to me on May 28, 1975. I told him that the waiver of the agreement was conditioned on the one limitation that he would not furnish information that would identify informants, compromise current investigations, or on-going programs, or reveal other sensitive matters which should be reserved for the information of members of the Committee or the Chairman of the Committee.

I told Mr. Armstrong that the Bureau would have available during his interview, though not present at the interview, a representative who would provide him with counsel as to any problems concerning subjects he may be reluctant to discuss with the Committee representative. I explained that the FBI representative was not intended to inhibit any

SUBJECT: SECURITY SURVEYS - SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES - HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES - CAPITOL POLICE DEPARTMENT

Rememos Legal Counsel to Mr. Adams dated 4/9/75 and 4/25/75, concerning above-captioned matter, copies attached.

Liaison with Capitol Hill by the Office of Legal Counsel resulted in an arrangement whereby Laboratory representatives could meet with those members of the Capitol Police Force handling security surveys for the U. S. Congress. Laboratory personnel met with members of the Capitol Police Force on 5/6/75 and 5/8/75 at their headquarters, 331 First Street, NE, Washington, D. C. At the meeting on 5/6/75 an examination of their survey equipment revealed that it was adequate, however it did not meet the level of sophistication or quality available at the present state of the art. Further discussion revealed that the training received by members of the police force handling their responsibility was limited.

On 5/8/75 Laboratory Supervisors Wilbur G. Stevens and Joseph B. Parsons met with Chief James M. Powell and some of his staff members which included Deputy Chief Garner, Captain Brannon, Head of the Investigative Unit, and Lieutenant Bell, Head of the Bomb Disposal Unit. The discussion at this meeting centered around steps which could be taken to update their present security survey equipment as well as additional measures which could be put into practice to enhance their technical expertise in this area. Laboratory personnel furnished them with the names of manufacturers of additional survey equipment as well as suggestions as to the establishment of an in-house training program.

Memorandum W. E. Harward to Mr. Cochran
RE: SECURITY SURVEYS - SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES - HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES - CAPITOL POLICE DEPARTMENT

At the conclusion of this conference, Chief Powell expressed his sincere appreciation to the Bureau for the excellent help and guidance extended to him and his staff in this matter of mutual interest, and expressed the hope that he could call on us again in the event he or his staff needed to tap our resevoir of knowledge. The Chief was assured that we would be available if needed in this capacity.

It appears that the Capitol Police Force has been forced into the untenable position of handling this responsibility for the Congress, and as a result are attempting to establish some degree of self-reliance and outward credibility being completely inexperienced in this area of technical expertise. Because of this, it is felt that the Bureau should move cautiously in any continuing liaison with the Capitol Police concerning security survey matters.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that any continuing liaison with the Capitol Hill Police Force be handled by mature and experienced Special Agent Supervisors, who are completely familiar with security survey matters.

During various contacts with William Miller, Staff Director of the Senate Select Committee, and Congressman Lucien Nedzi (D-Mich.), Chairman of the House Select Committee, the question has come up regarding the need for a check of the private offices of individual Committee Members to ensure the absence of any electronic listening devices. The Committee personnel have been told that we consider this absolutely essential and they agreed.

In exploring this matter, it was determined that the Capitol Police Department recently has established a special unit to handle all types of security problems within the Capitol Hill complex, including checks for electronic listening devices. Personnel of this unit have received extensive training, some from CIA. The operations of the unit are controlled through the Sergeants at Arms of the House and Senate.

This matter has been discussed with Robert Hough, Deputy Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and with Kenneth Harding, Sergeant at Arms of the House. Hough advised that the special unit already has conducted complete security surveys of the new office space of the Senate Select Committee and certainly will perform any other checks of this type needed by the Committee or its individual Members. He said, in fact, that since they now have this capability they would oppose any outside agency coming on to the Hill to perform this function. Hough said he already has been in contact with Miller regarding the necessary security checks and stated he will let us know when the offices of the Senate Select Committee/Members have been checked. He said their rules require specific requests from the individual Members in writing.

This matter was discussed with Congressman Nedzi on 4-9-75, and he stated he would promptly contact Mr. Harding to work out the necessary arrangements for security checks needed by his Committee and its Members. Harding has promised to let us know when the checks of the House Select Committee Members have been completed.

All contacts concerning this matter have been handled by Inspector Bowers who will continue to follow this situation with Senate Sergeant at Arms, William H. Wannall, or his Deputy; House Sergeant at Arms Harding; Mr. Miller of the Senate Select Committee; and Congressman Nedzi.

ADDENDUM: INTELLIGENCE DIVISION WOC:ekw 4/14/75

On 4/11/75 the Executive Committee of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review for the Intelligence Community was apprised of the discussions with Mr. Robert Hough, the Deputy Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and with Mr. Kenneth Harding, Sergeant at Arms of the House. Although the Executive Committee would have preferred the FBI to conduct audio sweeps, they interposed no objection to the sweeps being handled by the Capitol Police Department. Mr. Roderick Hills, Counsel to the President, requested, however, that both Mr. Hough and Mr. Harding be requested to periodically advise the FBI as to the sweeps of Committee space for electronic listening devices. Specifically, Mr. Hough and Mr. Harding should be asked to furnish the FBI the following: How frequently they will conduct a counteraudio sweep, what offices will be swept, will the results of such sweeps be furnished the FBI, and will the FBI be immediately notified should the Capitol Police locate an electronic listening device?

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE
ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

Reference Legal Counsel to Mr. Adams memorandum of 4-9-75 to which the Intelligence Division placed an addendum dated 4-14-75 showing that Roderick Hills, Counsel to the President, had requested that the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and House of Representatives keep the Bureau advised regarding checks made for electronic listening devices in the offices of captioned Select Committees.

This was discussed on 4-23-75 by Inspector Bowers with Senate Sergeant at Arms William Wannall and his Deputy, Robert Hough. They were amenable to notifying us concerning the checks they make of Senate Select Committee space and the offices of the Members of this Committee. Hough was designated by Wannall to handle this matter. Hough advised that the special Capitol Police unit had made a check of Room S148 in the Capitol on that date (4-23-75) prior to a meeting of the Senate Select Committee in that room and found nothing. Hough stated they have received no requests whatever to make any checks of the offices of individual Committee Members. He said he had discussed this matter with William Miller, Staff Director of the Select Committee, and Miller indicated it would be taken up with the Committee but he has heard nothing further from him.

On 4-24-75 Bowers discussed this matter with Kenneth Harding, Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives. Harding stated he has had no requests for any checks of the Members' offices or

At the Executives Conference on May 22, 1975, I presented for discussion the question of the procedures to be followed when former employees or current employees of the Bureau are contacted for interview by staff representatives of the Senate Select Committee, or are called for testimony pursuant to a subpoena issued by the Committee. I explained the background including the numerous attempts to arrive at a working arrangement with the Committee in terms of stated guidelines and that all such efforts in the past had proven unworkable.

I pointed out that when presented with the proposal that an agency representative be present during interviews, the Committee met and voted unanimously to reject that proposal. The issue of whether the agency representative would be present during the interview therefore is a stumbling block to the development of a reasonable procedure to be followed by the Committee and by our present and former employees. I requested the authority of the Executives Conference and approval of the Director to waive the requirement that a Bureau representative be present during interviews and following a vote such approval was given.

I then requested authority to undertake the development of a working understanding with the Committee in behalf of the Bureau by which we would be given notice of the identities of persons to be interviewed prior to interview or testimony, that we would be advised of the subject matter of the interview or testimony, and afforded an opportunity to discuss with the witness those areas of the proposed interview or testimony which would require no special arrangements and those areas which would require the information possessed by the witness to be furnished to members of the Committee or to the Chairman exclusively.

We also wanted an opportunity prior to interview to furnish the witnesses information concerning their Constitutional rights, their rights pursuant to the Committee's rules, and to advise them concerning the extent to which they were released from obligations of secrecy made to the FBI, and to the procedures necessary to obtain authority of the Department to respond to a subpoena.

Following discussion and vote this matter also was approved.

Pursuant to such authority, I met with K. William O'Connor, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, from approximately 4:00 p.m. to 5:20 p.m. on May 22, 1975, accompanied by Inspector John B. Hotis. I explained to Mr. O'Connor that the Director was desirous of having the Committee understand that the FBI wanted to be cooperative to the extent that it was possible and consistent with the need to protect the identities of informants, sensitive sources of information and methods, on-going investigations and other current operations and personal privacy. Because of this view of the Director and the Bureau, we desired to make known to the Committee the fact that we would not insist on the presence of a Bureau representative during actual interviews or testimony of present or former employees, but we would want an understanding with the Committee and the Committee staff that the Bureau would be given prior notice of the identities of proposed witnesses, the subject matter of the proposed interview or testimony, and an opportunity prior to interview or testimony for the Bureau to consult with the employee in order to release him from his obligations of secrecy to the extent possible for purposes of the interview or testimony.

I restated our position that we were not endeavoring to deter testimony rather we were attempting to facilitate testimony under reasonable conditions and we felt that these matters should be discussed with the Committee. I told Mr. O'Connor that we were aware of the numerous discussions, proposals and conferences that have been held in an effort to establish specific formal guidelines with the Committee, but that all such efforts in behalf of the White House staff and the intelligence community at large have not been successful. I told him that therefore we felt it would be appropriate for the FBI to express our view to the Committee because interviews of FBI personnel and former employees have been conducted and are scheduled in the near future.

Mr. O'Connor said that he understood the Director's view that he desired to cooperate with the Committee and he felt that such cooperation could be negotiated if we were to offer the Committee as trading material COINTELPRO files. I told Mr. O'Connor that we were not going to negotiate an understanding concerning witness interview procedures on the basis of trading any of our files. He then suggested that we negotiate the May 14, 1975, letter which was addressed to the Attorney General by Senator Church and use that negotiation as a basis for trading with the Committee to develop workable guidelines. I again told Mr. O'Connor that I considered the question of procedural arrangements for witness interviews to be a very broad question and one that went far beyond the requests in the May 14, 1975, letter. I told him that I felt confident that the May 14, 1975, letter would be followed by perhaps an even longer letter with more requests and that such matters should be negotiated individually.

Mr. O'Connor then said that it was his strong view that a letter should be addressed to the Committee complaining of the treatment of FBI witnesses, particularly regarding violations of the Committee's own rules in that it appeared that during recent interviews the Committee had not furnished witness a copy of the rules in sufficient time and the treatment by staff representatives (& the Committee staff) of witnesses had been improper.

I told Mr. O'Connor that I thought that our efforts to develop a working relationship with the Committee could be seriously impaired at this time should a protest letter be sent to Senator Church because a formal communication of that nature would require some reaction on the part of the Committee and I could see no benefit to our present efforts to establish procedures by which we could reasonably cooperate with the Committee.

Mr. O'Connor then suggested that a letter might be addressed to Senator Church which described our concern that in the absence of reasonable procedures witnesses' rights might be impaired and that for that reason and for the reason that the Director desired to be cooperative with the Committee, we would request a meeting with Senator Church and Senator Tower to arrive at an understanding as to procedures. I told Mr. O'Connor that I would consider such a letter and he said he would discuss the matter with the Deputy Attorney General and with James Wilderotter at the White House.

At approximately 9:05 a.m. on May 23, 1975, Mr. O'Connor called me and said that he had discussed the matter with Mr. Wilderotter and the Deputy Attorney General. He said that both had agreed that it was inopportune at this time to seek special guidelines for interviews of FBI personnel and former personnel with the Committee. He said that a meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday, May 27, 1975, at noon in a final effort to resolve an understanding with Committee representatives. He said at the present time it is proposed that the meeting be attended by Wilderotter and Roderick Hills, representing the White House; Hoffman, representing the Defense Department; Warner, representing CIA; and O'Connor representing the Justice Department. Committee representatives would be Schwarz, Chief Counsel, and John Elliff. He said that at this time it was his thought that the Deputy Attorney General and I should not attend the meeting. He gave as his reasoning the thought that "should something go wrong" the Deputy Attorney General could disassociate himself from any agreement arrived at, and that I would similarly be in a position of saying that we have not been a party to the agreement.

I reminded Mr. O'Connor that meetings have been held frequently in the past and that tentative understandings made at such meetings have disappeared shortly after the meeting was concluded. I told him that was significant to us because we now understand that two more former employees of the FBI have been contacted and may be interviewed in the near future. I told him that former SA Sam Papich and former Agent Nichols have been contacted. I told him that the extent to which we should release these two former employees from their obligation of secrecy could not be intelligently evaluated unless we knew the subject matter of the interviews and that we plan to contact the Committee to inquire as to the subject matter. I pointed out to him that such pending interviews make it imperative for the FBI to consider action in addition to meetings that may be planned to discuss guidelines.

Mr. O'Connor asked that we not contact the Committee directly at this time, but that we allow him to call John Elliff and Schwarz to request that he be advised of the identity of all proposed FBI witnesses and of the subject matter of the proposed interviews, and that such interviews or testimony not go forward pending developments of an agreement on guidelines. O'Connor promised that he would make the contact promptly and advise me today of the results. I agreed to withhold our contact pending receipt of the information from him.

Mr. O'Connor then insisted that a letter be prepared for the Attorney General to send to Senator Church pointing out the failure of the Committee to afford complete protection of the rights of witnesses. I declined to undertake that responsibility and I told him the reason was that a formal document addressed to the Chairman of the Committee would tend to impair our efforts to negotiate with the Committee and certainly would be untimely in view of the conference he described as being scheduled for next Tuesday at noon.

Mr. O'Connor then said he would hate to have to tell the Deputy Attorney General that the FBI declined to prepare such a draft. I told him that not only would I not mind him telling the Deputy Attorney General, but I wished he would tell the Deputy Attorney General and explain my reason for not sending such a formal letter addressed to Senator Church at this time. Mr. O'Connor said that "well everyone else agrees to the letter," and I told him the FBI does not agree.

Mr. O'Connor said that if he was going to have to draft the letter for the Attorney General's signature, he would do it, but that he would need the information concerning the interviews of former SA Devlin and former SA Sentinella. I told Mr. O'Connor that the information concerning Sentinella was en route to him already and that we would endeavor to furnish him as promptly as possible any additional information available to us concerning these interviews.

At 11:13 a.m. on May 23, 1975, Mr. O'Connor called me and said that he had just concluded a conversation with John Elliff during which Elliff agreed that in regard to the scheduled interview of former SA Sam Papich on May 29, 1975, at 9:00 a.m., he would furnish us the substance of the questions to be asked Mr. Papich. He said that Elliff was agreeable to an informal arrangement under which the FBI would not require the presence of a Bureau representative at such interviews, but would expect to receive the identity of persons to be interviewed plus a statement as to the subject matter of the interview. Elliff then proceeded to identify as those persons scheduled for interview as William Turner, who will be interviewed today or this weekend by Mike Epstein at San Francisco, and "Chick" Brennan, who was interviewed yesterday, May 22, 1975, by Mark Gitenstein and who may be interviewed again today.

As to the interview of Sam Papich, Elliff said that the interview would concern:

1. A liaison agreement between the FBI and CIA;

2. The abolition of Papich's liaison responsibilities in 1970;

3. Dissatisfaction by the FBI with the Huston Plan;

4. The views in the White House regarding the intelligence community and the FBI with reference to a conversation Elliff had with Mr. Wannall and Mr. Cregar on May 22, 1975;

5. A detailed follow-up on the discussions with Mr. Wannall;.

6. A copy of the Huston Plan and certain minutes taken of meetings at which the Huston Plan was discussed. These minutes allegedly were made by William Cregar;

7. The matter raised with Paul Daly on May 22, 1975. (Mr. Daly recalled that Mr. Elliff discussed an incident concerning the CIA and the FBI which occurred at Denver, Colorado.)

Mr. O'Connor said that an interview proposed with former SA Nichols has been postponed indefinitely according to Elliff because of Nichols' unavailability.

Re: Senate Select Committee

Mr. O'Connor noted that even though formal current rules have not been agreed upon with the Committee, it appears that Elliff's cooperation in furnishing the above information indicates a willingness to abide by the terms and conditions that I had requested Mr. O'Connor to seek in behalf of the FBI.

In this developing cooperation with Elliff, it is my opinion that we should not participate in the conference at noon on Tuesday, May 27, 1975, at which time the broad proposals by Wilderotter will be discussed. It is to the interest of the FBI to develop a cooperative attitude on the part of Elliff and his staff and that is being accomplished.

SUBJECT: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

At 10:37 a.m. on May 28, 1975, former FBI employee Daniel M. (Mac) Armstrong, III, telephonically advised me that he has received information that the Senate Select Committee may contact him for purpose of interview. He requested my advice as to what his response should be. I told Mr. Armstrong that he should be aware of any secrecy agreements he may have signed while an employee of the FBI and he should be aware of the Attorney General Order 501-73. I told him the Director was interested in being as candid as possible with the Committee and that we would be willing to release him from his agreement to the extent it would be possible to do so consistent with the needs of on-going investigations and the sensitivity of the particular information. involved. I told him that should he receive a request for interview or subpoena, it would be appropriate for him to inquire as to the general areas of discussion proposed for the interview and to request the Director to release him from the secrecy agreement concerning those areas.

Mr. Armstrong said that if he was contacted, he would respond according to the advice furnished him.

RE: FILING SYSTEM

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 1-18-01 BY SP2ALM/RW

Reference is made to memorandum from captioned Committee dated April 30, 1975, and the appendices thereto, which contained requests for documents and other information from the FBI.

In connection with Part four, concerning the FBI's filing system and printed forms utilized by this Bureau, enclosed are copies of the following:

1. Undated nine-page memorandum captioned "FBI Indexing Procedures."

2. One copy each of 13 Tables of Contents concerning forms utilized by this Bureau.

Concerning the FBI's filing system and the Committee's requests for a so-called "Clerk's Manual;" and for a list of FBI classifications used in its filing system, it will be noted that the nine-page memorandum contains the list of classifications. With respect to the so-called "Clerk's Manual," the Files and Communications Division of the FBI maintains detailed instructions which are followed by its employees in classifying mail for indexing. It is not known whether such instructions are what is referred to by the Committee as the "Clerk's Manual." These instructions consist of nine volumes of material. Because of their bulkiness and because it is not clear whether this material would serve the Committee's purpose, it is not being furnished at this time. However, it will be available for review at FBI Headquarters by the Committee Staff.

FILING SYSTEM

The following will explain the Tables of Contents concerning FBI forms which are being furnished in lieu of the actual forms at this time. This procedure is being followed because the forms number nearly 2,000 and many will probably be of no interest to the Committee. If the Committee will review these Tables of Contents and advise which forms it desires to see, appropriate steps will then be taken to make them available to the Committee Staff. The Tables of Contents headed "FBI Form Book" lists all FBI FD (Field Division) forms which are in use throughout the field. The remaining Tables of Contents list those forms applicable to the work of specific FBI Divisions at Headquarters. For example, forms with the prefix "1" are used in Division One (Identification); those with prefix "2" are used in Division Two (Training); etc. There are no forms peculiar to Divisions 11 (Legal Counsel) and 13 (Office of Planning and Evaluation). Those forms with prefix "0" (omnibus) are for use by two or more Divisions at Headquarters.

1 - The Attorney General

NOTE:

Clearance for making these Tables of Contents available was obtained from the Training Division for the FD forms and from each Division for its applicable forms. The Files and Communications Division has cleared the paper "FBI Indexing Procedures."
